Dear Elias

I send enclosed a check for $5.48 a very small amount but it will help a little

I read Eli's letter last evening, and was so very sorry to learn that she had been sick with the grip and distressed that my dear little Eleanor was so lunell & grieving about Homer's being away.
Give Eleanor for me and tell her that I can feel for her more than almost any one else, and do not forget her. It doesn't pay, through. Some, I've no doubt is bright & happy.

Don't let my dear old aunt expose herself. She is not as young as she has been, remember, and please remind her, often, often. I haven't time to write more, and beg that you will excuse this hurry-written note.

Dear Alice is slowly improving. Aunt Fanny Boswell would send love to "Mr. Barr" & "Miss B.", did she know of my writing, as you are great favorites of hers.

Mr. Boswell desires to be very kindly remembered to you & all.

With much love to you. El. Pie & Eleanor. I am.

Sincerely as
Harry Somerville.
