

POLK MILLER, (Virginia.)

Polk Miller's Dialect Recital,

An Evening of Story and Song on

"Old Times Down South,"

Delineating the Old Plantation Regro.

Mr. Horace F. Smith, sole Manager,
Box 217, Kichmond, Va. Feb. 27th, 1896.

A. A. Thompson, Esq.,

Raleigh, N. C.

My dear Sir:-

Your faver of Feb. 27th with enclosures received. I herewith enclose list of names up to date. I wrote Gov. Carr yesterday, that Mr. Miller declined to go to Burlington, Greensboro and Wilson, and suggested other towns for these dates. I think you had better also cut any other towns that do not take thorough interest in the matter, as I am quite sure Mr. Miller does not desire to thrust himself upon any town, where he will not be appreciated. It seems to me that personal or political questions should be entirely eliminated when it is considered that the entertainments are given for the benefit of such a noble dause as a monument to the late Senator Vance. I have retained copies of the names given as patronesses in the letters you enclosed. In reply to questions regarding printed matter and tickets, please say that the tickets will have to be printed in each town, but that a supply of circulars and window posters will be sent with which to advertise the entertainments. Col. Old will supply the committees with necessary advertising matter for the newspapers, and I will from my office do everything I can in the way of personal correspondence, to help on the good cause. I hope where

A MOST UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT, BRISTLING WITH AMUSING ANECDOTES, QUAINT SKETCHES, PATHETIC ILLUSTRATIONS, AND OLD-TIME PLANTATION MELODIES (ACCOMPANIED BY THE BANJO) THE WHOLE COMBINING TO PRODUCE A MOST CHARMING AND DELIGHTFUL EVENING'S ENJOYMENT. THE ENTERTAINMENT IS IN NO SENSE A LECTURE, BUT IS "AN EVENING OF STORY AND SONG." IF YOU WOULD ENJOY A HEARTY LAUGH, MR. MILLER CAN FURNISH THE INCENTIVE.

Personal Commendations of Mr. Miller's Recital.

Henry Watterson, Ed. Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal, says:

" Polk Miller, you have the best one-man show in America."

Chauncey M. Depew, Esq., writes:

"I take pleasure in certifying to the ability of Mr. Polk Miller and the excellence of his recitals.

Thomas Nelson Page, "Mars Chan" Etc.

"Polk Miller is a great success, for he knows the negro, can tell a negro story and give the true negro dialect better than any man living."

Howard Saxby, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"What I like in Polk Miller is, that though he is not my wife, I can stand his lectures twice."

Hon. C. U. McElroy, Bowling Green, Ky.

"What James Whitcomb Riley is to the Hoosier dialect, Polk Miller is to the Negro dialect; both perfect in their line."

Rev. J. William Jones, Chaplain Univ. of Va.

"Polk Miller and his banjo reproduce the negro of the happy days before the war, and his entertainments give the highest pleasure and satisfaction to all who hear him. I do not hesitate to say that it is inimitably done."

Ex-Governor Fitzhugh Lee.

"I know Polk Miller well. When he is sketching the 'foe de war' negro, it you did not know he was Polk Miller you would think he was a darkey of olden time, and if you did not know he was an old-time darkey you would think he was Polk Miller."

Prof. J. U. Lloyd, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"Polk Miller is a wonder. I have heard him several times and could listen to him every night of the year. He is never tiring, for he is always original and sparkling. He is undoubtedly the platform success of the nineteenth Mark Twain.

Mark Twain, in his introduction of Mr. Miller at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hall, in New York City, said: "Mr. Miller is thoroughly competent to entertain you with his sketches of the old-time negro, and I not only commend him to your intelligent notice, but personally endorse him. The stories I have heard him tell are the best I have ever heard."

Joel Chandler Harris, "Uncle Remus," Etc.

"Polk Miller is the humorist the country has been looking for. I know of no one who can more aptly depict the real negro character or more faithfully render the true negro dialect. There is a live 'nigger' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's Banjo and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string."

The Governor of Virginia says:

Mr. Polk Miller is one of the best delineators of the negro character that I have ever seen. An evening with him is an absolute pleasure First, his quaint imitations of the old-time darkey bring side-splitting laughter, and then, almost in the same breath, he moves his audience to tears. He is a HAMILTON CLUB, genius in his line, and what renders his entertainments more delightful is the fact that his anecdotes are pure, and replete with humor." CHAS. T. O'FERRALL.

Bill Nye says:

"Polk Miller does not advertise goods he cannot deliver. He says he will describe and illustrate the Old Virginia Plantation Negro, and I am free to say that he does it. After hearing the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro given in Cork and Cockney at St. James Hall, London, I am glad to hear Mr. Miller correct this misconception with the real thing.

The Governor of Florida says:

"It affords me pleasure to commend Mr. Miller, of Richmond, Virginia, as a refined and cultured gentleman. His name is a household word in his native State of Virginia, whose people always welcome him, not only as a citizen of the best Southern type, but as the best living delineator of the oldtime negro character. His 'recitals' are entertaining in the highest degree, and no one will regret hearing him. Mr. Miller is a successful business man in Richmond, as well as a genius in his line. In all respects he is worthy DAVIDSON COLLEGE, of the highest esteem and confidence." W. D. BLOXHAM.

