

U. S. SENATE,
Office of the Secretary,
WASHINGTON.

Dear Sir,

Let me first thank you for your courtesies and kindnesses to Mrs Wilson who appreciates very much and thanks for your efficient discharge of every duty that came to you in which you assumed, in the onerous work of supervising the Agricultural Exhibit at the World's Fair.

I am sorry that I did not know you were in Washington as I would have called on you. I have that pleasure yet for Boston this week. So far I have never left the office before dinner but once or twice I have thought I would leave when night comes, but I'm getting to know my legs by rote now and it will come easier and give me time for my friends.

I got the Key and all the receipts. As to your Salary due. The Board will discharge that in December. If there is any hitch about it. I will. Did you get the books for the little girls. They were in my left hand drawer & I wrote Mr Brunner I think to get them or to Mrs Wilson. I wish I could run down to N. H. for Thanksgiving but I will not be able to get away from here for a long while not until the long session is over. I hope to see you here sometime & as we will be keeping house we shall count part of you time.
Remember us kindly to your father & family and accept our sincere regards for yourself Yours sincerely
J. W. Wilson
