Opportunities of Idleness.

Austin Bierbower, Chicago.
When you have nothing to do you have an opportunity. It is a chance to think; and many go through life without thinking. Lack of time is their excuse, and much of their work is done, or left undone, by default. He who has much time on his hands has either his business or his powers badly regulated. His tasks and his energies do not meet; and he should set about re-arranging them, either getting more work to do, or else preparing to put more power on his work. Time is a fund which should all be invested; it being money which, if put to use, brings a large interest. The unemployed time is what the devil is trading on; and he does a larger business on what you waste than you do on what you employ. If you can do nothing else, think; and if you can think of nothing else, think what you will do next.

Folk-Lore and Folk-Cure.

Some of the scientists who made a specialty of folk lore have lately been making inquiries about the malady which the country people called spring fever. It is a genuine malady, though more disagreeable than serious. Yet it should be taken note of. While the scientists are enquiring about the tones of the malady, those who are suffering the lassitude, nervousness melancholia, that are its symptoms, should run the disease out of their systems by means of that more subtle scientist and folk curest—S. S. S. This is particularly necessary, since spring fever leaves the system in such a condition that it succumbs readily to diseases that are more dangerous and less easily controlled. S. S.
S. is a preventive as well as a remedy.

Washington Letter.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Mar. 20th, '91.
Mr. Blaine made such a bad break in the injudicious and undiplomatic language he used in the telegram which Baron Pava, the Italian minister, stamped him into sending to Governor Nichols, of Louisiana, in relation to the unfortunate lynching at New Orleans that as soon as he realized his error, he took to his room and it was given out that he was unwell, and he has been invisible to callers ever since. Members of the diplomatic corps say that Mr. Blaine's telegram will give the Italian government all the ground it needs to demand a heavy indentification if it can be proven that any of the men killed were its subjects. But demanding and getting are two things. No Democratic Congress is likely to pass an appropriation to pay indemnity for the killing of a lot of thugs and murderers who had made murder their chief occupation, even if they were killed outside of the law. But it is not believed that the Italian government will desire to take any further action when it is fully informed of the Mafia's acts which led up to the massacre, as it has had some experience with the Mafia.

I was told to-day by an eminent Republican, who is friendly to neither Harrison nor Blaine that the deluge of Harrison talk which has recently emanated from Republican Senators and Representatives in the columns of Republican newspapers in all sections of the country is the direct result of a bargain between Harrison and Blaine, whereby the latter agrees to give the former a chance to get himself recommended if he can, and the former agrees that in the event of his becoming impossible for him to get the nomination he will withdraw in favor of Mr. Blaine. I cannot vouch for the truthfulness of this story, but circumstantial evidence is strongly in its favor. It is not at all probable however that Mr.
Blaine would have made such a bargain if there was any probability of the election of the Republican nominée.

Representatives Springer and Spinola, who have been dangerously ill in this city, are both convalescing.
The administration has struck a dangerous snag in the negotiations for reciprocity with Cuba. The Spanish minister will hear of nothing that does not include the free admission of Cuban tobacco, which is a concession that is beyond the power of Mr. Blaine to grant. Not having any confidence in the ability of Gen. E. Bird Grubb of New Jersey, the present minister to Spain, who is ignorant of the Spanish language and without diplomatic experience, ex-Minister J. W. Foster has been sent to Spain with the ultimatum of Mr. Harrison. In the shape of a threat to retain the president duty on Cuban sugar if reciprocity is not agreed to by the Spanish government. The outcome of this matter is looked forward to with considerable interest, as the sugar schedule of the tariff law will go into effect April 1st and Cuban sugar will be admitted free just the same as sugar from Brazil and other countries, unless Mr. Harrison shall take advantage of the power conferred upon him by the tariff act and order the present duty continued.

