Dear Elias:

Yours duly recd. and noted. Had no idea you intended so soon to see the permits; in fact, thought that there was no sale for them till they were thoroughly cured - say along in Jan. or Feb., but the price, which seems satisfactory, most pleases me. Am surprised to hear of hail in Edgecombe at this season of the year, but possibly I ought not to be at any peak of the weather in eastern N.C. Hail falls in very cold or very hot spells, in Winter or Summer, but hail in the face of the year is something new to me, It must have been very warm, but of this you said nothing.

Did I or not tell you that J. A. Lambert had paralysis of the tongue, He has not been at his office for several months, & it is believed that he is permanently disabled.
Poor fellow! I feel truly sorry for him - so far as I know there is not a man in the world who would take it any harder.

Love to all.

Atty,

Butter,
