Medlin to get the key to her room.

She could not be aroused and when her door was opened she was found dead. She was in good health and her death was the result of heart disease.

Charlotte News: Mr. Willis Wilkinson, who farms near the city brought in something to-day that has alike puzzled and interested the agriculturists. It is a sweet potato vine covered with blooms. Mr. Wilkinson says that all the vines in his sweet potato field are filled with blooms. Farmers say they never saw nor heard of anything like that before. The blooms are purple and pink in color, and is kind of a cross between a cotton bloom and a morning glory. The potatoes at the roots of this bloom bearing vine are as fine, Mr. Wilkinson says, as any sweet potatoes that he ever dug.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR

SOMETHING OF NORFOLK.

A man in this world does not always do just what he intended to do. It has been our intention for three weeks past to catch time to say something about Norfolk, but a press of other matters has prevented until now. What is it we want to say? Well, perhaps not much, but in all a little that may be of interest.

A few weeks ago the REFLECTOR visited Norfolk for the second time. We liked it from what we first saw, and must say that on the second trip we liked it even better. And this seems to be the impression of people generally who go there, at least so far as our knowledge reaches. One cannot be otherwise than favorably impressed with the business activities of that prosperous city. Enterprise is marked everywhere, and turn to any quarter and you are confronted with such vim, push and go-aheadiveness as to make one who has always been accustomed to viewing old foggy ploddings look on and wonder. There is a pluck about the business men that will not be downed. Why, if a fire occurs in Norfolk, before the smoke has cleared away a new building is seen coming up out of the ashes.

And there is co operation among Norfolk's business men. If an enterprise is wanted that cannot be secured single handed, enough capital comes together to establish it and make it a success. Something of the business Norfolk is doing and of her outlook and bright prospects for the future the REFLECTOR spoke not many weeks since, and also spoke of what Eastern North Carolina is doing in furnishing citizens for Norfolk and helping to build up her trade. Some of her very brightest, best and most successful businessmen were furnished by North Carolina, and it is with no small degree of pleasure that the REFLECTOR has number of them among its advertisers.

Striking out for home folks first we very naturally dropped into the office of COBB BROS & GILLIAM, where we found Charlie Cobb, handsome as ever, his face beaming with anticipations of the fall business. He is one of our own Pitt county boys and a credit to his native home. Another member of this firm lives right here in Greenville, we all know them and know that they treat shippers "white" every time cotton is sent to them. You are not asked to take our word alone for this, either, but give them a shipment and if it don't turn you out right call around and give this print shop a blowing out free of charge. Mr. Gilliam the other member of the firm is from Perquimans county. He was just back from a European wedding tour but we managed to get a chance to howdy do with him.

Just across the street we find NORMAN & EVERETT, another firm just as reliable as the days are long. Mr. Norman has been forced by ill health to retire from business, but Capt. Everett continues it under the old firm name. He has had fourteen years experience in the commission business alone, and what he fails to know about it is hardly worth knowing. His long experience has shown him that the best way to give satisfaction to his shippers is to do strictly a commission business, therefore he avoids all speculations and looks carefully after the interest to shippers and endeavors to sell to their advantage. He is a clever gentleman and made our stay in his office very pleasant. But there are so many men here in Greenville who know Capt. Everett that it looks like folly for us to attempt to offer a testimonial for him, so we will just remind you to send him some cotton.

Down at the foot of Commerce street you can always find HARRELL BROS. Here is another North Carolina firm. Both these gentlemen are from Murfreesboro and not only have friends in the eastern portion of the State but throughout the entire cotton belt. For many years they have been in Norfolk and justly rank among the leaders in the commission business. They are always glad to serve their friends and if you make them a shipment they will send you such satisfactory returns that you will be sure to try them again and many times over.

The second Ecumenical Methodist Council met Oct. 7th in the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, Washington D. C. There were about five hundred delegates present at the opening representing all the various branches of Methodism established throughout the world. Three hundred of the delegates are from the Methodist Churches in the United States and two hundred from abroad. North Carolina is represented by Rev. Frank J. Reid, D. D. editor of the Christian Advocate, ex-Governor Thos. J. Jarvis, ex-Congressman R. B. Vance and Rev. L. W. Crawford D. D. There are 48 colored delegates. Rev. Dr. Wm. Arthur a distinguished minister of London was on the programme for the opening sermon, but owing to the feeble condition of his voice he turned over his manuscript to Rev. Dr. T. B. Stephenson another English divine who read admirably the eloquent words of advice of Dr. Arthur to the assembled council. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Bishop Hurst of Washington, Dr. Stephenson of London, and Dr. Carlisle of Spartanburg, S. C.

