

POLK MILLER, (Virginia.)

Polk Miller's Dialect Recital,

An Evening of Story and Song on

"Old Times Down South,"

Delineating the Old Plantation Regro.

~~@@@@@~

Mr. Iborace f. Smith, sole Manager, Box 217, Richmond, Va. MAR^{*} 6⁻¹⁸⁹⁶

Mr. all Thompson Raleigh N.C. DEar Mr. Thompson I have advised Hon, M. L. John of Laurinhung and Mr. L.S. Coving ton Rockingham to write you for 23th (Rockingham) and 2xt (Launub then if you could change to the 26th and put in Fayetteril and put something in place of Chr Lenderson fixed the rou and ge Wire me of make changes or new dates as That allen on ted n all points have Except Hicko 1 d 120

A MOST UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT, BRISTLING WITH AMUSING ANECDOTES, QUAINT SKETCHES, PATHETIC ILLUSTRATIONS, AND OLD-TIME PLANTATION MELODIES (ACCOMPANIED BY THE BANJO) THE WHOLE COMBINING TO PRODUCE A MOST CHARMING AND DELIGHTFUL EVENING'S ENJOYMENT. THE ENTERTAINMENT IS IN NO SENSE A LECTURE, BUT IS "AN EVENING OF STORY AND SONG." IF YOU WOULD ENJOY A HEARTY LAUGH, MR. MILLER CAN FURNISH THE INCENTIVE.

Personal Commendations of Mr. Miller's Recital.

