

IF YOU WANT
-TO-
REACH THE PEOPLE
-WITH-
YOUR ANNOUNCEMENT
-PUT IT IN-
THE REFLECTOR.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR.

D. J. WHICHARD, Editor and Owner

TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION.

TERMS: $1.00 per Year, in Advance.

VOL. XI.

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1893.

NO. 50

IF YOU WANT
-TO-
KEEP WELL POSTED
-AND-
GET THE NEWS
-TAKE-
THE REFLECTOR.

This Office for Job Printing.

This Office for Job Printing.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Things Mentioned in Our State Exchanges that are of General Interest. The Cream of the News.

Morganton Herald: Conductor Frazier had a scrap with a passenger on the East bound passenger train Thursday afternoon near Blinore station. The passenger pulled out an ugly gun and began perforating the cables, but the plucky conductor tackled him and left him in the ditch to cool off.

Raleigh Chronicle: Friday night last a thief entered the back window at the Yarboro saloon and took five watches from the showcase. It was evidently some person who knew well where everything was and what he wanted. He disturbed nothing else. The matter has been kept very quiet.

The Sampson Democrat says: "The saying 'there are other ways of killing a cat than by choking' holds good in a case of a deer. A colored man had a fine doe here Monday that was caught in the following unusual manner: He spied the deer running through the woods and giving chase ran it towards a fence near by, when the deer attempting to jump, was caught in the pallings, and unable to extricate itself was easily killed with a stick."

Raleigh News and Observer: With the announcement of the official result in the State, thus closing the memorable campaign of 1892, the Secretary of the Democratic Executive Committee, on behalf of the Chairman and the Committee, desires to return thanks to the press of the State, both daily and weekly, for gratuitous copies sent the Committee and above all for the noble work and patriotic services rendered the party, which contributed so largely to the glorious result.

Salisbury Herald: George J. Smith, carpenter, while under the influence of whiskey Saturday night, ran his fist through a pane of glass at his home and severed an artery in his wrist. He nearly bled to death before medical attention could be given him. Drs. Caldwell and Dorsett were with him until 4 o'clock Sunday morning. A runaway couple, Riley Montgomery and Miss Ada Parish, the latter of the Salisbury Cotton Mills, left here on the south bound train one night last week for South Carolina, where they will be joined in matrimony. They will reside, at least for awhile, in the Palmetto State. The groom is now a resident of that State.

Burlington Herald: A bold robbery and murder was reported in Moore county, N. C., 10 miles west of Sanford. The residence of Dr. McDonald was entered by a robber, who entered the sitting room where two elderly ladies, Dr. McDonald's sisters, were seated. He presented a pistol and demanded money. They screamed and he fired killing one and wounding the other fatally. Dr. McDonald, who is an elderly gentleman, came in, when the robber, at the point of his pistol made him deliver up his pocket-book. It contained some thirty dollars. The robber is described as a tall, thin, bright mulatto, but a stranger who reached Sanford from that direction is a tall thin, dark white man. He told conflicting tales and is supposed to be the man. He is under surveillance, but was not arrested at last accounts.

Wilmington Star: The three white men—Fred Durra, Frank Durra and O. L. Dudley—arrested last Saturday on the charge of larceny (as reported in the Star) were arraigned Monday before Justice R. H. Bunting. There were five cases against the prisoners for stealing surgical instruments and other articles from Dr. W. H. Bellamy's office, a lady's leather reticule and a stethoscope from Dr. Harby's office, and various articles from Mr. DuBretz Cudlar and others. The Durra confessed everything, but the evidence was pretty conclusive, that he was equally guilty. All three were committed to jail in default of six hundred dollars bail each—$300 in the first case and one hundred in each of the other cases. They will be tried at the next term of the Criminal Court. A dwelling owned by Mr. J. B. Mercer, but occupied by Mr. Henry Addix, at New Supply, Brunswick county, was destroyed by fire Christmas day. The fire was accidental, and is supposed to have originated from sparks, as it started on the roof of the building. Most of the furniture was saved. The property was partially insured. A colored woman named Kate Andrews was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued from Justice Bunting's court, and was sent to jail to await an investigation on a charge of a serious nature. Friday night, it is alleged, the woman entered the restaurant of Louis Gorman, colored, on Water street near the market house, and as she entered was seen to put something in a water bucket standing on a shelf near the door. Upon investigation a substance was found in the bucket that created suspicion, and the vessel and its contents were sent to a druggist for examination. The druggist found that a quantity of "Rough on Hair" was in the bucket.

Specimen Case. S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuritis and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Specker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg. Doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at Wooden's Drug Store.

A SONG OF PROPHECY.

His song fell on my ears what time I heard the bells of midnight chime,
I, who come with hands well laden,
With gifts for the far and near,
For prophet and priest, for sage and maiden,
I am the glad New Year.
Listen, O world, to the song I sing you—
Sweeter music can never be—
Open your lands to the good I bring you,
Open your souls to my prophecy.
"Wonderful things that, long benighted,
Have drifted the wide seas o'er,
With blessings for which the world has waited,
Shall come to you in the New Year.
The dreamer shall walk in fields elysian,
Right shall be lord of wrong;
The dream of fair and glad to-morrow,
And the singer his sweetest song.
"Such treasures as never were mined or mined
Shall come to the waiting hands:
Beauty and truth and love unadorned
Shall be yours and bless the lands.
Noble thoughts to brave deeds growing
Shall see you from victories won;
The perfect of fair and glad to-morrow,
Shall ripple beneath my sun.
"A sigh, if you will, for the king departed,
(In a song let the sigh be drowned)
Then lift your eyes, all happy-hearted,
To me, the king new-crowned.
In sweet allegiance swift and willing,
O world, clasp hands with me;
Help, I pray, to the best fulfilling
Of promise and prophecy."

A FEW RESOLUTIONS.

Make them by All Means, But Don't Tell Your Girl About It.

Resolve: That you will lead an upright and noble life.

As you will promptly break this resolution it will cause any qualms of conscience you may have at breaking any others.

Resolve: That you will speak nothing but good of your friends.

In this way you will be able to learn very shortly how very few friends you have.

Resolve: That you will never drink again.

Then for a couple of weeks you can tell your friends that you break your good resolution merely to drink with them, and they will feel very, very happy.

Resolve: Not to marry.

If married already, point to this resolution at the end of the year with pride. If a female (which is to be hoped you are not), tell all the men about it.

Resolve: That you will be prudent and economical during the entire year.

If you are not all well by next year, you will probably have to be economical next year to make up for it.

Resolve: Not to tell your girl of your New Year's resolutions.

She is probably a trusting young thing and it will send her heart to learn that, after all, you are not actually di-vino as she had supposed.—Life.

ONE WAY TO ASSE.

Mr. Billings—Er Miss Coolings—Clara—I have a question I would like to ask you.

Miss Coolings—Well?

Mr. Billings—Don't you think it would be a good idea—this week being the last New Year's eve that we come home single?

The Dow.—We're feeling blue about the girls. For now this man of gall will fill his pocket full of bills. And make his New Year call.—Judge.

TOO MUCH.

"Look here, Jimmy, this one wild some crumbly saund do for New Year's, wouldn't it?"

"Don't, Johnny, don't! Respect a father's feelings!"—Life.

First-class for pure of bruises, sprains and rheumatism—Captain D. H. Macaulay of No. 9 Engine Company, Baltimore Md., says: "The members of our company have thoroughly tried Salvation Oil for sprains, bruises and rheumatism and it has given satisfaction in every case. We regard it as a first-class liniment."

CRUTCHY.

A Story of Two New Years.

BY EVA DESS.

MY last paper, 'my last paper,' I said. The voice has the tremulous quaver of the professional mandolinist, and moves me not a whit. They are all alike with their stock in trade, their whines, their pleas, their artful endeavors to work upon one's sympathies; and I move on through the darkening twilight of a bitterly cold New Year's eve, until the sound of a persistent 'stamp, stamp,' beside me, and the sight of a pair of eyes, hollow, yet radiant, lighted suddenly into starry reflectors by the coming of their owner into the glare of an electric lamp, cause me to stare at once.

It is a girl, I perceive; a girl upon crutches. Her rags are manifest, her cloak a farce; a tattered bit of scarlet wool is wound about her head, and in each naked, red hand is grasped the cross-piece of a rude crutch.

"My last paper, 'my last paper,'" but what she says chills me more than the biting night winds. From her blue, childish lips comes a glib enumeration of crimes no child should know—crimes from which a seasoned sinner might well recoil—intelligence of most satanic nature—and yet I feel that her own utterances touch herself no more for harm than do the foul waters that sear the petals of the lilies they appear.

"Who are you, child?" I ask.

"Crutchy. Won't you buy my last paper?"

"Yes; but that's not enough. I—I—I'm starving, because I feel that I am about to do one of those very foolish, impulsive things imputed to my little world at large—I should like to buy you."

"Yes. Are you for sale, Crutchy?"

"Not regularly across a counter, 'm, rejoins Crutchy, in quick response to the suspicion of drollery in my mood. "It's you as 'd be sold, 'm, if you was to buy me. I'd go dirt cheap, though, and willing."

"It's a bargain, I laugh, and down the brilliant street we tramp together. "He'll be glad if I never come back," wouchsafed my new possession. "He hates me. Men allus hates women, doesn't they?"

I glance down at Crutchy in surprise. But the surprise vanishes as I note the child is older than I thought—a great girl, in fact, but not in stature.

"Who is 'he, Crutchy? The clerk to whom I must render payment for my new purchase?"

"He's grand; but he can't sell me, 'sides—and the stary eyes come sufficiently to twinkle 'round 'em to be too drunk to make change!"

I am already glad that I have gained for Crutchy. My intuition never fails me, however mad, at times, my impulses seem. I like my new little bundle of ready responses; but how about Crutchy?

Keith laughs when, at home at last, I tell him what I've done; calls me all sorts of fond, nonsensical names, and a little later, leaves me with my "oddments" a pile of bills.

idea, to go to the cruce.

"You'll not stay long, Keith?" I ask.

"Can't promise, dear, really. There are a lot of fellows of the legion to be on hand to-night—"

"Of the legion, Keith—that old Parisian mob?"

"Ha! ha!—mob! You're not jealous of the legion, are you, little woman?" I am. But pride will not allow me to be candid. Let him go to his legion—am I not his first thought for all those gay Bohemians?