This is the second meeting of this great body, the first having been held in London ten years ago. The London gathering was a great success to which the American delegates largely contributed. This meeting will be much larger. In fact it will be one of the most remarkable religious assemblies ever held. The papers read before it, and the discussions had will of necessity be exceedingly valuable and interesting as they will be participated in by the brightest intellects, and most sanctified hearts to be found among the Methodists of the world.

Charles Stewart Parnell the great Irish leader died at his home in Brighton, Tuesday night, Oct. 6th. His death was entirely unexpected. No one knew that he was even ill. Death resulted indirectly from a chill which he had the previous week and directly from acute rheumatism. No event of the last half century has so startled Ireland as did the announcement of the death of Mr. Parnell. His personal and political friends are overwhelmed with grief and those who loudly and hotly opposed him in life to day maintain a dignified and respectful silence. Mr. Parnell has been constantly before the public since 1850 as the recognized Irish leader in the English House of Commons and his record is familiar to the world. Before the unfortunate occurrences which so seriously involved his morality he was regarded as one of the foremost men of Great Britain. The eyes of all Europe then watched him because the success of the principles he advocated meant the menacing of every throne on the Continent.

It looks as if it is unfortunate that Mr. Parnell did not die a few years sooner. He has not accomplished anything during this time, and had he died then he would have left no stain upon his character, and would have been regarded in history as one of the first and foremost men of Europe. Who ever writes his history now will be compelled to close with a black page. His life teaches us that men cannot with impunity invade the sanctity of another's home. People do not expect purity in public office when there is a want of it in the domestic life.

The Beaufort County Alliance, which met in Washington last Thursday, passed resolutions very complimentary to our townsman, Col. Harry Skinner. He was thanked for the able speeches he is making in behalf of the Sub-treasury, and invited to address the Alliance and citizens of that county on the theme at his earliest convenience. Pitt county Alliance also adopted a resolution of thanks to him for his defense of their cause. In Saturday night's mail Col. Skinner received letters from sixteen different county Alliances containing similar resolutions they had adopted. Col. Skinner is fast becoming the biggest man in the State with the Alliance and is being recognized as the great Alliance orator. He receives invitations to speak at more different places than he can possibly fill. He left yesterday for Morganton where he will speak to-day to the gathering at the Burke county fair. He will return to Raleigh in time to attend the meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee which meets to-morrow and of which he is a member.

Elmore Cloninger of Catawba county has been sent on to jail to await the action of the Superior Court charged with having wrecked the train on the Western North Carolina Railroad at Boston's Bridge. The principal witnesses against the accused were four prisoners confined in jail with him where he had been put for fighting. They testified that they had, while in jail, entered into an agreement with him to lead the lives of highwaymen upon their release, and that he said that within two weeks after his release "the damndest wreck" that was ever heard of would occur on this road and that it would be a passenger train. He claims his talk was all in jest and proved by his wife and mother that he was at home sick on the night of the wreck. The justice discredited the evidence however of his wife and mother and jailed him. We gather the above facts from the Statesville Landmark.

There was a big Alliance meeting in Raleigh on last Friday at which Senator Norwood of Georgia, State President Butler and State lecturer Bell Spoke. Mr. Norwood is not a member of the Alliance. He is a lawyer but like Col. Skinner of this State he has espoused the cause of this order. He is said to be an excellent speaker, and his speech in Raleigh gave general satisfaction. He said he thought there was a better plan than the sub-treasury bill to relieve the people—an increase in the circulating medium and a distribution of it to the States and these could lead it to their citizens upon their lands, cotton &c. He thought we ought to have forty dollars per capita in circulation. He said he was not fighting the sub-treasury but he believed a common ground could be found.

There was a big Democratic ratification meeting in New York last Thursday. Ex-President Cleveland presided and Gov. Hill and he were the principal speakers.

