

THE REFLECTOR

Greenville, N. C.

D. J. WHITCHARD, Editor and Proprietor

Entered at the postoffice at Greenville, N. C., as second-class mail matter.

WEDNESDAY MARCH 27th, 1895.

The monument at Bentonville "to the unknown dead" was unveiled on Wednesday. General Wade Hampton delivered the address. The unveiling was done by thirty young ladies dressed in military uniforms. The monument is said to be one of the prettiest in the South.

The Auditor refused to allow some of the charges of Phillips and Bryan who are on the Mrs. Arrington investigation. He gives as his reasons that they were unnecessary expenses. This is the second time it seems that Phillips didn't get what he applied for at the State Treasury.

Mr. Butler writes a letter for the Atlanta Constitution which is full of praise for the last Legislature. We suppose Mr. Butler thinks it the best Legislature the State ever had because they elected him Senator and then allowed him to control all legislation. We are sure of one thing and that is that North Carolina never has had any Legislature that would have disgraced the State by electing Butler Senator before this one.

Josiah Turner gets his claim allowed which he claims has been due him ever since the public printing was done by him. The Secretary of State and the Auditor were appointed to examine and see if the State owed him anything. They reported that he was entitled to $4,352. It came from the difference in measurement of the em and on quad.

This amount will come in well in the old age of this battle horse of Democracy and no one will be sorry to see him get it.

If the two members of the Arrington legislative investigating committee who have been on a protracted spree, one a Populist and the other a Republican, have any respect for themselves or one iota of pride left, they will sober up, reform and get to work. If they do not, we advise their friends to send after the remains.—Raleigh Progressive Farmer.

The men who compose the above committee are Campbell, of Cherokee, Bryan, of Chatham, and Rev. J. T. Phillips, of Pitt. When the Progressive Farmer writes this about its own members it is time for all people to be disgusted with such action. In fact it is a disgrace to North Carolina. As for that, about all the Legislature did was along the same line.

Some days ago a committee from the Massachusetts Legislature visited some of the Southern States. Among other places they stopped over at Richmond and was received at the Executive Mansion. There was a negro with the party and when the party lunched with Governor O'Ferrall it turned out that he was also present. There have been several interviews published in which Governor O'Ferrall says he did not know there was a negro with the party and that this accounts for the seeming social equality in the affair.

Gov. O'Ferrall received a letter from Senator Darling in reference to the negro episode stating that he was certain that the interviews purporting to have been had with him in reference to the negro who was with his committee was not true. The Governor replied that he was disgusted with the whole affair and that the interviews were all true. Besides he desired to inform him that had he known a negro was with the committee, he would never have been received at the Executive Mansion. The Governor writes plainly and leaves no doubt as to where he stands upon the race question.

ADDRESS TO COTTON-GROWERS.
Necessity of Decreasing the Acreage Strongly Urged.

Athens, Ala., March 13.—Proctor D. Lane, president of the American Cotton-Growers' Protective Association, has issued the following address:

"To the Cotton Growers of the South: I wish to call the attention of the cotton-growers to the strategic movement being made by cotton manipulators to delude them into the suicidal act of planting again a large acreage in cotton. That unbusiness has been felt in Liverpool for some time in reference to a decreased acreage goes without saying, and had this menace not existed cotton values would have been lower than they have been, and now, as the end of the season is at hand and the staple is substantially out of the hands of the farmer, these gentle men who have represented the bare element for so many months while cotton was moving in large volumes now resort to this course of running values up simply as a device to induce the farmers to plant more cotton than possibly intended.

"I warn the farmers of the South that the price of the last few days is fictitious. It is the product of a conspiracy of men to systematically rob the producer of his legitimate gains. It is a delusion and a snare to catch the unsuspecting farmer, to inveigle him into the coils of another three-million surplus, so that they can bear down values lower than last season with an increased surplus on hand.

"Let the people beware, it is a bait to catch those who will bite. There can be no legitimate reasons shown for this resort to values. The production has exceeded the most sanguine expectations. Russia has placed a virtually prohibitive duty on American cotton, so we can no longer expect to sell her 500,000 bales.

"There can be no change made by next season in the financial laws of the nation. Therefore, where is the legitimate cause for this rise in cotton has been selling at the legitimate figures? It is simply the old spider-and-fly game, a recurrence of the farmer and the 'bucco-steerer,' and I am constrained to exclaim: 'How long, oh Lord, how long!' Is it to be ever thus that our people are to be waylaid and robbed of their meagre subsistence?

