THE REFLECTOR
Greenville, N. C.

D. J. WEICHAARD, Editor and Proprietor

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1894

Entered at the postoffice at Greenville, N. C., as second-class matter.

The Scotland Neck Democrat has entered upon its eleventh volume. The Democrat is one of our clearest, brightest and best exchanges.

We are indebted to Rev. J. R. Hicks, of St. Louis, editor of Word and Works, for a copy of his Almanac for 1895. It gives the best and most accurate weather forecasts of any publication in existence.

Notice has been given that application will be made to the next Legislature to amend the charter of the town of Greenville. Several other towns are on the catalogue to be given a similar dose. This will be one of the evils resulting from a fusion Legislature.

Tobacco shipments from Greenville have grown so large that agent Moore tells us his present warehouse does not afford sufficient room for handling it in connection with the other immense quantities of freight. He is trying to get the railroad company to build another warehouse to be used for tobacco delivery. The increased average and growing tobacco business makes this additional ware-room a necessity and we hope it will be built at once.

An unofficial list of the members elect to the 54th Congress has been compiled by the Clerk of the House. The list is corrected up to December 5th, and gives the Republicans 244 members, the Democrats 104, and the Populists 6. In the present Congress there are 219 Democrats, 123 Republicans and 12 Populists. It will be seen that North Carolina furnishes half of the Populists in the next Congress, and they have only half as many in the next Congress as in this. It seems they were defeated as well as the Democrats.

The members of Congress from the North do not seem to favor Secretary Carlisle's financial plan. They say it expands the currency. Southern members generally favor it and their reason for liking it is that it does in some degree increase the volume of money. Thus it ever is what we want the North opposes; what they want is not acceptable to us. We need not expect any financial legislation from the present session of Congress. Mr. Woodard says the repeal of the ten per cent. tax on banks will not pass either. We don't look for much favorable legislation from the incoming Congress, so the people had about as well make up their minds not to fret but to do the best they can under existing circumstances. The interests of the United States are so varied that there always will be more or less friction in legislation.

Ex-Congressman Ewart, and a member of the House in the present Legislature, does not hesitate to express himself upon any public question. He has been interviewed both by the News & Observer and the Charlotte Observer during the present week. Some things he says we presume are not relished much by some of the leaders. For instance, that Mr. Butler by no means has been promised the long term in the Senate. He also says there will be a spirited contest over both the long and short term. That the national Republicans favor the election of two Republicans from North Carolina. That this is not impossible. He declares himself a candidate for one of the places. He expresses the opinion that the present Legislature will be conservative and then mentions a few things likely to be done which will be radical changes in existing affairs. These interviews are interesting in their suggestion at the present time.

The Mt Airy Granite quarry split off a slice of stone, in a perfectly straight line, 210 feet long, 10 feet wide, and 2 feet 8 inches thick, containing about 5,000 cubic feet, about 466 tons, making 23 car loads of 20 tons each. This is the largest stone ever quarried in the world. Beat North Carolina if you can.

The President after an extended conference with Secretary Carlisle and Internal Revenue Commissioner Miller, issued an order putting store-keepers, gangers, and clerks in offices of collectors of internal revenue in the classified civil-service. This increases the list of persons who are thus protected by the civil service by about 2,000.

J. C. L. Harris in a letter to the Washington Post outlines the most important measures that the next Legislature will act upon. He gives the following as the probable legislation: Change of county government, new election law, doing way with challenging on day of election, using one ticket, polls to keep open as long as there is anybody to vote, only poll holders to be appointed who can read and write, by charters to be amended, no appropriation to the university, no appropriation for the State Guard, a new oyster law, and an amended school law. Now the question is, can Mr. Harris control the incoming legislation and have such bills passed as he desires. We will see in the near future. He says that we will have fusion again in 1896 and that it will be much stronger than it was at the last election. This remains to be seen too, and we are not much inclined to the belief that Mr. Harris has prophetic powers.