Although it has been nearly three weeks since Congress adjourned it is still impossible to get a correct idea of all the pernicious legislation enacted into laws or of the exact amount of money carried by the appropriations tucked away in corners of bills of all sorts. Every day something is discovered showing a new and unexpected appropriation or a new piece of unexplainable botch legislation. Secretary Noble has discovered what he considers a $3,000,000 steal in connection with one of the Indian bills, and he says the money shall never be paid if it is in his power to prevent it, but owing to the fact that several prominent Republicans are to get a big slice of the money in the shape of an attorney's fees it is doubtful whether any remonstrance on the part of Mr. Noble will prevent the steal being consummated.

It is not believed that Mr. Harrison proposes taking any action upon the congressional reports of the investigations of either the Civil Service Commission or the Pension office, notwithstanding the public verdict against Baum, of the Pension office, and Lyman, of the Civil Service Commission.

The two Indiana "ifs," Harrison and Austin have it said, made friends and that offer of resignation has again been withdrawn.

Hon. T. G. Skinner and family have returned from Washington, to his beautiful residence in our town.
Mr. Skinner has made as a faithful representative in Congress and now proposes, as a lawyer, to serve his clients with the ability and fidelity with which, as Congressman, he served his constituents. Mr. Skinner is too well known and too much beloved by our readers to need a word of commendation from us.

Enough is to say that we are glad to have Mr. Skinner and his accompanied lady again in our midst.

Southward the Course of In- dustrial Activity Takes its Way.

The Manufacturers' Record of March 21st, says:
When the failure of the Barings caused a panic in Europe and America the Manufacturers' Record immediately claimed that while its temporary effect would be the breaking up of many negotiations then pending for large enterprises in the South, the final result would be to attract still greater attention to this section as the safest and the most profitable investment field in the world. These predictions are already verified. The strength of the South's financial position through such a crisis has established the whole country, and, though some great undertakings have for the time been checked in securing the capital promised, yet the tendency of foreign and Northern investors to look Southward has never more pronounced than to day.
From every direction enquiries are coming as to the opportunities for locating in the South and for the establishment of manufactures there. The Southern people themselves are pressing forward the great work of development, and activity is seen from Maryland to Texas. Iron works, cotton mills, wood-working enterprises, phosphate mining and manufacturing companies, flour mills, coal mining companies, electric-light and water companies are rapidly being organized, while those previously projected are being pushed forward by active work of construction. During the week a $1,000,000 company was chartered at Atlanta to improve an extensive water-power property, engages in manufacturing, etc.; Honolulu voted $120,000 for public improvements, and the Norfolk & Western Railroad will, it is said, expand $400,000 on improvements in the same place; work on the $500,000 government dry-dock at Port Royal is to be started at once; Port Royal, Va., has organized a $50,000 water works company and also an electric-light company; Texas a $100,000 cotton mill, a $30,- 000 water works company, a $30,000 electric-light and power company; a $40,000 ore mining company has been organized at Cedarhurst, Ga.; a $50,000 oil mill company at Vicksburg, Miss.; a cotton factory company in North Carolina; a $25,000 cooperage company in Kentucky; a $20,000 agricultural implement company at Rock Hill, S. C.; a $50,000 flour mill company in Virginia; a $100,000 wood-working company in Staunton; $50,000 machinery company at Norfolk; $15,- 000 fertilizer company in South Carolina; a $20,000 knitting mill company at Anderson, S. C.; a $100,000 company will build new gas works at Americus, Ga.; at Danville, Va., a $50,000 land company has been organized; at Macon, Ga., a $50,000 manufacturing company, and in Georgia a $75,000 land company. The enthusiastic activity and tireless work which pushed Alabama, Virginia and Tennessee so rapidly to the front has spread to West Virginia, to the Carolinas, Florida, Texas and elsewhere, while Georgia, which was the first of the Southern States to begin manufdustrial development after the war, presses forward with unabated energy.