W. G. Lang made complaint to the Board that he was incorrectly charged on the tax list for 1891 with $1,500 income and petitioned that the amount be corrected whereupon it was ordered that the list be corrected so that he be charged with $750 instead of $1,500.

Mrs. Allie Joyner made complaint that her land in Beaver Dam township is valued on the tax list at $8,500 which is excessive, and petitioned that it be reduced to a fair valuation, whereupon the Board ordered the same to be reduced to $5,000.

License to retail liquor for six months was granted to Henry B. Duke at Falkland.

C. T. Savage made application for license to retail liquor at Ayden, whereupon the Board refused to grant the same, believing that Ayden is within the territory prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors within three miles of Antioch church by the laws of 1891 chapter 327.

C. T. Savage then petitioned for a license to retail liquor at his place of business in Pitt county at a point further than three miles from Antioch Church, near Ayden, for six months commencing the 1st day of July 1891, which the Board granted and ordered the Sheriff to issue the same.

It appearing to the Board from an inspection of the records in the Superior Court Clerk's office that there is pending in said Court 183 cases on the civil issue docket and 64 cases on the summons docket, it is therefore ordered by the Board that his Excellency, Thomas M. Holt, Governor of North Carolina, be and he is hereby requested to order a special term of the Superior Court, for the trial of civil cases only, to be held for this county for one week commencing on the 2nd Monday in December 1891, on account of such an accumulation of civil actions in said court as requires a special term. It is further ordered that the Clerk of this Board transmit to the Governor a copy of this order under the seal of the Board.

J. B. Yellowley presented a petition showing that the estate of E. C. Yellowley, of which he is administrator, was a tract of land known as Alpine and lying in Greenville township, containing about 5000 acres, that the tax assessors have valued said tract of land at $9,000, that said valuation is erroneous and excessive, that $2500 would be a just, fair and correct valuation of said tract of land, and prayed that the valuation be so reduced; whereupon the Board ordered that the valuation be fixed at $5,000.

J. B. Yellowley also presented a petition showing that he is the owner of several tracts of land in said county and holds other tracts as administrator, executor and agent, that the lists of said lands as made out by the tax assessors are erroneous and incorrect, and prayed that he may be allowed to correct the same, which was granted by the Board.

Shade Briley was granted license to retail liquor at Greenville for six months from July 1st, 1891. A prisoner by the name of Adrian Rouse was hired out by the Board to A. B. Garris for five months and fifteen days for the sum of $7 per month payable at the end of each month.

A prisoner named George Davis was hired out by Board to George B. Whitfield for five months and nineteen days for the sum of $6 per month. A prisoner named Daniel Dupree was hired out by the Board to H. G. Nobles for a term of six months at $5 per month.

FURNITURE!
We have just received a large and complete STOCK OF FURNITURE.

It is made by the best workmen after the latest designs, and in order to better display it we have converted the whole of the second story of our building into one large furniture room. We shall apply our one price system to this department of our business also (as we think it is the only legitimate way to do business) and in order to get our trade started we have put the smallest possible profit upon it, and marked it so low that we guarantee you cannot duplicate the prices in any city in this country. We most cordially ask you to call and examine it.

CARPETS.
Our buyer was able to pick up some bargains in this line while North and if you will examine our stock we feel sure that we can save you money. We sell them with and without the lining. They are the very latest patterns and colors.

CLOTHING.
We do not handle any second-hand stuff nor misfits. Our Clothing is fresh from the manufacturers, AND IS MADE TO FIT and for further evidence of this we refer you to our many customers who have gotten such perfect fits to us, that they prefer them to MISFITS, which are so named because the maker found it such a hard task to get any one they would fit. Our Clothing is made by first-class tailors to fit, and they do their work so well we usually succeed in fitting our customers the first garment they try on.

SHOES.
For these we are headquarters and defy competition. In addition to a full stock of regular goods we have about 1,000 pairs which we bought in jobs lots at about one half their value. They consist of Childrens, Misses, Boys, Gentlemen and Ladies Shoes. We will sell them at the same discount at which we bought them, which is say for about 50 per cent. on the dollar. We guarantee these goods first-class in every respect, and are only sold cheap because a large firm north failed and their stock was thrown on the market and had to be sold for what it would bring. Our buyer was able to pick up some bargains in this line while North and if you will examine our stock we feel sure that we can save you money. We sell them with and without the lining. They are the very latest patterns and colors.

