"GIDEON'S BAND."

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, People's Party of North Carolina, Chairman's Office, Raleigh, N. C. Oct. 21, '92.

As you have used the machinery of the party of which you are the official head, together with the Democratic press of the State and nation for its circulation, I hope that your sense of fair play will give the same prominence and wide circulation to this communication. Justice demands it.

Mr. Editor:—At the request of Mr. S. Otho Wilson, I desire, through the medium of the press, to lay before the people of North Carolina the above letter, which I think contains the strongest possible proof of the charge he herein essays to answer. It will be observed he does not deny the statements made by Messrs. Reed and Bell, and makes the single point that the "band" is not a political society. In other words, summoned to the bar of public opinion, his plea is what is known among the lawyers as a plea by way of "confession and avoidance."

What I leave it to the intelligent people of the State if this is not a fair interpretation, indeed, the only admissible interpretation, of his letter. If the facts being admitted, or proven, the people will not accept Mr. Wilson's conclusions as to whether they constitute a political society, especially when it is well known he and some of his followers have very eccentric notions about what is political. They will take the facts and decide for themselves, and these facts, admitted as I have shown by Mr. Wilson, show a well defined secret political organization.

What I leave it to the intelligent people of the State if this is not a fair interpretation, indeed, the only admissible interpretation, of his letter. If the facts being admitted, or proven, the people will not accept Mr. Wilson's conclusions as to whether they constitute a political society, especially when it is well known he and some of his followers have very eccentric notions about what is political.

NO THIRD PARTY IN THIS.

GRIMESLAND ALLIANCE NO. 1379, GRIMESLAND, Oct. 22, 1892.

GREETING:—Much to our regret many members of the Alliance in this county and State, from the false position assumed by some of our leaders, regard the Alliance as a political machine antagonizing our best interests. This is a mistake, and we would interpose a plea for the Alliance. Believing that a healthy reaction will occur we appeal to the loyal and conservative Alliancemen in this county to re-align themselves with us in restoring the Alliance to its pristine purity, and usefulness, hoping to regain in time in this State our former prestige and influence, and yet be a power to advance the cause of successful reform and practical relief.

Presenting our views of the situation in a series of resolutions offered Pitt county Alliance at its last meeting which they returned to us and are published below as follows:

GRIMESLAND, N. C., Oct. 8, '92. To Pitt county Farmers' Alliance: BROTHERS:—WHEREAS the St. Louis Platform will probably be brought before our county meeting on Thursday, October 13th, 1892, for indorsement, and

WHEREAS, these principles have driven from this Sub-Alliance more than half its members who refuse to affiliate with an organization which they claim to be perverted into an instrument of evil, and will not be longer members of a body whose constitution is distorted to such an extent as to allow the acceptance as one of the principles of its platform such pernicious and revolutionary measures as the government ownership of railroads, &c., Grimesland Alliance, No. 1379, in session this day.

Resolved 1st. That we herewith enter a protest against the ratification by Pitt county Alliance at this time of the St. Louis demands, as we believe such action now would be prejudicial to the best interests of the Alliance and a menace to its continued existence. 2nd. That we regard the St. Louis Platform as inimical to the real purpose and intent of the Alliance, and is the offspring of a heterogeneous gathering of hybrid elements composed of socialists, woman suffragists, Knights of labor, single-tax-men and many other organizations.

A SAD FAREWELL.

The Farmers' Alliance Entreats Third Party Men to Return, if not, Farewell.

At a meeting of the Leachburg Farmers' Alliance, No. 83, Johnston county, N. C., the following resolutions were adopted October 15, 1892:

WHEREAS, the Farmers' Alliance of North Carolina, and of other States, has, under the influence of designing men and demagogues perverted the original intention of the order, and contrary to the constitution thereof, has formed itself, in part, into a new political party; and

WHEREAS, the majority of the members of this Alliance have strenuously opposed such a political movement from its inception; therefore be it

Resolved 1st. That the Farmers' Alliance is, under the constitution, non-partisan. 2. That the forming of a new political party in violation of said constitution, is destructive to the order itself and injurious to the best interests of the country. 3. That the principles of the Alliance in the true sense of the word are of Democracy and identical. 4. That we shall support the Democratic ticket, as heretofore, believing it to be the only party of tariff reform, economy, justice and the proper administration of the government.

Resolved 2nd. That we regret the schism in the Alliance, believing that if we had steered clear of politics and worked in the old parties as heretofore, great good would have been the result. 6. That we are still proud of the constitutional element of our order, always true, conservative and abiding. 7. To the members of the Alliance who are "third party" men, we would say: Farewell, we cannot affiliate with you; you have been miseducated; you are fatally injuring the order and your own selves personally; come back if you will; we will forgive you and receive you as brothers; if not, a sad farewell.

A WAIL OF WOE.

Orange (Va) Observer. NEEDMORE, N. C., Oct. 8, '92. MR. GRAND OLD PARTY, Land of Plenty, N. Y.

