Reverent,

Washington, D. C., Jan 15 1990

Dear Elias:

The bond case did not come up on the day it was set for, so I got to the directors meeting of the R. Mt. Mills after all. Wanted the worst in the world to stop over & see you all, but Ferguson & Watkins were yelling themselves ^{hoarse} for money down in Norfolk & so I had to hurry on. So I left here Tuesday at 3:07 PM & got back Saturday morning at 7. A very disagreeable trip, as it rained nearly all the time, you said you expected something soon that would pay expenses, have you gotten it? I trust so, & also that you have heard from Nick or Herbert or some of your friends in New York, I am trying, & have every reason to believe I will make a little trade very soon, & if I do I shall send you a little check for pocket money, I have been making repeated enquiries here for an opening, but so far without success, however, I am not surprised, since W- has little to offer but a good position, & without great political influence it is almost impossible