"Can't have a new idea—all things, to Keith, are, in some sort, 'ideas'—and he means to parade it. 'Fig canvas'—ward subject—'Ring of Death,' or something of the sort."

"Like your style so much better, 'm."

"What—the willows green, the pebbles white, the stream a line of glimmering light?"

"For shame, Keith! Where did you find that?"

"On the floor. Debris from your desk. I presume. Allow me to continue: 'The low hills wrapped in purple mist; the mountain tops the sun has kissed.'"

"Keith! Keith! Go to your legion—am I utterly without heart?"

"She asks me that which captured it! Oh, come, little woman, the rhymes are not so bad. I've heard worse."

Keith sleeps so late next morning that I have time to make a pilgrimage to a bazaar where ready-made clothing is obtainable, return with divers packages, and trick out the fetsman washed to me by destiny's waves from the ocean of crime no child should know—crimes from which a seasoned sinner might well recoil—intelligence of most satanic nature—and yet I feel that her own utterances touch herself no more for harm than do the foul waters that sear the petals of the lilies they appear.

"Who are you, child?" I ask.

"Crutchy. Won't you buy my last paper?"

"Yes; but that's not enough. I—I—I'm starving, because I feel that I am about to do one of those very foolish, impulsive things imputed to my little world at large—I should like to buy you."

"Yes. Are you for sale, Crutchy?"

"Not regularly across a counter, 'm, rejoins Crutchy, in quick response to the suspicion of drollery in my mood. "It's you as 'd be sold, 'm, if you was to buy me. I'd go dirt cheap, though, and willing."

"It's a bargain, I laugh, and down the brilliant street we tramp together. "He'll be glad if I never come back," wouchsafed my new possession. "He hates me. Men allus hates women, doesn't they?"

I glance down at Crutchy in surprise. But the surprise vanishes as I note the child is older than I thought—a great girl, in fact, but not in stature.

"Who is 'he, Crutchy? The clerk to whom I must render payment for my new purchase?"

"He's grand; but he can't sell me, 'sides—and the stary eyes come sufficiently to twinkle 'round 'em to be too drunk to make change!"

I am already glad that I have gained for Crutchy. My intuition never fails me, however mad, at times, my impulses seem. I like my new little bundle of ready responses; but how about Crutchy?

Keith laughs when, at home at last, I tell him what I've done; calls me all sorts of fond, nonsensical names, and a little later, leaves me with my "oddments" a pile of bills.

put it—all save this five—in the desk upstairs, and to-morrow I'll bank it, bright and early, in my pocket. You promised to meet my benevolent patron at the club, and talk over a new idea."

"Ke—" but I close my lips in time. I should be a criminal to suggest such an affair. It is a devil to me, a devil into my brain. "Good-by, old boy, and don't stay too long away for Crutchy and I are a slim battalion to cope with any burglarizing lot."

"That long, long night my searching hand touched an empty pillow. Keith does not come home. The morning dawns. Crutchy crawls downstairs, looking white and haggard; evidently she has slept as little as I have. At noon we hear the stopping of a vehicle and my husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I, and sit there, silent in our anguish.

Next morning Keith tells the story that we, being women, intuitively know. He gropes his way upstairs, sober, sad, suffering, and has not had time to more than cross the room when a awful possibility has dawned upon him. His husband is brought home. We pay the men for their services, and turn to face our grief. The money has been too much for him—his flattering friends too seductive; we see it all, Crutchy and I

THE REFLECTOR.

Greenville, N. C.

D. J. WHIGHARD, Editor and Proprietor

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4th, 1893.

Entered at the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second-class mail matter.

Publisher's Announcement.

THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE OF THE REFLECTOR IS $1.00 PER YEAR. —ADVERTISING RATES.—One column one year, $75; one-half column one year, $40; one-quarter column one year, $25. Transient Advertisements.—One inch one month, $1; two weeks, $1.50; one month, $2. Two inches one week, $1.50; two weeks, $2; one month, $3.

Advertisements inserted in Local Column at reading items, 7 cents per line for each insertion. Legal Advertisements, such as Advertisements and Executors' Notices, Commissioners' and Trustees' Sales, Summons to Non-Residents, etc., will be charged for at legal rates and MUST BE PAID FOR IN ADVANCE.

Contracts for any space not mentioned above, for any length of time, can be made by application to the office either in person or by letter.

Copy for News Advertisements and all changes of advertisements should be handed in by 10 o'clock on Tuesday mornings in order to receive prompt insertion the day following.

The REFLECTOR having a large circulation will be found a profitable medium through which to reach the public.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Legislature meets to-day and is expected to be in session for the next sixty days. It will be a body of more than ordinary ability and good results may be expected from the session. In it are some men of unusual attainments and many of them have served the State in the same capacity before. There is nothing of special importance to come before this session, and yet it will probably be a busy body in arranging for the support of the various State Institutions and grappling with the subject of equal and just laws in reference to taxation.

In common with many citizens the REFLECTOR is of the opinion that there are some things which demand very careful consideration by this Legislature. It is very evident that the homestead law has ceased to be a necessity and therefore might be repealed. It was well enough soon after the war when property had been swept away without any compensation and many would have evidently been left homeless without it. No such conditions exist now and it is generally conceded that the poor man is not much benefited by its remaining on the statute books. Credit has been injured and the mortgage system much encouraged by it. Many evils can be traced to its existence. There is difference of opinion, however, in the party in respect to it, and in consequence great prudence and exceedingly careful consideration should be given it if it comes up before the present Legislature.

There is one other thing about which, however, there is very little disagreement. No one doubts that our laws in reference to assignments and preferred creditors is radically defective. It encourages rascality and defrauds honest men. A man gains by prompt payment some credit, contracts debts with a large number of men probably all equally entitled to payment. He does not expect to pay and as in many cases, he feigns indebtedness to some one who is to look out for him. He assigns and this man is preferred to such an extent as to take a large portion of the assets and the honest creditors are left out to regret that they had not known sooner that this was the programme. There can be no justice in allowing one creditor to have an advantage of the other when all are equally and justly entitled to receive as nearly their pay as the property will admit. We believe the men elected to the present Legislature will not longer permit this outrage to be perpetrated upon honest creditors.

It has become almost thread bare and yet it is a fact that we need some better system in reference to improving our public roads. We are glad that the Governor has called a Congress to meet in Raleigh during the winter while the Legislature is in session to consider the matter. Good results may be expected from such a meeting.

Whatever may be done with these and other questions that may be presented to this body the REFLECTOR feels safe in saying that the action taken upon them will be wise. The Democratic party can always be trusted to grapple with any question that affects the interest of the whole people and it has never yet been found recreant to any trust. North Carolina's interests are safe in the hands of the men who compose the present Legislature. To them we are willing to commit its various necessities and feel assured that when the body shall have adjourned the consistency there represented will say "well done good and faithful servants." You have nobly illustrated that "public office is a public trust."

The number of failures occurring in the United States during the year 1892, as reported by R. G. Dunn & Co.'s mercantile agency, is 10,344, being less than in any year since 1896, and showing a difference in favor of the year, as compared with 1891, of 2,029. The indebtedness of the failures of the past year was $114,000,000, against $189,000,000 in 1891, and nearly a similar amount in 1890. Only one in every 113 traders in the United States succumbed in 1892, as against one in every 93 in 1891, and one in every 102 in 1890. The average liability of the failures during last year was $11,000, being the lowest average reported since 1878.

According to the same authority the most prosperous year ever known in business has just closed with strongly favorable indications for the future. From nearly all points the holiday trade was reported without an equal in any previous year.

The first of January number of the Richmond Dispatch was a splendid piece of journalistic enterprise. It contained twelve pages and gave a complete record of Richmond for 1892, showing its progress in every branch of business and the strides the city has made in general prosperity. Besides this it discussed many other interesting matters and gave information from all parts of the world. Few papers anywhere give such complete news service as the Dispatch.

No holiday number of any paper received at this office surpassed the Christmas edition of the Atlanta Journal. It was 26 pages and contained many striking illustrations, all of them entirely original. The Journal, by the way, ranks as the foremost evening paper published in the South.

So Grover Cleveland has a trade—he is a cabinet maker.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 30, '92.—Speaker Crisp's visit to President-elect Cleveland, on a special invitation from the latter, has been the most absorbing topic of conversation in political circles this week. The visit of the Speaker of the Democratic House—the highest position now held by a Democrat—to the Democratic President elect was, of course, naturally an event of great interest to Democrats, but the efforts of the busy-bodies who have ever since the election been striving to create the impression that these two eminent Democrats were antagonistic towards each other has made it of interest to everybody, except the aforesaid busy-bodies who expressed doubt about the two men holding a conference until it had actually been held. That was natural, too, for that conference topped over all of the carefully constructed stories of enmity between the Speaker and the President-elect which had been so widely circulated during the last six or eight weeks. Those who profess to see something strange in the invitation and visit forget that for nearly two years past Speaker Crisp has been the official leader of the Democratic party. The strange thing would have been for Mr. Cleveland, the leader elect, to have neglected to get the views of the party's present official leader.

Senator Carlisle's experience with the New York reporters this week caused him to "swear off" on being interviewed. He says he was approached by some twenty odd reporters and to each of them he gave the same answer—that he had nothing to say to the public; yet every one of them wrote up interviews with him, making him say things he had never dreamed of. He says, further, that any future publication purporting to be his opinion which does not have his signature attached will be bogus. Mr. Carlisle's friends say that for private reasons he has declined the Secretaryship of the Treasury, which Mr. Cleveland tendered to him.

A rumor is current here that Mr. Cleveland has succeeded in persuading Hon. Don M. Dickinson to be his Secretary of State. This, as the late Artemus Ward would have said, is important if true. Mr. Dickinson told his friends when he was here the other day that he would not be a member of the cabinet.

A Senator who saw and talked with Mr. Cleveland this week says that one of the first things he proposes to do after becoming President is to put a man at the head of the Pension bureau who will take the work of that office entirely out of politics and run it on strictly business principles.