Dear Paw:—I'm in a most dickens of a fix down here. Notwithstanding your last remittance, I am now plum strapped. Me and that fellow Phocora got into a little rumpus in that North Carolina last August, but thank goodness I came out alive though a little disfigured. I practiced up and exercised my muscles till one day we met in Arkansas I just coqueted and romanced with him there and threw up the sponge on the first round. But the other day we met in Georgia and Florida, right on the line, and he was seconded by the famous slugger, Wall Street, Esq., and to tell the truth, Paw, a most terrible cyclone struck me.

These lying newspapers say a cyclone struck you in Maine and Vermont. How did it happen? I need more training Paw. Now please advance me a little more money for the name of our noble ancestry or I shall get a most devil of a wallop in November. I get enough light food, such as unmercantable eggs, but I can't gain much strength from them. Now Paw, please send me some money right away. Paw, also a professional trainer of sluggers.

I am, your affectionate son, PEOPLE'S PARTY. A Little Girl's Experiences in a Light-house.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Prescott are keepers of the Gov. Light-house at Stand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew weaker rapidly, until she was a mere "wisp of bonbons." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery will weigh its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Wooten's Drug Store.

The postmistress at Kenansville, who has held the office for several years and given perfect and entire satisfaction, a lady of high personal character, has been removed, and in her place appointed an ignorant, unclean negro man. Nor is this all. The negro could not give the $10,000 bond, and in order to "get him in" the bond was reduced for his special convenience to $3,000. The citizens are justly indignant, but petitioning against the outrage has availed nothing as yet.—Raleigh Chronicle.

WORK IS OUR WEALTH.

Richmond Dispatch. The Atlanta Constitution gives great credit to the Democratic weeklies of that State for what they did in winning the victory achieved on Wednesday, and declares that they deserve "a flaming laurel from the Democratic wreath."

No doubt of it. The "country editor" not only writes and talks and spends his money for his party; put his office in "headquarters," and in consequence a vast amount of miscellaneous labor is imposed upon him; but he rarely complains, though he knows that others will reap where he has sown, and that when at the close of the contest "honorable mention" is to be made of those who have rendered great service his name will hardly be thought of. So far then it will be asked to pay tribute to dozens of persons who have not contributed to party success one tenth as much as he has.

Lack of appreciation is bad enough, but the climax is reached when the editor is asked to sit down and award the credit to others for what he himself has done. There is where a halt should be called.

"Gov." Exam Writes President Harrison About Federal Supervisors. Goldsboro Argus.

The hopes-to-be-Governor of North Carolina, Dr. W. B. Exum, held a meeting down at Bull Head, in Greene county, last week.—Mr. Taylor, the former registrar of that township, says—at which he pronounced a great eulogy on the said I. Pat Exum. Mr. Taylor says that Pat said in his speech that he had written a letter to President Harrison to secure Federal Carolina polls, and that President Harrison had replied to the letter advising him how to proceed to secure the desired "absolutely honest every ballot." Mr. Taylor defies Dr. Exum to deny that he made this statement in his Bull Head night meeting.

Deserving Praise. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Discovery for Croup, Dr. King's Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Wooten's Drug Store.

THE LAST APPEAL.

This is the last issue of the REFLECTOR that will reach its subscribers before the election. During the campaign we have endeavored to lay before the people fairly and impartially the issues that confront us in this time of a State and National election. In doing this the REFLECTOR had to be plain and state the facts just as we found them. We have stated truths and have no apology to make for the course we have pursued. It is the first time we have ever had men who have labored faithfully for the Democratic party heretofore bitterly arrayed against us. These changed conditions have necessitated a hard and in some cases bitter fight on the part of the press. The REFLECTOR has felt the paramount necessity of the triumph of Democratic principles and in consequence has not hesitated to promulgate this doctrine. It is grateful to the Democracy of this and other counties for the liberal and hearty support it has received. This has aided us much in standing squarely up to what we conceived to be our duty and we believe every true, honest Democrat will approve of our course.

We have now a few more words to say to all of our people before we close this memorable campaign. Not since 1860 have there been greater issues at stake than now. Not since then has there been so much to gain, or so much to lose. Not since then has more depended upon the results of a political event. Therefore first of all would we call upon our people to stop for a moment and think before they act. Reckon well and carefully as to what is to be gained or what is to be lost by this or that course. Throw away for a while the ill will, the ill feeling and the prejudices that may have been engendered during the campaign. Lay aside all side issues and for once in your life act honestly with yourself, your family, your country and your God. It is a time for just such action. Will it pay you to act rashly when there is so much at issue? Can you afford to lose what you have gained for the past twenty-five years? Can you afford to put away reason and common sense and act blindly only for once? What are you to gain by it, white man? Shall we deliberately bring trouble upon ourselves and greater financial embarrassments than we are now laboring under? Are we who are all striving for the same things to split asunder because we differ upon the manner of getting these things and thereby lose what we have? Can you better your financial condition by a vote for any other ticket than the Democratic? Don't common sense teach you that at least this time either the Republicans or the Democrats will be elected in this Nation? Have you not had the rule of the Republican party for 25 years and have you not seen the products of your labor go down and down until they are below the cost of production? Are you willing that this should continue for four more long years? Don't common sense teach you that the policy of the Republicans will not be changed should they be elected? Had you not at least better try the Democratic party with the prospect of bettering your condition? Some of you may say we have tried it. Well did you not do as well as you did under the Republican? We appeal to every honest man to answer for himself these questions and see if it leads him into the Republican party. But many an honest farmer will say "I know these things are true but I am not going to the Republican party. There is nothing that could induce me to do so foolish a thing. I am going to vote the Third party ticket." You are? Well let us see about that.

