Dear Elias:

I sincerely trust that you are well enough on this "suspicious" day to go out & cast a ballot, but if you are not I suppose you will console yourself with the thought that your vote was not needed. I have been hoping for a line from you with information that you were over the worst or up & about.
The Democrats here are very enthusiastic, but I believe no man can tell any thing about it. It would not surprise me to hear of a land slide either way, Have you seen the following?

1796	Jno. Adams	defeated	Thos. Jefferson
1800	Thos. Jefferson	"	Jno. Adams
1824	Jno. Quincy Adams	"	Andrew Jackson
1828	Andrew Jackson	"	Jno. Quincy Adams
1858	Benj. Harrison	"	G. Cleveland
1892	G. Cleveland	"	Benj. Harrison
1896	Mc Kinley	"	W. J. Bryan
1900

but if I knew now what you will probably know ere this reaches you I could pile up a good bank account.

Am sheading my hair & portions of my teeth at a rate which, if continued for a week or two, will leave me both bald & toothless; otherwise am getting on very well. Mattie & Bruce join me in much love.

Att'ly,
Butter.