Speaker Crisp has some very decided ideas on the immigration question, and they do not agree with those most popular just now. He thinks it will be a mistake to suspend all immigration, but favors the enactment of laws that will shut out and keep out the undesirable immigrant, while welcoming those made of the stuff to make good citizens. He fears, however, that the cholera scare and other influences will be too much for Congress, and that some very radical legislation may be railroaded through.

already gained a reputation for level-headedness far beyond that of many of his older colleagues, and his terse summing up of what the party needs will add to that reputation. He says: "What the Democratic party needs most is to 'get together.' We don't want any rows, or cliques or sets of men who wish to tear down present organization and set up another of their own. It is only by 'getting together' that the Fifty-third Congress will be able to accomplish the mission of tariff revision which the people at the polls directed it to perform."

If Senator Gray, of Delaware, becomes Mr. Cleveland's Attorney-General, as many Democrats now think, it is expected that ex-Secretary Bayard will again become a member of the Senate.

Mr. Harrison has called upon all the executive departments of the Government for information as to unjust discriminations against citizens or railroads of the United States by the Canadian Pacific railroad. This is believed here to mean that he intends to send a special message to Congress recommending retaliatory legislation.

The sub-committee of the House Immigration committee having the matter in charge has agreed upon a National quarantine bill, and will report it to the full committee next week.

CHRISTMAS AT SMITH'S S. S.

The attendance was unusually large on Christmas day, as every member of the school had been requested to come out promptly. After the regular order of service Mr. Thomas E. Little, the esteemed superintendent, presented each pupil and teacher with a nice little book, which I am sure they will all read and read, then place them away and ever remember them as an appreciated keep-sake. Just after this Mr. C. L. Tyson somewhat surprised the superintendent and Miss Fannie Smith. In a few appropriate words he presented the former with a copy of "Hours with the Bible," and the latter with a copy of "Twenty-five Sermons," with the compliments of the editor of the REFLECTOR.

All went to their homes with happy hearts and a determination to work harder along the line of Sunday-school work than they had ever done before. Mr. Little has for nearly three years taken a deep interest in his school, and very highly appreciates being remembered by Mr. Whighard.

EDDIE PERROW.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by Greenville Memorial Baptist Church.

WHEREAS, Rev. A. D. Hunter who has served this church as pastor for the past three years has severed his connection with us to accept a field in Virginia,

WHEREAS, The church desires to make some public recognition of the acceptances of his labors among us, therefore be it resolved by the church in called conference January 1st, 1893.

1st. That in Bro. Hunter we have had a laborious, zealous, untiring and faithful pastor—one whose highest ambition has been the good of the church and the advancement of our Master's kingdom on this field.

2nd. That we recognize in him a high-toned, affable, conscientious and upright christian gentleman and minister whose influence will long be felt here and can only be felt for good where ever he may locate.

3rd. That we heartily commend Bro. Hunter to the brethren and people of his new field and to the Baptist of Virginia, as a man worthy of their highest love and confidence and a pastor diligent in season and out.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the church, a copy given to the pastor, and one sent to the Biblical Recorder, Religious Herald and EASTERN REFLECTOR with a request to publish the same.

D. J. WHIGHARD, Moderator.

L. W. LAWRENCE, Clerk.

COTTON MARKET.

(Reported by Cobb Bros.)

NORFOLK, VA., Dec. 30, 1892.—Soon after our last letter, Dec. 17th, prices began to decline and continued downward until Thursday, Dec. 22nd, reaching 6 9-16 for middling, at which figure it has remained to this date. The market has been quiet throughout the entire week until to-day it strengthened up a little and became firm though with very little doing. The Cotton Exchange will close to-morrow and Monday, Jan. 2nd, New Year holiday. There is a steady falling off in the movement yet the visible supply offsets the influence of these facts.

Liverpool re-opened Wednesday after the Christmas holiday and will also close to-morrow and Monday. The market is reported steady, little doing, at 5 1-16d for middling, an advance of 1-16 during the week. Stock and stock afloat for Liverpool is as follows:

1892.	1891.
Stock & stock afloat	1,736,000	1,778,000
American	1,518,000	1,545,000

WEEKLY INTERIOR MOVEMENT.

Receipts at 26 interior towns, 43,870 67,789 bales

Shipments, 49,567 66,378 "

Stocks, 410,250 683,721 "

WEEKLY PORT MOVEMENT.

Receipts at U. S. ports for week 167,997 228,692

Exports for week 77,925 130,244

Stock at ports 1,155,099 1,308,745

Net receipts since Sept. 1st 3,510,414 4,880,563

Receipts from plantations 177,000 241,050

Crop in sight 4,723,000 6,400,061

Visible supply 4,420,000 4,839,355

NORFOLK SPOT MARKET.

As wired by Cobb Bros.

NORFOLK, VA., Jan. 3rd 1893

Good Middling, 9 1-16

Middling, 8 9-16

Low Middling, 8 1-16

Good Ordinary, 8 1-16

Tone, firm

Female Weakness Positive Cure.

To the Editor.—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the thousand and one ills which arise from deranged female organs. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any lady if she will send her name and P. O. address. Your respectfully, Dr. C. A. Marchal, Utica, N. C.

NEW YEAR GREETING

Peace, Happiness, Contentment and Prosperity to Everybody.

The REFLECTOR raises its hat this morning and extends its heartiest good wishes to its friends and patrons, and may its liberal advertisers have a tripple portion of prosperity during the year 1893. We wish a Happy New Year to THE MERCHANTS

J. B. Cherry & Co.: May their sales this year climb up in the hundreds of thousands, and two new members be added to the firm by the formation of side partnerships between two charming girls and those two handsome bachelor brothers, Jesse and Joe Moye.

Alfred Forbes: That he may continue to be recognized as the "old reliable," and no one outstrip him in prosperity.

C. T. Munford: May he reach the top of prosperity's ladder, where his sterling qualifications deserve to stand, and be chosen Councilman for the Second Ward at the next municipal election.

Brown Bros.: That these two upright young men may sell a hundred sewing machines this year, and dry goods in proportion, and that Wiley's head won't get any redder.

S. E. Pender & Co.: Every success attend you, and may everybody be convinced that your beautiful lamps and excellent cook stoves are unequalled.

J. L. Sugg: May you write policies innumerable and "insure" a better half to enjoy the companionship of a generous heart.

Brown & Hooker: That your handsome new double stores may be besieged with an army of customers throughout the year and your tillers fill with glittering coin.

D. D. Haskett: May your hardware never prove "hard ware," but move out in such wholesale quantities as to keep you constantly filling and renewing orders.

J. A. Andrews: May you sell groceries until you are rich as Vanderbilt and get a wife before next Christmas.

W. H. White: That 10,000 new customers will learn that the place to be treated "white" is at your store where goods are "all wool and a yard wide."

S. M. Schultz: May the Old Brick Store continue to "blossom as the rose" to a flourishing business, and bring success to the clever proprietor.

Young & Friddy: That you will never reverse the name "old and ugly." May your "one price" fair dealing continue to grow in popularity and bring you much prosperity.

J. L. Wooten: May your drugs always be in demand, and ere you make many more trips away bring home somebody to sew on your buttons.

S. E. Shelburn: May the demand for your pies and cakes in winter, soda and cream in summer, be so large as to keep you always smiling and happy.

G. E. Harris: That every farmer in the county may know that to raise good cotton and good tobacco he must have good fertilizer, the kind you sell.

J. S. Smith: That you may not have a dull day during the whole year.

C. D. Rountree: That you may win Uncle Sam's favor and get the postoffice, or "something better."

M. R. Lang: That you may soon get back in business and enjoy as large a trade as ever.

W. B. Greene: That the Racket Store will continue to raise a big racket.

Mrs. Fannie Joyner: That the fondness of the ladies for your fashionable millinery may grow day by day.

Mrs. M. D. Higgs: That this year will bring you a large patronage, which you richly deserve.

C. A. White: That he may continue to keep his "corner" on Five Points and enjoy a large trade.

James Long: That he may never be termed "short" in anything, but his trade and happiness be as long as his name implies.

Higgs Bros: That they may sell stacks of goods, and become convinced that there is good advertising space besides "top of column next to reading matter on last page."

D. W. Hardee: That you may have a bigger trade than you are even dreaming of this year.

J. Q. Smith: That your corner may grow in popularity and every visitor leave a mite.

McG. Eral: That there may ever be a growing demand for your drugs, and before another leap year comes the sweetest and best woman in town rob the men of their "paradise" and make a paradise for you.

J. D. Williamson: That you may sell a buggy for every day in the year and continue to ship your popular work North, East, South and West.

J. C. Cobb & Son: That your business this year may be unprecedented in success.

C. F. White: That you may build up a big business and prosper.

Cory & Bro.: That you may "harness" many a steed and "heel" all the tattered "soles."

John Flanagan Buggy Co.: That you may declare large dividends and the young men all learn that nothing helps courtship so much as one of your splendid h. m. c. buggies.

R. L. Humber: That his machine shops may keep him so busy that he will just get enough spare time to do his courting.

A. J. Griffin: That enough watches may get "putting it" to keep you busy all the year putting them in working order.

Tyson & Rawls: That the bank may have large deposits and collections, and the individual business of the members of the firm prosper.

To Out-of-Town Patrons: That every one of you in your respective operations may in this year 1893 reap a full measure of reward and prosperity.

THE LAWYERS.

F. G. James: That you may make your mark as Pitt county's Senator and pave the way to higher political honors.

Jarvis & Blow: That your clients may continue to increase, and that Gov. Jarvis may receive a portfolio in Mr. Cleveland's cabinet.

Latham & Skinner: That your clientele may be like the stars in multitude, and this being an "off year" in politics may the senior be able to keep the junior out of the "sub-treasury."

J. L. Fleming: That his star may ascend to the zenith and his life be filled with usefulness and honor.

W. H. Long: That he may build up an immense practice, and be sure to get the right girl.

Sugg & Tyson: That the team pull well together and draw in a long train of clients.

G. B. King: That honors innumerable may rest upon you; and that ere you complete your work of filling teachers certificates for '93 some lovely teacher will so captivate you that you will apply to Register Harding to fill you out a "certificate."

THE DOCTORS.

Dr. C. J. O'Hagan: That he may be spared yet many years of usefulness and honor in his profession.

Dr. W. M. B. Brown: That the finger of time may rest gently upon his silken locks, and his declining years be surrounded with pleasure and happiness.

Dr. Zeno Brown: That the mantle of the father may rest upon the son, and his position in the profession ever be one of prominence and honor.

Dr. F. W. Brown: That his practice may extend from border to border and success always attend him.

Dr. W. E. Warren: That his pills may be in demand and "easy to swallow," and every case upon which he "sets" as county coroner "hatch out" a correct verdict.

