FOREWORD

Out of the twilight of the past,
We move to a diviner light;
There is nothing wrong that lasts,
Nothing immortal but the right.

After the lapse of more than sixty years the aims and efforts of the men and women of the collapsed Confederate States have clearly grown in the respect of the world; and the abiding love of the new South for the old South, tends to show that the old and the new are the same, and were right. In profound appreciation of this respect and love their remnant comrades deem it a duty to make this roster of Nash County Confederate Soldiers. Too long indeed has this work been postponed. So long that some are lost to identification. Doubtless we are claiming some who were from other counties, but certain it is that the other counties have counted more of us than we have of them. Admittedly herein are errors, for which we beg correction.

Of the six companies organized in Nash County, to wit: E of the 7th Regiment, H of the 12th, I of the 30th, H of the 32d, A and D of the 47th, known respectively as Taylor's, Williams's, Ar-rington's, Drake's, Bryant's and Harrison's, from the names of their first captains; one, namely, company A, 47th, is given herein showing correctly from the only muster roll obtainable now, 176 members of the company, as recruits came in steadily to fill the gaps made by casualties. Of this number 16 got to Appomattox.

This work, too, enables his executors to carry out the design of our comrade, Robert H. Ricks, as inscribed on his beautiful monument to us.

For preservation, the roster of Edgecombe Confederate Soldiers, collected by Lewis Dowd, Wyatt Camp United Confederate Veterans, and compiled by comrade Frederick Philips, is included herein.

JOHN H. THORPE.

LEE'S FAREWELL ADDRESS

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA

April 10, 1865.

After four years of arduous service, marked by unsurpassed courage and fortitude, the Army of Northern Virginia has been compelled to yield to overwhelming numbers and resources. I need not tell the survivors of so many hard fought battles, who have remained steadfast to the last, that I have consented to this result from no distrust of them, but, feeling that valor and devotion could accomplish nothing that could compensate for the loss that would have attended the continuation of the contest, I have determined to avoid the useless sacrifice of those whose past services have endeared them to their countrymen.

By the terms of the agreement, officers and men can return to their homes, and remain there until exchanged. You will take with you the satisfaction that proceeds from the consciousness of duty faithfully performed; and I earnestly pray that a merciful God will extend to you His blessing and protection.

With an increasing admiration of your constancy and devotion to your country, and a grateful remembrance of your kind and generous consideration of myself, I bid you an affectionate farewell.

R. E. LEE,
General.