Cincinnati (O.) Commercial Gazette.

"It was a well-pleased audience that left the Auditorium at 10:30 last night.'

Richmond (Va.) Dispatch.

" A better delineator of the true negro dialect and character than this charming Virginia gentleman never graced the stage.

Houston (Tex.) Post.

Mr. Miller doesn't lecture, he just talks, plays the banjoto perfection, and sings Negro songs in a way that beats a negro himself."

Wilmington (N. C.) Star.

"A Virginia gentleman of the old school, a versatile writer, and last night proved him without a doubt a success in his chosen avocation."

Bowling Green (Ky.) Park City Times.

"His entertainment was entirely new here. * * * The audience was convulsed with laughter at the ludicrous situations pic-

Louisville (Ky.) Courier Journal.

"The best commentary that can be made on his novel entertainment is to say that nobody should neglect to attend his recital this afternoon."

New Orleans (La.) Times-Democrat.

"The listener found it only necessary to close his eyes and imagine that he was enjoying the peculiar prattle of an old-time darkey."

Wilmington (Del.) Morning News.

"Mr. Miller's imitations of the old-time darkey are inimitable, and it is useless to undertake to describe it. His work on the banjo and plantation melodies were highly enjoyed."

Selma (Ala.) Journal.

"The gentleman had scarcely spoken ten minutes before his audience felt as if they were seated around the hearthstone of their own home, and that the speaker was one of their own home circle.

New York World.

"The St. Nicholas Society last evening celerated the Dutch Eastertide festival, the Paas, with a dinner at the Waldorf The President, Chauncey M. Depew, presiding, * * * Polk Miller, of Richmond, entertained the Society with a recital on "The Old Virginia Plantation Negro.'

Brooklyn (N. Y.) Life.

"Mr. Miller appeared on Thursday evening at the Hamilton Club, under the auspices of the Art and Literature Committee, and the members were charmed both by his personality and wit.

Baltimore (Md.) Sun.

"Mr. Miller is an excellent mimic, and his dialect stories of negro life in Virginia before the war were enjoyed by a large audience. Besides his stories, Mr. Miller sang a number of plantation melodies to his own accompaniment on a banjo."

Philadelphia (Pa.) Ledger.

"Polk Miller, of Virginia, an entertainer who has a happy, colloquial way with him that proves none the less effective because it is so unassuming, put himself thoroughly en rapport with the goodly audience at the New Century drawing room last evening. He gave a 'dialect recital,' which proved an agreeable departure from the ordinary run of platform performances.'

New Orleans (La.) Daily Picayune.

"Mr. Polk Miller, of Virginia, was the show at Odd Fellows' Hall last night. His lecture. or concert, whichever his hearers may choose to call it, is one of the most unique of all that have ever been heard in this city. * * * The people seemed unwilling to let Mr. Miller stop.

St. Louis (Mo.) Republic.

"The evening of story and song for the benefit of the Methodist Orphans' Home, given at the Germania Theatre last night, was one of the greatest-it might be said with truth-'howling successes 'St. Louis has had for a long time, if the shouts of laughter that greeted Mr. Polk Miller's inimitable Negro imitations were any criterion.'

CHAUTAUQUA NOTES.

New York Chautauqua.

"An immense audience filled the Amphitheatre with shouts of laughter at Polk Miller's pictures of negro life and manners in the old times before the war last night. Mr. Miller's songs and imitations of typical negro characters were evidently true to life. Mr.
Miller's stories were entertaining, seemed to amuse the people greatly."

Alabama Chautauqua.

"Mr. Miller is one of the finest men in his line known to the South. He can fairly make a banjo talk, and as for imitating the Negro of olden time, he cannot be surpassed It is needless to say he will have a packed house to-night.

Kentucky Chautauqua.

"Mr. Polk Miller delighted the audience "Mr. Polk Miller delighted the audience with plantation stories, dialect recitations, and Negro songs. His banjo playing was a rare treat, and the great audience went wild with enthusiasm. Nobody ever saw a more delighted crowd than the smiling one of last evening. It elicited much applause when Dr. Davidson announced that Mr. Miller would appear again to day." would appear again to-day."

we find a town that does not show the proper interest, that immediate steps will be taken to place Mr. Miller in some other town on that date or cut it out entirely, for while we all desire that this tour shall not as large an amount as possible, still Mr. Miller's personal feelings must be considered, and I am sure the Association does not feel like being mortified by having their representative greeted by a small audience. Too much work cannot be done through the newspapers. Appeals should go out from the Executive Committee which should entist the hearty co-operation of every individual. In one or two eases there seems to have been doubt about the dates. I thought the route had been published in every paper in every town, I mean not only a special date for a special town, but that the entire list of towns and their dates had been published in each of the several towns. This would show that the matter was general and that the entire state was interested and would probably arouse a feeling of pride and pleasant competition, which would be beneficial.

I do earnestly hope that arrangements in Raleigh will be so thorough and complete that Mr. Miller's first appearance there will be an incentive to all his future dates along the line. I send by express to-day, 100 windowshangers and 2000 circulars for Raleigh. Necessary printing on the bottom of the circulars also a "date slip" to paste on the bottom of each of the hangers, will have to be done in Raleigh.

Yours very truly,

THINK.