We do not believe it was the intention of the Legislature to tax all incomes, without exception, including the pay of the house servants, but that the salary of the members of men who receive over $1,000 a year, but that the Machinery act to be construed as it reads that is what it did, and every one who receives compensation large or small for service rendered to each other or from property not taxed, will have to pay a tax of one-half of one per cent. Heretofore there was an exception of all salaries under $1,000 that being the amount exempted as living expenses. Under the new law as it reads there is no exemption. It is this was the intention of the Legislature it is an outrage; if it was not the intention this fact should be ascertained, an extra session of the Legislature called, and the law framed as it should be.
Our opinion is that if this matter were brought before the courts they would put a rational construction on the intent of the Legislature and decide accordingly.—Wilmington Star

New York Letter.

The Air Garden—Additions to the Managerie—Our Fatal Fires.

Regular Correspondence.
New York, March, 27th, 1891.

The proposition to establish a public Air garden on top of the reservoir at 42nd street and 5th Avenue, a bill for which is now before the Assembly, is meeting with almost unanimous opposition. Only one newspaper in the city seems to be in favor of the scheme and that is the one which claims the credit of first proposing it. The World has certainly earned a good deal of notoriety by schemes for public enterprises but this time it has evidently bitten off more than it can chew. The popular impression of the plan is that the reservoir is to be flooded over and used for a beer garden more than an air garden and therein is its weakness. Besides the press and public generally, the Mayor has opposed it, the Comptroller is against it and so also is the Board of Health.
Now the Academy of Medicine has the come forward and protests in the most vigorous manner, saying if the scheme is carried out it will surely be followed by widespread disease and suffering. It would probably bring on an epidemic of typhoid fever and "spread the disease broadcast over the city." These are the strong words Mr. Pulitzer's paper will have hard work to counteract them.

A RARE BIRD.
Several additions have been made to the Central Park menagerie during the past few days, some of which are quite interesting. A bald headed gentleman of the Vulture family has arrived from Pondicherry, India, he rides a flock of 49 Southwestern lambs.
The Vulture is a very large one, being about twice the size of the American turkey buzzard, to which he bears a considerable resemblance.
Two young alligators from Florida have been presented to the menagerie, both of these by physicians. A very handsome snowy-owl captured at Owego, N. Y., has also been contributed and is attracting much attention. The snowy owl is a rare bird in these regions as it only visits us in very severe winters.

FIRE-PROOF BUILDINGS.
We have had three fatal fires in this city during the past year, and as a result the people are seriously considering the question of erecting none but fire proof buildings. There is certainly a grave fault somewhere when lives are lost by fire so frequently, but the remedy is not so apparent. Many prominent architects are in favor of fire-proof buildings, still they do not believe in a compulsory law to that effect. The present law is either defective or unenforced, it calls for fireproof buildings when more than 80 feet in height but this does not include dwellings. The opinions of our firemen, who are undoubtedly the most competent to speak on the subject, seem to be almost entirely ignored. The Building Department is pretty well satisfied with the present law, but Fire Chief Bonner does not agree with it. He proposes some very important amendments in which he should be heartily supported by the people.

The Income Tax.

Haleigh Intelligence.

Heretofore the laws of this State excepted from taxation all incomes derived from salaries and fees not exceeding in amount one thousand dollars. This exemption in the revenue law was intended to protect the income of the laborer from taxation in consideration that all of it might be necessary for the support of himself and family, and it would be unjust to tax it. But in the revenue law passed by the recent General Assembly the exempting clause as to incomes was struck out, and from the general understanding of the law all classes of incomes may now be subject to taxation. We directed attention to this question in the Ja- nuary for last week, and supposed that the General Assembly had unintentionally failed to incorporate the usual exempting clause in the new law, but on examining the journals of the Senate and House we find that the facts do not support our supposition. It appears from the Senate journal that the clause was struck out in open Senate motion of Senator Kirk, of Guilford, and when the bill was sent over to the House, the journal for that body shows that the amendment was concurred in. Although the record does not bear out our supposition, we adhere to the belief that it was not the intention of the General Assembly to sanction a law by which it was possible to tax the income of the laborer when that income was immediately disbursed for necessary supplies. To say that such a law was just and fair would be contrary to all preconceived notions of what constituted justice and fairness, and, at the next election, the voters of the State could be expected to make but one answer—a positive disapproval and condemnation. It may be our courts will hold that there is a difference in the meaning of income from salaries and fees, and the income at the daily laborer—that the former is not subject to taxation, and not the latter. If this construction should prevail the hardship will not be so great, though it is to be regretted that any change should have been made, either purposely or through inadvertence.