Dr. D. L. James: That he may never tackle a tooth too hard to pull or a bill too hard to collect.

To the Ministers: That the richest blessings of the Father may crown your labors, and that under your ministry many souls may be led into the Kingdom.

To the Teachers: That each of you may have flourishing schools and this be a year of prosperity and usefulness for you.

To the County Officers: That each of you may serve the people faithfully and well, and that you may maintain the highest confidence and receive the favors of your constituents.

The Hotels: That your tables may be "well filled" with eaters and your rooms "comfortably" furnished with guests.

To the Barbers: That you may have many a "close shave," do lots of "clipping," and come out with full pockets.

To Everybody: That peace, happiness, prosperity and contentment may reign supreme over our land and country and for all this be indeed a Happy New Year.

ULCERS, GANCERS, SCROFULA, SALT RHEUM, RHEUMATISM, BLOOD POISON.

These and every kindred disease arising from impure blood successfully treated by that never-failing and best of all tonics and medicines.

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC SSS

Books on Blood and Skin Diseases free. Printed testimonials sent on application. Address The Swift Specific Co., ATLANTA, GA.

Notice.

Having on the 10th day of November, 1892, before E. A. Moye, Clerk of Superior Court of Pitt county, qualified as administrator of the estate of the late T. J. Standell, deceased, notice is hereby given to all parties having claims against said estate to present them for payment on or before the 22nd day of November, 1893, or this notice will be placed in hand of their recovery. Any one indebted to said estate will come forward and settle at once. R. W. STANCHILL, Administrator.

This November 22nd, 1892.

Notice to Creditors.

By a decree made at March term, 1892, of Pitt Superior Court, in the case of L. V. Morrill, administrator of L. P. Beardsley, Jr., and others, the undersigned was appointed a referee to take and state an account which shall show a full list of the creditors of the late L. P. Beardsley and the amount due each. This therefore is to give notice to all such creditors to present their claims to me to be passed upon in accordance with the terms of said decree on or before the 10th day of March, 1893, at which time I shall proceed to take and state said account and report the same to the Superior Court as I am directed in said decree. F. G. JAMES, Referee.

This November 21st, 1892.

Dissolution.

The firm of Culley and Edmunds is hereby dissolved by mutual consent. Those indebted to the firm will pay the same to Herbert Edmunds.

ALBERT CULLEY, HERBERT EDMONDS.

Aug. 10, 1892.

It gives me pleasure to announce to our customers that I will continue the business at the old stand. Every comfort and convenience will be found in my shop. First-class shave and hair cut can be had at all times. Thanking the public for past patronage, I solicit a continuation of the same. HERBERT EDMONDS.

Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt county, made at September term, 1892, in a certain cause therein pending entitled Louis Hillitt vs. B. B. Yellowley, executor of H. A. Yellowley et als, I will on Tuesday, January 10th, 1893, in front of the Court House door, in the town of Greenville, sell at public sale, to the highest bidder, a certain tract or parcel of land adjacent to the town of Greenville and adjoining the lands of Martha Wilson, Susan J. John and others and known as the "Home Place" of the late Col. E. C. Yellowley, containing one hundred and eighty (180) acres, more or less, it being the same land conveyed to Herbert A. Yellowley by James B. Yellowley, administrator of E. C. Yellowley by decree bearing date October 28th, 1887, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt county in book X4, pages 6 and 7. Terms of sale cash. A. L. BLOW, Commissioner.

Greenville, N. C., Nov. 23rd, 1892.

Keeley Institute!

—AT—

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.

For the convenience of the public there will be opened in Rocky Mount, N. C., January 1st, 1893, a branch of the Keeley Institute of Greenboro, N. C., for the treatment of the Liquor, Opium, Chloral, Cocaine, Tobacco habits and Nerve Exhaustion.

These are the only regularly authorized Keeley Institutes in the State. All others claiming to be such are fraudulent.

Rocky Mount

is the most accessible point in the State. On W. & W. R. R., and terminus of the N. & C. of the A. & R., and Spring Hope roads, 3 hours from Norfolk, 3 from Petersburg, 3 1/2 from Richmond, 31 from Wilmington, 4 from Raleigh, 1 from Goldsboro, 1 from Weldon, 3 from Fayetteville and 5 hours from Edenton and Elizabeth City over the Norfolk & Carolina R. R., Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

The town is progressive, high, healthy, with good water and hospitable people. DOSEY BATTLE, Manager.

Dr. G. A. RAMSAUR, Physician.

Notice to Creditors.

The undersigned having duly qualified before the Superior Court of Pitt county, as administrator of the estate of R. J. Lang, dec'd, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate to make immediate payment to the undersigned, and all persons having claims against said estate must present the same for payment before the 20th of Dec., 1892, or this notice will be placed in hand of recovery. This 20th day of December, 1892.

R. L. DAVIS, Adm'r of R. J. Lang.

NOTICE!

All persons indebted to the John Flanagan Buggy Co., either by note or otherwise, are requested to settle same at once, or their claims will be put in train of collection.

Notice.

North Carolina, Pitt county, Clerk. Before W. T. Crawford, Clerk. J. T. Everett, S. H. Everett, A. S. Everett, Hattie V. Everett and Mary E. Everett, ex-parte.

The defendants S. M. Everett, C. S. Everett and H. J. Everett are hereby notified to appear before me at my office in Wilmington, North Carolina, on 9th day of January, 1893, to answer or demur to a petition filed in the above entitled action before me by A. S. Everett, guardian of the estate of S. H. Everett, against S. H. Everett, S. M. Everett, C. S. Everett and H. J. Everett. The purpose of said action is to ask that the lot No. 4 assigned to S. H. Everett be sold to pay the sum of ninety dollars, the charge placed on said lot for equality of partition due Hattie V. Everett. W. T. CRAWFORD, Clerk Superior Court.

November 18th, 1892.

For Sale on Easy Terms

Large Double Store in Greenville. I offer for sale on easy terms the large Double Store north side of Fifth street east of Evans street, with lot fronting 42 feet on Fifth street by 75 feet deep. A splendid bargain. Apply at once to Wm. H. LONG, Attorney-at-Law.

THE REFLECTOR.

Local Reflections.

State Legislature meets to-day. The schools opened again on Monday. The days have now begun to lengthen. This section has just had the severest weather of several winters.

FOR SALE.—Thoroughbred Jersey Bull, 8 months old. G. T. TYSON.

Billie and Coot hung up their stockings and got—their feet in 'em, as usual.

The REFLECTOR greets you to-day with its sleeves rolled up ready for the year's work.

Some people broke their new year resolutions before the new year was fairly ushered in.

January term of Pitt Superior Court convenes next Monday, Judge Shuford presiding.

Who is going to say a word for the REFLECTOR this year? All may speak at once if you wish.

There is now water enough in the river for good boating, the first time in several months.

We are indebted to Messrs. Bullock & Mitchell, enterprising warehousemen at Oxford, for a handsome calendar.

There was a little counterfeit money around during Christmas. We heard one merchant say he got bit on a bad dollar.

Going by the old adage that a white Christmas makes a lean graveyard we may look for a healthy season next summer.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will have a dinner and supper Tuesday of next week in the store next to the REFLECTOR office.

The REFLECTOR promises as much good reading matter during 1893 as any weekly in the State can give for $1. If you don't believe it pass in the dollar.

Mr. W. S. Rawls' little daughter Velma gave her young friends a delightful party at the home of her parents Monday afternoon following Christmas.

At the election of officers of the Methodist Sunday-school, held last Sunday, Mr. D. D. Haskett was chosen Superintendent and Mr. A. L. Blow Secretary for the ensuing year.

Four Henerant musicians struck our town the day after Christmas, two with bag pipes and two with monkey and hand organ accompaniment. It was too cold for them to thrive.

WANTED.—An agent in Pitt county to represent the Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Co. Apply to W. J. Jordan, District Agent for Eastern N. C., P. O. Box No. 5, Snow Hill, N. C.

A 16-column supplement of reading matter goes out with this REFLECTOR. Our readers will be treated to the same extra quantity of reading matter the next two weeks, which will more than compensate for missing an issue last week.

What have you got on mind to undertake for Greenville this year of 1893? Some factories ought to be inaugurated. The REFLECTOR has not forgotten its hotel hobby and hopes to continue riding it until we see a modern hotel building go up here.

After the faithful work of the colored fire company at the fire Christmas day, the town ought to take enough interest in them to buy a good engine for the company to use in cases of fire. The engine might soon save enough property to pay for itself.

Quarterly Meeting. The first quarterly meeting for Greenville circuit will be held at Bethlehem on February 4th and 5th, and at Greenville station February 5th and 6th. For Washington circuit at Little's Chapel January 14th and 15th. A full meeting of officials is desired.

Tournament Postponed. The tournament and ball which was to have been given at Farmville on December 28th, was postponed on account of the weather until next Tuesday, January 10th. The managers request all who received invitations for the first date to consider them good for next Tuesday and be present.

Smothered to Death. Christmas night Coroner Warren received a telegram from a Justice of the Peace at Ayden that a colored child found dead was supposed to have been murdered. He went down to investigate but found no evidence of foul play. The jury returned a verdict that the child came to its death by its mother accidentally smothering it while asleep. The child was only four months old.

Late Fruit. On New Year's day Mr. Henry Sheppard cut a watermelon that he had been keeping in his cellar since September. The melon was rather ripe, but had very much the appearance, color and taste of the midsummer article. On Monday Mr. W. L. Cobb gave us some tomatoes that he had been keeping in his store since the early fall frosts. They were as sound and well preserved as if freshly gathered.

Farewell Sermon. Rev. A. D. Hunter, for three years past has been pastor of the Baptist church here and during that time made a host of friends among our people, preached his farewell sermon on Christmas night. In his remarks he said that, during the three years of his ministry here the church raised $5,000 for various purposes and 65 were added to the membership. He has accepted a call from the church at Carversville, Va., and goes to take charge of that work. The prayers and best wishes of many will follow Mr. Hunter and his family to their new home.

Holiday Goes and Comes, and Other Personal.

Mr. C. R. Sugg left yesterday morning for Raleigh.

Hon. Louis Hilliard, of Norfolk, was here this week.

Mr. J. S. C. Benjamin spent the holidays in Hamilton.

Miss Sude Parrott of Kinston is visiting Mrs. B. W. King.

