

H. C. HOOKER

BIZ OR BUST!

Am I going to be lost in the shuffle or soaked in the soup? Not if I know it; I am here to compete with all comers, stock against stock and dollar against dollar. I am after the

Shining Shekels

and I expect to get 'em by giving value for them. I don't want 'em on any other terms. Come and see me and you'll find me

Death on the Dicker.

I take no man's dust on the trade track. I won't be bluffed out of the business game. I now have ready a fine stock of Fall and Winter Goods and they are all marked at a low price. Come and size them up and you'll see I'm

Fixed to Stay in the Game

No fakements or she-nigan with me. A fair deal to all is my motto.

TO THE TOBACCO GROWERS OF EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA.—We beg to announce that within a few days we will begin the making of Tobacco Flues at the Eastern Warehouse, where we will keep on hand a full supply at all times, which we will sell as reasonably as first class work can be sold for. Hoping for a full share of your patronage, we are yours respectfully,
O. L. JOYNER,
OSCAR HOOKER.

Narrow Escape.
Mr. W. E. Belcher went out in the country on horse back Friday night. While riding along the road the horse started and falling over on him. Fortunately he escaped with no injury except being considerably bruised.

List Your Purchases
Register of Deeds King says the merchants are coming forward very slow to list their purchases, only a few of them having so far complied with the law. This should have been attended to by the 10th of the month. He asks us to request them not to delay longer. A hint to the wise should be sufficient.

Marriage Licenses.
Last week Register of Deeds King issued licenses to six couples, four white and two colored. The whites are Henry James and Anna Worsley, Joe J. Harris and Sadie Little, W. J. Moore and Lucy C. Brown, McD Horton and Lillie Askew. The colored are Elias Washington and Ellen Blount, Joseph Gray and Ellen Cooper.

Job on Somebody.
Last week Deputy Sheriff H. T. King with Mr. S. I. Dudley as a special deputy went to Raleigh to take three prisoners to the penitentiary. The News and Observer printed it that the Sheriff of Pitt was there with four prisoners for the pen. Now the question arises, which one of the deputies passed off as the sheriff and which one made the fourth prisoner?

Pitt Takes the Lead.
Mr. W. J. Jackson, of this county, has received a check for $100 as a premium for selling the best 200 pounds of tobacco raised last year from Royster's Orinoco guano. Mr. Jackson sold 229 pounds at the Eastern Warehouse for $218.54. Pitt county has won this premium for three years. Mr. Jackson also had some fine tobacco on exhibition at the last State fair and won three premiums on it.

Robbery.
Friday night some one entered the store of J. R. Cory by breaking open the rear door and stole a lot of goods. Mr. Cory tells us the thief got three pair of pants, a pair of shoes, some shirts and underwear, two pocket knives, and what small change was left in the money drawer, the goods and money amounting to about $15. Other goods were left scattered over the show cases, the thief seeming to want only men's wearing apparel and money.

Difficult Operation.
Dr. Charles Laughinghouse assisted by Drs. O'Hagan, Bagwell and E. W. Brown, of Greenville, Hiett of Kinston, and J. Taylor of Washington, on Wednesday removed a large tumor from the stomach of Mrs. Thomas Tyson, who was brought here to the Quinn House to undergo the operation. The tumor weighed 45 1/2 pounds and contained 32 1/2 pints of fluid. She died that evening about 8 o'clock. Mrs. Tyson would not consent to an operation sooner and neglected it too long for her life to be saved.

Help the Local Editor.

Local editors are blamed for a great many things that can't help, such as giving notices in mentioning visitors, giving news about some folks and leaving others, and so on. He prints all such items that he can find. Some people inform him of such things and others do not. An editor should not be expected to know the names and residences of all arrivals, and it is frequently the case that he is unable to ascertain them. If you will make it a point to tell us these things we will gladly mention them.

These Bonds.
The Board of County Commissioners rejected the bonds of W. H. Harrington and J. A. Thigpen. They both gave notice of appeal. The bond of R. W. King, who was elected by the Board in December, was tendered and accepted, and the oath of office administered. King's bond was perhaps the best ever given by an officer in Pitt county, his sureties being worth between $300,000 and $400,000. John Fianagan, who was elected Treasurer by the Board in December, having declined to qualify his successor will be elected at their next meeting. The REFLECTOR will give some figures in a later issue that will show why the Commissioners rejected the bonds of Harrington and Thigpen.

