was held at $25,000. I am now negotiating to sell it for $5,500. Land is the only thing in this country that has not kept pace with the increase of population. Protected industries have absorbed the increase of value that, in the absence of laws favoring a special class, would have gone to land owners. As a legitimate consequence of this beautiful protection doctrine, Egyptian cotton and Indian grain have been brought into competition with the products of our soil, forcing down prices of both to the lowest point ever recorded."

In order that the matter should be dealt with by experts, Secretary Carlisle has designated a number of U. S. Customs Inspectors and officials of the Customs Bureau of the Treasury department, to act as a commission to draw up the regulations necessary for the enforcement of the sugar schedule of the new tariff. This commission will be under the immediate direction of Assistant Secretary Hamlin.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, isn't much of a populist, notwithstanding his sensational letter announcing his abandonment of the Republican party and his intention to act with the populists in the future; but he is a firm believer in the free coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, and very shrewd politician; hence the publication of that letter. His sole object, in the opinion of your correspondent, was to endeavor to force the silver question to the front in the Congressional campaign, because he thereby hopes to lessen the number of Democrats elected to the next House, owing to the known differences of opinion in the party on the subject. I do not hesitate to predict that upon all political questions Senator Jones will continue to vote with the Republicans as he has always done. Mark the prediction. In other words the move is a Republican trick.

Secretary Carlisle wears a broad smile these days, in spite of the hard work he is having to do in connection with the new tariff. Cause why? The cash receipts of the Treasury are steadily increasing and it is no longer necessary for him to sit up o' nights to study out how to meet the obligations of the government.

How the Populists Would Bust the Country.

I believe that it is easy to demonstrate that the Populists, if successful, would destroy the country. There are no doubt many honest men in the ranks of that party who desire only safe legislation. But the leadership is in the main composed of reckless socialists and anarchists and communists who have well defined plans of destruction, but no notion of a constructive policy of Government. In the Congress just drawing to a close the Populist legislators introduced enough bills to bankrupt the Treasury, not to speak of Peffer's bill to levy all Federal taxation on land and Allen's bill to largely increase all pensions. Among the bills introduced were Mr. Davis' loan bill, carrying $10,000,000,000; Mr. Clover's loan bill, $2,000,000,000; another bill by Mr. Clover, $1,000,000,000; by Mr. Keer, $1,000,000,000; Mr. Hupson's pension bill, $1,500,000,000; Mr. Davis' industrial army bill, $500,000,000; Mr. Peffer's charity bill, $6,300,000; Mr. Boen's internal improvements bill, $500,000,000; Mr. Boen's thistle bill, $1,000,000; Mr. Peffer's rain water bill, $20,000,000; making a grand total of $35,507,300,000.

To show the magnitude of these asked for appropriations I quote from a speech by Representative Figott, of Connecticut:

"As the total estimated money of the world, including paper, gold, silver, copper, brass and iron tokens, does not exceed $10,100,000,000, it appears that the amount of money called for by the bills named is nearly five times the volume of the currency of the world."

UNCLE CEPHAS ON THE THIRD PARTY.
The Third Party Like Kansas and Its Promises Like Those of Peg-Leg Williams.

Water-melons had about gone. As there was nothing else handy to fill minds and mouths they had turned to politics. The disputes in this ever old and ever new controversy were Crutch and Uncle Cephas. Crutch had jumped head and ears into Third Partyism, and was eagerly awaiting the triumph of his party and the beginning of the millenium. Uncle Cephas was what might be called a Republican with Democratic leanings. Which means that he always voted the Republican ticket and always leaned on his white friends for sympathy and support when he got sick, broke or in any manner of trouble.

"What's de Third Party gwine do fer yer?" roared Crutch grandiloquently, answering a question no one had asked, just as he had seen the big guns do.

"It's gwine third whiter' body's got en gin yu a sheer uv it. It's gwine."

"But what's it gwine do wid what you's got?" Put in Uncle Cephas.

"It's gwine, give yer free silver," went on Crutch, who was enough of an orator to know that questions are pitfalls to be leaped over. "It's gwine, give yer free silver. It's gwine over the rail-roads an' let yer ride free. Whut in da name er God kin anybody want mo'n to have money free en ridin' free?"

"Third Party put nigh good es Kansas den" broke in Uncle Cephas contemptuously. "What did Peg loig Williams promus den nigger to git 'im to Kansas? Out dar it snowed flour en hauled sugar en rained butter milk. Baltimore (darkey name for bacon) walked round ready friod on the hawg wid er big English hoe-cake in his mouf. De springs run gravel all de week en lasses uv Sunday, on de trees was nately loaded wid fritters stidder leaves. De creeks was pot-liquor wid er dumplin' dam ev'y fifty yards. Water-millions growed wid en got ripe evy munt in the year."

"Dat whut Peg-laig promus. Now whut did de nigger fin' out dar? Chills, skeeters en hard work. Enn grity ask-cakes was mighty fer erpart. En you'll miss it wus'ndat in the Third Party. Fool niggers 'spec' it to do ev'y thing fum killin' crab-grass to to cuoin' rheumatiz. All de tree money dat'll ever come to yo' house' Crutch, it'll be two coppers to go on er dead nigger's eyes, en dey'll be slick en have holes in 'em. En all de free ridin' you'll ever git 'er'll be in er styee-cart after yer's nailed up."

"Hol' on, Unc' Ceph; hol' on," exclaimed Crutch trying to get in a word, but the crowd hawed so wildly he couldn't.

