My Dear Little Friend:

I beg leave to exchange cards with you, and to express the sincere pleasure it gives me to learn of your advent to this mundane sphere. I trust that your wish may be prolonged to the allotted time at least, and that eventually you may become a successful teacher and benefactor to the great mass of need and strange beings with whom you have decided to cast your lot. Should you wish to enter the field of folit is later on, (and I am living) just advise me and I will aid you in securing the position which I now have the honor to fill

Very Sincerely Yours
Elias Carr