He

Cł

TI

H

H

Re

E

P

N

Jo

	NEW YORK, . N.Y.
nry Watterson, Ed. Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal, says:	BROOKLYN, . N. Y.
"Polk Miller, you have the best one-man show in America."	PHILADELPHIA, Pa.
auncey M. Depew, Esq., writes:	PITTSBURG, Pa.
"I take pleasure in certifying to the ability of Mr. Polk Miller and the	BALTIMORE, . Md.
excellence of his recitals."	WILMINGTON, . DEL.
omas Nelson Page, "Mars Chan" Etc.	WASHINGTON, . D. C.
"Polk Miller is a great success, for he knows the negro, can tell a negro story	RICHMOND, . Va.
and give the true negro dialect better than any man living."	NORFOLK, . Va.
oward Saxby, Cincinnati, Ohio.	LYNCHBURG, . Va.
"What I like in Polk Miller is, that though he is not my wife, I can stand his	RALEIGH, . N. C.
lectures twice."	WILMINGTON, . N. C.
m. C. U. McElroy, Bowling Green, Ky.	COLUMBIA, . S. C.
"What James Whitcomb Riley is to the Hoosier dialect, Polk Miller is to the Negro dialect; both perfect in their line."	CHARLESTON, . S. C.
ev. J. William Jones, Chaplain Univ. of Va.	ATLANTA, Ga.
"Polk Miller and his banjo reproduce the negro of the happy days before the	SAVANNAH, Ga.
war, and his entertainments give the highest pleasure and satisfaction to all	MONTGOMERY, Ala.
who hear him. I do not hesitate to say that it is inimitably done."	SELMA, Ala.
-Governor Fitzhugh Lee.	NASHVILLE, . Tenn.
"I know Polk Miller well. When he is sketching the 'foe de war' negro, if	LOUISVILLE, . Ky.
you did not know he was Polk Miller you would think he was a darkey of olden time, and if you did not know he was an old-time darkey you would	CHARLESTON, . W. Va.
think he was Polk Miller."	ST. LOUIS, . Mo.
of. J. U. Lloyd, Cincinnati, Ohio.	JACKSON, . Miss.
"Polk Miller is a wonder. I have heard him several times and could listen to	NEW ORLEANS, . La.
him every night of the year. He is never tiring, for he is always original	HOUSTON, . Tex.
and sparkling. He is undoubtedly the platform success of the nineteenth	CINCINNATI, . Ohio.
century."
1 /2 1	SOME OF OUR AUSPIC
ark Twain.	SOME OF OUR AUSPIC
Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden	UNIVERSITY CLUB,
Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only com-	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City.
Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only com- mend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. Southern Society,
Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only com- mend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard."	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City.
Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only com- mend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc.	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. Southern Society,
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. Southern Society, N. Y. City. Aldine Club, N. Y. City.
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. Southern Society, N. Y. City. Aldine Club, N. Y. City. Teachers' Assemblies,
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a line ' nigger ' hidden somewhere 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. Southern Society, N. Y. City. Aldine Club, N. Y. City. Teachers' Assemblies,
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia,
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live ' nigger ' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City.
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live ' nigger ' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City.
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live ' nigger ' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an absolute pleasure First, his 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City.
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live ' nigger ' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an absolute pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del.
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live ' nigger' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an obselate pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del.
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a line ' nigger ' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an absolute pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor." 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del. HAMILTON CLUB, Brooklyn, N. Y. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA,
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live ' nigger ' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an absolute pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor." CHAS, T. O'FERRALL. 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del. HAMILTON CLUB, Brooklyn, N. Y. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Charlottesville, Va.
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live ' nigger ' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an choolate pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor." CHAS, T. O'FERRALL. 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del. HAMILTON CLUB, Brooklyn, N. Y. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Charlottesville, Va. TRINITY COLLEGE COURSE,
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a line ' nigger' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an chosolute pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor." CHAS. T. O'FERRALL. "Polk Miller does not advertise goods he cannot deliver. He says he will describe and illustrate the Old Virginia Plantation Negro, and I am free to 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del. HAMILTON CLUB, Brooklyn, N. Y. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Charlottesville, Va. TRINITY COLLEGE COURSE, Durham, N. C.
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a line ' nigger ' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an absolute pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor." CHAS. T. O'FERRALL. ill Nye says: " Polk Miller does not advertise goods he cannot deliver. He says he will describe and illustrate the Old Virginia Plantation Negro, and I am free to say that he does it. After hearing the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del. HAMILTON CLUB, Brooklyn, N. Y. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Charlottesville, Va. TRINITY COLLEGE COURSE, Durham, N. C. CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLIES,
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live ' nigger ' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an absolute pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor." " Polk Miller does not advertise goods he cannot deliver. He says he will describe and illustrate the Old Virginia Plantation Negro, and I am free to say that he does it. After hearing the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro dialect given by a Canadian	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del. HAMILTON CLUB, Brooklyn, N. Y. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Charlottesville, Va. TRINITY COLLEGE COURSE, Durham, N. C. CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLIES, New York, Pennsylvan
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a line ' nigger ' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an absolute pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor." CHAS. T. O'FERRALL. ill Nye says: " Polk Miller does not advertise goods he cannot deliver. He says he will describe and illustrate the Old Virginia Plantation Negro, and I am free to say that he does it. After hearing the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del. HAMILTON CLUB, Brooklyn, N. Y. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Charlottesville, Va. TRINITY COLLEGE COURSE, Durham, N. C. CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLIES, New York, Pennsylvan Maryland,
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live ' nigger' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an obselate pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor." CHAS. T. O'FERRALL. ill Nye says: " Polk Miller does not advertise goods he cannot deliver. He says he will describe and illustrate the Old Virginia Plantation Negro, and I am free to say that he does it. After hearing the negro given in Cork and Cockney at St. James Hall, London, I am glad to hear Mr. Miller correct this misconception with the real thing. 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del. HAMILTON CLUB, Brooklyn, N. Y. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Charlottesville, Va. TRINITY COLLEGE COURSE, Durham, N. C. CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLIES, New York, Pennsylvan Maryland, Kentucky, Tenness
 Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said : "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard." el Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc. " Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live ' nigger' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string." he Governor of Virginia says: Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an absolute pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor." CHAS, T. O'FERRALL. ill Nye says: " Polk Miller does not advertise goods he cannot deliver. He says he will describe and illustrate the Old Virginia Plantation Negro, and I am free to say that he does it. After hearing the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro given in Cork and Cockney at St. James Hall, London, I am glad to hear Mr. Miller correct this misconception with the real thing. 	UNIVERSITY CLUB, N. Y. City. SOUTHERN SOCIETY, N. Y. City. ALDINE CLUB, N. Y. City. TEACHERS' ASSEMBLIES, Virginia, North Carolina. ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY, N. Y. City. NEW CENTURY CLUB, Wilmington, Del. HAMILTON CLUB, Brooklyn, N. Y. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Charlottesville, Va. TRINITY COLLEGE COURSE, Durham, N. C. CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLIES, New York, Pennsylvan Maryland, Kentucky, Tennesse native State of Virginia, whose people always welcome him, not only as a citizen of the best Southern type, but as the best living delineator of the old-time negro character. His 'recitals' are entertaining in the highest degree, and no one will regret hearing him. Mr. Miller is a successful business man of the highest esteem and confidence."

in Richmond, as well as a genius in his line. In all respects he is worthy DAVIDSON COLLEGE, W. D. BLOXHAM.

Repotorial Remarks.

