W. J. YOUNG, Principal.

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 13, 1896

His Excellency, Elias Carr,
Governor of North Carolina,
Dear Sir:—

A few days ago I received a letter from you and copies of the Helen Keller letters.

I greatly appreciate the interest you take in my work and the kind wishes you expressed. Please accept my thanks for the copies of the letters you sent. The accomplishment of Helen Keller seems marvelous under the circumstances.

Very respectfully,
Ella C. Pequee.