You may vote for some men who are Third party men. Can the Third party men alone elect any man in the State? Can they alone, with only Third party men, carry a single county in the State? Then how is your vote going to count anything? But you say "I know this is true but the Republicans are going to vote with us." They are? How so? Are the demands of your party similar to theirs? Don't you yourselves say that the Democrats and Republicans are about the same thing? You have said time and again that it is six of one and a half dozen of the other. Well, then, don't common sense teach you that every honest Republican who leaves his party would go to the Democrats? But you say "they will vote with you just to beat the Democrats." Will they? What would they gain by that if you are farther away from them than the Democrats? Why should they wish to beat the Democrats if they are to reap no benefit whatever and at the same time aid a party whose demands are more, by far as you say, at variance with theirs than even the party they beat. They will do this just to beat the Democrats! They are not benefited one iota. Now, honor bright, do Republicans do things that way? There is not an honest man in North Carolina who will be honest with himself but would say they do not. It is unreasonable. It is better than you could expect of the Democratic party, and honestly it is not better than even your party would do! Just vote without any reward or any hope of reward? Is the Republican party of the South made up of such men? Answer it, Third party men, with an approving conscience and see what conclusion it will lead you to.

Well, then, if they are not going to vote for you just for nothing why are they going to vote with you? There can be but two answers. You must either buy them or you must barter with them. Now which is it? It cannot be that the Third party has money enough to do the former with its present number and its age. Furthermore it cannot be that a party starting out for reform would be guilty of purchasing votes and thereby a party to the fountain head of most all political corruption. You yourselves would say this is not so. No, sir, we are not bribers of voters. This not being true it is narrowed down to only one reason why they should vote with you, that is we vote for you, you vote for us. But you said you were not going to vote the Republican ticket. Well, now, you see you are. What means this withdrawing of the Republican candidates for Congress in the first, fourth and sixth Congressional Districts?

Did they just step down for nothing to help you fellows? Would they not have stood the best chance of election with three candidates in the field when you drew most of your strength from the Democrats? Why no county tickets in so many counties? In your county of Pitt don't the Republicans say openly that the Executive Committee promised that if they would endorse you that you would let their electoral ticket alone? What does this mean? Does it mean that you are not to say one word against the election of Harrison and Reid if they will help you get the Legislature? If this is all you are to do don't you see that Harrison and Reid will not carry a single vote more than if they had put out a full ticket? White men do you believe this was the bargain? Don't you believe that you were to vote for Harrison and Reid? No you will not do it, but don't you know somebody must do so in this county and in these Congressional Districts to compensate for their support to your tickets? Answer this honestly and conscientiously and see where it will lead you. Now will you be a party to any such deal? White men think before you act. All of your demands are National ones and yet you are to aid and abet in electing a man for President who would veto every bill for any of these demands if you could get them through Congress. You yourselves don't complain of our State government and yet to get that which you cannot better you barter away every hope of getting any of the things for which you profess to be fighting. No honest man who will sit down and consider these things will longer remain out of the Democratic party. The trouble is that you are being deceived by your leaders. They get a compensation for leading you astray while you only bring trouble upon yourself and your families. Nothing can be plainer than the fact that you are aiding the Republicans. They are boasting that if they can get the Third party to hold out until the election they will carry North Carolina.

Honest yeomanry of Pitt county, we call upon you for the last time before that eventful day, the 8th day of November, 1892, to assert your manhood and help save Pitt county, North Carolina and the Nation from that party which is responsible for all our financial depression; we call upon you to help do away with their abominable tariff system that is robbing you and me of a large part of our honest earnings. We call upon you to help give us more money and better money. We call upon you to help rebuke the system that is enriching the few at the expense of the many, and last but not least we call upon you to save your State, your county, your ballot box, your homes and your firesides from Federal bayonets, by burying forever that most abominable of all fendish measures—the Force Bill. To do this one thing, and one only, is necessary, and that is that you come back and vote the Democratic ticket. We appeal to your better judgment, we appeal to your patriotism, we appeal to your love of home and family to do this, and we believe you will if you will think calmly and without prejudice before you cast your ballots on the 8th day of November.

Again, and for the last time during the year 1892, the REFLECTOR asks you to vote the Democratic ticket from Grover Cleveland down to Constable. Will you do it? We leave the matter with you. Answer it at the ballot box next Tuesday.

SCOTLAND NECK RALLY.