"All dat Third Party fool'ness is whut's fetchin' judgment en bad luck on de country" shouted Uncle Cephas as he climbed in his cart to leave. I say it's fetchin' judgment en bad luck. De simon crap done failed; en the Third Party done whooped en hollered bout de woods in dar midnigh meetin' twel days skyeered all de possums out'n de country. Yer's made!"

Just then an urchin stole up and gave the steers tail a vigorous twist, transforming the dreamy, little bovine into a Lide full of fierce energy, which darted for home. The old man grabbed the grape-vine rein. A violent tussle ensued. The steer won as steers always do and shot around the corner followed by all the dogs and small boys in town.—O. W. Blackhall, in Raleigh News and Observer.

Marvelous Results.
From a letter written by Rev. J. Gauderman, of Diamonddale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding with La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at John L. Wooten's Drug Store. Regular bottles 50c and $1.00.

CABARRUS AND MONTGOMERY

The Democrats of Cabarrus county, in convention assembled, adopted the following resolutions:

1. That we favor the election of United States Senators by the people, as Representatives in Congress are now elected.

2. That we hereby request our Senators and Representatives in Congress, for North Carolina, when Congress shall next assemble, to take immediate action, on what has already been done by the House of Representatives in this direction, to have the Constitution of the United States amended so that United States Senators shall be elected by the people.

3. That a copy of this resolution and of the two foregoing resolutions be, at once, sent to our two Senators and Democratic representatives in Congress by the secretary of this convention.

4. That we hereby instruct Mr. T. J. Jerome and Mr. H. S. Puryear, who will be, respectively, our Senator and Representative in the next General Assembly of North Carolina, to take such action in that Legislature, for an "application of the Legislature of two thirds of the several States" to Congress, or by instruction and request, respectively, to our Senators and Democratic Representatives in Congress, as will most speedily tend to affect the election of United States Senators by the people.

5. That we instruct our said Senator and Representative in the next General Assembly of this State to attend every Democratic caucus of that body, held to nominate a candidate for such caucus, to vote, on each and every ballot, for Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis as the choice of the Democrats of Cabarrus county for United States Senator, and in such caucus, to vote, on each and every ballot, for Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis as the choice of the Democrats of Cabarrus county for United States Senator.

6. And that we hereby request our said Senator and Representative in the next General Assembly of North Carolina to be active in using every honorable means to secure the nomination and election of Senator Jarvis to succeed Senator Ransom as United States Senator.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the convention of Montgomery:

"Whereas, We, the Democrats of Montgomery county in convention assembled, recognize the peculiar fitness, eminent ability and worthy party services of Hon. Lee S. Overman and Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis, and

Whereas, they have always been found advocating the principles of sound Democracy and championing the rights of the people.

"Resolved, That we do most heartily endorse their candidacy for the United States Senate—Mr. Overman for the short term made vacant by the death of the lamented Vance and Mr. Jarvis for the long term—and request the nominee of this convention for the House of Representatives to vote for them and to use all honorable means to secure their election."

If the "contingency" should arise Hon. Chauncey M. Depew would consent to run as the Republican candidate for Governor of New York. If the "contingency" should arise the Hon. Benjamin Harrison would consent to run as the Republican candidate for President of the United States. The contingency in both cases is if they should be able to command votes enough to secure the nomination. But in that base commanding votes enough to be elected would be a much more difficult matter.—Wilmington Star.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

UNITY, BRETHREN, THE DEMOCRATIC RECORD.

We are perfectly candid when we say that at no time since the war have the prospects for a Democratic victory in North Carolina been more brilliant than they are now. The morale of the party is superb, its spirit, its enthusiasm, are wonderful and admirable, and it only remains for us to keep the peace within the party and to do, each man, his duty to realize the most splendid triumph in the history of the party. We have a record to go before the people with which must commend itself to them. A panic which threatened the country under Republican rule came upon it in the first months of a Democratic administration and was so dealt with by that administration that it has subsided and prosperity is returning after a long period of depression. A Democratic Congress has given us a tariff bill which goes far toward restoring to the people the rights which favored interests have heretofore enjoyed. The expenses of the government have been reduced. As to national affairs, the Democratic campaigner does not need to be on the defensive. The argument is with him and he only needs to use it. The record of the party in the State is impeccable and its excellence needs only to be brought to the attention of the voters, when they will endorse it. The fusion between the Populists and the Republicans in North Carolina is already a failure, and many of those of both parties can be won by the Democracy this year. Neither of them has a ticket of its own and the Democratic party offers a better ticket than the opposition presents.

All that we want is unity in our ranks. In every quarter of the State it obtains, thus far. Let us see to it that it is preserved. Let the nominations be a finality, and all Democrats rally to the nominees. Let all extraneous issues and all distracting issues among ourselves be relegated to the rear, and the Democratic party of North Carolina will this year go forth to a victory which will be memorable.—Charlotte Observer.

Capt. Buck Kitchen remarked to a gentleman in Smithfield the other day that he had made a big mistake in going over to the Populists. He said that he ought to have announced himself an anti-administration Democratic candidate for the United States Senate, and he thought that he could have won. And this is the milk in the cocoanut—a seat in the United States Senate. But Captain Kitchen has at least realized that the cause of the Populists is a hopeless one, and even should the fusion movement succeed, with Butler and Pritchard the only senatorial possibilities, he would be but a small tail to an independent kite. No wonder the captain is restless and dissatisfied in his new political home.—Concord Times.

