

ETO: Elias Carr. Old Sparta, N.C.]

66 Pine St

New York Feb 21. 1898

My dear Mr Carr

Your favor of 17th at hand this (Sunday) Morn^g Covering check $180 for interest on notes w^ot duty, some will be Endured on notes, no need of any allusion to the few days delay -

The parcel of Sausage came Saturday just as I was about leaving for home, quite a treat, I appreciate Anne's request, and your cheerful compliance, thanks - glad to hear Anne is such a general favorite, and of her success on the Violin - Hope she & Ed may long cheer your home -

Cotton drops, Over production, more than the world wants, causes low values - it however seems wanted at the value in Europe, Exports are large, Hope the coming crop may be depend, and present stock largely used up, so we can see the South Prosperous - Bro Robert has been ill but now out & about as well as usual, tho 40^{lb} less in weight

Laura & I well, our residence is 33 West 87th Street where when you visit the city we will be much pleased to have you camp any, Hope your & all are well

Your friend
J. J. Price