You may read of great demonstrations, and of the assembling together of the untried Democracy, but it takes being present on such an occasion as the Democrats of Halifax county had at Scotland Neck last Saturday, to realize the full meaning of these. Glorious old Halifax has been spoken of in days gone by as the "black county," signifying that it was not only dominated largely by the black element, but that nothing good could be expected to come from it. However after seeing her demonstration on Saturday we wanted to throw up our hat and exclaim "give Halifax the banner and put her in the front rank."

The REFLECTOR has many admirers (of which we are proud) in and around Scotland Neck, and a desire to be with them and see old Halifax spread herself took us there last Saturday. Almost the first thing witnessed after getting there was what looked like a vast army coming in the distance. Down each sidewalk were thousands of people on foot, while in the roadway was a cavalcade half a mile long. There were a few over 300 mounted horsemen and nearly every rider carried a flag. In the procession were the girls of the female school all wearing white Cleveland and Stevenson caps and after them came the cadets from Prof. Allen's military school. We were astonished to find so many colored men in line with the Halifax Democracy; quite a number of them rode with the horsemen while the number on foot was up in the hundreds. Chief Marshal T. W. Fenner was in charge of the procession and managed it with marked success.

The great crowd filed into the grove in front of Dr. Wood's residence where the speaking was to take place. Here seats for 3,000 people were arranged, but still hundreds were left standing. Fully 5,000 took part in the demonstration. The ladies were out in large number lending their smiles and encouragement to the occasion. The splendid brass band from Wilson was there and made the air merry with excellent music.

When the vast throng came together they were rapped to order by editor Hilliard of the Democrat. He said it was the greatest demonstration Scotland Neck had ever known—the greatest Democratic rally Halifax had ever seen. He announced that Mr. W. A. Dunn would introduce the first speaker. When Mr. Dunn said the Democratic party is not dead, the solid South is not broken, he was greeted with a tremendous outburst of applause. In well chosen words he introduced Hon. W. R. Henry, who spoke for three hours and dealt out sound Democracy with sledge hammer effect. There he urged the crowd not to come any time with applause, the enthusiasm could not be held in check and loud cheers betokened their appreciation of his words.

After him Mr. R. H. Smith, Jr., in a handsome manner introduced Fred Woodard, Esq., Democratic candidate for Congress in the Second District. He spoke for an hour and a half, and handled the issues under discussion with clearness, force and effect. He was greeted with applause all through his speech. After these two great speeches the enthusiastic people were still ready to listen longer and called loudly for Buck Kitchen. Capt. Kitchen talked for half an hour and his was pronounced by many the grand speech of the day. He is every inch a man, Democratic to the core, and made such a fervent appeal for Grover Cleveland that the crowd rose up in a grand shout for our next President. It was a grand day, a glorious day, and if Halifax does not roll up a big majority for Democracy next Tuesday the REFLECTOR is no interpreter of signs. Three cheers for Halifax always!

THE FORCE BILL IS ALIVE.

Utterances of leading Republicans in regard to the Force Bill reveal in a startling manner the dangers that threaten the country from the revolutionary schemes of the party in power. There can be no doubt of the intention of the Republicans to pass the bill if they succeed in carrying this election. No sincere lover of his country can contemplate calmly the far-reaching consequences of this legislation. The programme means usurpation of all political power by the Federal Government, the political and industrial enslavement of the South. It means the ultimate overthrow of our free institutions and the setting up of an oligarchy upon their ruins. It means the destruction of the Republic. The hour has come when all patriots should stand shoulder to shoulder in defence of their freedom as American citizens against the revolutionary plans of a party of desperate political conspirators. Look at these utterances:

"With the Lodge National Election Law in full force over the South, and various Democratic strongholds up North, we may confidently look for a different sort of political action than now exists. New York City will then return several more Republican Congressmen than at present, while MORE THAN TWENTY STATES will elect Democrats. THE SOUTH will render the Republican control of the future Congress absolutely secure and safe. As Mississippi, South Carolina and Florida contain a large majority of Negroes and as there are ENOUGH WHITE REPUBLICANS IN ALABAMA, ARKANSAS, NORTH CAROLINA AND LOUISIANA ACTING IN CONCERT WITH THE NEGROES TO PUT THESE STATES IN THE REPUBLICAN LINE, we can confidently look in the future for seven Southern States to be reliably Republican. This means a gain of fourteen Senators, and at least twenty Representatives to the Republican Party. When through the operation of the Lodge National Election Law six or seven Southern States shall have become Democratic, we shall look confidently to see some measures of justice done the blacks, who have so long been defrauded of their rights. Heavy taxation and the planter property of the whites to develop and extend the public school system in these States. Separate schools for the two races should be abolished, and the plan of bringing the youth of both colors into close and equal relations in schools and churches given a fair trial, as one of the most potent elements to break down the color barrier in the South. The right of the black to bear arms should be guaranteed to him as well as all the social rights intended to be secured him by the passage of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution. The State Laws against the intermarriage of the races should be repealed, and any discriminations against the blacks in matters of law, trade or obtaining employment should be made a CRIMINAL OFFENSE. WHILE THE COLORED MAN'S RIGHT TO HOLD OFFICE SHOULD BE SACREDLY PROTECTED, ANY RECORD OF A FEW YEARS OF THIS POLICY will solve the race problem satisfactorily."—National Republican, Washington, D. C., July 8, 1891.