The thanks of the REFLECTOR are tendered to Mr. Barton James for a sack of very fine apples. It pays a man to raise good Tobacco; it pays still better to get good prices when it is sold. Send yours to Cooper's Warehouse, Henderson, and the good prices are guaranteed. All parties bringing tobacco to the Central Warehouse in Tarboro can obtain board at the Bryan House, at one dollar per day. The Central Tobacco Warehouse, Tarboro, N. C. Give him a trial.

Personal Mrs. I. A. Sugg is very sick. Miss A. M. Perkins is visiting at Williamston. Miss Maggie Satchwell, of Wilmington is spending the week with Miss Ora Whitehead. Mrs. Florence Nancy left yesterday for Kinston to have her eyes operated upon by Dr. Hyatt. Rev. A. D. Hunter and Mr. H. J. Hester attended the Baptist Association at Warrenton last week. Rev. R. B. John and ex Gov. T. J. Jarvis have been attending the Ecumenical Conference in Washington City the past week. Miss Pearl Hornaday is boarding with Mrs. F. Sugg, and taking lessons in painting and art under the instruction of Miss Mollie Rouse. Mrs. J. W. Goodwin and children, of Philadelphia, arrived last night on a visit to her mother, Mrs. F. E. Nancy. Mr. C. L. Whichard, who is stenographer for the Greenleaf Johnson Lumber Co., Norfolk, spent last week with his parents and relatives in this county. Prof. C. H. James, of Grifton Academy, passed through on the train Saturday enroute for the home of his patient near Grindool. We regret to know that he is suffering from an attack of fever. Mr. Ollen E. Warren left yesterday for Raleigh with some fine specimens of James grapes, Japanese persimmons and chestnuts from Riverside Nursery which he will place on exhibition at the Exposition. Mrs. Dr. L. R. Thompson, a graduate of the Philadelphia Medical College and recently returned from Paris has been in town this week. She soon leaves for Chicago where she will engage in practice with one of the most prominent physicians of that city. All along through her studies and practice Dr. Thompson won the highest honors of the institutions with which she was connected and reflected great credit upon herself. Work on the annex to the Methodist Church progresses rapidly. It will be completed in ample time for the N. C. Conference. "Cuss words" are never excusable, but this is the time of year when putting up a cranky old stove pipe makes many a man say something. Two splendid farms—one for tobacco and the other for truck—for sale by Ragdale & Whichard. Also a nice building lot on Cotacah street. The fall business is at least a month late in opening up this season, but it will be likely to make up for lost time between now and Christmas. The Catholic Church here was dedicated on Sunday morning. Bishop Haide, Father Price and Father Howe were present and took part in the ceremonies. Several car loads of lumber have arrived for the Greenville Land Improvement Co's mill. They are going to put one of the largest plants here in Eastern Carolina. A list is being taken around for subscriptions to build a Primitive Baptist Church in Greenville. The Extension hopes the movement will meet with success. Preparations are beginning for entertaining the N. C. Conference which meets with the Methodist Church here next month. Greenville will entertain her guests handsomely. No one is prouder of Greenville's bright prospects than the REFLECTOR. We have been talking for years for the very things that are now being realized. And the clatter is not done yet. Gov. Holt granted the request of the Board of Commissioners for Pitt County, and ordered that a special term of Court for the trial of civil cases only be held for one week, commencing December 14th. Judge Connor will preside. In the action for divorce before the late Superior Court, Joseph Adams against Margaret Adams, colored, there was a judgment rendered dissolving the marriage ties between them, or in other words Pete got his divorce a vicado matrimonii. The big mud hole on Dickerson Avenue, just beyond Mr. H. F. Harris' residence, is not at all ornamental to the town. Yet it is permitted to remain and be seen by everybody passing to and from the depot and tobacco warehouse. To-morrow is Pitt county day at the Central Tobacco Warehouse, Tarboro, and they are going to have a special sale of Pitt's celebrated golden weed. The Central is making a reputation by giving good prices and satisfaction to shippers. The other day we looked through the nice new residence that Mr. J. R. Moore is having built near the depot. There is nothing gaudy in architecture or design, but for solid home comforts and convenience of its apartments it is all that could be desired. A word to cotton shippers: Look over the Norfolk advertisements in the REFLECTOR and send a shipment of cotton to the men whose names you find there. They are all reliable commission merchants and will get you the highest prices the market will afford. Try every one of them with a shipment. There is going to be a demand for real estate in and around Greenville and the REFLECTOR would drop this note of warning to those who hold it: Don't place so high value upon your property as to keep investors away. At the same time we would say to prospective purchasers that your best opportunity is right now. This is a dangerous month for losses by fire from the fact that with the beginning of cold weather so many people start up fires in their homes and places of business without examining chimneys and stove flues to see if any defects have come in them during the summer. Many dollars could sometimes be saved by a little precaution.

