

[Elias Carr Jr. Old Sparta, N.C.]

W. K. CARR,

1008 F St., N. W.

Washington, D. C., ^{or} May 21 1899

Dear Elias:

Yours duly read. You were fortunate indeed to have escaped the storm you describe. I don't know what ails the weather in N. C. I certainly, as a boy, can not recall any such uproar of the elements. Yes you can put the ch. ^{in bank} ~~in~~ when you are ready. Tell father that E. has gotten $25⁰⁰ worth of etc, etc, I will pay for it. The center piece mother sent Maria recd. today, it is the handsomest one I ever saw, & if she did it, she has evidently not forgotten how to handle a needle. Love to all, Affly Bullon.