"I give notice now that I shall continue to press my Force Bill and intend to pass it before I die too. I shall pass the Force Bill yet—you see I don't."—JOHN I. DAVENPORT, United States Supervisor of elections in New York City, and author of the Lodge Force Bill.

"I believe my Democratic friends say that there is a Force Bill issue in this campaign. I don't think there is, but I think there ought to be. This is the most important question in this campaign, and I would a GOOD DEAL RATHER HAVE NEGRO DOMINATION IN THE SOUTH THAN THE DOMINATION THAT PREVAILS AT THE PRESENT TIME."—EX-SENATOR JOHN G. INGALLS, of Kansas in a speech at Topeka, Oct. 2, 1892.

"If the Democrats had never been allowed to regain control of the State governments of the South, Northern capital would have been embarked in the development of Southern coal and iron; and the surest and speediest way to put a stop to this competition from men who are our political enemies, as well as our commercial rivals, is to carry through and enforce measures like the Lodge election law. And if we can once more get them into the conditions they were in before 1876 we won't hear any more about cheap iron and cheap cotton goods from the South. They will have other things to think about."—Editor of the Philadelphia Press, quoted by one of President Harrison's closest friends, Hon. EMORY SMITH, late Minister to Russia.

About Washing Flannels

Dr. A. N. Bell, Editor of the Sanitarian, New York, writes: "Pearline has gained special ascendancy in my household and in many others to my knowledge, for cleansing flannels. Your own directions for its use are those we abide by: 'Wash flannels by hand in lukewarm Pearline suds; rinse thoroughly in warm water; wring dry (by pressure through clothes wringer); pull and shake well; dry in warm temperature and they will keep soft without shrinking.'"

As one wash is sufficient to ruin flannels, great care should be exercised as to the use of the many imitations which are being offered by unscrupulous grocers or peddlers. Pearline is never peddled.

'Millions Use Pearline. Do You?'

Dr. Tyre York, a Republican of long standing and an ex-Republican candidate for Governor, leaves the old corrupt party and declares that he shall support Grover Cleveland and the Democratic ticket.

Mrs. Harrison, wife of President Harrison, died in the White House at Washington, on Monday night of last week. Her remains were taken to Indianapolis for burial. The whole civilized world sympathizes with the President of our Nation in this great affliction that has befallen him.

Mr. J. T. Gregory, of Halifax county, a life long Republican and Clerk of the Superior Court of that county for twenty years, was also chairman of the county Republican Executive committee, has left that party and says he shall support the entire Democratic ticket. He published a card in the last issue of the Scotland Neck Democrat giving his reasons for this step.

THE REFLECTOR.

Local Reflections.

November. Lee was reported last week. This is the eleventh month. Vote the Democratic ticket. Get ready to vote and vote right. For soups use Succotash at Rountree's. Take a day off and go to the Weidon fair. Big stock of Shoes just in at Brown Bros. The weather is fine enough for anybody. The Weidon fair is in progress and a good one. The New Home Sewing Machine for 35 at Brown Bros. Don't scratch any name, but vote the full Democratic ticket. A second-hand cook stove for sale cheap. Enquire at this office. New Home Sewing Machines and all machine parts at Brown Bros. A vote for Democracy is a vote for the sanctity of your homes. New Cream Cheese and N. Y. State Butter at the Old Brick Store. A vote for Democracy is a vote for the liberties of this Nation. Want to eat something good? Boss Biscuits at the Old Brick Store. A vote for Democracy is a vote for the prosperity of your State. Cheapest Furniture, Bedsteads and Mattresses at the Old Brick Store. A vote for Democracy is a vote for the welfare of your country. A vote for Democracy is a vote against "a bayonet behind every ballot." For a sweet smoke go to Rountree's and get a Linden or Cardenas cigar. To-day is the time for the Great Tobacco Exposition at Rocky Mount. Cash given for Produce, Hides, Egg and Furs at the Old Brick Store. Be careful with your ballots next Tuesday and see that you vote right. November will give us five Tuesdays, five Wednesdays and five REFLECTORS. First of the season—New fancy buckwheat and cherry jelly at the Old Brick Store. Do not allow yourself to be led into voting any other but the Democratic ticket. A vote for Democracy is a sure relief from your present embarrassed financial condition. The bird law limit has expired now and hunters may bang at the partridges to their hearts content. Unless you want our present system of county government abolished vote the Democratic ticket next Tuesday. There was a big frost last Thursday morning that made everything feel like winter was about to come so early enough. Large lot Ladies Cloaks, latest styles, at Brown Bros. If size wanted is not in stock can have it made to order on short notice. The corner room under the Opera House is being fitted up for Mr. J. Q. Smith. He will open a tobacco and fruit store. Liberal premiums are offered for the best exhibits at the Weidon Fair. There is no reason why Pitt county cannot win some of them. The REFLECTOR thanks Mr. R. H. Hooper for a mess of new crop Irish potatoes he sent us the other day. They were very fine. Somebody wanted to know why we had been calling the Third party the 4 party. That is easy—Peoples and 3 Republican. Don't you see? Happy and content is a home with the Rochester, a lamp with the light of the morning. For catalogue write Rochester Lamp Co., New York. This is the last appeal the REFLECTOR can make to the white men of Pitt county to do their duty next Tuesday and vote the Democratic ticket. A splendid open front heating stove coal burner, can be bought cheap by applying at this office. It is a suitable stove for either office, sitting room or parlor. If you don't want county government changed vote for F. G. James for the Senate, and for Fred McLawhore and I. K. Witherington for the House. NOTICE—All persons indebted to me for Guano will find their notes and accounts in the hands of J. L. Sugg. They will please call on him and settle the same. H. HARDING. The meeting of the Board of County Commissioners next Monday will close up the fiscal year with them. They begin a new year on the first Monday in December. Work on the double brick store of Brown & Hooker commenced last week and the walls are going up rapidly. Mr. P. E. Smith, of Scotland Neck, has the contract for the building. Vaughan & Barnes, commission merchants of Norfolk, express the opinion that cotton is selling too low, and make a liberal offer to all wishing to hold. Their advertisement will explain. The Tarboro Southern calls them whangdoollers, Mr. Ham, of Georgia, calls them snoglogsters, and "Soretto" Wilson's record shows them up to be Gid-connites. Isn't that a combination, my country men! White men of North Carolina, a "Gid-conn Bar" is controlling the action of the Third party. Do you want to express your disapproval of such a secret political organization? If so vote the Democratic ticket next Tuesday.