OVER THE STATE.

Happenings Here and There as Gathered From Our Exchanges.

Durham Star:—The peach trees are now in full bloom, and many of the older inhabitants are predicting a splendid fruit year.

Raleigh News and Observer:—The Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad is building 100 box cars at its shops at Portsmouth. The lumber has been contracted for on the line of the Raleigh & Augusta road.

Oxford Friend:—A disastrous fire broke out in Dr. Herndon's prize house last Monday 4:30 A. M. Loss over $10,000, partly insured. Some tenement houses were also burned.
Nine other houses later in the day caught afire but were saved.

Statesville Landmark:—The recent deaths of Mrs. and afterwards Mr.
John Holthouser, of the western part of this township, removed two of the oldest people in the county.
The statement that the couple had lived together 61 years is a striking one.

Raleigh Chronicle:—Thirteen convicts, seven white and six colored, left on the Raleigh & Gaston train yesterday for the Northampton farms in charge of Captain Joe Bernard.
A new Union flag, upon whose face shines forty-four stars, and twelve feet by measurement, was received yesterday by Collector White, Custodian, to be placed on the Federal Court House.

Goldsboro Argus:—The Fair grounds near this city, on which the Eastern Carolina Fair and Stock Association hold their annual expositions, have been purchased by George D. Bennett for the purpose of utilizing the splendid race course and the tracks for the rearing and training of blooded and speeded stock.
The purchase of the grounds by Mr.
Bennett will not interfere with the holding of their annual exhibitions by the Fair Association.

Wilson Mirror:—A meeting was held in the armory of the Wilson Light Infantry on Thursday night, which had for its object the erection of a monument to the Confederate dead now reposing in Maplewood, A. committee, consisting of T. J. Hadley, G. D. Green, E. M. Nadal, W.
F. Woodard, W. E. Wooten and Doane Herring, were appointed to formulate a plan for the raising of the amount necessary for the con-sumation of the praiseworthy project.

Milton Advertiser:—Ella Thompson, a negro girl about 15 years old, is in jail in Durham charged with giving a young child of Mr. Leon Kirkland concentrated lye in coffee. The child is in a very precarious condition.
A negro on the material train on the
A. & D. railroad had a very close call yesterday. While the train was in motion he fell between the cars, and had his foot not caught in the coupling he would have fallen to the track and been instantly killed.
As it was he escaped with a badly mashed foot.

Elizabeth City Economist Falcon:— The oyster police boat, Nellie Day, Captain Warren, was in the harbor Friday morning. The cannon borrowed from the Virginia Military Company was brought and returned to Norfolk. Another, owned by the State of North Carolina is in New Bern for the oyster steamer. The boat has made no capture of dredgers violating the law, since the one taken on Monday night some weeks ago.
The Day left Friday night. She has a crew of fifteen men.

Wilmington Star:—Further particulars of the killing of Mr. Hector McSwain, on the Northwestern railroad, near Florence, S. C., have been received. He was walking by the side of the track, when the train was in about fifty feet of Mr. McSwain, (who was deaf and could not hear at all) he stepped from the side to the middle of the track. Just as he did so the rear car or caboose of the train struck him, knocking him down, and ran over him. He was fearfully mangled, so much so that he was beyond recognition except by the clothes and watch he wore. After being struck by the train he was dragged about 100 feet. The train was running about ten miles an hour.
The engine came on to Florence and brought the sad news. Coroner S.
F. Church was notified and carried to the scene. He placed the remains in a rough coffin and brought them to Florence. An inquest was held and the following was the verdict: "That he came to his death by being run over by a work train on the Northwestern railroad by accident."