The mandamus proceedings against the State canvassing Board in the case of C. M. Bernard against John E. Woodard came up before Judge Bynum in Raleigh on last Friday. The case was ably argued by Judge Whitaker for Mr. Bernard and Col. Hinsdale for Mr. Seawell, his election depending upon the result of these proceedings, and by F. S. Spruill and C. B. Aycock for Mr. Woodard. Judge Bynum dissolved the injunction stating that the case was in the wrong court, and that he had no authority to compel the Board to examine as to fraud in the returns. This decision enables the State Board of Canvassers to complete their work and adjourn. Notice of appeal was given by the contestants.

The outlook points to another bond issue. Saturday's papers reported the gold reserve had again gone below the limit, with still further drafts likely to be made at once upon it. The bond issuing has become more frequent than the people admire, and Congress should hurry the enactment of some financial measure that will bring about desired relief.

On the motion in the Senate to take up the free-sugar bill, Senators Hinton and Jarvis were among those recorded in the affirmative; or, in other words, they wanted the Senate to go ahead in the effort to make the sweet article even cheaper to the people.

Senators Daniel and Ransom did not vote and no explanation of their pairs were made.

The Henderson Gold Leaf is thirteen years old. Thad Manning gets up a paper of which his town ought to be very proud. It is a credit to the profession.

DIFFICULTY AT KINSTON. Tuesday a big racket was made in Mr. Leslie Dawson's store. Mr. N. J. Rouse, a leading attorney of Kinston, was cut and badly bruised by the Dawson brothers. He was cut on his legs in two places and his face and arm were badly bruised. His injuries are painful but not dangerous. It seems from the best than we can learn, that Mess. N. J. Rouse and W. D. Pollock have obtained judgment against Mr. Leslie Dawson for a northern creditor. The case that was being tried before Clerk Bright was of supplemental proceedings, investigating the ownership of property. Miss Sudie Dawson, daughter of Mr. Levi Dawson, was a witness in the case, and at her request (feeling a delicacy about going to the court house) her evidence was taken in Mr. Leslie Dawson's store. Mr. Levi Dawson and his sons were excluded from the court while her evidence was taken. After she had given in her evidence and signed the report of it she went out to where her father and brothers were. In a very short time Mr. Levi Dawson came in and went towards Mr. Rouse, cursing him and saying he (Mr. Rouse) had insulted his daughter. Mess. A. J. Loflin and D. E. Perry, who were attorneys for the Dawsons, told Mr. Dawson that it was a mistake, that the examination had been conducted as courteously as could be, but this failed to quiet matters. The Dawson brothers attacked Mr. Rouse with knives and pistols, but the pistol failed to fire. At the hearing before Mayor Hill, as examination was waived by the Dawson's, no testimony was taken, but Mr. Levi Dawson made a statement to the effect that his daughter had told him when she came out from the examination that Mr. Rouse had insulted her and she could not protect herself, and that he told her he would protect her, and then followed the difficulty. He said he and Mr. Rouse struck at each other about the same time. Mr. Rouse was not able to attend the hearing, so he could make no statement.—Kinston Free Press.

Out in Oregon there is a Mr. Tongue who desires to go to the United States Senate. We thought the last session developed the fact that there was too much of this thing there now.

MOORE-STOKES.—We are happy to inform those of our friends who have heretofore so ardently desired the annexation of Canada to the U. S. that their hopes have at least been, to ascertain extent, realized, though it is improbable that the diplomatic officers of the two great English speaking nations of the world have yet become aware of such an event.
The fact of it is, that Mr. Canada Moore and Miss Eula Stokes were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the house of Squire L. B. Mewborn, on Sunday, Squire Mewborn officiating. It is impossible, yet, to tell what Secretary Gresham will think of Squire Mewborn's acts when he hears of this marriage; but it is to be hoped that no trouble will arise out of the affair, and that the nations of the new world will ever remain at peace with each other.