"I deny the proposition, and defy the man who made it, that any man can produce cotton legitimately for five cents with any reasonable profit, and I state advisedly and emphatically that the cotton grower—I mean literally a man who does the ground, the unfortunate who pulls the belt-cord over the mortgaged mule—is not realizing 12 cents a day for his labor the year round. What is to be the fate of this man if cotton goes down 1 or 2 cents this fall, which is not at all improbable when we recognize the conditions that confront us and take into consideration the fact that we had a most phenomenal season for picking our crop this last season, and its classification was higher than ever known, hardly any grading less than low middling.

"Still it averaged under 5 cents, and though we may make a smaller crop the ensuing season of 1895-96 if we have a rainy or unpropitious gathering season, cotton, in all probability, will grade lower, and may be we will have a recurrence of the season of 1881, when we had a superabundance of the poorer qualities. We could then expect the same relative difference in the grades, which must, of course, result in considerably reduced returns from the whole crop.

"I invoke the most earnest attention of cotton-growers to this nefarious scheme and address you this letter as a caveat, that you may not be deluded by this 'wolf in sheep's clothing,' or, in other words, this bear in bull clothing."

NEWS IN GENERAL.
Sioux City, Ia., had a $400,000 fire.

A terrific storm is raging along the Mediterranean coast.

Work has commenced on the public building at Newbern.

A farmer near Salisbury has a hen which has just laid two black eggs.

Five at New Orleans destroyed half a million dollars worth of cotton.

Davis & Zoellner, dry goods dealers of Wilmington, have assigned.

The burning of a furniture factory at Tucson, Ga., caused a loss of $40,000.

Mr. W. C. Thorne, Solicitor of Halifax county Inferior Court, died Saturday night.

Hardy T. Gregory, of North Carolina, has been appointed a post-office inspector.

A New York jewelry store was robbed of $6,000 worth of diamonds in broad daylight.

Six ladies of Alexandria, Va., cowhided a man named J. E. Weiss for slandering them.

An explosion occurred in a coal mine near Evanston, W. Va., and fifty-nine men were killed.

Fire in the St. James Hotel at Denver yesterday damaged the hotel to the amount of $50,000.

A Mr. Ruffin, living near Tarboro, had a difficulty yesterday with a negro. The negro struck him with a stick, killing him.

Mrs. Mary Whitman, of Chowan county, 87 years old, has just cut a tooth. Her eyesight is good and she can read without spectacles.

A negro woman of Greensboro went off from home leaving her two children in the house. Some old story; house destroyed and both children were burned to death.

Drought and locusts have caused a severe famine in the eastern portion of Africa, and many natives are selling themselves and their children into slavery to obtain food.

Dr. R. L. Payne, of Lexington, a son of the Dr. Payne who was recently murdered, lost two horses by drowning while trying to drive them across a swollen creek, and narrowly escaped losing his own life.

A marvelous find of gold is reported at the Ingram Mine, Stanley county. During the past few days numerous nuggets, the largest weighing two pounds, others smaller, have been dug out, and he supply seems still plentiful.

J. W. Haggerty, city treasurer of Manassas, Va., shot and killed himself yesterday. He was short $1,700 in his accounts.

Rev. Dr. William Brown Yonce, professor of ancient languages at Roanoke College, Va., dropped dead from apoplexy.

The Brooklyn trolley-cars have killed 104 men, women, and children since electricity was introduced as a motive power in the summer of 1892.

A druggist's clerk in Boston has succeeded in making a medicine which will deprive a cat of its voice without injuring it in the least. Seven large Tom cats were experimented upon last week. They sat on the peak of a roof and made frightful faces at each other for four hours without uttering a sound. The clerk ought to be aure of a princely fortune.

A bill to tax bachelors and establish an "old maids' home" when the tax fund shall have reached $50,000 was introduced in the Illinois House of Representatives by Representative Wallick. The bill defines bachelors as single men of 32 years or over who have never been married, and exempts men who have reached 65, or who can prove to a board of unmarried women over 60 years of age that they have proposed marriage at least three times to marriageable females and been refused each time.

SNOW REGISTERS WANTED.
Up in the cold north a weather observer wants to find a man who will invent an instrument to measure the depth of snow correctly. All sorts of mechanical devices have been devised to measure rain and fog and sunshine, but nothing smaller than a level ten-acre lot has been produced to show the correct depth of snow, and even that device, if it will happen to be out for a "time," is not much use for scientific purposes. If anyone has an idea for a machine of this kind he will receive the grateful thanks of the observer by communicating with him. He wants to issue a snoddrift bulletin that will average up the depth of snow in fence corners and open fields.

The Japs Are Fighters.
An English naval officer writing home says, alluding to the remarkable prowess shown by the Japanese in the capture of Port Arthur: "They would make very bad enemies. We could smash them at sea, probably, but we could do nothing against Japan on land. We can teach them nothing in military science. They are masters of modern scientific warfare. The capture of Port Arthur was a perfect revelation."

FOR OBVIOUS REASONS.
Clerk—How shall I mark these ladies shoes?
Dealer—Put the prices in plain figures and the sizes in cipher.—N. Y. World.