Personal.
Mrs. Dr. D. L. James was sick last week.
Miss Susie Brown is visiting in Greene county.
Mr. W. H. Smith has recently been sick but is out again.
Miss Bettie Wells, of Wilson, is visiting the Misses King.
Miss Lillie Cherry has been visiting in Washington the past week.
The oldest son of Major James has been quite sick for several days.
Miss Ollie Mays, of Wilson, is visiting the family of Hon. E. A. Mays.
Mr. W. R. Parker, of Farmville gave the REFLECTOR boys a pleasant chat Saturday evening.
Mrs. Dr. J. Marquis, accompanied by her little boy, left last Thursday to visit her parents in Philadelphia.
Mr. R. Hyman, the photographer, returned Monday evening after having been absent from town a few days.
Mr. Berg, from M. R. Lang's Wilson store, came to Greenville last week and will remain in the store here for a few weeks.
We are requested to announce that Rev. J. L. Winfield will preach at Mt. Pleasant church, four miles from Greenville, next Sunday.
Mrs. A. M. Moore, of Seattle, Washington, a former resident here, is visiting in Greenville. Her many friends are glad to see her.
Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse of Grimes land, spent Saturday and Sunday in town and left Monday morning for Henderson to sell tobacco.
Mr. A. M. Hardee, of Greene county, father of Mr. A. W. Hardee who has been going to school at the Male Academy, was in town last Saturday.
Rev. R. F. Taylor, pastor in charge of Pitt Mission, has moved to Greenville. Himself and wife are boarding at Mrs. Tucker's, in Forestburg.
Mr. M. N. Hale, formerly Postal Clerk between Weldon and Greenville and now between Wilmington and Washington was in town part of last week.
Mr. C. L. Whichard served as stenographer in Court part of last week and took deposition in several cases. His work was highly commended by both the Court and the Bar.
Mr. J. V. P. Quackenbush, of Norfolk, representing the Norfolk Milling Co., was a caller at the REFLECTOR office last Friday. He left some local with us, which shows that he appreciates a good advertising medium.
The REFLECTOR had a pleasant call yesterday from Rev. Dr. N. C. Hughes of Chocowinity. There is no one whom the people of Greenville hold in higher esteem than this excellent christian gentleman, to the record of whose life there are so many good deeds in the Master's cause.
We were very glad to have a call last Wednesday from Mr. L. H. Foust, Cashier of the National Bank of Salisbury. He had been visiting his sister, Mrs. J. S. Harris, of Falkland, the first time he had seen her in twenty years. Mr. Foust had never been in Greenville before and expressed himself as highly pleased with what he saw of our town. He is a brother of Mr. Charlie Foust, who taught awhile in Greenville Institute.
Dr. Zeno Brown has had a beautiful monument placed over the grave of his wife and child in Cherry Hill Cemetery.
Sheriff Tucker says everybody who fail to pay their taxes this week may expect to see their names advertised in the REFLECTOR next week.
Steps should be taken to have Pitt county properly represented at the Southern Exposition which will be held in Raleigh next October.
The Greenville Combination Store will show our people something handsome in the way of a new soda fountain when the next season opens.
Good Friday was a misnomer this time if we are allowed to take the weather as an index. It was one of the worst days we have had this year.
A drummer in town last week, who happened to see a copy of the REFLECTOR, said it was the neatest print and contained the best matter of any paper he had seen this side of Norfolk.
Does any one doubt that the trade of Greenville would improve if the town had tobacco warehouses and was made a tobacco market? If so they have never noted the experience of other towns in this particular.
Sheriff Tucker says the Jail has only three inmates, one an insane person and the other two are prisoners whose sentences will expire in two weeks. Unless somebody else gets in the Jail will soon be empty.
Mossback—A person who can be found in almost every community, who hates enterprise so much that he won't subscribe for his home paper but apoposes it from his neighbor in order to find out the local news.—Ex.
This month there will be five Wednesdays and five Thursdays. These of course call for five REFLECTORS which will have five instalments of our excellent serial story, "Ten Minutes to Twelve." All in one month, too. Ain't you glad?
We hope the County Commissioners at their meeting next Monday will take up the matter of constructing the dam and roadway at the north end of the bridge. There is authority for action, and the recent freshets show the necessity of it.
Mr. W. H. Long has turned over his interest in the real estate business to Prof. W. J. Matthews, and the business will hereafter be conducted by Matthews & Whichard.
The patronage of persons having houses to let or real estate for sale is solicited.
These brands of fine cigars can be had at the REFLECTOR Book Store at prices named: Semadores, 25c; Invincibles, 15c; La Rosa de Amor, Madalena, La Flor de Teller, 5c; 10c or 3 for 25c; Perfektion and New Ad, 5c; Knight, REFLECTOR, Garden Bubble and Artistic, 5c for 25c; No. 2, 10c; No. 3, 15c. Any number can get suited out of these brands.