MR. B. C. PEARCE returned home Monday morning

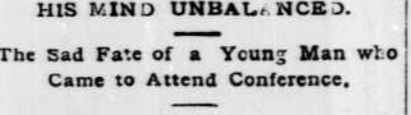

Mr. Cornelius Kinsaul is able to be out from his sickness. Miss Havens Cherry has gone to Baltimore to spend awhile. Miss Bettie Moore, of Elm City, is visiting Mr. G. W. Williams. Mrs. Ricks has moved into Mr. Sutton's house, recently vacated by Mr. Burch. Miss Annie Lawrence, who has recently had a long spell of fever has recovered. Rev. M. T. Moye, of Wilson, has been spending some days with Superior Court Clerk E. A. Moye. Cards are out announcing the engagement of Miss Sarah L. Cohen to Mr. G. L. Heilbrun, all of Tarboro. Our Gussie. Mr. Z. N. Leggett, of Trenton, S. C., came in on the southbound train to spend a while with his brother Mr. W. W. Leggett. Rev. G. A. Oglesby missed the train at Rocky Mount, Saturday, and could not get here to fill his appointments in the Methodist church Sunday. Mr. Abe Clark, of Granville county, is here making arrangements for moving his family down at an early day. He will engage in the tobacco culture. Mrs. H. L. Founell and children, of Wilmington, and Miss Mittie Beaman, of Clinton, who have been visiting Mrs. F. G. James, left for their homes this morning. Rev. R. W. Hines had large congregations to hear him at the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning and night, and preach two good sermons. He left Monday morning for Parneto. Mr. Otten E. Warren left Monday morning for Raleigh to take a two weeks course in horticulture. With this course and the thorough knowledge he has obtained under his excellent father, will make him one of the best nursery men in the State. Jim and Joe will miss the Judge. Not many more days left in the old year. The streets present a busy scene every day now. FOR SALE--Fine horse and buggy, apply to Rev. G. F. Smith. The crowing of roosters at all hours of the night announces the near approach of Christmas. Deputy Sheriff H. T. King says his unlucky number of prisoners in jail, 13, still remains unchanged. Hen fruit becomes a luxury when Christmas draws near--in other words the holidays puts up the price of eggs. Nearly every evening after supper parties of merry young people visit the stores to look at the holiday goods. Messrs. Sheppard and Highsmith are now prepared to put up electric bells and magneto or bell telephones for those wishing them. The next best thing to being a pretty girl and having delightful serenades is to live next door to one and get the benefit of the music anyway. Many a woman will put a number five foot in a number four shoe, and decorate the other end of her anatomy with a hat as big as a cart wheel. There are eighteen hotels and boarding houses in Greenville, not including restaurants. This looks like people ought to be well supplied with something to eat. The jury in the case of J. F. Whichard against the railroad, the one that occupied the court a week, gave the plaintiff a verdict for $230. The amount sued for was $900. Mr. G. W. Mixon, of Washington, has rented from Mr. C. T. Munford, the vacant reflector building opposite REFLECTOR office and will conduct his candy factory there. We wish him success. Mr. R. Lang is showing some more handsome portraits received for customers whose purchases amount to $10. The one of Night Policeman J. L. Daniel, taken when he was a young man, is just splendid. The editor is whole footed for Christmas. On Saturday his aunt, Mrs. W. B. Whichard, sent over a fine fat turkey to make a companion dish for Christmas dinner to the ham she recently sent. Our thanks are bigger than type can express. Officers of the Guards. At the meeting of Pitt county Rifles, Friday afternoon, the following officers were elected: Captain--J. T. Smith. 1st Lieutenant--B. F. Sugg. 2nd Lieutenant--J. E. Cory. Treasurer--B. F. Sugg. Secretary--H. C. Hooker. Died. Mr. E. A. Bland, of Grifton was here Thursday and told us that Mrs. Mary Quinerly, widow of the late ex Sheriff W. A. Quinerly, died Wednesday night. She had a yellow chill on Monday. Mrs. Quinerly made a great many friends in Greenville during the years she lived here, and they learn with regret of her death. Horse Killed. A man was riding a poor horse Tuesday evening, and when near Humber's machine shops the animal stumbled and fell, breaking its right fore leg near the shoulder. A crowd gathered around and Chief of Police James was requested to shoot the animal and put it out of its misery. A man ought to be punished for using a poor horse as that was.

HUNG HIMSELF.

