

POLK MILLER, (Virginia.)

Polk Miller's Dialect Recital,

An Evening of Story and Song on

"Old Times Down South,"

Delineating the Old Plantation Negro.

Mr. Horace F. Smith, Sole Manager,

Box 217, Richmond, Va. Feb 20th '96.

Gov. Elias Carr,
Raleigh, N.C.

Dear Sir:

I desire to curtail expense of printing as much as possible on Polk Miller's tour and if I can get out all circulars & posters for the entire trip in a single batch a great saving may be made. In order to do that, however, it is necessary that I be supplied with following information -

Have this on separate piece of paper, with room for answer and send to local management or committee to be returned to you or myself.

- 1st - Town and Date (I have this now)
- 2nd - Name of Hall or Opera House
- 3rd - Name of party (Lady or Gentleman) who is attending
{to details of advertising locally, &c.
- 4th - Name of store or place where Reserved seats
{will be sold
- 5th - Names of Gentlemen & Ladies who will act as
"Patrons" in each town, if this idea is carried out - It is a splendid thing -
- 6th - Prices of Admission, Reserved seats &c.
This item will doubtless vary in the large & small towns.

Personal Commendations of Mr. Miller's Recital.

Henry Watterson, Ed. Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal, says:

"Polk Miller, you have the best one-man show in America."

Chauncey M. Depew, Esq., writes:

"I take pleasure in certifying to the ability of Mr. Polk Miller and the excellence of his recitals."

Thomas Nelson Page, "Mars Chan" Etc.

"Polk Miller is a great success, for he knows the negro, can tell a negro story and give the true negro dialect better than any man living."

Howard Saxby, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"What I like in Polk Miller is, that though he is not my wife, I can stand his lectures twice."

Hon. C. U. McElroy, Bowling Green, Ky.

"What James Whitcomb Riley is to the Hoosier dialect, Polk Miller is to the Negro dialect; both perfect in their line."

Rev. J. William Jones, Chaplain Univ. of Va.

"Polk Miller and his banjo reproduce the negro of the happy days before the war, and his entertainments give the highest pleasure and satisfaction to all who hear him. I do not hesitate to say that it is inimitably done."

Ex-Governor Fitzhugh Lee.

"I know Polk Miller well. When he is sketching the 'foe de war' negro, if you did not know he was Polk Miller you would think he was a darkey of olden time, and if you did not know he was an old-time darkey you would think he was Polk Miller."

Prof. J. U. Lloyd, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"Polk Miller is a wonder. I have heard him several times and could listen to him every night of the year. He is never tiring, for he is always original and sparkling. He is undoubtedly the platform success of the nineteenth century."

Mark Twain.

Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said: "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard."

Joel Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc.

"Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live 'nigger' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string."

The Governor of Virginia says:

Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an absolute pleasure. First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor."

CHAS. T. O'FERRALL.

Bill Nye says:

"Polk Miller does not advertise goods he cannot deliver. He says he will describe and illustrate the Old Virginia Plantation Negro, and I am free to say that he does it. After hearing the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro given in Cork and Cockney at St. James Hall, London, I am glad to hear Mr. Miller correct this misconception with the real thing."

The Governor of Florida says:

"It affords me pleasure to commend Mr. Miller, of Richmond, Virginia, as a refined and cultured gentleman. His name is a household word in his native State of Virginia, whose people always welcome him, not only as a citizen of the best Southern type, but as the best living delineator of the old-time negro character. His 'recitals' are entertaining in the highest degree, and no one will regret hearing him. Mr. Miller is a successful business man in Richmond, as well as a genius in his line. In all respects he is worthy of the highest esteem and confidence."

Repotorial Remarks.

Richmond (Va.) Times.

"The new genius of the South"

Charleston (S. C.) Sun.

"As an artist in his line he has no equal."

Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution.

"Mr. Miller knows the negro."

Nashville (Tenn.) American.

"Mr. Miller is a genius as an entertainer."

Charleston (W. Va.) Evening Mail.

"Mr. Miller has no equal as a negro dialect delineator."

Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser.

"His entertainment is entirely out of the usual run."

Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

"Polk Miller is all that he is said to be."

Washington (D. C.) Post.

"Polk Miller kept his audience in a constant exercise of its risibles."

New York Tribune.

"Polk Miller kept his audience convulsed with laughter for a full hour."

Cincinnati (O.) Commercial Gazette.

"It was a well-pleased audience that left the Auditorium at 10:30 last night."

Richmond (Va.) Dispatch.

"A better delineator of the true negro dialect and character than this charming Virginia gentleman never graced the stage."

Houston (Tex.) Post.

Mr. Miller doesn't lecture, he just talks, plays the banjo to perfection, and sings Negro songs in a way that beats a negro himself."

Wilmington (N. C.) Star.

"A Virginia gentleman of the old school, a versatile writer, and last night proved him without a doubt a success in his chosen avocation."

Bowling Green (Ky.) Park City Times.

"His entertainment was entirely new here. * * * The audience was convulsed with laughter at the ludicrous situations pictured."

