letter. I dont think Mr Munroe has ever expressed himself more definitely than I told you but he knows perfectly well who has been kicking him and I dont think he feels more kindly toward them on that account

I wanted write to Senator Jarvis but dont know his address

They decided to make no effort to secure a Primary Election.

On this question some of our friends thought different and as we had no speakers to advocate the resolution it was deemed advisable not to offer it

I would have written you before but ~~but~~ there has been some heavy kicking against the nomination of Munro, ostensibly because he was a Republican, eighteen years ago, but really, we think, because they were disappointed in his proclivities for Senator. The other side have been making a desperate move to have him taken down by the Committee and legally failed and for this reason I have deferred my

My Dear Governor

Recalling the conversation had with you on our return from Concord I feel sure it will be a matter of interest to you to hear something from our county convention not found in the paper. The convention was very harmonious and gave us, I think, an exceptionally fine ticket from Sheriff to Senator.
One or two county officers might have been different and better but on all accounts it is very good.
Candidates for the House, Messrs Edwards & Munroe, were the selection of our friends and they will do well satisfied.