Under Notice.
Easter services were held Sunday by both the Methodist and Episcopal Sunday Schools, the former at 10 o'clock A. M., the latter at 3 o'clock P. M. The exercises were of a very interesting nature, and both the churches were appropriately decorated.
Kill the Curs.
Sunday night dogs attacked a calf belonging to Mr. Charles Sklaner and seriously injured it. Still the Town Authorities, like the State Legislators, are afraid to do anything by way of interference with the privileges of the dog. There are some dangerous curs allowed to run at large on the streets of Greenville.
Thanks.
The REFLECTOR acknowledges receipt with the compliments of the Pitt county boys, of an invitation to the public debate between the Philanthropic and Dialectic Literary Societies of the University, at Chapel Hill, April 11th. We see that Mr. F. C. Harding is one of the debaters and H. E. A. Mays, Jr., is Secretary.
Honor Roll.
Of Miss Joyner's school for the month ending March 20th:
Fannie Blew, Mary Alice Mays, Hennie Sheppard, Myra Skinner, Pattie Skinner, Appie Smith, Hattie Smith, Elmer Barrett, Willie Evans, Jimmie Gladson, John Ivey Smith, Bruce Sugg, Ray Tyson, Deck Yellowley.
Highest average 99, made by Appie Smith and Myra Skinner.
Too Good to Last.
The REFLECTOR is afraid to sneak louder than a whisper upon the beauty of the weather since Sunday morning, as it might cloud up and rain before the paper gets around. But the change makes everybody rejoice and we hope the weather is now settled for a while.
P. S.—The above was penned under the influence of the beautiful weather Monday. Alas, what a change yesterday brought!
Lumber Demand.
Suppose a building boom should strike Greenville, what could be done about getting lumber? We know some citizens now who have been waiting many days to get orders for fence lumber filled. Cannot somebody with capital take time by the forelock and start a mill here with capacity equal to the demand. The demand is going to be many fold larger than it now is and ought to be provided for. Greenville needs a well equipped lumber mill.
Broken Thigh.
We learn that a little son of Mr. George James, of Pacolus township, fell and broke his thigh Sunday morning. The little fellow and his brother were at the home of their grandfather, Mr. John G. Mason, when the accident occurred. The boys were playing in the yard and the younger one, aged five years, fell down. Two empty cotton spoons were in his pocket and it is thought that falling on these caused the child's limb to break.
More Business in the Jail.
A man in jail wanted to trade mules last week. The mule he wanted was led up to the window and the bridge reined passed in through the bars. The prisoner tried to pull the mule up near enough the window to permit an examination of the teeth, but his muleship did not relish such proceedings and showed his muleship propensity for pulling the other way. The owner had to go behind and coax the animal in reach through the bars, and the trade progressed satisfactorily.
Get to Work.
No Court or anything else now in the way to divert attention and our citizens should all get to work for Greenville. During the summer is a good time to get various enterprises started in advance of the fall season. One thing is certain—the towns around us are going to make a mighty hustle for next fall's trade, and it will not be healthy for Greenville if much of the lethargy and indifference is not shaken off. The "every man for himself" sentiment never yet built up a town.
Time's Changes.
The REFLECTOR to-day publishes a beautiful poem written by Mrs. S. A. Cherry on reminiscences of "Cherry Hill" fifty years ago. Several friends had asked her for copies of this poem, which she had printed for them and at our solicitation she consented to its publication. Our years do not date back as far as some of whom she writes in those dear old days, yet well do we remember just such scenes in early childhood as those pictured by her.
Trading Even.
This is an old saw that "swapping dollars never amounts to anything." It may not, but one of our merchants has adopted a system of trading even that does amount to something. In other words he is giving a scent for a cent, and the customer gets the largest scent every time. Mr. M. R. Lang is the man and it works this way: In his store is a beautiful box mounted with bells; you drop a penny in the slot, hold your handkerchief under the large bell, draw the lever, sound the gong and it is all over. This combination of movements sprays your handkerchief with a delightful perfume and you leave happy.
The Opening.
Any one passing the millinery store of Mrs. Fannie Joyner or last Wednesday and Wednesday night could not but notice the beautiful display of millinery goods that the tasteful ladies had arranged for their Easter opening. The first thing that caught the eye was a gate profusely decorated with every conceivable color or kind of flowers; the blending of colors showed the taste of the ladies having it in charge. Bonnets, hats, caps and everything was made up in the latest styles. The "Bouquet" came in for a large share of praise, it being the latest design in shape and trimmings. The whole store was one panorama of beauty, and every visitor was charmed with the display. Perhaps the next finest design was pyramid of colorful tips, every color carefully arranged. The opening was a perfect success and hugely enjoyed by all.

