D. J. WHICHARD, Editor and Proprietor. TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION. TERMS: $1.00 Per Year, in Advance.

THE REFLECTOR. Job Printing Room. That can be surpassed no where in this section.

The REFLECTOR. A whole year for only one dollar. In order to get it you must pay in advance.

Appointments of Rev. A. D. Hunter. First Sunday, morning and night, Plecton.

Rev. R. F. Taylor's Appointments. Rev. R. F. Taylor, pastor of Greenville Circuit of the N. E. Church, South.

An Announcement. I am no ready to treat baldness. I have improved days and have observed in the last ninety days that it will do what I claim for it.

Notice to Creditors. On the 4th day of April, 1892, the Clerk of the Superior Court of this county issued to the undersigned letters of administration as administrator of the estate of L. R. Anderson.

A New Enterprise. We wish to thank our patrons for the liberal patronage they have given us in the different lines of our manufacturing.

Luxury of Modern Railway Travel. A recent trip over the Royal Blue line, New York to Washington and return, impressed the writer most strongly.

THE UTOPIAN FARMER. Come here, my dear, I want to say a word or two to you.

AN ENGINEER'S JOKE. He Proved Very Convincingly That he Could Stop his Train Quickly.

A WOMAN DIES FOR LOVE. Deserted by Her Husband, She Falls in Love With Another Man and Kills Him for Love of Him—He Fining Away Also.

HIS OWN GRANDFATHER. No Wonder This Unfortunate Man Committed Suicide.

STATE NEWS. Happenings Here and There as Gathered From our Exchanges.

THE TIME FOR REPINING. Ah, when is the time for repining? Not now when, the tempest gone by, A rainbow of glory is shining.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM. The following is the State Democratic platform as announced by the State convention in assembly May 18th:

Wilson Mirror: Our dear friend, the affable and warmly sympathetic and tender hearted Bob Wyatt had a stroke of paralysis last week.

Wilmington Messenger: Deputy Sheriff W. W. King left yesterday morning for Raleigh with John C. Davis, Esq., whom he will commit to the insane asylum.

Goldboro Argus: Several orphans have arrived at the Odd Fellows Orphan Home, just opened near here, and the little ones are being cared for and cultured with a thoughtful and kindly supervision by Superintendent Whitfield.

Weather Wisdom. Laning, in his "Weather Wisdom," says: A deep blue colored sky, even when seen through the clouds, indicates fair weather.

Boys. Treat your mother politely as if she were a strange lady. Be as kind and helpful to your sisters as to other boys' sisters.

The Latest Art Agency. To keep up with the resistless tide of art agonies that is overcoming these days of refined civilization is no ordinary task.

Feats of Pedestrianism. Probably the greatest pedestrian feat of the century performed in the United Kingdom was that of Bob Carlisle, who completed in 1883 the unprecedented feat of walking 5,100 miles in 100 days.

Spare Moments. Remember God's eye is in every company. Beware of levity and familiarity with young men.

Doing a town means more broken bills than doing a county. A poor laboring woman at Graudenz on the Vistula, in Prussia had won in the lottery.

Professional Cards. DR. J. MARQUIS, DENTIST, OFFICE IN SKINNER BUILDING, UPPER END OF PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY.

DR. D. L. JAMES, DENTIST, GREENVILLE, N. C. OFFICE IN SKINNER BUILDING, UPPER END OF PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY.

Local Reflections.