The hydra headed monster born at Raleigh should be christened the Rep-Pop-combination-fusion-co-operation party. This shapeless political creature will out quite a novel figure in the campaign in North Carolina this fall. Its antics and acrobatic performances will be watched by the good people of the State with no little amusement. It should be labeled, "Anything to beat the Democrats." If Thomas Jefferson only knew that this conglomerated mess had placed on its ensign "Jeffersonian Democracy," he would turn over in his grave and weep tears of disgust. Good people should give it a wide berth lest they be defiled by its touch.—Sanford Express.

The torture of dyspepsia and headache, the agonizing itching and pain of salt rheum, are removed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

At the great Democratic rally at Atlanta, Friday night, Hon. Charles F. Crisp, Speaker of the House of Representatives, was one of the speakers. In his concluding remarks, Mr. Crisp thus epitomized the work of the Democratic Congress:

"While we have not done all we hoped to do, we have done more in the past year to redress the wrongs of the people, we have done more for their relief, than was ever done by any party in the same length of time in any country under the sun. These are bold words, yet I hold myself at all times ready to defend them. Coming into power at a time of panic when business was at a standstill, when labor was unemployed, when our treasury was empty, with courage and fidelity we entered upon a struggle with the enemies of the people. We emerged from that struggle victorious in this:

"We have repealed the McKinley law.

"We have greatly reduced taxation.

"We have made living cheaper.

"We have made all money taxable.

"We have taxed surplus incomes.

"We have restored freedom of elections.

"We have reduced public expenditures, and we have declared undying hospitality to all trusts and monopoly organized for the oppression of the people. On these foundations we 'build our house,' on these issues we go before the people. For them we have fought the good fight, to them we have kept the faith, and of them we have no fear."

He Was "Accidentally" Shot.

One day this week, a negro came town and got a doctor to pick a lot of shot out of his hide. He had been accidentally peppered by a companion while out hunting, he said, in Sharon township. The doctor picked and picked and picked for an hour and finally had the victim freed of lead.

The next day, Mr. Isaac E. Weaver, a farmer, of Sharon was in town and heard about the "That's my darkey," he said. Then he told how, the previous night, he had been awakened by a noise in his yard. He went out to investigate and found a negro in his hog pen. The negro had a pig under one arm and was reaching for another, when Mr. Weaver "accidentally shot" him. He dropped the pig and bounded away, and that's how the Charlotte doctor got the shot picking job. Charlotte News.

Things Mentioned in our State Exchanges that are of General Interest. The Cream of the News

There are now fifty three inmates in the Soldiers' Home at Raleigh.

Mr. W. P. Sledge, a farmer of Halifax county, had a stroke of paralysis while at work in his field.

Some of the colored people of Anson county are talking of going to Liberia. They are holding public meetings to discuss the question.

The cotton gin, saw and grist mills of R. B. Jones, at Wilson's Mills, were destroyed by fire last Tuesday. Loss $1,500 with no insurance.

One day last week the guards at the State farm, near Weldon, shot and killed Alex Barnhardt, a convict who was trying to escape. He was sentenced from Cabarrus county.

Andrew Oxendine, a notorious murderer, has been arrested in Robeson county. He was a member of the once famous Lowry gang and a reward of $100 was offered for his arrest.

It is said that work will be commenced the latter part of this month on the magazine in Fort Caswell, at the mouth of the Cape Fear river, for which Congress voted on appropriation of $7,000.

A large colony of northern people is to be located in Oaslow county on the line of the Wilmington, Newbern & Norfolk railway. Extensive bodies of land are being purchased for the use of the colonists.

Goldsboro Headlight: Cards are out for the marriage of Dr. D. S. Harmon and Miss Clara Neuzoit, of Hoidelberg, Germany who is now on a visit to relatives at Norfolk. The ceremony will take place at the Hebrew temple here, Wednesday, at 8:30 p. m.

"A free ballot and fair count" seems to be the only battle cry of the "confusionists." Bless their "hollowfooted souls," there is no opposition to that in the entire State unless it be among their own ranks. Elections have been fair in North Carolina, so far as the Democrats could procure with the opposition they have had, ever since the federal troops have been withdrawn. Of course, under the supervision of that period of radical troops and bayonets we cannot tell, as the elections were virtually held in South Carolina and counted to suit themselves. The battle cry for "a free ballot" comes too late, unless it be a warning for the people not to return the Republicans to power.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 14 '94.

Senator Faulker, of West Virginia, chairman of the Democratic Congressional campaign committee, who is almost constantly at the committee headquarters, smiles significantly every time his attention is called to a new version of the dissension which the Republican newspaper correspondents profess to have discovered in the committee. He says that those for whose benefit the committee exists have the best of reasons for knowing that there is no dissension, and that it will be beneficial rather than otherwise to the Democratic party if those correspondents can convince the Republican managers that the committee is not in a condition to render effective service to the Democratic candidates. As a matter of fact, all of these dissension fairy tales are based upon a misapprehension of the duties of the committee. With the exception of the campaign Text Book, which is prepared by the committee, and which is not for general distribution but for speakers and editors, the committee does not decide what sort of documents are to be sent into a Congressional district. It merely sends what is asked for by the candidate or those authorized to speak for him. So it is simply impossible that members of the committee should dispute over what documents shall be sent out. The committee is filling all the orders sent to it, and will continue to do so. Senator Faulker says the information he is receiving from all over the country is daily adding to his confidence that the Democrats will retain control of the House, and he thinks that the greater the improvement in business, now becoming apparent in all sections, the larger the Democratic majority will be, as the only thing that ever made the issue doubtful was the business depression and the disposition of many voters to hold the party in power responsible for the hard times.