Mr. Paul Hosier spent several days in Suffolk, his old home.

Mr. Allen Warren spent a portion of the holidays at Centoc.

Mr. R. M. Hearne, of Washington, spent part of the past week in town.

Prof. W. H. Regadale spent Christmas at his old home in Granville county.

Rev. W. S. Bernard came home from Chocowinity to spend the holidays.

Miss Helen Perkins came home from school in Norfolk to spend Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Godwin spent the holidays with their daughter at Kenly.

Ex-Sheriff J. A. K. Tucker has moved his family back to his farm in the county.

Mrs. D. L. James and little Miss Nina James went to Wilmington to visit Mrs. Fennell.

Mr. W. C. Jackson came home from the A. & M. College, Raleigh, to spend the holidays.

Cadet Charlie Forbes returned from Horner School, Oxford, to spend Christmas at home.

Mrs. C. W. Priddy and children went to Wilson Monday after Christmas to visit her parents.

Mr. C. L. Whitchard, of Norfolk, is here visiting the REFLECTOR folks Christmas eve.

Mrs. L. E. Cleve, of New Bern, is visiting her mother Mrs. Nancy. Mr. Cleve was here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Proctor and Mr. John Sparks, of Kinston, spent the holidays in Greenville.

Miss Sude Short came home from Oxford Tuesday evening of last week to spend a few days.

Prof. John Duckett, of Hamilton, and Prof. J. C. Robertson, of Robersonville, were in town yesterday.

Bishop Watson will hold evening prayer in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Greenville, on the 16th inst.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown and children left for Virginia the day after Christmas to visit her father.

Rev. G. F. Smith returned home last Wednesday from Beaufort where he had been visiting since Conference.

Mr. R. L. Humber and sister, Miss Eva, spent part of last week at Hobgood with their sister, Mrs. J. G. Nelson.

Hon. F. G. James left yesterday for Raleigh to take his seat in the General Assembly as Senator for Pitt county.

Messrs. W. F. Harding, F. C. Harding and E. A. Moye, Jr. came home from the University to spend the holidays.

Mr. W. I. Boswell, who spent the fall months here buying cotton, went to Petersburg to spend part of the holidays.

The family of Rev. A. D. Hunter went to Cary to spend the holidays and remain until they go to join him in Virginia.

Misses Leta McGowan and Myra Skinner spent part of the holidays with Miss Minnie Carraway at her home in Halifax.

Dossey Battle, Esq., manager of the Rocky Mount Keely Institute, ran in to shake hands a day or two before Christmas.

Mr. Alex Heilbroner has been spending several days in Lynchburg, Va., on business connected with the tobacco interests here.

Prof. Z. D. McWhorter, principal of Greenville Institute the past year and a half, has moved to Bethel and taken charge of Bethel Academy.

Mr. F. A. Smaw, of Baltimore, accompanied by his bride (nee Miss Lula Hutchins of Virginia) spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. O. Cuthrell.

Andrew Joyner left the students of Ashland Keely Institute in the hands of other missionaries and came home to play Santa Claus with the children.

Misses Alice, Neva and Addie Latham, who have been spending the holidays here with Miss Louise Latham, returned to their home in Plymouth Saturday morning.

Miss Minnie Carraway, of Halifax, who was teacher of music at the Institute under Prof. McWhorter, went home to spend the holidays. She will go to Bethel with Prof. McWhorter and take a similar position in his school there.

Nelson & Gardner have purchased the business of S. W. Brooks, at Grifton and will continue it at the old stand. Everybody in Pitt and Lenoir knows Bryan Gardner and know him to be a good business man. He was in Greenville Monday shaking hands with his friends.

Rev. W. R. Ware, of Reidsville, a member of the Western N. C. Conference, preached in the Methodist church here Sunday morning and night. Mr. Ware's family have been spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brown, parents of Mrs. Ware, near Greenville.

Mr. E. J. Proctor, who has held a position on the REFLECTOR for three years, left Monday for Washington to take the position as Foreman on the Watch-Tower, which has been moved to that town. This office has never had a more faithful employee than Mr. Proctor and his departure caused many regrets among our household that had become as closely attached as brothers. The best wishes of the office and many friends here go with him.

Renew Your Subscription. In mailing the last issue of the REFLECTOR a number of subscribers were notified on the margin that the time for which they had paid expired the first of January. But the weather was so bad all during the holidays that many who wanted to do so could not come to town and renew their subscription, therefore our mailing clerk has been instructed not to erase any names from the books until after January court. Our lists will be revised immediately after court and we hope all will renew promptly and many new names be added. The REFLECTOR wants to go and ought to go into every home in Pitt county.

Happy and content is a home with "The Rochester," a lamp with the light of the morning. Call on us, write Rochester Lamp Co., New York.

Big Ester.

Saturday before Christmas Daniel James, a colored man, proved himself a champion eater, and showed to what extent a man can sometimes gorge himself.

Some parties offered to pay for all the barbecue Daniel would eat, and he nearly cleaned up a hog weighing 30 pounds, with bread and trimmings in proportion. The meal cost $2.50. Daniel ought not to have needed anything else to eat between then and New Year's day.

New Carrier. The REFLECTOR now has a new carrier for the town delivery, Master Ed. Foley beginning the rounds with this issue, and until he becomes familiar with his work there may be some omissions and oversights. Whenever such occur, those missing a paper can be supplied by making the fact known at the office. Do not wait later than noon on Wednesdays to let it be known if you miss your paper.

Master Will Blow, who has been a faithful carrier for two years, has resigned his position to attend school. He will hold a Saturday position with us and still be numbered with the REFLECTOR boys.

Schedule Changed. There was an all around change of schedule in the movement of the Atlantic Coast Line trains on the first. On the mainline the stop and transfer of conductors is now at Rocky Mount instead of at Weldon as heretofore, trains now running through from Richmond to Rocky Mount. On this, the Scotland Neck, Greenville and Kinston branch, trains move out an hour earlier in the morning and return an hour and a half later than formerly. The time of departure from Greenville is 7:47 A. M. and time for arrival 8:18 P. M. This train makes close connection both ways with the Norfolk & Carolina trains at Hobgood, putting passengers in Norfolk at 12:29, allowing them nearly four hours in that city and return the same day. Schedules on the Washington and Plymouth branches have been changed so as to make the same connection for Norfolk.

Leap Year German. No dance during the holidays or thus far during the season was so much enjoyed by the young people as the Leap Year German given by the young ladies in Germania Hall last Thursday night. The ladies sent invitations to the dance and escorted them to the young men. The German was led by Miss Nannie King with Will James, the following additional couples and eighteen stags being present: Miss Jennie Williams with Felix Harvey, Miss Ella King with R. Williams, Jr., Miss Annie Perkins with T. H. Rountree, Miss Betsy Greene with Ed Foley, Miss Rosa Forbes with J. L. Fleming, Miss Rosalind Rountree with Mark Quincy, Miss Bessie Jarvis with Harry Whedbee, Miss Bettie Tyson with Jarvis Sugg, Miss Jennie James with Ed Yellowley, Miss Belle Greene with R. L. Mumford, Miss Nannie Fleming with James White, Miss Lillie Cherry with Robert Moye, Miss Nannie Moye with Charles Forbes, Miss Hennie Sheppard with Will Moore.

The Snow. Everybody knows it, but it is not too late to talk some about the big snow that fell last week. It began snowing about 4 o'clock, Monday afternoon, snowed all night, most of the day Tuesday and again Tuesday night. The average depth of the fall was 6 to 8 inches. Had the fall been large, light flakes the depth here would have been three times what it was. It was generally remarked that this was an extremely dry snow, that is, small, hard flakes, much of it being what is termed "hominy" snow. It was so dry that a handful of it could not be packed together for a snowball. Several rough sleighs were hurriedly constructed Tuesday and several jolly parties were out. Sheriff R. W. King had a splendid basket center and it afforded pleasure to many. The sleighing was kept up until Thursday evening. Notwithstanding the weather was very cold and the temperature low there was not ice enough to afford skating. There was so much floating ice in the river, however, as to cause irregularity in the trips of the steamers. Upon the whole it was a big snow, the largest we have had in quite a number of years.

Fire. About midday on Christmas a two story tenement house on the premises of Capt. C. A. White caught fire and the alarm brought a large crowd to the scene. The fire had made such headway when discovered that it could not be extinguished and the building was soon destroyed. A brick west wind was blowing and the residences of Capt. White, Mr. Higgins and the dwelling occupied by Rev. A. D. Hunter were in danger, but fortunately neither of them were damaged at all. Capt. White's stables caught several alms and it was thought would be destroyed, but the good work of the pucky fire company and other helpers saved it. The burned building was occupied by four families of colored people. A woman living in one of the upper rooms left her small children alone in the room while off at her work, and it is supposed they in some way set fire to the house. A colored man hearing them crying rushed up the stairway just in time to save the children from burning. He threw the children out and then had to jump out the window, exit by the stairway out off.

Christmas After Thoughts. Greenville had a very quiet Christmas. The boys began firing their pop-crackers Saturday evening (Christmas eve) but before 10 o'clock all had grown quiet except an occasional star explosion. They started again Monday morning and kept up a moderate racket throughout the day.

There were a few drunks but no downys, though some had to be borne off between supports.

The weather was so cold that the hunters did not get out much during the holidays.

None of the Sunday Schools of the town had a Christmas tree or party.

Sunday and Christmas coming on the same day was not the best thing that could have happened for the Sunday Schools. The children were so engrossed with what Santa Claus left for them that they did not turn out. The attendance at the Methodist school was small, while the Baptist and Episcopal schools could not hold any session for lack of attendance.

The fire cracker now takes a back seat until July 4th.

Howell Hearne Drowned.

Late last Wednesday evening the body of Mr. Howell Hearne, a former citizen of Belvoir township, was found in the river just below Centre Bluff. He had been missing since Monday night. Hearne drove to the bluff on Monday, December 26th, left his horse and buggy near the river and crossed over the ferry to Dudley's barroom. During the evening there was considerable drinking, and Hearne with others got pretty full and fussy. Sometime after night Hearne started to go home, his son and another young man walking with him as far as the river where they left him and returned to the barroom. Next morning Hearne's horse and buggy were still standing on the north side of the river where they were left the day before and Hearne was missing. Parties were dragging the river in search of his body Wednesday and after sometime found it. When found the right arm was raised and the hand grasped an open knife in a position for attack or defense. This at first led to the supposition that Hearne had been in an altercation with some one and while attempting to use his knife was knocked in the river. Coroner Warren was notified and gave the case a thorough investigation on Thursday, but failed to find any evidence of foul play. From what could be gathered the jury returned a verdict that his death was caused by his accidentally falling into the river and drowning. Hearne had a habit of keeping an open knife about him when drinking.