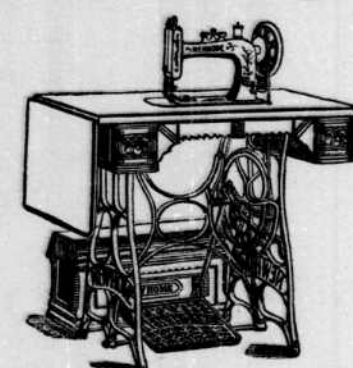

Personal. Rev. A. D. Hunter attended the Baptist Association at Smithfield last week. Mr. Ed. Ragsdale, actioneer of the Pioneer Warehouse, Tarboro, has been spending a few days in this section. Mr. Andrew Joyner left yesterday for Newport News, Va., to take a position with a branch of the Keely Institute established there. An enthusiastic Democrat was on the street Monday and had six teeth in his hand. He said he had taken them out for the Democratic party, and would give every tooth he had rather than see the 4 party and Republicans get control of the county and State. It is important that the next Legislature of North Carolina should not be controlled by the Republicans. That party and the Third party are working in league and any man who votes for a Third party candidate is helping the Republicans just that much. The 4 class parties have promised Republicans if they (Republicans) will help them (Thirds) in their county ticket, then the Third party will not interfere with the Republican electoral ticket—in other words will help elect Harrison. White men, be careful how you vote. Every Democrat should go to the polls next Tuesday and do his duty. Let one stay away and think their votes are not needed. If you want to put an end to the Force bill, to Gideon, to State and county government, come out and vote the entire ticket that you find at the REFLECTOR mast head. If you want your county government changed and Pitt county thrown back under the rule of '68 and '70, go to the polls next Tuesday and vote for Third party Forbes for the Senate, and for Third party Phillips and Third party Barnhill for the House. They are pledged to the Republicans to vote against our county government system and election law. Rocky Mount Fair. The REFLECTOR thanks the Secretary for a complimentary ticket to the Rocky Mount fair, 9th, 10th and 11th. On Thursday, the big day, an excursion will be run from Washington to Rocky Mount, waiting at the Junction for the trains from Plymouth and Kinston. The excursion will leave Rocky Mount at 5 p. m., connecting at the Junction with the other trains. Improvement. The Old Dominion Steamship Company has just completed a large two story warehouse on the wharf with platform leading to the upper floor. It is so arranged that during high water the lower floor can be thrown open for the water to pass through and the boats will discharge their cargoes on the upper floor. Such a warehouse has long been needed and will be found a great convenience in times of freshets in the river. Died. Mrs. Lydia James, wife of Mr. W. A. James, of Bethel township, died at three o'clock on last Saturday afternoon of paralysis. She was afflicted with this disease some weeks ago and had a second stroke the Sunday before her death. She was 62 years old, an excellent woman, and had a large circle of friends. She was a sister of Messrs. James Whitchard and W. R. Whitchard, and an aunt of this writer. Watch Your Tickets. Every voter should see that he has eight different tickets when he goes to the polls next Tuesday, as there will be many boxes in which to place ballots. You are to vote for Presidential Electors, for State officers, for Judges, for Constitutional Amendment, for Congressmen, for Senator and Representatives, for County Officers and for Constable. See that you have all these tickets, and be sure that they have on them the names of the Democratic nominees. Behold the Difference. To his other virtues (?) wants-to-be Governor EXUM has added the title of would-be-murderer. He brandishes a big knife and threatens to stick it in all Democrats if they don't stop talking about him. Isn't he a pretty specimen to make a Government out of for the great State of North Carolina! Are any of the white men of Pitt county going to waste their votes on such a character? Don't do it, men, but cast your ballot for honest Elias Carr, and thereby honor yourself and your State. Bless These Women, They're all Democrats. A 4 party man was in town Monday, and it happened that his sweetheart, or the girl he wanted to be his sweetheart, was here the same day. He saw her while sitting by a fire in one of our stores and thought it was a good chance to talk with her. He thought he would talk at random a bit before touching upon the tender subject, and unfortunately for himself said something about politics. She was overheard to say: "Look here, sir, if you read anything else besides the Progressive Farmer you would be better informed so you could know what you are talking about." She then gave him to understand that a Third party man was just wasting his time in trying to pay attention to as good a Democrat as she is, and he was seen to walk off a sadder looking but a wiser young man. The Champion. Hon. R. B. Glenn, Democratic Elector at large, spoke in the Court House here last Thursday night. The house was well filled, both from the town and surrounding country. Everybody who had heard of Glenn expected to hear something good, yes, something very good. But none of us were prepared to even anticipate what was in store for us. Without disparaging any of the able and magnetic Democratic speakers who are now canvassing North Carolina, we must say that R. B. Glenn is the finest campaigner in the State. It was the unanimous opinion of the whole audience that it was the equal if not superior to any political speech ever heard here. His logic, his eloquence, his vim, his oratory, his wit, his sarcasm and his earnestness were of the highest order and elicited unbounded applause. Could every white man in North Carolina hear Glenn his Democracy would be invincible. He left here the idol of every true and honest white man who heard him. All honor to the bold and chivalrous Bob Glenn.

