Washington, D. C., June 5 1894

Dear Father,

Yours duly read. Mrs Jarvis told Mattie that Gov. J was greatly pleased with the Silver Problem, & that he wished to have a talk with me, I have not yet seen him, but expect to in a few days.
I have had at least 50 people to speak to me within the last week about the "Silver Problem", Sorry now I did not take pains with it, but had no idea, that any save a few farmers & friends would ever see it.
Mr Bryan's criticisms are just in one sense of the word, I had no data later than 1885. He has availed himself of figures up to date, but I not only did not have them, but did not know where to get them, Hence the errors, or at least apparent errors, but then I did not claim that the book was up to date, I heard a gentleman say yesterday that a Prof. of a Va College (I not recall his name) told him that the Silver Problem was the clearest & best work (with the exception of a few minor errors) that he had ever read, Well it is one consolation, even if I do commit errors, that a good number believe I am on the right track & that there is originality in the way I have treated the subject. We will all be delighted to see you on; that goes without saying. Just going down to meet Mrs Switty.

hastily & affly