Musical. Our people were treated to a most delightful entertainment in the musicale given by Miss Hortense Forbes and her music school on last Friday night. Space will not permit comment on each piece, but it must be said that every selection was faultlessly rendered and reflected credit upon performer and instructor. No entertainment here has given more real enjoyment. Following is the programme:

Chorus—"Happy New Year,"—Misses Emily Higges, Jamie Tyson, Sarah and Bettie Hooker, Mary Moye, Clara and Glenn Forbes.

Trio—"Galop Militaire,"—Misses Bettie Hooker, Emily Higges and Mary Moye.

Vocal Solo—"Only Tired,"—Miss Sude Parrott.

Piano Solo—"The Mill,"—Miss Emily Higges.

Recitation—"The Water Mill,"—Miss Sarah Hooker.

Piano Duet—"Imogene,"—Misses Clara Forbes and Bettie Hooker.

Vocal Solo—"Pierrot,"—Miss Annie Sheppard.

Piano Duet—"From Schubert's 'March,'"—Misses Hortense and Rosa Forbes.

Piano Solo—"Ricordate,"—Miss Sarah Hooker.

Vocal Duet—"Holy Mother Guide Me,"—Mrs. Cherry and Mrs. Campbell.

Piano Duet—"The Sleigh Ride,"—Misses Sarah Hooker and Clara Forbes.

Recitation—"Shadows,"—Miss Sude Parrott.

Piano Solo—"Shimmered,"—Miss Clara Forbes.

Original Stamp Speech—"A Few Remarks,"—Billie Burch.

Instrumental Quartette—"Pinto," (Grand Galop de Concert),—Misses Sarah Hooker, Clara Forbes, Hortense and Rosa Forbes.

Vocal Solo—"Good Night,"—Serenade, Mrs. J. B. Cherry.

Piano Duo—"Home Sweet Home,"—1st Piano Miss Sarah Hooker. 2nd Piano Miss Hortense Forbes.

Many Persons are broken down from overwork or household care. Brown's Iron Bitters rebuilds the system, aids digestion, removes excess of bile, and cures malaria. Get the genuine.

Dissolution.

The Medical partnership heretofore existing between Drs. C. J. O'Hagan and F. W. Brown, has ceased since Dec. 1st, 1892, by mutual consent. Parties indebted to the firm will call on the senior partner. C. J. O'HAGAN.

CHILD BIRTH... MADE EASY!

"MOTHERS' FRIEND" is a scientific ally prepared Linctiment, every ingredient of recognized value and in constant use by the medical profession. These ingredients are combined in a formula hitherto unknown and voluntary testimonials.

"MOTHERS' FRIEND"

WILL DO all that is claimed for RAND MORE. It Shortens Labor, Lessens Pain, Diminishes Danger to Life of Mother and Child. Book to "MOTHERS' FRIEND" mailed FREE, containing valuable information and voluntary testimonials.

Sent by express on receipt of price $1.50 per bottle. BROADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

It's a Lucky Day!

When you buy your goods of—

W. H. WHITE

—He is now offering a full line of—

Clothing, Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Hats, Hardware,

Tinware, Wood and Willow Ware, Staple and Light Groceries at such low prices as will always leave money in your pocket book.

He also has the best Cigar for the money that can be had in town.

If you want something good and substantial for Christmas call on him.

W. H. WHITE, Greenville, N. C.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion & Debility.

NEW YEAR'S GREETING.

We wish each and every one 365 days of happiness and prosperity.

Thanking you all for past favors and asking for a continuance of the same,

I am very respectfully, C. T. MUNFORD.

New Straight Goods. Clean Large Stock.

—We are still making a specialty of— DRY GOODS, LACES, NOTIONS, HATS AND SHOES.

We have a first-class assortment and sell close. Do not fail to get our prices.

New Home Sewing Machines

and parts for all kinds of machines are sold by us. Respectfully, BROWN BROS., Depositors for American Bible Society.

DON'T OVERLOOK IT.

WHAT? THAT WE ARE STILL RUSHING OFF THE M. R. LANGSTOCK

And want you to get some of the bargains while they are going. Do not delay longer to get your

WINTER OUTFIT.

We have just the article needed by every man, woman and child.

We can suit you in CLOTHING. We can suit you in HATS. We can suit you in SHOES. We can suit you in DRESS GOODS. We can suit you in UNDERWEAR. We can suit you in EVERYTHING in general Dry Goods line, in Carpets, in Trunks, in Notions, etc

Your chance is now. Strike while the iron is hot.

BROWN & HOOKER, AT LANG'S OLD STAND, GREENVILLE, N. C.

VAUGHAN & BARNES, COMMISSION -:- MERCHANTS Norfolk, Va.

The movement of the cotton crop thus far this season would indicate that there was some foundation for the bad crop accounts daily reaching us from all parts of the cotton territory, if so the staple is selling too cheap and parties wishing to hold for higher prices can do so by shipping it to us and drawing for $25.00 per bale on same and having it held for six months is so desired.

Faithfully yours, VAUGHAN & BARNES.

G. E. HARRIS.

—DEALER IN—

HAIR, GRASS & FERTILIZERS

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion & Debility.

FARMS FOR SALE.

Prices Low, Terms Easy.

ELLIOTT BROS. OFFER FOR SALE

1. The J. L. Ballard home farm, Beaver Dam township, adjoining the lands of G. T. Tyson and J. H. Cobb. A fine farm of about 200 acres, with good buildings, 3 churches and a school within 2 miles. Plenty of near on the adjoining farms.

2. A farm near Ayden and lying immediately on the railroad, formerly owned by Caleb B. Tripp, 240 acres of which about 75 are cleared. Good neighborhood, 3 churches and a school within 2 miles. Plenty of near on the adjoining farms.

3. A fine farm of 260 acres, three miles from Farmville and 10 miles from Greenville, with large, substantial dwelling and out houses, known as the L. P. Beasley home place, fine cotton land, good clay subsoil, accessible to rail.

4. A smaller farm adjoining the above known as the Jones place, 150 acres, dwelling, barn and tenant house, land good.

5. A farm of 88 acres in Pactolus township, about 6 miles from Pactolus, 85 acres cleared, part of the Singletary tract.

6. Part of the Noah Jorner farm, 278 acres, adjoining the town of Marlboro, elegibly located in an improving section and can be made a valuable farm.

7. A small farm of about 50 acres, about 10 miles from Greenville, on Indian Well Swamp, with house, etc., formerly owned by Guilford Cox.

8. ALSO TIMBER LANDS: A tract of about 400 acres near Conecote station, with 400 press timber well suited for railroad ties.

A tract of about 800 acres in Pactolus township, near the Washington railroad, pine timber.

A tract of 150 acres near Johnson's Mills, pine and cypress timber. Apply to Wm. H. LONG, Greenville, N. C.

ESTABLISHED 1875. S. M. SCHULTZ, AT THE OLD BRICK STORE

FARMERS AND MERCHANTS BUY their year's supplies will find their interest to get our prices before you change elsewhere. Our stock is complete in all its branches.

PORK SIDES & SHOULDERS, FLOUR, COFFEE, SUGAR, RICE, TEA, &c.

ALWAYS AT LOWEST MARKET PRICES. TOBACCO SHUFF & CIGARS are bought direct from Manufacturers, enabling you to buy at one profit. A complete stock of FURNITURE always on hand and sold at prices to suit the times. Our goods are all bought and sold for CASH, therefore, having no risk to rug, we sell at a close margin. Respectfully, S. M. SCHULTZ, Greenville, N. C.

D. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

THE PEOPLE'S REMEDY FOR COUGHS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS.

Salvation Guaranteed. THE WHOLE FAMILY.

Something for Every Member. The greatest value for the most money of any medicine in the world. For a full description and order the above medicine for young and old, by best authority, send your name and address, to the Proprietors, Dr. J. C. Bull, 100 North Second Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

10 Cts. In Advance for a 3-months' subscription. Over 250,000 Sold. Write for Instructions. RUSSELL PUBLISHING CO., 106 Summer St., BOSTON.

ESTABLISHED 1838. J. A. ANDREWS, GROCER GREENVILLE, N. C.

500 Half Rolls 2lb Bagging, 500 Bundles New Arrow Ties, 100 Small Full Cream Cheese, 50 Tubs Choice Butter, 100 Tubs Boston Lard, 150 Boxes Tobacco, all grades, 150 Boxes Cakes and Crackers, 50 Barrels Stick Candy, 100 Kegs New Corn Meal, 50 Barrels Gail & Ax Snuff, 50 Barrels F. Lorillard's Snuff.

50 Barrels Railroad Mills Snuff, 25 Barrels Three Twist Snuff, Car load Rib Side Meat, Car load Seed Oats, Car load Flour, all grade, 150 Kegs Powder, 5 Tons Shot, 25,000 old Virginia Sheroids. Full line Case Goods, and everything else kept in a first-class grocery establishment.

A. G. COX, General Merchant, Winterville, N. C.

Manufacturer of the— COX COTTON PLANTER

Manufacture and dealer in Mouldings, Brackets, Turned or Scrolled Work, Church Pews and all Building Supplies. My Tobacco Hogheads in all sizes are for sale at S. M. Schultz & Co., Greenville, and at my mill. Will make satisfactory arrangements with warehousemen to furnish their customers.

COBB BROS., Cotton Factors

Commission Merchants, FAYETTE STREET, NORFOLK, VA. Consignments and Correspondence Solicited.

ALFRED FORBES THE "OLD RELIABLE MERCHANT" OF GREENVILLE, N. C.

OLD MAN GUSS IS NOW READY!

FOR HANDLING THE

NEW CROP OF TOBACCO.

THE OPENING BREAK

OF THE

GREENVILLE WAREHOUSE

Was a big success and shows how well prepared we are to handle your tobacco.

It is considered by all that we have the best lighted Warehouse in the State.

