ELIAS CARR & SON,

OLD SPARTA, N. C.,

Mar 24 1896

Dear Father,
In the enclosed letter I went to Norfolk Sunday returned yesterday. We called off the original trade and sold the lot to another buyer at 2^{75} no rejection The offer in the ^{wa}closed letter would be about 2^{48}

There is still 317[#] Cotton due on swain. Please rent the cotton was delivered to C. C. Vines, and Hearn has promised but has never attended to the collection. I saw Vines today and he promises

To send us a
for the ant tomorrow.

Calce Snowing Hailing
and sleet. we are now at work killing
our lost hogs.

With love to all
Yours affectionately
Eliot
