

I am rather enjoying the discomfiture of some of "our leaders" in the rebuffs they are getting at the "White House". There is but one Cleveland and I reckon it is well for our Country that we should now and then have a President of his individuality and independence.
If he will only move on lines which will give relief to our oppressed and impoverished agricultural people and hand over the Government to a Democratic successor I shall have no quarrel with him about whom he puts in office or whom he left out.

house hold.