Honor Roll. Of Miss Joyner's school for the month ending October 28th, 1892: Rosa Abrams, Jeanie Brown, Nannie Fleming, Bessie Greene, Irma McGowan, Leta McGowan, Maggie McGowan, Myra Skinner, Pattie Skinner, Winnie Skinner, Appie Smith, Hattie Smith, Johnnie Congleton, Charlie James, Harvey Jones, Lymon Joyner, Lee Rawls, Jesse Smith, Bruce Sugg, and Argall Vick. At the Junction. There are big improvements going on now at Farmale, perhaps better known as the A. & R. Junction. The railroad company have moved back the little building they had there for an office and are erecting a nice depot with ample accommodations for both passengers and freight. The Parmale & Eccleston lumber mills are being rapidly rebuilt on a much larger and more improved plan than the old plant. And Gainer & Little are building a large store. These with some minor improvements make it a busy place. There is life in the old land yet. Marriage Licenses. Wer issued by the Register of Deeds to the following couples in Pitt county during the month of October: WHITE—W. F. Taylor and Katie Caraway, Albert Horton and Susan N. Smith, C. P. Smith and Maggie Stokes, Frank Pitt and Maggie E. Burrows, James Langley and Mattie Martin. COLORED—Charley Clark and Martha Langley, Jerry Bridgers and Alice Blount, Sylvester Taylor and Martha Rountree, Jordan Dancy and Jennie Brown, John Diggins and Mary Little, Harry Waldson and Dinah Patrick, Bond Baker and Mary Boyd, Columbus Hopkins and Maggie Hardy. How is this? A 4 class party man from the country was in town last Friday and took a colored man out behind a building, where he thought no one else would hear and gave him a talk. He was heard to tell the ignorant darkey about these words: "If the Democrats are elected this time they will not let anybody vote hereafter unless they can read. But if you will elect the Third party we will put an officer at every ballot box to tell all you folks who can't read how to vote. We will also make a law not to allow any merchant to charge over 10 per cent. on his goods. We will make an officer go examine his bills and if the merchant charges more he will be indicted." A gentleman overhearing the conversation happened to make some noise just here and the 4 party man ran off. Now, is not that pretty stuff to be ramming down the throats of ignorant people by which to make them vote with the Third party? We ask fair minded, thinking men if they are going to be led off by a crowd guilty of such deception. Think where the Third party leaders under Gideonite and Republican control will lead you to. COTTON MARKET. (Reported by Cobb Bros.) NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 28th, 1892.—There has been no change in our official quotations here for spot cotton during the past week. We have had a good demand at the current price, 7 1/2 for middling, except two or three days during the first part of the week owing to the nervous condition of Liverpool and New York which was caused, it is said, by the favorable weather for developing and housing the crop at the South, especially in the Mississippi valley where it is reported the plant still continues to bloom and the crop on bottom lands will be materially increased thereby, and too, the anticipated strike of the mill operatives in Manchester, England, had a tendency to somewhat depress the market. But the latter part of the week the report of damage by frost from the South, together with intelligence from abroad that the threatened strike in Manchester would in all probabilities be averted, gave a more firm tone to the market. The estimated receipts for New Orleans Monday was 22,000 16,673 Port receipts since September 1st 1,443,320 2,191,953 Interior shipments 96,985 145,969 Interior stock 221,789 283,244 Visible supply 3,287,127 bales against 3,167,533 last year and 3,673,776 last week, showing an increase of 213,513 bales over last week. [From our Regular Correspondent.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28, 1892.—Politics was by unanimous consent a tabooed subject in Washington from the time the death of Mrs. Harrison was announced until the funeral train bearing her remains started upon its sorrowful journey to Indianapolis. The hearts of our people were overflowing with sympathy for the President of the United States who was, for the time, forgotten as the candidate of a political party and remembered only as the loving and beloved husband of the good woman lying dead in the White House. There was no boundary line to this sympathy. It came from every section of our country as well as from all parts of the world; Mr. Cleveland, our candidate, was among the first to wire condolences, and the local Democrats as a mark of their sympathy removed their Cleveland and Stevenson banner until after the funeral cortege had passed down Pennsylvania Avenue on its way to