At his home in this town on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Mr. William Peoples passed away in the 64th year of his age, after an illness of several weeks. He leaves a wife and three married daughters to whom with other relatives our sympathies are extended. The remains were taken to the family burial ground, six miles above town, and interred yesterday afternoon. The REFLECTOR very much regrets that Commissioner G. M. Mooring has tendered his resignation as a member of the Board of County Commissioners, as appears in the proceedings of the Board published in this paper. He has served the county in this capacity for about 15 years, and has never been found unfaithful in the slightest degree. Without wishing to detract at all from any other, we must say that the county has never had a better representative than Commissioner Mooring. A Change Wanted. The market house here has become so unreliable that it is not much less than a nuisance. The butchers don't seem to care whether they fill orders or not, or how much inconvenience they cause the citizens. If complaints continue the Town Council ought to annul the ordinances relative to the market house and allow persons from the country to sell dressed meats in any quantity upon the streets. We believe the citizens would stand better chance of getting supplies than at present. Warned Once More. Mr. J. R. Moore, railroad agent here, has requested us to publish another warning to the boys against jumping on and off the trains about the depot. Any day numbers of boys, both white and colored, can be seen at this dangerous practice. Why any one who is large enough to possess common judgment will persist in wrecklessly risking their lives by jumping on and off of moving trains is hard to understand. It is best that the boys do not wait for one or more lives to be sacrificed in order to be convinced that the practice is dangerous. If they will not heed the warnings and stop it the Town Council should pass an ordinance prohibiting the same and impose a fine upon every offender. The Town Survives. We had hoped that Greenville would no more be molested with the vagrant hand organ with Italian and monkey accompaniment, but after a lapse of about three years they struck us with both feet on Monday. There were four of the two legged varnims and two of the four legged stripe. There used to be a time when one specimen of the sunny climate tramp could manipulate a whole monkey and organ combination but in this flush time it took one to each branch of the business. In the other combination was a split bairpe, a squeaking blue-pipe, a monkey and two manipulators. The whole output looked very much like "birds of feather." And such music! Orpheus would never have touched his lute had he heard them murder one tune. But the "penny for de monk" gave a little amusement to the boys. Factories. Another important movement for Greenville is the steps which began last week looking to the establishment of a smoking tobacco factory. When the list for stock subscriptions was shown the REFLECTOR several hundred dollars were already down and more names were being rapidly added, enough to make it an assured success. This is just a beginning. Watch what we are telling you about Greenville! In a few years it will be one of the great tobacco towns of North Carolina. A subscription writing the above subscriptions have reached sufficient proportions for the enterprise to organize, and the REFLECTOR is requested to call a meeting of the subscribers for Friday night at the Court House, for the purpose of selecting a board of directors and taking all other steps necessary to securing the charter and starting the factory. At the Warehouse. Last week there were some changes at the tobacco warehouse. At a meeting of the directors Mr. G. F. Evans tendered his resignation as manager and Mr. O. L. Joyner resigned as book-keeper, both of them wanting to go on the floor as buyers. Mr. F. E. Meadows, of Oxford, was elected as manager and Mr. H. A. Blow book-keeper to succeed those resigned. Mr. R. J. Hart is regular auctioneer for the house and gets in some good work. The directors made a good selection in securing him. Several of our home business men are buyers and they make the market lively. A market never goes begging when there are plenty of home buyers. There will be a big special break to-day and four regular breaks each week hereafter—every day except Monday and Saturday. Farmers can rely upon their tobacco bringing just as high prices on this market as elsewhere. Thieves Caught. A bold theft was committed Friday afternoon. Mr. B. W. Tucker had sold a bale of cotton and went to the store of C. T. Munford to purchase a suit of clothes. He laid aside his coat and vest to try on a suit and while doing so two negro boys stole $34 out of his vest pocket. The boys bought themselves each a $10 suit of clothes and left the store without exciting any suspicion. A little later when Mr. Tucker put his coat and vest back on he felt in his pocket for the money and it was not there. Inquiries were made as to who had been in the store and attention was called to the two boys. They were looked for and found in another store in the act of making purchases. Mr. Tucker remembered exactly the denomination of the bills in his pocket—two $10 bills, two $5 bills and two $2 bills. Each boy spent $10 and each one had a $5 and a $2 bill when found, showing they had made an equal division of the spoils. They were arrested and carried before Justice J. C. Moore for trial who required that they give a $100 bond for their appearance in Court. Their names are Elias Blount and Alex. Blount.

