

Concord, N. C., Feb 5th 1894

My Dear Sir;

When I was in your office about two weeks ago I had quite a conversation with your son on the silver question and he afterwards sent me a little pamphlet on the subject which he had written. Will you please convey to him my thanks for the courtesy and say to him that I read his argument with much satisfaction and instruction, and that, after all, I don't think that he and I are very far apart in our views on this great subject? I would write him myself but I do not know his initials.

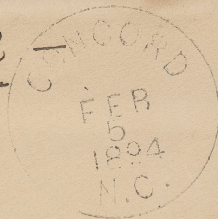

And now a word as to yourself in the strictest confidence. In the event that Senator Ransom is defeated in the next Legislature, there are some of us here who think that you would be his most proper and logical successor in the U. S. Senate. We can very easily arrange Cabarrus and Stanley for such a contingency. Is there any good reason why we should not do so?

I shall leave here about the 15th inst. for New York to be absent about a month.

Faithfully Yours
B. F. Rogers
