

Greenville, N.C., February 26 1893.4

My Dear Governor.

I was sorry I saw so little of you in ~~last~~ Sun. I did not go with you on the excursion to Jacksonville because there were many people on the ground I wanted to look to about the coming campaign. The Hotel was so much over run and good bed therein were so scarce I went out to feast and sleep with my friend Alex Meadows where I found a loble loaded with good things to eat and a good bed to sleep in but I went to the Hotel about eight o'clock to call on you and found that you had gone out. I wanted to compare notes with you and, among other things, to tell you how much surprised I was to find the ~~last~~ ^{new} people so much divided on Simmons. I candidly believe Vance could defeat him before the Democratic voter of his own Lower. I had supposed before I would share those they were all for him.

I inclose you a private letter received to-day from A.B. Williams which explains itself. Major Grey saw me at ~~last~~ ^{new} Lower and spoke to me about the same thing. I am as you know a friend to all schools and I am always glad to help them when I can. It is for this reason that I am willing to suggest that you consider the request of the school for arms. It has been the custom for the State to arm the School Cadet or at least it was when I was in office. If you could let this company have arms it might compensate for taking the arms away from the Fayetteville Troops. Of course I do not desire to be considered as meddling with the affairs of my friend Mr. Garrison.

I got up after Smith Saturday, he was in town, and I talked plainly to him and his attorney. He stated most emphatically that he called your attention to the fact that Webb's action required the building a long string of fences and that you told him to go ahead and that you would pay for it. He also made some equally strong statements about the tobacco barns. I told him plainly his statements were not true but he will I think swear to them in any kind of a trial we may have. This will necessitate your coming here if the matter is before the Criminal Court and the taking of your deposition if it is a civil suit. So to in the afternoon Smith offered me through his attorney $50- cash which I at once declined. I am of the opinion however, if he will pay $70- it will be well to accept it and get clear of him. I have informed him and his attorney that it must be settled in some way; and I request you to say if I shall accept anything less Than the whole amount and if so how much left. Of course I will get all I can in any event.

I beg that you will remember me
kindly to Mrs Ban and the dear little ones.

Sincerely your friend

Thos. J. Jarvis
