

Journal Printing Company,

PROPRIETORS

+DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL.+

Journal Building—98 Chicago St.

Book and Job Printers.

Freeport, Ill. Feb. 2, 1894

Governor Elias Carr,

Raleigh, N.C.

Dear Governor:

I have your letter of the 29th ult. covering draft on New York for balance rent of Swain plantation for 1893, and I hand you the receipt of Hon. O. B. Bidwell, guardian of Susan A. Atkins (now Mrs. Loos) for the amount.

I note what you say regarding the low rents and little net proceeds for 1893, and also what you say regarding balance rents unpaid for 1892, and assure you the account and explanation are entirely satisfactory, and I am, as always, under great obligations for your kindness in giving it your attention.

I expected to come to Raleigh the last of this month, but some of my enthusiastic friends are urging me to make a canvass for the Republican nomination for State Treasurer, and if I do that, it will so occupy my

S. D. ATKINS, President.

J. R. COWLEY, Vice Pres.

D. B. BREED, Sec. and Treas.

Journal Printing Company,

PROPRIETORS

→DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL.←

Journal Building—98 Chicago St.

Book and Job Printers.

Freeport, Ill. 189

time that I will not be able to come South as I proposed.

I am Dear Sir,

Very Truly Yours,

Smith S. Atkins