

RALEIGH, N. C., April 1, 1895.

DEAR SIR:

The death of Maj. J. B. Neathery, last August, worked a dissolution of the firm of ALFRED WILLIAMS & CO., and necessitated the winding up of its affairs. We have succeeded to the business for that purpose, and it is necessary that all amounts due the firm be collected AT ONCE, that we may close our trust as early as possible.

Your account amounts to $ 50<sup>00</sup> -----, which we ask your immediate attention.

All checks, &c., should be made payable to our order.