Representative John T. Dunn, of New Jersey, has some very strong ideas on political economy, and they are thoroughly practical, as is the man. Speaking of the effect of the Republican policy upon farmers, he said: "If there is any class of people under the sun who ought to vote the Democratic ticket it is the farmers. Since 1860 farm values have decreased fully 40 per cent. in the United States, as shown by the census figures. There isn't a country place in New Jersey today that is worth over $50 per acre for farming purposes. I happen to own the old Doty homestead, on the outskirts of Elizabeth, on which the celebrated Ben Wade was born. It contains eighty-four acres, and in 1860

was held at $25,000. I am now negotiating to sell it for $5,500. Land is the only thing in this country that has not kept pace with the increase of population. Protected industries have absorbed the increase of value that, in the absence of laws favoring a special class, would have gone to land owners. As a legitimate consequence of this beautiful protection doctrine, Egyptian cotton and Indian grain have been brought into competition with the products of our soil, forcing down prices of both to the lowest point ever recorded."

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 19th, 1894.

Entered at the postoffice at Greenville, N. C., as second-class mail matter.

In Lenoir county the Pops and Repe went 'alf-and-alf' in making up their ticket. Lovely combination! so lamb-lion like.

Capt. Swift Galloway, of Snow Hill, is one of the Senatorial nominees for the eighth district. The captain will make his presence felt in the Senate.

The Pittsboro Record, the Dorham Sun and the Goldsboro Headlight have all recently begun new volumes. They are excellent papers and well deserve success.

Dr. T. F. Fuller, who was assistant physician of the North Carolina Insane Asylum at Raleigh, a position he has filled acceptably for many years, died last week.

About three hundred delegates representing many counties of the State, were present at the Good Roads Conference in Charlotte last week. Several topics were discussed and an interest awakened that we trust will spread over every County in the State.

From all that was said in advance about it, one could have thought that Marian Butler expected to wipe up the earth with Senator Jarvis upon the occasion of the latter's opening his campaign in Goldsboro. But lo! when the day arrived Butler seems not to have showed up.

Col. J. S. Carr, President of the State Association of Democratic Clubs, has secured some big men to speak at the convention and opening of the State campaign in Raleigh to-morrow. Those who have accepted invitations to be present are Hon. Charles H. Mansur, Second Comptroller of the Treasury, Hon. Hoke Smith, Secretary of the Interior, Channey F. Black, President, and Lawrence Gardner, Secretary of the National Association of Democratic Clubs; and Senators Ransom and Jarvis.

The defeat of no one man will meet with more general approbation than that of Col. W. C. P. Breckenridge, of Kentucky. Since the verdict against him in the suit brought by the Pollard woman he has been working industriously to secure a return to Congress from his district. On Saturday primaries were held to determine whether Breckenridge or his opponent, W. C. Owens should be the candidate and the result was that Owens was the choice of the people by a large majority, and Breckenridge receives another condemnation for the infamous life he has been leading. This is as it should be. People who love morality and virtue could not vote for such a man as Breckenridge.

Some kind of a convention (whether Republican or Populist or fusion we know not) met at Rocky Mount last week, and nominated E. W. Timberlake, of Louisiana, for Judge and C. M. Bernard, of Greenville, for Solicitor. Report says the attendance upon the meeting was about fifteen persons, all told, and that it was held in one room of the hotel. Mr. Bernard, we understand, claims to have been first nominated by the Populists and then endorsed by the Republicans, and as Col. Skinner was there to represent the Pitt Pops this is probably the size of it. So that makes them even for Mr. Bernard going over to Edenton to give the Colonel the Republican endorsement for Congress. Nice trading around the fusionists are doing these times.

BWARE OF THEM.

We saw a picture in one of our Populist exchanges, the other day, that carried a forcible illustration of what the Third party would do if it could get in power. In this picture the People's Party is represented by a large gun boat with formidable looking guns protruding from loop-holes and elevated decks. The several States are represented by vari-shaped blocks of ice lying in touch with each other. The boat is rushing headlong upon these blocks of ice, crushing some in pieces before its massive prow, splitting others asunder, and scattering others in confusion and disorder, while the guns stand out threatening destruction to whatever might arise to check its mad career. This is indeed suggestive. Look at the few States in which the Populists have had power and see what a crushing, grinding, miserable administration they have conducted, almost to the ruin of the States controlled by them. Like this vessel in the picture is breaking up the union formed by the blocks of ice, give the Populists the power and you would see our Union of States broken in pieces, our system of government destroyed, with anarchy and pandemonium reigning everywhere. The guns in readiness for use on the boat recall what one of the speakers said in the recent fusion meeting in Raleigh about there being plenty of guns back in the mountains of North Carolina if they should be needed in helping to carry out their ideas; and also recalls what a Third Party speaker in Pitt county was once reported as saying about getting their demands with bullets if they could not be had with ballots. It reminds us, too, of a reply a Populist was once reported to make to the inquiry, what would his party do if it could get into power? The reply was "the first thing we would do-if we saw anything we wanted we'd have it."