Married.
Mr. Mc. G. Horton and Miss Lillie Askew, of Farmville, were married last Wednesday.
Mr. Joseph Parrish, of Newbern, and Miss Hattie Bynum, of Wilson county, were married on Wednesday. The bride has a number of friends here.
Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage in Greenville, Mr. W. J. Moore and Mrs. Lucy Brown, from near Aydes, were married by Rev. G. F. Smith.
Mr. J. B. Gladstone and Miss Emma Hardy were married at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Mr. James Hardy, near Greenville. Rev. J. S. Corbett officiating. A very pleasant reception will be held at the residence of Mr. R. T. Wilson to-night.
At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, in Carolina township at the home of Mr. J. R. Congleton, chairman of the County Board of Education, his daughter, Miss Mamie Congleton and Mr. S. M. Bailey were married by Eld John Rogers. The attendants were Mr. Robert Bailey and Miss Lizzie Congleton, Mr. J. H. Keel and Miss Mary E. Bailey, Mr. John Everett and Miss Barnhill, Mr. H. A. Gray and Miss Susie Keel.

ALMOST WRECKED.
The A. T. Co's Large Priscy Liable to Collapse at Any Time.

The hard winds of last Friday night and Saturday nearly wrecked the large five-story prize house of Hooker & Bernard occupied by the American Tobacco Company. The South end of the first story is bulged and careened until it is about three feet out of position, and the windows are shattered. The west side is sunk in and warped out of shape and the entire ground floor is badly strained. From the second story up the building seems to be intact, but with the immense weight of the building and large stock of tobacco bearing on the displaced first story it is doubtful if the building can be saved. Its appearance became so dangerous Saturday that the hands deserted it, and the remainder of that day and Sunday the collapse of the building was looked for at any moment. It is standing yet, and efforts have been made to brace it so that hands can go in and remove the stock of tobacco. Hundreds of people have been out to look at it. This is the same building that blew down last July when raised to the fourth story and injured several workmen. The loss caused by its present condition will be heavy upon the owners, even if it can be saved short of a total loss. The American Tobacco Company have some tornado insurance on the stock of tobacco but not near enough to cover the large quantity stored in the building.

The disaster is indeed an unfortunate one, as besides the loss sustained to the building and stock a large number of hands will be temporarily thrown out of employment. We hope the building may be saved from falling and can be strengthened to make it substantial, but the outlook for it is bad.

Three Falkland Items.
Miss Becca Weathering is visiting Miss May Harris.
Mr. C. C. Vines is building a dwelling house.
Mr. John Moore has moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. W. T. Pierce.

Ayden Notes.
Mr. O. L. Joyner was in town Monday.
Mr. Frank Hart has moved into his new store and will be ready for the spring trade.
AYDEN, N. C., Jan 25.—A heavy rain storm visited this section last night. No damage reported.
A tri weekly mail route has been established between Ayden and Reddia to take effect March 4th.
Our town was full of drummers yesterday, among them being that clever fellow J. B. Bell, with Paul D. Howard, of Norfolk. He was jovial as ever.
Business here is dull, while in Greenville are busy handling tobacco, we are doing nothing. The advantage of having tobacco warehouses see.

Bethel Notes.
C. I. Harry Skinner and Deputy Sheriff H. T. King passed through here Sunday.
Mr. John Weisiger and wife, of Elizabeth City, are visiting relatives in town.
G. A. Hill's standard Theatre Company will exhibit here during the entire week.

At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Newsome Worsley, on Wednesday evening, January 23rd 1895, Mr. Henry James was married to Miss Anna Worsley, D. C. Moore Esq. officiating. There were ten couples in attendance. Immediately after the marriage the bridal party went to the house of the groom where an elegant supper awaited them. The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents.

Best in the World
The Judgement on Hood's Pronounced by Squire Fogg.

The following testimonial comes from T. M. Fogg, Esq., who is well-known throughout Kentucky as court justice and justice of the peace for both counties. His words should invoke the confidence of all who read his letter:
"C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"I will say for Hood's Sarsaparilla I believe it to be the best medicine in the world. In the winter of '92 I had a bad case of the grip which left my system in a very bad shape. I tried everything I could find and got no relief. In the fall of the same year I bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first dose took me for the better. When I began taking the first bottle my weight was 127 pounds, the lightest since manhood. By the time the second bottle had been used my weight was 150 pounds. I owe all this to Hood's Sarsaparilla and I gladly recommend it to all sufferers." T. M. FOGG, Justice of the Peace, Saffersburg, Kentucky.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, humors, sick headache, indigestion.
