Auditor's Department.

Raleigh June 14th 1892.

Dear bro. Carr: I have been a witness in the United States Court room all the morning and have to leave this afternoon for Charlotte news which place I am engaged to deliver the Liberary address at the Whitesville High School, an engagement made by me nearly two months ago.
This will explain why I am not able to call and pay my respects to you as I should like very much to do. I shall hope to see you on your next visit to Raleigh.

With best wishes

Very sincerely yours,
G. W. Dandelin.