So the artist who planned that picture drew more forcibly than he may not have intended it to convey this idea, but such is the impression his illustration gives us. At any rate, if the Populists could get sufficient power we do not believe they would hesitate to crush everything not exactly in accord with their way of thinking, and people should be careful how they cast a vote for such a party.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

Large Attendance—Harmonious Meeting—Strong Ticket Nominated.

There was a large attendance at the Democratic county convention, last Thursday, and the proceedings of the body were harmonious throughout. Every township had a full representation of delegates, and hundreds of other staunch Democrats were present.

Owing to some canvassing on part of the Chicod delegation it was 12:30 o'clock when chairman A. L. Blow, of the county executive committee, rapped for order. Mr. Blow opened the convention in a strong ten minute speech that was frequently applauded.

After the call of delegates and the convention being declared ready for permanent organization, J. G. Moye moved that A. L. Blow be made permanent chairman, and on motion of J. B. Grimes, R. Williams was made secretary with Andrew Joyner and D. J. Whichard assistants.

Charles Skinner offered motion that the Legislative ticket be passed over for the present and the county ticket selected first. Adopted. L. A. Mayo moved that the convention proceed to select a candidate for Superior Court Clerk, and nominations were declared in order. G. T. Tyson presented the name of Willis R. Williams. S. A. Gainer presented the name of D. C. Moore. E. C. Blount presented the name of R. L. Davis. M. G. Horton said he was authorized to say by Mr. Davis, if his name should be mentioned, that under no circumstances could he accept. I. A. Sugg seconded the nomination of Moore and J. D. Cox seconded the nomination of Williams. The excellence and appropriateness of the nominating speeches was commented upon by many present.

The ballot for Clerk was as follows:

Township.	Williams.	Moore.
Beaver Dam	4	1
Belvoir	1	5
Bethel	1	6
Carolina	1	4
Chicod	10	4
Contentnea	12	4
Falkland	4	4
Farmville	4	4
Greenville	8	10
Pactolus	7	3
Swift Creek	1	1
Total	50	30.

J. B. Little moved to proceed to the selection of a candidate for Sheriff, and after its adoption presented the name of R. W. King. Charles Skinner moved that the nomination of King be made unanimous by acclamation. Adopted.

J. T. Smith moved to proceed to select a candidate for Treasurer, when J. J. Laughinghouse suggested that no nomination for Treasurer be made, but let that office be consolidated with the Sheriff's office. Chairman Blow stated that such a decision was not within the jurisdiction of this convention but belonged to a different body. G. T. Tyson said it was no time for experimenting, we better go on in the old way and have a Treasurer.

Nominations for Treasurer were declared in order. E. C. Blount presented the name of G. T. Tyson and I. A. Sugg presented the name of John Flanagan. Tyson withdrew in favor of Flanagan, who received every vote in the convention except two complimentary ones from Contentnea for Tyson.

J. T. Smith moved to proceed to select a candidate for Coroner. E. C. Blount presented the name of Dr. C. O. H. Laughinghouse. W. H. Smith presented the name of Dr. W. E. Warren. J. L. Fleming seconded the nomination of Laughinghouse. Ballot:

Township. Laugh. Warren. inghouse.

Swift Creek	10	8
Total	53	29

For Surveyor W. H. Smith presented the name of J. B. Kilpatrick and moved that his nomination be made unanimous by acclamation. Adopted.

The legislative ticket was then taken up, nominations for Senator being declared in order.

For the Senate Chas. Skinner presented the name of F. G. James, and on motion of J. H. Smith he was nominated unanimously by acclamation.

For House of Representatives J. B. Grimes presented the name of J. D. Cox. Oliver Smith presented the name of N. R. Cory. G. T. Tyson presented the name of S. M. Jones. H. C. Hemby presented the name of A. G. Cox, and a delegate from Bethel presented the name of J. R. Barnhill. There was a motion to select one representative at the time but this was afterward reconsidered and the ballot was for two as follows:

Township.	J. D. C.	N. R. C.	S. M. J.	A. G. C.	J. R. B.
Beaver Dam	4	4	1	2	1
Belvoir	2	4	1	2	1

L. A. Mayo introduced the following resolution and spoke forcibly in eulogy of Senator Jarvis:

"Resolved, That we instruct our Senators and Representatives in the next General Assembly of this State to cast their ballot for the Hon. T. J. Jarvis for one of the Senators for North Carolina, and to use all honorable means to secure his nomination and election."

G. T. Tyson said he was willing to trust the men nominated in this convention to vote for the best interest of the county and State and moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was carried by a viva-voce vote. J. G. Moye moved to reconsider the vote and that the vote be taken by townships. The roll of townships was called and the motion to reconsider lost by a vote of 61 to 21.

This action on the resolution can by no means be taken as detrimental to the interests of Senator Jarvis, as the failure to adopt the same was in keeping with a long established precedent of the Democracy of Pitt county to adopt no resolutions of instructions to its candidates or delegates, and it is well known that the Legislative ticket selected is composed of men who are in hearty accord with the sentiment of Pitt county upon the Senatorial question.

