5th E-ST. LOUIS & N.Y.

Spartanburg, S. C. July 14, 1894

Chas Carr Governor
State of North Carolina
Waxhite N. C.

Dear Sir,

You will please pardon a stranger for intruding upon your valuable time.

Will you kindly explain the unknown family name, and tell me if you can, whether you are connected with or descended from any part of the line. Also whether you can connect with Patrick Carr who in 1780 came from Georgia with Lt Clark and joined Col.
McNair in the various expeditions preliminary to the Battle of King Mountain.
My wife is a grand-daughter

THE NATIONAL BANK OF SPARTANBURG

505 E-ST. LOUIS & N.Y.

Spartanburg, S. C.

My dear Mr. Garrison with affectionate regards, and is anxious to find some trace to the American Revolution.

My daughter has found the "Narrative of the American Revolution," having been brought from my side, and my C. is ambitious to establish the claim from her own side.

The paper which I send is a copy of one prepared by William D. Carr of Petersburg Va. who has since died.

Answer if convenient - and oblige

Yours respectfully
 Geo. Coffield