Louisville (Ky.) Courier Journal.

"The best commentary that can be made on his novel entertainment is to say that nobody should neglect to attend his recital this afternoon."

New Orleans (La.) Times-Democrat.

"The listener found it only necessary to close his eyes and imagine that he was enjoying the peculiar prattle of an old-time darkey."

Wilmington (Del.) Morning News.

"Mr. Miller's imitations of the old-time darkey are inimitable, and it is useless to undertake to describe it. His work on the banjo and plantation melodies were highly enjoyed."

Selma (Ala.) Journal.

"The gentleman had scarcely spoken ten minutes before his audience felt as if they were seated around the hearthstone of their own home, and that the speaker was one of their own home circle."

New York World.

"The St. Nicholas Society last evening celebrated the Dutch Eastertide festival, the Paas, with a dinner at the Waldorf. The President, Chauncey M. Depew, presiding, * * * Polk Miller, of Richmond, entertained the Society with a recital on "The Old Virginia Plantation Negro."

Brooklyn (N. Y.) Life.

"Mr. Miller appeared on Thursday evening at the Hamilton Club, under the auspices of the Art and Literature Committee, and the members were charmed both by his personality and wit."

Baltimore (Md.) Sun.

"Mr. Miller is an excellent mimic, and his dialect stories of negro life in Virginia before the war were enjoyed by a large audience. Besides his stories, Mr. Miller sang a number of plantation melodies to his own accompaniment on a banjo."

Philadelphia (Pa.) Ledger.

"Polk Miller, of Virginia, an entertainer who has a happy, colloquial way with him that proves none the less effective because it is so unassuming, put himself thoroughly en rapport with the goodly audience at the New Century drawing room last evening. He gave a 'dialect recital,' which proved an agreeable departure from the ordinary run of platform performances."

New Orleans (La.) Daily Picayune.

"Mr. Polk Miller, of Virginia, was the show at Odd Fellows' Hall last night. His lecture, or concert, whichever his hearers may choose to call it, is one of the most unique of all that have ever been heard in this city. * * * The people seemed unwilling to let Mr. Miller stop."

St. Louis (Mo.) Republic.

"The evening of story and song for the benefit of the Methodist Orphans' Home, given at the Germania Theatre last night, was one of the greatest—it might be said with truth—'howling successes.' St. Louis has had for a long time, if the shouts of laughter that greeted Mr. Polk Miller's inimitable Negro imitations were any criterion."

CHAUTAUQUA NOTES.

New York Chautauqua.

"An immense audience filled the Amphitheatre with shouts of laughter at Polk Miller's pictures of negro life and manners in the old times before the war last night. Mr. Miller's songs and imitations of typical negro characters were evidently true to life. Mr. Miller's stories were entertaining, and seemed to amuse the people greatly."

Alabama Chautauqua.

"Mr. Miller is one of the finest men in his line known to the South. He can fairly make a banjo talk, and as for imitating the Negro of olden time, he cannot be surpassed. It is needless to say he will have a packed house to-night."

Kentucky Chautauqua.

"Mr. Polk Miller delighted the audience with plantation stories, dialect recitations, and Negro songs. His banjo playing was a rare treat, and the great audience went wild with enthusiasm. Nobody ever saw a more delighted crowd than the smiling one of last evening. It elicited much applause when Dr. Davidson announced that Mr. Miller would appear again to-day."

If I am furnished with above information matters will be greatly simplified and will also be systematised -

What do you think of making item # 6 a uniform price - say 50¢ general admission with privilege of Reserving seat free of extra cost - x About getting above information - would it not be well to decide on the Lady or Gentleman in each town who is to be Chairman of the Committee in charge of arrangements and prepare a letter including above list of questions on a separate piece of paper with room after each question for answer - Urge immediate action and have replies sent to me direct, or to you and thence to me. I will then be put in direct communication with the towns on the route and can work to advantage -

I sent Col. Old a lot of press notices about Miller and will keep him fully supplied along that line but the important part of it all is to have thorough local preparation ahead of time of appearance. I stand ready, willing and anxious to take my share of the responsibility and work but can practically do nothing until I get directly in touch with some interested party in each of the towns along the route -

I will arrange for Mr. Miller to spend March 7th, 8th & 9th in Raleigh and would suggest that some kind of social function be arranged for the evening of Sat. 7th. This, to take any form which in your judgement would be most pleasant and, I must say, profitable. An enthusiastic and successful appearance in Raleigh on the 9th will be a great incentive all along the line -

Col. Old would send "specials" to all points, and where the papers are weekly he would write, and then Raleigh leading off with a $300 or $400 house would set the pace. This trip can be made to net the Fund close on to $1000. and all that I can do to bring about that result shall be done. Please pardon length of my communication, and in some places what may seem to be unwarranted "advice" or "instructions". My only desire is that this tour shall prove to be to both parties a satisfactory success -

Trusting to hear from you at your earliest convenience, I am

Yours Respectfully
 N. J. Smith
 Rep. Polk Miller.