June. June bugs and taxes. They have Galatea in Tarboro. New moon on last Friday night. The farmers are all busy at work. Sprinkle your back lots with lime. We are having fine weather again. Politics are lively all over the State. A pin can be relied on to carry its point. Look after the giving in of your taxes. C. B. Corsets at J. B. Cherry & Co's. Sun flowers, they say, will keep away malaria. Crops are reported as looking well and growing finely. Cotton Seed Meal for sale at the Old Brick Store. Court in Washington this week, Judge Shuford presiding. May has given us another cold snap and doubtless the last. A beautiful line of Lounges at J. B. Cherry & Co's. A handsome line of Parlor Chairs at J. B. Cherry & Co's. This month has five Wednesdays, five Thursdays and five REFLECTORS. There were six persons baptized in the river Sunday by Rev. A. D. Hunter. The New Home Sewing Machines for $35 at Brown Bros. The Greenville Male School will close with appropriate exercises on June 9th. A colored man had a load of young foxes Saturday trying to sell them. We didn't buy. A handsome display of Parlor Lamps at J. B. Cherry & Co's. The crops of Beaver Dam township are looking fine so we learn from Mr. W. W. Weathington. Cheap Irish Potatoes 20 cents a peck at the Old Brick Store. The colored brass band, of Washington, will give an excursion to this place next Tuesday. Try a pair J. B. Cherry & Co's $1 Ladies Dongola Button Shoes. An egg the shape of a duck was handed in by Johnny Tucker yesterday and is a rare curiosity. Look up the Atlantic Coast Line schedule in this issue in regard to the Washington branch. When in want of a suit of Furniture, go to J. B. Cherry & Co's. Capt. James B. Lloyd, editor of the Advocate, was re-elected Captain of the Edgecombe Guard at Tarboro. Try Cardenas, the best 5 cent smoke, at Reflector Book Store. Look up the announcement in this issue of the new line of steamers. Mr. J. J. Cherry is the agent for Greenville. Cash given for Produce, Hides, Eggs and Furs at the Old Brick Store. A tobacco warehouse collapsed in Rocky Mount recently during a heavy wind and rain storm. Loss about $3,500. The New Home Sewing Machines and all parts at Brown Bros. The closing exercises of the Institute will take place June 8th. Rev. B. R. Hall, of Goldsboro, will deliver the address. J. B. Cherry & Co. have a nice line of Ladies Oxford Slippers & Shoes. Lill Holland, a small colored boy working at Humber's foundry, accidentally had his finger split open by a cinder as he saw on last Friday. Cheapest Furniture, Bedsteads and Mattresses at the Old Brick Store. The recent seasons have been taken advantage of by tobacco farmers, and as a result a large number of plants have been set out. JUST IN--D. M. Ferry & Co's new Garden Seed, at the Old Brick Store. Mr. Henry Sheppard told us Saturday that he had corn tasseling and cumberbers almost large enough to eat. Beat old Pitt if you can. A nice and cheap line of Children's Carriages at J. B. Cherry & Co's. The thanks of the REFLECTOR is extended to Miss Manie S. Duckett for an invitation to attend an opera in Hamilton, to take place June 14th, 1892, also a basket picnic Wednesday, June 15th. For cheap Bureaus, Bedsteads, Mattresses, chairs &c, go to J. B. Cherry & Co. Prof. Silas E. Warren will accept our thanks for an invitation, in the shape of a beautiful card, to attend the closing exercises of the Wilson Collegiate Institute which takes place to-day and to-morrow. Boss Lunch Milk Biscuit will appease your appetite when nothing else will. At the Old Brick Store. The Little Helpers of the Baptist church had a delightful picnic just over the river bridge on Friday. There was a large crowd of them including the invited guests. The weather was suitable and everybody had a pleasant time. AUCTION SALE--I will sell at Auction every Saturday, until further notice, beginning at three o'clock, at my store, my ENTIRE stock of Hardware. Come one, come all. M. J. LATHAM. Henry Ward Beecher suggested that the "June Walk" of the Brooklyn Sunday-school children be called "Children's Day." That there is nothing new under the sun will be seen by reading in the June Wide Awake Edridge B. Brooks' picturesque account of the parade of the boys and girls of old Rome on "Children's Day" in the time of Augustus the Emperor. POSITIVELY AT COST--HARDWARE. I am offering my entire stock of Hardware at and below cost to close it out, consisting of Farming Implements, Tools, Bolts, Building Material and all other goods usually kept in a Hardware Store. Come and buy while goods are cheap. I will sell the whole stock in a lump at one half cost. Come to see me. M. J. LATHAM.

