

1202 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington D.C. May 5, 1894

Dear Sir:—
It is proposed to hold a mass meeting of citizens in Convention Hall in this City to consider the following question:—

What, if anything, can Congress do to give work to the unemployed, to increase wages and the price of the products of labor and restore to our people confidence and prosperity? —————

Complete reports, showing those invited, those who accept, those who decline and of this meeting will be sent into every county in the United States and to the editors of about twenty thousand papers for the purpose of writing all of the people on the true course of our industrial depression and the remedy by for relief.

You are earnestly invited to take part in ~~the~~ discussion of this question and help unite all factions and lift the burdens from an oppressed people.

Yours very sincerely
John D. Will

To His Excellency

Elihu Cott

Governor of North Carolina
