Dear Sir,

I have just rec'd from Mrs. S. E. Twitty, of Surry Co. an application for the position of Lady Principal in "Willkimer Institute for young ladies," and write to ask your opinion of her suitability for such a position. I have some vague impression that she taught in your family, or that you are well acquainted with her.

What you may say will be strictly private & of course to me.

Very truly
Yours
F. G. Willkimer
