Merchants,

Fremont, N. C., Nov. 14 1892.

Gov. Elias Carr.

Old Sparta, N. C.

My Dear Sir:

I have waited until the shower of congratulations were over to write you mine. I can assure you there is no one more happy over the result than myself. It is a time for rejoicing, to think we are again to return to those good old Democratic times when Jefferson and Jackson dealt out pure democratic principles, and the foundation of those principles, was an equal distribution of the burdens of this Government. All we want is an equal. Showing with the rest of the world, rejoicing why I am happy. Cleveland was my choice for President and you recollect my appeal to you in the Warborough House to let us use your name as the only way out of our difficulty and to carry the State and save our principles. I thank you to day for yielding to our solicitations. For any other course would have caused such a revolt we could never have overcome. Let me again thank you for saving our State. May God ever bless you with much congratulations I am.

Your Friend
J. P. F. Aycock.