Every Farmer Selling on our Floor will be guaranteed the very highest prices for their Tobacco

I Will Have Competent Assistants. Satisfaction Guaranteed to Everybody

Some Sales recently made at the Greenville Warehouse. Compare them with other houses.

J. P. PEARLES—40, 25, 20, 16.75, 12.25, 10.25, 5.10.	JESSE SMITH—20, 18, 15, 12.25, 10.25, 5.10.	J. H. WOOLLARD—10.25, 13.25, 10.75, 12.50, 9.	BILL WALDROP—30, 25, 20, 16, 13.50, 12.50, 9.
F. W. TYSON—41.50, 24, 30.50, 10.25.	N. TYSON—25, 17.50, 15.75, 7.50.	M. E. DALE—29, 30.50, 35, 20, 14, 18, 50.	H. J. STOCKS—30, 15, 15, 13, 8.50.
F. TYSON—18, 15.50, 13.75, 13.50, 8.	G. T. CRAWFORD—25, 18.75, 17.75, 12.25, 6.	OUTTERBRIDGE & DUNN—Primings, 18.50, 12.75, 12, 16.25.	KITTELL & JENKINS—30, 14.25, 10.50, 10, 8.25.
D. M. ALLEN—31, 26, 20, 21, 18.75, 17, 11, 10, 8.25, 6.	TURNAGE & WAINRIGHT—30, 25.50, 14, 11.75, 8.	M. R. TURNAGE—36, 36, 20, 16.75, 16.75, 10.25, 12.75, 12.75, 30, 9.	J. E. S. EDWARDS—10.25, 10.75, 10, 10.50.
A. F. TURNAGE—19, 15, 13.75, 13, 13, 10, 28, 7.25.	BRYANT & POLLARD—17.75, 13.75, 15.75, 9.75, 8.25.	M. R. TURNAGE—25.50, 13.75, 20.50, 17.75, 12.75, 7.75.	ERNEST FORBES—50, 25.50, 25, 23.50, 10.25, 5.20.
WY SMITH—20, 16, 12.50, 11, 5.60.	BILL WALDROP—18, 19.50, 30, 18.25, 14, 8.	MISS BURNETT—14 pounds at 49.	THIGPEN & JOYNER—20, 20, 20, 15, 10, 20, 16, 20, 13.50, 15, 10.25.

Storage and Insurance Free

G. F. EVANS, Proprietor.

GREENVILLE N. C.

R. W. Royster & Co.,
LEAF - TOBACCO - BROKERS,
GREENVILLE, N. C.

R. M. HESTER & CO.,
GREENVILLE N. C.

—BUYERS AND HANDLERS OF ALL KINDS OF—
Leaf Tobacco, Strips and Scraps.

Refers to any member of the Tobacco Trade of Greenville, N. C.
Correspondence Solicited.

EASTERN - TOBACCO - WAREHOUSE!

GREENVILLE N. C.

SALE OF LEAF TOBACCO.

We are having daily breaks at our New Warehouse and are using our very best efforts to get as high prices for your tobacco as can be had anywhere.

WEATHERINGTON & CO.	G. W. HARDEE.	R. A. DARDEN.
8 Pounds $35.00	20 Pounds $50.00	70 Pounds $ 6.80
75 " 17.00	25 " 30.00	23 " 11.80
63 " 29.50	61 " 18.75	20 " 10.50
30 " 21.00	46 " 14.75	58 " 10.75
15 pounds: average $21.00	53 " 6.80	214 " 28.50
30 " 9.25	238 pounds: average $15.50.	165 Pounds $40.00
104 pounds: average $21.00.	W. A. DARDEN.	344 " 51.00
90 Pounds $20.00	EDWARDS & MOYNE.	309 " 45.00
21 " 28.50	185 Pounds $40.00	38 " 29.50
8 " 10.25	344 " 51.00	105 " 17.00
38 " 29.50	519 " 40.00	369 pounds: average $20.50.
105 " 17.00	1837 pounds: average $44.00.

The Greenville market will be on an equal with every market in the State. The Eastern Warehouse has every convenience for selling your tobacco and we will see that every pound brings full value.

Ample Accommodation for the Planter
FREE STABLES. FREE INSURANCE. FREE STORAGE.

Give us a trial and we will please you. Your friends,
O. B. JOYNER,
AGENTS

TOBACCO DEPARTMENT.

MARKET REPORTS

For week ending Saturday, Dec. 10.

GREENVILLE MARKET.
Reported by Joyner & Heilbroner.
Following are the market quotations:
Fillers: Green, 3 to 4; Common, 3 to 5; Good, 5 to 10; Fine, 10 to 15.
Smokers: Common, 4 to 6; Fair, 6 to 8; Good, 8 to 12 1/2; Fine, 12 1/2 to 18.
Cutters: Common, 12 1/2 to 15; Fair, 15 to 20; Good, 20 to 25; Fancy, 25 to 40.
Wrappers: Common, 12 1/2 to 20; Fair, 20 to 30; Good, 30 to 50; Fancy, 50 to 100.
Scraps: Dark, 2 to 3; Bright, 3 to 5.

HENDERSON MARKET.
Reported by Owen Davis, Manager Davis Warehouse.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.
Lugs or Smokers: Common to medium, 4, 5 to 7; Medium to good, 5, 6 to 10; Good to fine, 8, 12 to 20.
Fillers or Tips: Common to medium, 4, 5 to 7; Medium to good, 6, 7 to 10; Good to fine, 10, 12 to 18; Fine to fancy, 12, 16 to 20.
Cutters or Best Lugs: Common to medium, 10, 12 to 15; Medium to good, 12, 15 to 20; Good to fine, 15, 20 to 30; Fine to fancy, 20, 30 to 40.
Wrappers or Best Leaf: Common to medium, 11, 12 to 16; Medium to good, 15, 20 to 30; Good to fine, 20, 30 to 40; Fine to fancy, 40, 60 to 70.
Export: Common to medium, 7, 9 to 10; Medium to good, 10, 12 to 15; Good to fine, 12, 15 to 20; Fine to fancy, 20, 22 to 25.

CLARESVILLE MARKET.
QUOTATIONS:
Primings common, 1 to 4; fair, 5 to 10; fine, 10 to 20.
Fillers common, 3 to 5; good to fine, 5 to 10; fine, 8 to 12.
Smokers common, 3 to 5; good, 5 to 10; fine, 10 to 12.
Cutters common, 3 to 5; good, 5 to 10; fine, 10 to 12.
Wrappers normal, 12 to 25.

LOUISVILLE MARKET.
By J. S. Meadows, Reporter.

Smokers common, 4 to 6; good, 6 to 7; fine, 7 to 10.
Cutters common, 10 to 12; good, 12 to 18; fine, 20 to 25; fancy, 27 to 35.
Fillers common, 3 to 7; good, 8 to 10; fine, 12 to 18; nominal, 40 to 55; fancy, 60 to 65.
Sales continue full and price well up on all grades, fine white cutters and wrappers being fancy prices. We think the crop will be sold early as farmers are satisfied with prices and but few of them are in a condition to hold.

LOUISVILLE (KY.) QUOTATIONS.
Alex. Harthill, Reporter.

Sales for week, month and year, with comparisons:
1892 1891 1890 1889
Week 2643 2474 2822 2869
Month 2048 2570 2903 2809
Year 13428 130813 122575 109398
Louisville market quotations:
Dark: 1892 crop 1890 crop
Trash, 3.50 to 3.75 2.00 to 2.50
Com. lugs, 4.00 to 4.50 2.75 to 4.00
Medium lugs, 4.50 to 5.25 Nominal
Good lugs, 5.25 to 6.00 "
Com. leaf, 6.00 to 6.50 "
Medium leaf, 6.50 to 7.50 "
Good leaf, 8.00 to 12 "
In merchantable condition.

