

✂ We will have no third party votes this cry, in my opinion, on election day.

Newbern N.C.

June 27th, 1892,

Mr. Charles Carr,

Sparta, N.C.

My dear Sir: -

I send you by the mail, with this, the book, Disease of the Horse, as per promise in the train about a week ago - I also, mail some other matter in "Woman Suffrage" &c, which may interest you. Observing you were con-tem-plating visiting our Washington neighbors, "On the ever memorable 4th", I include a volume or two that may be of some interest.

not prove to be foreign to the body. it you will discuss & remind you of incidents in the past of Port Wentworth to the "Peemmen" of Deserfont County, the State of Santa Barbara & the United States of America - & Sydney, like all the others of us, just as you expected & desired was the Merchants Remembrance at Chicago - we also in the Vice - the other, & we say it was a Master's Stroke of Work in the Port of the many of our Republic to vote for & Remembrance of make and of the land, though, the callers friend & during his presence wasn't; and when he had been 18 weeks to Sydney, then would you listen back friends, in the other day? Enough of them might expect him, we should be able to see all expect you to prove in the coming century - such powers we do that be seen the, the land would be ought to appreciate & thank, if the friends, we will not be apt to forget - But if the land should receive, or so deep of the unknown future, there for being men - for the "Barren" which would be, would be in

