

[Elias Carr, Jr. Tarbox]
W. K. CARR,
1008 F ST., N. W.

about it, you will see from his ^{to} journal make what arrangements to P. G. keepers are making on ^{it} & how they have ^{all} down the prices at the stock.
Mother is still here.
We leave ~~to-morrow~~.
The weather & ^{now} rain me in lines & ^{now} hope that you will ^{be} ~~Washn~~ to

As perly.

B. M.

Dear Elias:

Yours duly recd. Am truly glad to hear that you are better, & as for the weakness I am not surprised at that - the weather is a wretched for every body, well or sick. It was 90° here yesterday with a regular Sept. humidity, & you can imagine how we all sweltered, caught as we were with our winter suits on, you I suppose had it even hotter, for I see the Bureau reported Raleigh with a temperature of 92°.
Am trying to send what I was forced to put in the American ice trust, but have my doubts