

OFFICE OF
C. W. GRANDY & SONS,
COTTON FACTORS

1/2 Norfolk, Va. Jan 25 1895-

Gov: Elias Carr.
Raleigh, N.C.

Dear Sir: - Yours of 24th inst to hand, advising shipment of 43 B/c - & we note your instructions, which shall have our faithful attention. -

Draft for $325⁰⁰ will be paid on presen-tation. You say that after cotton is disposed of, any balance due us on acc, will be arranged satisfactorily, and in accordance with our proposition of the 21st inst. -

Permit us to say, dear Sir, that we understood that to be your proposition to liquidate present indebtedness, and in ours of 21st inst. We accepted it, because we thought that is what you wanted us to do. - In order to make ourselves clearly understood, we write to say that we do not require or desire that you, or your firm, to liquidate present indebtedness. - but that you can omit yourself about that, - and while we are writing, we will say that no note need be given for the am^t of advances or loan desired. - unless you prefer to give note. - yours very truly. C. W. Grandy & Sons