THE ASSASSIN'S WORK.
Mr. Will Moore, of Pacolus, Shot Down While Returning to His Home—His Wounds are Fatal—The Fatal Deed a Mystery.
A very cowardly assassination was committed at Pacolus, ten miles below Greenville, last Friday night. Mr. Will Moore, a young man living in that village, left the store of Mr. J. R. Davenport as the clerks were closing up, about 10 o'clock, and started to the home where he and his brother, Mr. John Moore, lived. Young Moore had just passed the residence of Dr. W. H. Bagwell when some villain in ambush fired upon him with a shot gun. He was struck with twelve buck shot in his arm, thigh and right side. His cries brought assistance to him and he was found lying in the road bleeding profusely. He was carried home and Dr. Bagwell made an examination of the wounds which were pronounced very serious. At the last report reaching Greenville Mr. Moore was still living but in a very critical condition, his physician having no hope of his recovery. He was only about 20 years old.
Pacolus was greatly shocked over the occurrence. It was a most dastardly act and is surrounded in mystery. An examination of the place in which the assassin had secreted himself showed that he had been very painstaking in his plans for the brutal work. A fence corner commanding full view of the road had been selected and grape vines had been trimmed to make the spot accessible and render escape easy. The place looked as though the assassin had become tired of standing in waiting for his victim and had rested upon his knees. The knee prints were very plain and even the care had been taken to rake together some leaves that his pants might be protected from dirt, and a slat had been knocked from the fence with the muzzle of the gun so that in this easy position the view of the road would still be open. Spittle against the fence indicated that he had also indulged in a chew of tobacco while waiting to perpetrate such a cold blooded deed.
Who Mr. Moore's assassin was is not known, and no cause can be attributed for his being shot down so brutally. If he had enemies it is not known. There was a slight rumor that the shot might have been intended for some one else, but this seems impossible, as it was so light that a person could have been easily distinguished more than twice the distance, and a murderer who was so minute in all the preparations for his crime would hardly have shot whom he did not intend to, and that in a light under which his victim was easily recognizable.
It was a bold, villainous act, and words fail to picture the perpetrator as his black, murderous heart deserves. We hope some clue can be found that will lead to the discovery of the guilty party, and that his neck may be speedily broken to pay the penalty of his crime.
No Convicts Sent Up.
The REFLECTOR spoke too quick after the first week of January term of Pitt Superior Court in saying not a single convict was sent to the penitentiary, for our readers remember that during the latter days of the term matters took a change and two prisoners were sent up. The March term, however, did not send a prisoner to the penitentiary and only sent three to the county Jail, the longest sentence being for 30 days. It is not in our recollection when Pitt made so good a Court record.
Trophy of 1890.
The 1890 Base Ball Club of Greenville have arranged a very unique and pretty memento of the success that crowned their playing last season. It is a tripod made of miniature base ball bats 8 inches long, from which is suspended by a yellow ribbon the ball with which our boys wiped up the Stars of Washington at Yankee Hall. The bats forming the tripod were made by Mr. R. L. Humbler. The ball has been beautifully painted by Miss Mollie Rouse, the names of the players being as it is in raised letters, and also the "Champions of the River League Season 1890," with crossed bats and balls. For a few days the memento will be on exhibition at the REFLECTOR office.
Remove It.
The REFLECTOR sometime ago expressed its opinion the removal of the Poor House, or County Home, from its present location to some point adjacent and convenient to Greenville. The report of the Grand Jury on this matter which we publish to-day, shows the opinion of that body to be in exact accord with that expressed by the REFLECTOR, and we believe if the sentiment of the entire county could be had at least three-fourths of the tax payers would favor such removal. In the face of this the County Commissioners should not hesitate any longer about taking steps to effect the removal, but proceed at once to carry out the wishes of the people and put an end to the evils that exist around the County Home as at present situated.
Married.
In St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Greenville, yesterday morning at 7 o'clock Miss Hennie Williams, of this town, was married to Mr. W. M. Russ, of Raleigh, the ceremony being performed by Rev. N. C. Hughes, D. D. Notwithstanding the early hour and the very inclement weather, a large number of our people assembled to witness the nuptials. Miss Annie Sheppard presided at the organ and rendered the wedding march as the bridal party entered the church. The groom with his best man, Mr. T. A. Miller, of Raleigh, were preceded up the aisle by little Miss Betsy Jane Greene, and following them came the bride with her brother, Mr. R. Williams, Jr. The bride was attired in a becoming tan colored traveling dress. The Easter decorations in the church remained for this occasion.
Miss Williams was one of the most charming young ladies of our town and while her departure from the community is a loss to many, her friends are the best wishes of a large circle of friends. Mr. Russ is a popular "drummer," and his friends wherever he goes.
The happy couple left on the north bound morning train for a bridal tour.