The Male School. Monday afternoon we spent an hour very interestingly in Prof. W. H. Ragdale's male school at the Academy. We wanted to see just how everything worked in every day style, so walked in unannounced and unexpectd. Thirty-two boys were present and so earnestly were they at work with their respective duties that it made us almost wish for boy-hood days and slate and books with them. A visitor to this school is at once impressed with the excellent department. Prof. Ragdale is not only one of the best instructors who ever taught in this town, but as a disciplinarian he stands without a superior. Perhaps no better expression could be given as to his management of the school than an answer one of his pupils once gave a party who asked after the general behavior of the boys, when he said "Prof. Ragdale is boss of that school room." He rules his boys with kindness, being always mild but firm, and he at once wins their esteem. His course of instruction is no less thorough than the discipline. We remained through several recitations and were struck with the deep interest both teacher and pupil seemed to take in the work before them. Greenville can reflect no greater credit upon herself than by liberally sustaining such an excellent school. Alliance Resolution. The Pitt County Farmer's Alliance held their regular session in the Court House in Greenville, Thursday, October 8th, 1891. The usual routine business was transacted and the reports showed the Alliance to be in a good condition. The following resolution introduced by Bro. C. O. Brown was adopted. Resolved, That we recommend to our members that they cease taking papers that misrepresent our order and slander and abuse our leaders. Bro. G. O. Brown also offered the following: WHEREAS, it seems to be the policy of certain newspapers in this State and elsewhere to make war upon the Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union by attacking and maliciously and wantonly misrepresenting our leaders, thinking thereby to break down our order, therefore be it Resolved, 1st, That we denounce the course of said papers as being at variance with the custom and principles of high minded honorable men, who are attached to the principles of free and honest government. Resolved 2nd, That the preconcerted plan of these papers in making a general attack on our worthy President L. L. Folk and upon Dr. C. W. Macune and other officers and leaders of our order and through them on the Alliance itself, merits the severest condemnation of every true alliance man. Resolved 3rd, That the copying of the vile falsehoods and malicious slanders, when they know the purpose and falsity of the charges, is contemptible and unbefitting to any gentleman. Resolved 4th, That we will resist this cowardly mode of warfare by every honorable means in our power, for we feel assured that these attacks are aimed at the order and not alone at our leaders. Adopted by a rising vote. The following resolution was offered by Bro. G. T. Tyson. Resolved, That the Pitt County Farmer's Alliance again adopt without reserve the demands of the Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union which were adopted by the Supreme Council at its meeting at Ocala, Florida, and urge upon all Alliance men to stand by them like true men and patriots. Adopted by a rising vote. The following resolution was offered by Bro. G. T. Tyson. Resolved, That the thanks of this Alliance are hereby tendered to Col. Harry Skinner of Greenville, for his able, earnest and fearless advocacy of our cause. Adopted. On motion it was ordered that these resolutions be sent to the PROGRESSIVE FARMER and the EASTERN REFLECTOR with a request to publish. E. A. MOYE, Secretary.

COTTON, CORN AND PEANUTS. —Reports corrected weekly by— YOUNG & PRIDDY. COTTON—As we predicted last week, we feared it would, cotton on Monday declined in point. This decline was caused by the government bureau report which came out on the 10th inst, being more favorable than was expected, as well as heavy receipts at all the ports. We are unable with any degree of intelligence to make any prediction as to the future course of the market. We quote to-day for Cotton at Greenville. Middling 8. S. L. Middling 7. L. Middling 7.