The candidates who had been nominated then came forward and signified their acceptance and the convention adjourned. Immediately after the adjournment of the convention the several township executive committees held a meeting to elect a county committee. The county committee is composed of A. L. Blow, chairman, R. Williams, secretary, J. G. Moye, John Flanagan, J. L. Fleming, W. H. Smith, W. C. Joyner, S. W. Andrews, D. C. Moore, W. H. Williams, J. A. K. Tucker, A. L. Harrington, J. H. Smith, B. L. Davis, F. G. James, J. R. Dayport, Job Moore. The first six named above compose the central committee.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15 '94. A cheerful feeling prevails at Democratic headquarters, as may be judged by the talk of Secretary Lawrence Gardner, who said: "The result in Maine is hardly what we expected, considering the character of the fight made by the Republicans, the amount of money spent, and the speakers of national reputation thrown into the State. When compared with the little that was done by the Democrats, it strikes me that the vote is ridiculously small. The Democrats in Maine had nothing to lose, whereas the Republicans had everything to gain, not only in keeping up their majorities, but in increasing them for the effect elsewhere. But back of it all is the personal State pride of a Presidential boom. Personally, I feel delighted with the result, as I firmly believe it will have the same effect on the Democrats that the Democratic vote in that State in 1890 had on the Republicans. The Democrats of the United States have determined to elect a majority of the members of the next House. They have not been rain-bow-chasing with the hope of securing any votes from either Maine or Vermont, and are not to be panic-stricken by any so-called Republican gains in Republican strong-holds."

The Democratic campaign text book is ready for delivery, and it is a "hammer," as might have been expected from the fact of Representative Bynum, of Indiana, having been its chief editor and compiler. The book is not for general distribution, but is intended to furnish ready information on campaign issues to speakers, editors, and political writers.

It is supplied by the Congressional Campaign Committee.

Secretary Carlisle is daily proving that he is the right man in the right place. Here is the opinion of a New York tariff lawyer whose personal interests are being made to suffer by the Secretary's acts: "The prompt and liberal interpretation Secretary Carlisle is placing on the disputed features of the new tariff is causing grief among New York lawyers. You cannot appreciate the importance of Secretary Carlisle's action unless you are aware of the almost endless litigation caused by the interpretation of the McKinley tariff by Republican Treasury officials. I don't know whether Mr. Carlisle was aware of this, but judging from the promptness with which he has decided how certain provisions of the new law shall be construed by the customs officers, I should suspect that he was. As a matter of fact, he is saving the government thousands of dollars, even if he is knocking the lawyers out of business. And he is doing that with such easy freedom that about the only thing he has left them to fight over is the question whether goods imported between the 1st and 28th days of August shall be rated under the old or the new law, the first being the date stated in the bill for the new law to take effect and the last being the day upon which it actually become a law. The Secretary has ruled so decisively and quickly on the leading features that the courts will have practically nothing to do under the present law."

From a business point of view the calamity wait, which the Republican campaign managers have adopted as a party trademark, is indefensible and much to be regretted, as it will unquestionably have the effect of retarding the growth of the business revival now beginning to be felt throughout the country; but from a partisan political point of view, it is a mighty good thing for the Democratic party, as it will convince the doubting voters that the men who are directing the Republican party prefer a continuance of the business stagnation, for which they are primarily responsible, to a revival of business which would be properly credited to the Democratic party, and will therefore be worth thousands of votes to the Democratic party from those who are too patriotic to support a party that is willing to talk down the business of the country for the purpose of trying to get the votes of thoughtless or ignorant people. A party that has no better argument to offer to get votes than the business misfortunes of the people, for which its own legislation is responsible, will never be returned to power in this country, unless the people have much less sense than they are credited with having.

While thinking about what a good tobacco market Greenville is, don't overlook the fact that you can also get just as much here for cotton as elsewhere. Greenville merchants want it.

Greenville is full of new goods now and our merchants are ready to supply all your needs. The REFLECTOR columns point out the best places to trade, and show which of the merchants want your patronage bad enough to ask for it.

Hon. R. B. Glenn will speak in Greenville on Thursday of next week, 27th. There are some people who haven't stopped laughing yet over the speech Bob Glenn made here two years ago. He will give you a side shaker again this time. Everybody come to hear him.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Ora Whichard and Mr. A. Forbes Kennedy, at the home of Mrs. V. H. Whichard this evening. The ceremony will be performed at 9 o'clock by Rev. G. F. Emith. The REFLECTOR takes occasion to express its best wishes in advance.

Senator Thomas J. Jarvis spoke to a large crowd here yesterday. He was in his best vein and delivered one of those excellent speeches, full of information and convincing argument. The people heard him gladly and profitably. The REFLECTOR going to press yesterday afternoon is unable to give a synopsis here.

Another thousand extra copies of to-day's REFLECTOR for the benefit of the tobacco and mercantile trade of Greenville. Reader, this is the town for you to buy and sell at. There is ample money here to pay the highest prices for all you have to sell, and when you talk about the place to buy cheap goods Greenville is strictly in it.

Ponder this Please.

One of the easiest ways to make people go abroad to trade is to neglect advertising at home. Merchants who don't believe that advertising pays, should be the last to complain if the people attracted by liberal advertisements of merchants in other cities go abroad to do their trading. As a general thing most of the people who send abroad for goods do so because of the bargains offered in the city papers or because they see things advertised that they, the local merchants, do not keep. If the local merchants would make a business of thoroughly advertising the goods they handle and their prices, much of this trade would be kept at home. The merchant who keeps them informed that he keeps what they want and that he will sell it at reasonable prices has no cause to complain of his customer's sending to the cities for their goods.—Durham Sun

Big Game.

Mr. J. H. Mills, of Chieced township, told us Thursday that he and his brother, Mr. Calvin Mills, recently killed another bear over in the edge of Beaufort county. It weighed 200 pounds. They are champion bear hunters. Mr. J. C. Dixon, of the same township, told us that he and a party killed a 3 snag buck a few days before.