Richmond (Va.) Times. " The new genius of the South." Charleston (S. C.) Sun. "As an artist in his line he has no equal." Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution. " Mr. Miller knows the negro." Nashville (Tenn.) American. " Mr. Miller is a genius as an entertainer." Charleston (W. Va.) Evening Mail. " Mr. Miller has no equal as a negro dialect delineator. Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser. "His entertainment is entirely out of the usual run." Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle. "Polk Miller is all that he is said to be." Washington (D. C.) Post. "Polk Miller kept his audience in a con-stant exercise of its risibles." New York Tribune. " Polk Miller kept his audience convulsed with laughter for a full hour.' Cincinnati (0.) Commercial Gazette. "It was a well-pleased audience that left the Auditorium at ro:30 last night." Richmond (Va.) Dispatch. "A better delineator of the true negro dia-F OUR AUSPICES. lect and character than this charming Virginia gentleman never graced the stage.' Houston (Tex.) Post. Mr. Miller doesn't lecture, he just talks, plays the banjo to perfection, and sings Negro songs in a way that beats a negro himself." Wilmington (N. C.) Star. "A Virginia gentleman of the old school, a versatile writer, and last night proved him without a doubt a success in his chosen avocation." Bowling Green (Ky.) Park City Times. "His entertainment was entirely new here. * * The audience was convulsed with * * * The audience was convulsed with laughter at the ludicrous situations pictured. Louisville (Ky.) Courier Journal. "The best commentary that can be made on his novel entertainment is to say that nobody should neglect to attend his recital this afternoon. New Orleans (La.) Times-Democrat. "The listener found it only necessary to close his eyes and imagine that he was enjoy-ing the peculiar prattle of an old-time darkey. Pennsylvania,

Prominent Points Visited.

N. Y.

AMERICAN PHARMACEUTICAL

Davidson, N. C.

Asheville, N. C., '94.

ASSOCIATION,

Tennessee,

Wilmington (Del.) Morning News. "Mr. Miller's imitations of the old-time darkey are inimitable, and it is useless to undertake to describe it. His work on the banjo aud plantation melodies were highly enjoyed."

Selma (Ala.) Journal.

"The gentleman had scarcely spoken ten minutes before his audience felt as if they were seated around the hearthstone of their own home, and that the speaker was one of their own home circle

New York World.

"The St. Nicholas Society last evening cele-brated the Dutch Eastertide festival, the Paas, with a dinner at the Waldorf The President, Chauncey M. Depew, presiding, * * Folk Miller, of Richmond, enter-tained the Society with a recital on "The Old Virginia Plantation Negro.'

Brooklyn (N. Y.) Life.

" Mr. Miller appeared on Thursday even-ing at the Hamilton Club, under the auspices of the Art and Literature Committee, and the members were charmed both by his personality and wit.

Baltimore (Md.) Sun.

"Mr. Miller is an excellent mimic, and his dialect stories of negro life in Virginia before the war were enjoyed by a large audience. Besides his stories, Mr. Miller sang a number of plantation melodies to his own accompaniment on a banjo.'

Philadelphia (Pa.) Ledger.

"Polk Miller. of Virginia, an entertainer who has a happy, colloquial way with him that proves none the less effective because it is so unassuming, put himself thoroughly en rapport with the goodly audience at the New Century drawing room last evening. He gave a 'dialect recital,' which proved an agree-able departure from the ordinary run of platform performances.'

New Orleans (La.) Daily Picayune.

"Mr. Polk Miller, of Virginia, was the show at Odd Fellows' Hall last night. His lecture, or concert, whichever his hearers may choose to call it, is one of the most unique of all that have ever been heard in this city. * * * The people seemed un-willing bet Mr. Willow to all the second willing to let Mr. Miller stop.

St. Louis (Mo.) Republic.

"The evening of story and song for the benefit of the Methodist Orphans' Home, given at the Germania Theatre last night, was one of the greatest-it might be said with truth-'howling successes 'St. Louis has had for a long time, if the shouts of laughter that greeted Mr. Polk Miller's inimitable Negro imitations were any criterion."

CHAUTAUQUA NOTES.

New York Chautauqua.

"An immense audience filled the Amphi-theatre with shouts of laughter at Polk Mil-ler's pictures of negro life and manners in the old times before the war last night. Mr. Miller's songs and imitations of typical negro characters were evidently true tolife. Mr. Miller's stories were entertaining, and seemed to amuse the people greatly."

Alabama Chautauqua.

" Mr. Miller is one of the finest men in his line known to the South. He can fairly make a banjo talk, and as for imitating the Negro of olden time, he cannot be surpassed it is needless to say he will have a packed house to-night.

Kentucky Chautauqua.

"Mr. Polk Miller delighted the audience with plantation stories, dialect recitations, and Negro songs. His banjo playing was a rare treat, and the great audience went wild with enthusiasm. Nobody ever saw a more delighted crowd than the smiling one of last outputs. evening. It elicited much applause when Dr. Davidson announced that Mr. Miller would appear again to-day."

Wilnington Hewkenn I think had better be dropped and Rockingham + Lannuburg put in their place. I am surprised that Wilnington should have been tandy -Cach manager has been supplied Enclosed - This will keep us all advised. M. meler will draw on the Treasurer for current expenses and settlement be made in Jule at termination of town. The Miller is in Dunham Drightand promised me he would Spend saturday & Aunday in Raligh. I trust you will awange & utilize his time so that his presence in Ralies men prove beneficial & his first appearance on this tour Your The H. S. fnith,