all such matters away from Mother.
I find the less she knows about my business affairs the better off she is -

Have written to Shiff King for settlement of Swain Place Taxes. You send statement of your ac for repairs, hauling Cotton to Landing &c together with a copy from the ledger of 1893's ac. - just the last settlement with Atkins as a guide to the one now about to be made -

I don't suppose you will have any trouble with The O'Brien at delivery of cotton on Grandy's Wharf.