An Opportunity.

The REFLECTOR knows a man in this county who wants the quality of his land for raising tobacco thoroughly, tested, and for that purpose will furnish a skilled tobacco grower a house to live in and as many acres of good land as he will cultivate in tobacco free for one year. The land is less than half a mile from a depot. This is a good opportunity for the right man, and the address can be had by application to us.

He Was Answered.

After the convention last Thursday a Democrat was walking along when a Populist stepped up and this conversation followed:

Pop—Well, you got out a ticket, did you?"

Dem—Yes, and a good one, too."

Pop—"Now what are you going to do with it?"

Dem—"We are going to get it in."

And about this time the Pop discovered that he had business in another direction.

Superior Court.

The September term of Pitt Superior Court opened yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Judge Jesse F. Graves presiding. His charge to the grand jury was very brief, but of sufficient length to point out their duty fully and clearly. Mr. E. A. Moyer, Clerk of the Court, is sick and his son, Mr. E. A. Moyer, Jr., is acting as Clerk. The juries for this week are as follows:

Grand Jury—W. G. Mizelle, foreman, J. L. B. Fleming, Cornelius Barnhill, G. T. Allen, E. A. Johnson, R. C. Tripp, John Branch, John Jones, Luke Homby, H. B. Robinson, O. W. Harrington, D. C. Barrow, W. E. Carroll, D. H. Williamson, J. M. C. Nelson, J. H. Barrett, J. C. Taylor, Joshua Nobles, Officer of the jury, W. B. Albritton.

Petit Jury—R. A. Tyson, W. H. Harrington, Abram Baker, J. D. Jones, B. M. Whitehurst, W. J. Turnage, W. F. Keel, H. C. Braxton, J. R. Barnhill, James Turnage, G. W. Wilson, J. W. Cox, Joseph Vandiford, A. T. Whitfield, J. W. Martin.

AYDEN, N. C., Sept. 15th 1894.

The Sunday School Convention was held at this place on the time stated for the purpose of reorganizing the primary Sunday Schools in Contentnea township, in order to make a systematic statement of the work in the coming County Sunday School Convention. As our previous meeting was almost a failure, so we ask for a small space in your paper, to notify all workers in their schools to attend the next meeting to be held at Carolina Christian College, Ayden, on Saturday before fifth Sunday in September at 2:30 o'clock P. M. Hoping to have a full attendance. P. S. SWAIN, President.

ROBT. WORTHINGTON, Secretary.

The Pops were right when they denounced the demonization of silver in 1873. And yet the Pops are fusing with the Republicans who did the wicked things they denounce. Honest men can not follow such inconsistent men.—Raleigh News & Observer.

the country, and has effected cures where all other remedies, with the attention of the most experienced physicians, have long standing and the high reputation
which it has obtained is owing entirely to its own efficacy, as but little effort has ever been made to bring it before the public. One bottle of this Ointment will be sent to any address on receipt of One Dollar. All Cash Orders promptly at-

TOBACCO DEPARTMENT.
Conducted by O. L. JOYNER, Proprietor Eastern Tobacco Warehouse

LOCAL NOTES AND TOBACCO JOTTINGS

Mr. C. W. Hickey, of Danyell,
Va., spent a portion of last week
on our market.

More damaged tobacco was sold last week than in all the year before.

Reports from nearly all the markets show a decline in prices principally on account of the damp weather and the damaged
condition of the tobacco.

That Greenville is the all around best tobacco market in the eastern part of the State the farmers who last week tried Wilson and Rocky Mount will attest.
We have heard numbers of them say that they never expected to haul tobacco that far from a good home market again.

Mr. P. H. Gorman has recently had some valuable improvements added to his leaf factory here.
The ground floor he has had prepared and a double floor laid all over which almost makes the house air tight. One room has been cut off in the lower floor and steaming apparatus placed in it for re-drying tobacco. Mr. Gorman is now prepared to re-handle tobacco on short time and his factory is one of the largest and most convenient in the State.

Mr. Thos. Blount, of Washington, Beaufort Co., had shipped to the Eastern Warehouse last week
two crates of tobacco. We opened the tobacco and had it put on the floor and it was adjudged by nearly all the buyers to be very good, oily and soft textured tobacco but the curing was exceedingly bad. Judging from the tobacco anyone who is a judge of wood would say that it grew on good tobacco land but the humbug that did the curing and grading showed the work of an inexperienced hand. This is Mr. Blount's first year in the cultivation of tobacco and it is a sad fact that he was so unfortunate
as to get a man who knows virtually nothing about the management of a tobacco crop and as Mr.
Blount of course knew nothing about tobacco was forced to act
upon the judgment of the colored man whose ignorance of what he pretended to know has certainly cost Mr. Blount a nice little sum.

Just at this particular time
there is very much complaint
among the farmers from all over the country on account of the low prices of tobacco. Nearly every year in fact everyone since we have been in the tobacco business at just about this time there comes a warm, damp spell of weather which causes tobacco to get very high in order and run
red. A great many times if the tobacco is not given the very closest attention it becomes damaged and of course sells at low prices. This is the cause of the past low prices and farmers may rest assured that if they cannot keep it from damaging at home
when they rush it on the market buyers cannot handle it to their advantage.

GREENVILLE TOBACCO MARKET

BY O. L. JOYNER.