MR. JACKOWSKY COMMITTS SUICIDE. His Wife Finds Him Hanging to the Door Knob. (Special to Reflector.) WASHINGTON, N. C., Dec 13--Mr. L. E. Jackowsky, the tailor, committed suicide here this morning by hanging himself to the door knob. His wife found him in a dying condition and immediately summoned a physician, but too late. He died a few minutes past 8 o'clock. Mr. Jackowsky formerly lived in Greenville and moved here from your town. Mr. Jackowsky took a piece of braid used for binding coats, tied it to the door knob, looped it around his neck and fell backward with his hands behind him, strangling himself to death. The piece of braid reached about a foot from the knob to his neck. Jackowsky had been crazed for several days from hard drinking. He was buried this morning in Oakdale cemetery. MR. SHORT'S FUNERAL. Immense Throng Follows his Remains to Their Last Resting Place. (Special to Reflector.) WASHINGTON, N. C., Dec 12--One of the largest funeral processions ever witnessed in Washington was that of Mr. E. Murray Short, yesterday afternoon. The funeral exercises were conducted at the Presbyterian church, of which he was a consistent member, by Rev. Dr. C. M. Paine. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity by sorrowing relatives and friends. The floral tributes were many and of remarkable beauty and appropriateness. Mr. Short's oldest daughter, Miss Addie Lee Short, who was attending school at Raleigh, reached home on a special train about one o'clock, accompanied by Prof. James Dinwiddie, President of Peace Institute. HIS MIND UNBALANCED. The Sad Fate of a Young Man who Came to Attend Conference. The Durham Sun of the 12th inst., contained the following sad intelligence: The Stewart Hotel has a very unpleasant guest, in fact, so much so, that he has to be guarded all the time to keep him from doing himself or others harm. His name is James Barnhill, a young man about twenty-six or twenty eight years of age, who came here last Friday, to attend the Conference, from Bethel, N. C. After his arrival he went immediately to the Stewart Hotel and registered, and has since then become insane. His people were notified but as yet no word has been received from them. It is indeed a pathetic sight to see a young, intelligent, well-educated man in his condition--away from home and friends, and more especially is it so in this case when one has become acquainted with his life's history, and the causes which led to his insanity. He was a poor boy and had an old mother and sister who looked to him for their support. He worked hard and educated himself, but studied so hard at school and since, that his mind has become impaired. His mother and sister are still dependent upon him for their living. Unless the authorities hear from his people by tomorrow morning he will be taken to his home, in Pitt county, and turned over to the sheriff. Officer G. W. Crabtree, of Durham, arrived Saturday with Mr. J. L. Barnhill and placed him in charge of Sheriff King. This is one of the most pitiful cases we ever saw and every heart goes out in sympathy for the unfortunate young man. We hope admission into the State Hospital can be secured at once for him and that his mind can be early restored. The season of holiday trading and purchase has already begun. Many of the stores have their stocks displayed and shrewd buyers are making their purchases now. Isn't this a good time to give the REFLECTOR your advertising?

The Judgement on Hood's Pronounced by Squire Fogg. The following testimonial comes from T. M. Fogg, Esq., who is well-known throughout Kentucky as court justice and justice of the peace for Bath county. His words should invoke the confidence of all who read his letter: "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'I will say for Hood's Sarsaparilla I believe it to be the best medicine in the world. In the winter of '92 I had a bad case of the grip which left my system in very bad shape. I tried everything I could find and got no relief. In the fall of the same year I bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first dose I took Made a Decided Change for the better. When I began taking the first bottle my weight was 127 pounds, the lightest since manhood. By the time the second bottle had been used my weight was 143 pounds. I owe all this to Hood's Sarsaparilla and I gladly recommend it to all sufferers.'" T. M. Fogg, Justice of the Peace, Sharpshurg, Kentucky. Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

Too Bad! Too Bad! When the train came in Monday morning it struck us that something looked very much out of fix, and calling jolly Engineer Smith in tears and clever Capt. Hawks all down in the mouth we stepped up to the latter to inquire if anybody was dead or if he had been paying some election bets.

In place of the former hand-second class coach was one not near so good, while for the second class coach was substituted a very old combination car. As it now is the mail and express car is the best looking part of the train. That's too bad! We hope the company will put the nice cars back at once.