THE FARMERS REJOICE!
And my reduced prices on Standard Fertilizers is what causes it.

It goes without saying that last year I handled the very best brands of Fertilizers for COTTON - AND - TOBACCO
that were sold in Pitt county. I have now just perfected arrangements with the manufacturers whereby I can make a big saying to the farmers on every ton purchased from me. I can now sell you

Ober's Special Tobacco Compound
$4.00 per ton less than it cost you last year. The Ober's have had over thirty years' experience in the manufacture of this Guano and say that no brand of equal merit can be made for less money. It has been used in North Carolina for twenty-five years and those farmers who have had long experience in its use can be prevailed on to use no other. It bears thousands of the best testimonials. Its analysis shows it to be exactly proportioned with the old fashioned Peruvian Guano.

Game Guano.
This Guano made a better showing under cotton last year than any other brands sold in the county. To know what this Guano will do you only have to ask Messrs B. F. Patrick, A. C. Nobles, J. L. W. Nobles, J. J. Tripp, or any other farmer who has used it.

Pine Island Guano.
This brand has been used in Pitt county for years and never fails to give satisfaction. It is a fine Tobacco Fertilizer, and is sold cheap enough to be used under cotton.

PATAPSCO GUANO
So much of this Guano has been sold here that every farmer knows what it will do. I can say nothing to add to its popularity except that it is the same old PatapSCO brand.

Owl Brand Guano
This is a cheap Guano, and has given such satisfaction in surrounding counties that I have decided to handle it this year. I also have Kainit, Phosphates and Lime.

It will be to your interest to give me a call before making any purchase. I am always grateful for patronage.
