

immediate predecessors, and the fact that you are your personal knowledge of, and, I hope friendship for, myself, be of some weight, have induced me to write this letter; and even though you may consider it officious and unnecessary, I hope you will believe that it has been sent with no bad motives.

Very truly yours,

François Duquesnoy