WILMINGTON & WELDON R. R. and branches—Condensed Schedule

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.
No 23, No 27, No 29, No 31, No 33, No 35, No 37, No 39, No 41, No 43, No 45, No 47, No 49, No 51, No 53, No 55, No 57, No 59, No 61, No 63, No 65, No 67, No 69, No 71, No 73, No 75, No 77, No 79, No 81, No 83, No 85, No 87, No 89, No 91, No 93, No 95, No 97, No 99, No 101, No 103, No 105, No 107, No 109, No 111, No 113, No 115, No 117, No 119, No 121, No 123, No 125, No 127, No 129, No 131, No 133, No 135, No 137, No 139, No 141, No 143, No 145, No 147, No 149, No 151, No 153, No 155, No 157, No 159, No 161, No 163, No 165, No 167, No 169, No 171, No 173, No 175, No 177, No 179, No 181, No 183, No 185, No 187, No 189, No 191, No 193, No 195, No 197, No 199, No 201, No 203, No 205, No 207, No 209, No 211, No 213, No 215, No 217, No 219, No 221, No 223, No 225, No 227, No 229, No 231, No 233, No 235, No 237, No 239, No 241, No 243, No 245, No 247, No 249, No 251, No 253, No 255, No 257, No 259, No 261, No 263, No 265, No 267, No 269, No 271, No 273, No 275, No 277, No 279, No 281, No 283, No 285, No 287, No 289, No 291, No 293, No 295, No 297, No 299, No 301, No 303, No 305, No 307, No 309, No 311, No 313, No 315, No 317, No 319, No 321, No 323, No 325, No 327, No 329, No 331, No 333, No 335, No 337, No 339, No 341, No 343, No 345, No 347, No 349, No 351, No 353, No 355, No 357, No 359, No 361, No 363, No 365, No 367, No 369, No 371, No 373, No 375, No 377, No 379, No 381, No 383, No 385, No 387, No 389, No 391, No 393, No 395, No 397, No 399, No 401, No 403, No 405, No 407, No 409, No 411, No 413, No 415, No 417, No 419, No 421, No 423, No 425, No 427, No 429, No 431, No 433, No 435, No 437, No 439, No 441, No 443, No 445, No 447, No 449, No 451, No 453, No 455, No 457, No 459, No 461, No 463, No 465, No 467, No 469, No 471, No 473, No 475, No 477, No 479, No 481, No 483, No 485, No 487, No 489, No 491, No 493, No 495, No 497, No 499, No 501, No 503, No 505, No 507, No 509, No 511, No 513, No 515, No 517, No 519, No 521, No 523, No 525, No 527, No 529, No 531, No 533, No 535, No 537, No 539, No 541, No 543, No 545, No 547, No 549, No 551, No 553, No 555, No 557, No 559, No 561, No 563, No 565, No 567, No 569, No 571, No 573, No 575, No 577, No 579, No 581, No 583, No 585, No 587, No 589, No 591, No 593, No 595, No 597, No 599, No 601, No 603, No 605, No 607, No 609, No 611, No 613, No 615, No 617, No 619, No 621, No 623, No 625, No 627, No 629, No 631, No 633, No 635, No 637, No 639, No 641, No 643, No 645, No 647, No 649, No 651, No 653, No 655, No 657, No 659, No 661, No 663, No 665, No 667, No 669, No 671, No 673, No 675, No 677, No 679, No 681, No 683, No 685, No 687, No 689, No 691, No 693, No 695, No 697, No 699, No 701, No 703, No 705, No 707, No 709, No 711, No 713, No 715, No 717, No 719, No 721, No 723, No 725, No 727, No 729, No 731, No 733, No 735, No 737, No 739, No 741, No 743, No 745, No 747, No 749, No 751, No 753, No 755, No 757, No 759, No 761, No 763, No 765, No 767, No 769, No 771, No 773, No 775, No 777, No 779, No 781, No 783, No 785, No 787, No 789, No 791, No 793, No 795, No 797, No 799, No 801, No 803, No 805, No 807, No 809, No 811, No 813, No 815, No 817, No 819, No 821, No 823, No 825, No 827, No 829, No 831, No 833, No 835, No 837, No 839, No 841, No 843, No 845, No 847, No 849, No 851, No 853, No 855, No 857, No 859, No 861, No 863, No 865, No 867, No 869, No 871, No 873, No 875, No 877, No 879, No 881, No 883, No 885, No 887, No 889, No 891, No 893, No 895, No 897, No 899, No 901, No 903, No 905, No 907, No 909, No 911, No 913, No 915, No 917, No 919, No 921, No 923, No 925, No 927, No 929, No 931, No 933, No 935, No 937, No 939, No 941, No 943, No 945, No 947, No 949, No 951, No 953, No 955, No 957, No 959, No 961, No 963, No 965, No 967, No 969, No 971, No 973, No 975, No 977, No 979, No 981, No 983, No 985, No 987, No 989, No 991, No 993, No 995, No 997, No 999, No 1001, No 1003, No 1005, No 1007, No 1009, No 1011, No 1013, No 1015, No 1017, No 1019, No 1021, No 1023, No 1025, No 1027, No 1029, No 1031, No 1033, No 1035, No 1037, No 1039, No 1041, No 1043, No 1045, No 1047, No 1049, No 1051, No 1053, No 1055, No 1057, No 1059, No 1061, No 1063, No 1065, No 1067, No 1069, No 1071, No 1073, No 1075, No 1077, No 1079, No 1081, No 1083, No 1085, No 1087, No 1089, No 1091, No 1093, No 1095, No 1097, No 1099, No 1101, No 1103, No 1105, No 1107, No 1109, No 1111, No 1113, No 1115, No 1117, No 1119, No 1121, No 1123, No 1125, No 1127, No 1129, No 1131, No 1133, No 1135, No 1137, No 1139, No 1141, No 1143, No 1145, No 1147, No 1149, No 1151, No 1153, No 1155, No 1157, No 1159, No 1161, No 1163, No 1165, No 1167, No 1169, No 1171, No 1173, No 1175, No 1177, No 1179, No 1181, No 1183, No 1185, No 1187, No 1189, No 1191, No 1193, No 1195, No 1197, No 1199, No 1201, No 1203, No 1205, No 1207, No 1209, No 1211, No 1213, No 1215, No 1217, No 1219, No 1221, No 1223, No 1225, No 1227, No 1229, No 1231, No 1233, No 1235, No 1237, No 1239, No 1241, No 1243, No 1245, No 1247, No 1249, No 1251, No 1253, No 1255, No 1257, No 1259, No 1261, No 1263, No 1265, No 1267, No 1269, No 1271, No 1273, No 1275, No 1277, No 1279, No 1281, No 1283, No 1285, No 1287, No 1289, No 1291, No 1293, No 1295, No 1297, No 1299, No 1301, No 1303, No 1305, No 1307, No 1309, No 1311, No 1313, No 1315, No 1317, No 1319, No 1321, No 1323, No 1325, No 1327, No 1329, No 1331, No 1333, No 1335, No 1337, No 1339, No 1341, No 1343, No 1345, No 1347, No 1349, No 1351, No 1353, No 1355, No 1357, No 1359, No 1361, No 1363, No 1365, No 1367, No 1369, No 1371, No 1373, No 1375, No 1377, No 1379, No 1381, No 1383, No 1385, No 1387, No 1389, No 1391, No 1393, No 1395, No 1397, No 1399, No 1401, No 1403, No 1405, No 1407, No 1409, No 1411, No 1413, No 1415, No 1417, No 1419, No 1421, No 1423, No 1425, No 1427, No 1429, No 1431, No 1433, No 1435, No 1437, No 1439, No 1441, No 1443, No 1445, No 1447, No 1449, No 1451, No 1453, No 1455, No 1457, No 1459, No 1461, No 1463, No 1465, No 1467, No 1469, No 1471, No 1473, No 1475, No 1477, No 1479, No 1481, No 1483, No 1485, No 1487, No 1489, No 1491, No 1493, No 1495, No 1497, No 1499, No 1501, No 1503, No 1505, No 1507, No 1509, No 1511, No 1513, No 1515, No 1517, No 1519, No 1521, No 1523, No 1525, No 1527, No 1529, No 1531, No 1533, No 1535, No 1537, No 1539, No 1541, No 1543, No 1545, No 1547, No 1549, No 1551, No 1553, No 1555, No 1557, No 1559, No 1561, No 1563, No 1565, No 1567, No 1569, No 1571, No 1573, No 1575, No 1577, No 1579, No 1581, No 1583, No 1585, No 1587, No 1589, No 1591, No 1593, No 1595, No 1597, No 1599, No 1601, No 1603, No 1605, No 1607, No 1609, No 1611, No 1613, No 1615, No 1617, No 1619, No 1621, No 1623, No 1625, No 1627, No 1629, No 1631, No 1633, No 1635, No 1637, No 1639, No 1641, No 1643, No 1645, No 1647, No 1649, No 1651, No 1653, No 1655, No 1657, No 1659, No 1661, No 1663, No 1665, No 1667, No 1669, No 1671, No 1673, No 1675, No 1677, No 1679, No 1681, No 1683, No 1685, No 1687, No 1689, No 1691, No 1693, No 1695, No 1697, No 1699, No 1701, No 1703, No 1705, No 1707, No 1709, No 1711, No 1713, No 1715, No 1717, No 1719, No 1721, No 1723, No 1725, No 1727, No 1729, No 1731, No 1733, No 1735, No 1737, No 1739, No 1741, No 1743, No 1745, No 1747, No 1749, No 1751, No 1753, No 1755, No 1757, No 1759, No 1761, No 1763, No 1765, No 1767, No 1769, No 1771, No 1773, No 1775, No 1777, No 1779, No 1781, No 1783, No 1785, No 1787, No 1789, No 1791, No 1793, No 1795, No 1797, No 1799, No 1801, No 1803, No 1805, No 1807, No 1809, No 1811, No 1813, No 1815, No 1817, No 1819, No 1821, No 1823, No 1825, No 1827, No 1829, No 1831, No 1833, No 1835, No 1837, No 1839, No 1841, No 1843, No 1845, No 1847, No 1849, No 1851, No 1853, No 1855, No 1857, No 1859, No 1861, No 1863, No 1865, No 1867, No 1869, No 1871, No 1873, No 1875, No 1877, No 1879, No 1881, No 1883, No 1885, No 1887, No 1889, No 1891, No 1893, No 1895, No 1897, No 1899, No 1901, No 1903, No 1905, No 1907, No 1909, No 1911, No 1913, No 1915, No 1917, No 1919, No 1921, No 1923, No 1925, No 1927, No 1929, No 1931, No 1933, No 1935, No 1937, No 1939, No 1941, No 1943, No 1945, No 1947, No 1949, No 1951, No 1953, No 1955, No 1957, No 1959, No 1961, No 1963, No 1965, No 1967, No 1969, No 1971, No 1973, No 1975, No 1977, No 1979, No 1981, No 1983, No 1985, No 1987, No 1989, No 1991, No 1993, No 1995, No 1997, No 1999, No 2001, No 2003, No 2005, No 2007, No 2009, No 2011, No 2013, No 2015, No 2017, No 2019, No 2021, No 2023, No 2025, No 2027, No 2029, No 2031, No 2033, No 2035, No 2037, No 2039, No 2041, No 2043, No 2045, No 2047, No 2049, No 2051, No 2053, No 2055, No 2057, No 2059, No 2061, No 2063, No 2065, No 2067, No 2069, No 2071, No 2073, No 2075, No 2077, No 2079, No 2081, No 2083, No 2085, No 2087, No 2089, No 2091, No 2093, No 2095, No 2097, No 2099, No 2101, No 2103, No 2105, No 2107, No 2109, No 2111, No 2113, No 2115, No 2117, No 2119, No 2121, No 2123, No 2125, No 2127, No 2129, No 2131, No 2133, No 2135, No 2137, No 2139, No 2141, No 2143, No 2145, No 2147, No 2149, No 2151, No 2153, No 2155, No 2157, No 2159, No 2161, No 2163, No 2165, No 2167, No 2169, No 2171, No 2173, No 2175, No 2177, No 2179, No 2181, No 2183, No 2185, No 2187, No 2189, No 2191, No 2193, No 2195, No 2197, No 2199, No 2201, No 2203, No 2205, No 2207, No 2209, No 2211, No 2213, No 2215, No 2217, No 2219, No 2221, No 2223, No 2225, No 2227, No 2229, No 2231, No 2233, No 2235, No 2237, No 2239, No 2241, No 2243, No 2245, No 2247, No 2249, No 2251, No 2253, No 2255, No 2257, No 2259, No 2261, No 2263, No 2265, No 2267, No 2269, No 2271, No 2273, No 2275, No 2277, No 2279, No 2281, No 2283, No 2285, No 2287, No 2289, No 2291, No 2293, No 2295, No 2297, No 2299, No 2301, No 2303, No 2305, No 2307, No 2309, No 2311, No 2313, No 2315, No 2317, No