

A. H. SLOCOMB,
COTTON AND NAVAL STORES.

DISTILLERIES

at Bowmore, - - N. C.

Fayetteville, - - " Benson, - - " Kenly, - - " Hubert, - - " Edonia, - - " Turlington, - - "
Dotham, - - Ala.

Fayetteville, N. C., March 16, 1896

Mr. Thompson.

Dear Sir,

Since writing you early this morning, I hear that Mrs A. W. Ray will not be in Fayetteville after this week. & I suggest that you ask Miss May Broadfoot to take charge of Mrs Polk Miller. I heard her say that she ~~would~~ was very well acquainted with Mrs Miller, & was a very great admirer of his.
I hope that you will find no trouble in getting some one to take charge of the lecture. I only suggest Miss May Broadfoot because she ^{will} do the work well.

Very Respectfully,
A. H. Slocumb