

Bank of Granville,

Oxford, N. C., Jan 15th, 1895

Hon. Elias Carr

Gov North Carolina

My Dear Sir

Since I saw you I have seen Mr. F. Kinsett & told him that you had decided to reappoint him director of the Oxford Orphan Asylum he seemed to appreciate when I told him the high estimation you placed upon him & said he would try and make it convenient to call and see you some time in the near future.

I have also been trying to think of the proper

Bank of Granville,

Oxford, N. C., _____, 189__ man to recommend to you to act as one of the commissioners to be appointed by you to establish the line between Virginia & North Carolina and I can't think of any man who would be better fitted for the position than Mr. B. F. Hester of Granville Co. he is an educated man and is regarded as a first class business man also. I don't know of a man of whom the general public would regard as better fitted for the position Truly & faithfully yrs J. M. Currin