January 11, 1897.

Hon. Elias Carr, Governor
Raleigh.

My Dear Sir,

Your letter was received by me Saturday - night. I trust it is needless for me to say that I am sincerely grateful to you for the suggestion therein, and for the high compliment tendered me.

The health of Judge McGuer has improved, and we have no intimation of his intention to resign his office. In fact he has no expectation of doing so. The indications are that he will be able to perform the duties of his office for the next two years. Under these circumstances, of course we would feel great hesitancy in approaching him on the subject to which you refer. I can only hope that his service in the future may be perfectly efficient and satisfactory in all respects.

Thanking you again & assuring you of my highest respect, and wishing for your continued success in all things, I am, Yours very truly
W. J. Adams.
