Dear Gen. Carr;

Your letter was received this A. M. You wanted to know if I wanted a settlement. Well I prefer not having me now if you can arrange it so I can get the money to pay up my debts. I think it will be better if you will keep it if there is any possible way to get the money with-out me just now. Even if I could get you to loan me the amount if it will be satisfactory with you to do so. Of course you know how my affairs

stand and the prob-
ability of paying it back.
And what you think of doing so. I much rather wait a while before having a settlement if you can get the money without
me. I trust it will be satisfactory with you to do so. I will be very glad to hear from
you at once in regard to the matter.