Personal. Mr. T. H. Rountree we are sorry to learn is quite sick. Mr. C. W. Priddy and little daughter, Fannie, left Sunday morning for Keyville, Va. We are sorry to learn that Mr. T. A. Nichols, of Beaver Dam township, is quite sick. Mrs. Dr. Marquis and son, Leonard, left Monday morning for Philadelphia to spend the summer. Mr. Bert Moyer returned from Chapel Hill Monday night, called home on account of the sickness of his mother. The REFLECTOR deeply sympathizes with Prof. W. H. Ragsdale in the death of his father, Mr. S. Y. Ragsdale, which sad event occurred in Granville county on Thursday last. He was in his 76th year. We are exceedingly sorry to learn of the serious sickness of Mrs. E. A. Moyer, wife of our Superior Court Clerk, who has been sick for only a short while. All of her best friends wish for her a speedy recovery. Messrs. Robert Green and Lawrence Hooker, of Greenville, are here with the largest and nicest steam riding gallery we have ever seen. They have located it next to Mr. J. C. Lanier's marble yard, at foot of Tarboro street, and are doing a rushing business.--Wilson Advance. Hon. S. S. Wallace and wife met at the depot Friday Mr. D. J. Whitchard editor of the EASTERN REFLECTOR, Greenville, North Carolina, enroute to San Francisco to attend the meeting of the National Editorial Association. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace knew Mr. Whitchard when he was a small boy and the meeting here Friday was one of great pleasure to them all.--Daily Advertiser, Trinidad, Col. Greenville was represented at the commencement here last week by Misses Nannie King, of whose most splendid form and rare beauty Blount in his mention reached his highest string, Bessie Jarvis, who is no less pure than the model faces which goddesses wear. These two were the guest of Mrs. L. A. Cobb. She sent another daughter than no prur could be, we speak of the lovely Rosalind Rountree. She was the guest of her uncle, Dr. Johnson.--Grifton Lamp-Light. Our esteemed friend, Mr. Andrew Joyner, who is now representing the Keely Institute, of Greensboro, is home after a month's travel in North Carolina. He is doing a grand work, and the notices we see of him in our exchanges are highly complimentary. His lecture to men in the Court House Saturday afternoon on the method of treatment at Greensboro for the cure of liquor and opium habits, produced a profound impression on all who heard it. In common with his host of friends we wish him God speed. There were twenty-five conversions and recommitments during the revival recently held in the Methodist church at this place. Thirty-eight have been received into the Methodist church this year on profession of faith and by certificate. G. F. SMITH. Mr. Andrew Joyner has consented to deliver an address at the Opera House in Greenville on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Let all who are interested in the cause of morality go out to hear this talented son of Pitt, who never fails to draw an audience and hold it. Don't fail to read Mr. D. D. Haskett's supplement in to-day's issue. For ninety days commencing June 1st he will sell Shoes and Hardware at greatly reduced prices. Any one wanting to purchase anything in his line had better see him before making their purchases. The river bridge late in the evening are usually thronged during the warm weather by the young people of our town. A perfect shade all the way. The winding river, the pretty wild flowers, the perfumes from the forests, makes this place a pleasant resort after our day's work is done. A Card. FALKLAND, N. C., May 25, 1892. MR. EDITOR--Allow me through the columns of the REFLECTOR to thank each and every one of the Pitt county delegation for their unflinching support at the convention in Raleigh. Respectfully, W. R. WILLIAMS. Black Jack Items. Hog cholera is raging in our section. Mr. Henry Dickson lost thirty-two hogs in ten days. Several parties in the immediate neighborhood have lost hogs by this terrible scourge. Our corn crop is not very good, the bud worms are playing havoc with the young corn. Cotton stands generally good, but small owing to the cool, dry weather. C. A Card. Under the new management of the Clyde and O. D. S. S. Companies Mr. J. J. Cherry takes charge of the agency at Greenville and I a position in the Washington office, where I shall take pleasure in serving our patrons in the future as I have in the past, and hereby tender you personally and also in behalf of the company our sincere thanks for your very liberal patronage in the past and solicit a continuation of the same. Yours truly, R. M. HEARNE. Alliance Speaking at May's Chapel. A large crowd attended the speaking at May's Chapel Wednesday night. Our esteemed and honored County Lecturer, Maj. Henry Harding, introduced Mr. Chas. L. Abernethy, who is now delivering a series of lectures in this county. I was more than struck with the youthful appearance of Mr. Abernethy. He is only about 19 or 20 years of age. He is a young man of much information in Alliance matters. He held his crowd spell bound for about an hour with his eloquence, sound argument applicable and laughable anecdotes. After Mr. Abernethy had entertained the crowd our venerated lecturer, whom everybody around May's Chapel loves, made a speech and as usual won the applause that our people are always sure to give him. He is always on the right track with his clear-cut and forcible argument. After being entertained by two excellent speeches we disbanded and started for our homes about eleven o'clock. [This should have been inserted in last issue but was involuntarily crowded out. --EDITOR.] A detective can arrest a man's attention if given a good working case.