the train. Mrs. Harrison belonged to the type of mother and wife of which every American is proud, she carried herself with the same quiet dignity when presiding over her little three-room cottage home as when mistress of the White House and ranking as the "first lady in the land." This country owes more to this type of woman than history will ever tell, and it was only right that it should pause in the midst of a Presidential campaign to shed a tear over the grave of Caroline Scott Harrison. Hon. Wayne MacVeigh, of Pennsylvania, was in Washington this week to argue a case before the Supreme Court. He says he has received hundreds of letters from republican; many of them men who in the past been prominent in that party, endorsing his action in coming out for Cleveland and in denouncing the republican tariff policy, and informing him that the writers intend to vote the straight Democratic ticket this year. He predicts the election of Cleveland by an overwhelming majority, and that the tariff reformers will be in a majority in both Houses of the next Congress. Mr. Blaine is back in Washington and he is far from being pleased with what he considers the trickery of the man who prevented his nomination at Minneapolis in trying to make him share the responsibility for the management of the Republican campaign by remaining in New York, supposedly as an adviser of the Republican National Committee, but in reality as a dummy lay figure with nothing to say or do, except to look pleased. He told a friend that he had neither given nor been asked to give the National Committee any advice. Senator Hill passed through Washington on his way to Virginia where he makes several speeches this week. He was asked what the prospects were in New York, and his reply was both characteristic and significant—"Oh, New York is all right." "Which veterans who are Democrats, and there are lots of them, regard the announcement that Judge John P. Rea, of Minnesota, ex-Commissioner-in-Chief of the A. S. H. would support Cleveland because of his pension votes and his position on the tariff as a very important one, believing that it will have great effect on the result of the election talked about 'soldier vote.'" The Republicans are already trying to break the force of the announcement by charging that Judge Rea is a pensioner and that Mr. Harrison ever since he refused to appoint him Commissioner of Pensions, when Tanner was kicked out, and that he has taken this method of "getting even" with them. There was a big scare of some sort at the Republican headquarters in New York this week, and a Committee member Hobart sent post-haste to Washington with the news. He arrived here in time to hold consultations with several members of the Cabinet before their departure on the funeral train. CHARLOTTE, N. C. Mrs. JOE PEARSON—It is with pleasure I add to your long list of certificates the following, which I know to be true: Two years ago I had a colored nurse named Isabella Caldwell; she was a large, healthy woman, weighing 160 pounds. She was taken with some ailment, I do not know exactly what, but she had violent pain in her head, neck, and back. She suffered a great deal and some near dying. She fell away until her weight was only about 100 pounds. My wife gave her half a bottle of your Remedy and she began to improve, and another bottle entirely relieved her. Hoping your success, I am, Yours truly, WALTER BREEM. Walter Bridges, Athens, Tenn., writes: "For six weeks I was afflicted with running sores, and an enlargement of the bone in my leg. I tried everything I heard without any permanent benefit until Botanic Blood Balm was recommended to me. After using six bottles the sores healed, and I am now in better health than I have ever been. I send this testimonial unsolicited, because I want others to be benefited." VAUGHAN & BARNES, COMMISSION MERCHANTS Norfolk, Va. The movement of the cotton crop thus far this season would indicate that there was some foundation for the bad crop accounts daily reaching us from all parts of the cotton territory, if so the staple is selling too cheap and parties wishing to hold for higher prices can do so by shipping it to us and drawing for $25.00 per bale on same and having it held for six months is so desired. Faithfully yours, VAUGHAN & BARNES.

G. E. HARRIS, DEALER IN MAN, ORIAN & FERTILIZERS GREENVILLE, N. C. "Seeing is Believing." And a good lamp must be simple when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, beautiful, good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either. Look for this lamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, the title you want, send us for our illustrated catalogue and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 5,000 varieties. Write to us at once. ROCHESTER LAMP CO., 43 Park Place, New York City. "The Rochester."