For the past week the offerings
have consisted principally of last cure and primings. Nearly all the primings and much of the stalk tobacco was damaged and hence it has been a bad week on the warehouseman. Good sound tobacco, when not touched with damage of any kind, never sells as well when it is offered on a floor where there is much rotten tobacco. It is to be hoped the bulk of unsound tobacco has been disposed of and prices will soon regain their former high figures.

Greenville Booming as a Tobacco Market.

Mr. L. A. Davis who has been pending a week with relatives
in Greenville, returned yesterday.
He reports lively times at Greenville, three warehouses for the sale of leaf tobacco and two or three thousand dollars worth being sold every day. Mr. Davis says the farmers have gone quite largely into the raising of tobacco, and moreover that one lot which arrived last week was from South Carolina.—Newbern Journal.

PHYSIOGNOMY.
Something About Noses, Eyes, Ears,
Chins, Mouths, Etc.

The snub nose is peculiar to Russians, Esquimaux, Tartars
and Africans.

A mouth exactly twice as broad
as the eye shows dullness of apprehension.

Warts on the chin or neck indicate industrious, active, sanguine persons.

Any marked peculiarity of countenance indicates some peculiarity of mind.

A projecting nose and mouth
show self-confidence, independence and rashness.

Thick, heavy, regularly arched eye brows always indicate sound judgment.

The best noses always show
convexity between the nose and the forehead.

Noses which wrinkle easily are rarely found in men of good natural disposition.

Very small, thin ears are usually associated with great delicacy and refinement.

High cheek bones always indicate great force of character in some direction.

Fullness of the temples is supposed to show powers of mathematical calculation.

First impressions in the study of countenances, are always the most reliable.

The Roman nose shows the greater character; the Greek nose the greater taste.

Half shut eyes show great natural shrewdness, together with a lack of sincerity.

The man whose temples are full in the lower part is apt to be a great lover of eating.

A long, thick chin is commonly found only in persons of low mental organization.

A small mouth, with nose and nostril also small, shows indecision and cowardice.

A round, bullet head shows obstinacy, often combined with many petty meannesses.

Individuality is indicated by a prominence of the forehead just above the eyebrows.

A head flat on top indicates lack of reverence and deficiency of moral qualities.

Slow moving eyes are always found in the heads of persons of prudence and ability.

Small black eyes, under strong eyebrows, always indicate cunning and penetration.

An irregular, knotty forehead
is a sure sign of a bold, original and investigating mind.

A very short upper lip indicates liveliness of disposition, though not always kindness.

Why Butler Wants Fusion.

Marion Butler wants to go to the United States Senate. He has set his heart upon that position. He wants the place and wants it bad. It is his study by day and his dream by night.
Foolish ideas have crept into his head. Visions of splendor float before his eyes. Ambition, the sin by which the angels and our first parents fell, possess his soul.
So it can be set down absolutely
as a fact that the key to the Populist movement in this State is Butler's ambition to go to the Senate. Eliminate that and the concern would collapse. Now, what are the conditions that Butler has to deal with? His arm is not long enough to reach the coveted prize. His party polled only about 40,000 votes in this State in 1892. What is to be done? Why fusion with the Republicans is his idea. He has been figuring to the effect that the combined vote of the Populists and Republicans is greater than that of the Democrats. Yes that is the way it was two years ago, but will it be so this year?
Butler thinks it will. Let it be understood once for all that North Carolina cannot be used for Butler's very ignoble purpose. Our people have too much State pride, too much self respect and common sense to open the door to the evil that dragged down a neighboring State a few years ago.—Webster's Weekly.

To the above we add a paragraph from the reply of Mr. J. D.
McCall to a Tennessee populist
drummer:

"I want to inform my Tennessee neighbor that, by the grace of God, no Ben Tillman or Waite shall ever disgrace the gubernartial chair of North Carolina.
North Carolina is Democratic from the mountains to the seashore, from Cherokee to Currituck,
and she will walk off with a bigger majority in 1894 than she did in 1892, although the Populists combine with the world, the flesh and the devil to defeat us. Our Democracy is founded upon the eternal principles of right, and the very gates of hell shall not prevail against us."

Record of Her Children's Ages.

There are many ways of keeping run of things. The ancient Peruvians used a braid made of a number of cords to count the passing years. Quite as original as that and tully as handy is a Dexter woman's family record.

At the last election a question
came up, whether one of her sons had attained his majority. The father didn't know how old anybody was, and the investigators called on the mother. She had a large brood, and it was no wonder, as she could not write, she was puzzled to keep track of them
all. The officers made known their errand, and the woman, going to the cupboard, took therefrom a lot of bottles containing varying quantities of peas. These she placed in order from the one containing one pea to those that had lots of peas in them. Then she picked out one bottle as that of the boy whose age was wanted, turned out the peas, and told the officials to count for themselves.
She said she had a bottle for every birthday she put in a pea
to keep the reckoning.—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

Some business men are actually so stupid or so prejudiced that they will not advertise in a paper
which a competitor of theirs advertises in. This is all the more reason why they should advertise in such paper. If your business rival didn't do anything to attract customers to his establishment
then you would be on an equal footing with him and could perhaps better afford not to advertise. But you must be fully as alert and pushing, or more so, if you would not let him get ahead of you. And the advertising columns of the newspaper can be of great benefit to you no matter who avails themselves of the same medium.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure Deafness,
and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result,
and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars
for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