Lang in Front. By reference to Lang's column in to-day's issue you will readily see that he is still retaining his reputation as a caterer for public good. He is still running his cost sale and intends to keep it up for a short time only. He is offering dry goods, dress goods, notions, clothing, boots and shoes at cost for the cash only, and those desiring to make purchases had better go and get them before it is too late. All he asks is an inspection. His four clerks are ever ready to serve you and to show goods is no trouble. Orders by mail receive prompt attention. Mt. Pleasant Picnic. A delightful picnic was had last Friday at or near Mt. Pleasant and a large crowd was in attendance. From an early hour in the morning people began to gather and by 12 o'clock the fun was at its height. Mess. J. White and Louis Mayo delivered fine addresses and delighted the huge gathering with their flow of words. The tables were heavily laden with good things and we learn that four hogs were left after all had feasted. We heard some express themselves as being the nicest they had ever attended. The managers deserve the highest praise for their untiring efforts to make the picnic such a success. WASHINGTON WASHINGS. The nomination of Elias Carr seems to give general satisfaction to our people. A very large delegation of negroes have left here for the truck farms around Norfolk. Miss Annie Brooks, of Centerville, has been quite ill at Mrs. M. F. Latham's. Glad to say she is better. Mr. R. E. Alligood, a dashing widower seems to be infatuated with a Pitt county girl. He goes often and stays long. The Gazette man seemed to linger around and about Raleigh several days after the adjournment of the convention. Judge Brown has been home a few days attending the side of his sick wife. Judge Shepherd has also been at home a few days. The Steamer Greenville was bid off by a Norfolk gentleman for $1,835. A very cheap boat. It was thought she would bring $3,000. We are not advised where she will run. Messrs. J. P. Claude Quinerly, John Harvey, L. J. Chapman and Misses Annie Brooks, Mand Wiggins and Lorena Stille, all of Centerville, have been visiting friends in town. The war between the two executive committees has been amicably settled by the election of R. W. Wharton as chairman. How pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! Rev. L. A. Cutler, of Richmond, Va., has been preaching a series of sermons for the Disciples since the dedication. Eleven have been added to the church. Mr. Cutler is an able minister and preaches with power. Rumor says one of our young country boys has eloped with a girl and the whereabouts of the girl are unknown. The boy claims that he took her away to marry her but no marriage license has been procured up to date. Mr. J. G. Bragaw becomes agent for the Coast Line at this place. Several desired the place, but Mr. Bragaw was the winning man. The new depot will soon be completed and everything will be in readiness for the potato crop. The train is elegantly painted and looks like it is just from the shops. The Coast Line is running regular trains to the depot in Washington. The road bed through town is in most excellent condition. The street is higher, better and much more inviting than before the same was graded. The silver spikes were driven by Misses Belle Blount and Maggie Hoyt, two of the most popular ladies of the city. The schedule is as follows: Leave 7 A. M., arrive 8:30. The train will take passengers to Tarboro, where they can be transferred to all points north or south. Greenville and Kinston derives no benefit from this schedule. Passengers bound for Greenville or Kinston will have to spend a day at the Junction. L. Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy Will Cure Cancer in its Early Stages. RINGWOOD, N. C., May 2, 1887. MRS. JOE PERSON--Dear Madam, Most gladly do I give my name to place before the public, bearing testimony of the miraculous cure effected on me by your most valuable Remedy. Fifteen years ago I was troubled by what seemed to be little scales appearing on the right cheek, under the eye, resembling dry meal bran, which I could remove when I shaved, but they would return again in short time. Soon an enlargement appeared under the same eye, attended with itching and burning sensations, and sharp, darting pains from the affected place to the eye, causing great difficulty in closing the eye, even to sleep. Sometimes it would feel better, but never at any time disappeared. Some physicians pronounced it eczema, others chronic eczema, and all advised me to let it alone. This I did until two years ago, when a little scab began to form right under the eye, resembling a wart, which I could not remove; in size and appearance it grew to be as large as a strawberry, and the scabs came off and left the place entirely raw. Having fear of a cancer, I began to use various kinds of salves to heal it up, but never could. I consulted with physicians of great experience; they said it looked suspicious of it, and advised me to have it cut or burnt out at once. I did not wish to do either; and being persuaded it was in my blood, I resolved to try your Remedy, as it had been recommended to me. I did so with the most happy results. I can say I am a well man. I cannot say too much for your Remedy; it is worth its weight in gold. Before I had used one bottle I was hopeful, and at the expiration of five weeks the sore was entirely healed, the scales or roughness of the skin all gone, and left me a new man. I will give any similarly affected any further information they may desire, and can only say, if the public will give your Remedy a trial it will speak for itself, and your success will know no bounds. God speed the day that must dawn upon your prosperity. Yours most truly, J. A. CARTERS BRIDGEMAN. We tender our thanks to Prof. S. D. Bagley, Principle of the Lenoirburg Female College, for a handsome and unique invitation to attend the commencement exercises of that popular school which took place May 25th to June 1st.

YOUNG DOCTORS. Sixty-Nine Applications for Licenses--Forty-Five Applications Granted. The Wilmington Star says the Board of Medical Examiners did not complete their labors until a very late hour Friday night. The number of applicants for license to practice medicine in this State was sixty-nine, of which five were colored men. Of the whole number forty-five were successful and twenty-four were rejected. The first prize for the best general average was awarded to Dr. B. J. Buchanan, of Salisbury. The following is a list of those to whom diplomas were awarded: R. H.
