

Monday Afternoon.

My Darling Wife,

To sum it up so to ant furms nice jugle so". I am glad of an excuse to remain as a few minutes to write you -

I have to acknowledge the receipt of Buttor's nice letter, together with your more highly appreciated. P.S.

Bill B. left yesterday (Sunday) I accompanied him as far as Red Wines where we spent the day. Spent a very pleasant day. While there Mr Battle and Capt Dancy passed up. had been here to spend the day with me. Very sorry I was not at home. Mr Battle informed me Solomon had left for Warrington on Friday last and expected to stay with you until Mrs M would give possession. Well, take good care of her and do not annoy each other about the "angelic" qualities of your respective husbands.

Am in hopes ere this our darling little boy has entirely regained his health.

Shall get over the cotton this ~~spring~~ all nearly to a stand. Just as much labor as I wish.

I shall not ask you to answer this, hoping you will be here as soon as an answer would.

With quantities of love and kisses for you all

I am your fond
Husband
