young - age 20 yrs. She left two children: Tom Price and a daughter Mary, who married a Mr. Brownrigg. She is still living - a charming woman & I could hear from her indirectly. Aunt Winnie left eight (8) children. I never noticed before that great-grandmother Carr was four years ~~older~~ her husband's senior. Had you seen it?

What are you up to? I hope all is well with you. Peter

[TO: MR.
ELIAS CARR,
TARBORO, NORTH CAROLINA]

"Midway Plantation"
Raleigh, N. C.
Dec. 7th, 1900.

My dear cousin: -

At last I have copied the Carr Record which I enclosed in my letter. The ones all the dates for three generations back. Aunt Winnie Bason and aunt Lucilla Price moved to Ala., where their husbands made fortunes in cotton.
Uncle Tom Price made a cool million which was an immense sum for those times. Aunt Lucilla which case you might be better down. When are you coming to see me? We'll be delighted to have you any time. I was so distressed I could not go down with Bessie during Nov. as I had planned. But it was best as I have been real sick again. I am full of malaria.

I don't forget my photo. of g-g grandmother Johnson's grave. I'd appreciate it.

Now I have a favor to ask. Can't you tell me something of Col. Sugg, of Greenville N. C.? I think he is or has been, of the 'Famili' Law part of the line with a friend of mine in Tenn., and she wants to find out some thing about him, his family and surroundings. You know all about the different individuals and families in your section and thus I know it will go no further, so please tell me when you write. I have an idea he is of plain origin with such a name.
I must close as it is nearly time for the mail carrier. Mother joins me in love to you. Write soon Adele your cousin, Mary.