Stays Pliable.
The skin is the only part of the human body that is not hardened by age.

Reprehensible Extravagance.
Clerk (who has had sickness in the family, to his employer): I would respectfully ask you for an advance; yesterday I had to pay my doctor's bill, amounting to a hundred and thirty marks.

Principal—Ah! my dear fellow, the old story, I'm afraid—living vastly beyond your means.

"GREAT FATHER'S" CHEAP GIFT.
Why President Hayes Wore a Common Silver-Plated Watch.
President Hayes was always noted for his thrifty habits, but some things which impressed the multitude as signs of meanness were really nothing but ordinary prudence. For example, everyone wondered why he would wear a silver-plated watch, while drawing a salary of fifty thousand dollars a year, in wearing a silver-plated Waterbury watch, worth possibly three dollars, observes Kate Field. He was aware that his practice was known, and any astonishment manifested amused him instead of making him angry. In answer to a look of surprise he would say: "I think that is a plain watch for a president of the United States to carry, but it is good American make"—as if assuming that this fact would counteract the effect of the cheapness of the article.

The truth was that almost weekly deputations of western Indians called upon him, always bringing presents of some kind to the great father. Of course, he was expected to give something in return, and the object was to find something cheap and at the same time acceptable. Watches were a novelty to the Indian, and to present a chief with a watch which the great father himself had been carrying always impressed him greatly. Having discovered this, and not caring to distribute gold watches, or even silver ones, Mr. Hayes hit upon the expedient of buying nickel watches at thirty-six dollars a dozen, and always made it convenient to have one with him against any emergency.—Chicago Post.

Left Out the Notes.
The Worcester (Mass.) Gazette tells a story of Rev. Dr. Bancroft, father of George Bancroft, the historian, and once pastor of the First Unitarian church of Worcester. A carpenter was commissioned to make two tablets, on which the Ten Commandments were to be painted. The carpenter made the tablets of knotty boards, perhaps not realizing their use. When Dr. Bancroft directed the painter not to let the knots show, the man, who was a waggy character of the day, painted the Ten Commandments and carefully left spaces where the knots ought to stand. Dr. Bancroft had a sense of humor, and it is believed he laughed, or perhaps smiled, and then told the painter he had misunderstood him, and had better restore the notes.

A HAPPY PLAN.

How Style and Utility Can Be Adapted to Each Other.

Two Young Ladies with Big Sleeves and Many Parcels—Which Latter Seemed to Seriously Discommodate the Former—Mentioned Young Ladies.

Both the girls were rosy from walking in the keen air when they got into the elevated railroad at Fourteenth street, and both were heavily laden with packages. It was a case of "big parcel, little parcel, hat box and bundle," and every time either one of them stirred some one of the impediments fell to the car floor. Sometimes one of the girls was stooping down to pick up the big parcel or the little parcel, and sometimes they were both stooping down to gather up these and the hat box and bundle as well. Two brokers, who were sitting opposite, began quietly making bets as to which package would slip off next, and what with their exercise in the open air, that in the car, and their knowledge that they were affording a good deal of dead-end amusement to the passengers, the girls got redder in the face every minute.

"I just think it a shame," said one of them at last, "that women don't have pockets to put things in," and she gave a little white box a vicious tap that jostled it up against an oblong brown arrangement and sent both of them tumbling to the floor.

When she came up gasping from the rescue of these, she jerked at her big sleeves like an angry little bird plucking at its feathers, stopped short in the process, treated her companion to a magnificent example of the baby stare, and said:

"Katie, I've got it."

"Got what?" asked Katie.

"Got an idea," said her companion. "Just watch me."

And with that she took up the little white box, thrust it under her jacket near the shoulder, gave a quick wriggle, and presto! it dropped into the big puff of her sleeve. Then the oblong brown arrangement was similarly disposed of; and then a round, flat package; and then another something and another something else, now tucking it into the right-hand sleeve and now into the left, until everything was disposed of. Then Miss Katie followed her friend's example until all of her parcels were tucked away, and when they got off the cars at Park place there wasn't a sign of "big parcel, little parcel, hat box or bundle," but their sleeves stuck out like four captive balloons, and all the Brooklyn girls they met turned green with envy.

THE KONISCOPE.
It is a New Instrument for Testing the Air We Breathe.
A new and novel instrument is the koniscope, or dust-testing apparatus. It is not a complicated scientific machine, being solely intended for estimating in an easy and simple manner the amount of pollution and number of dust particles in the atmosphere. The action of the instrument is based on certain color phenomena associated with what is called "cloudy condensation of air," and which can be produced by steam-jets, high or low temperature of the air, the increased number of dust-nuclei, etc. In working the koniscope the air is drawn into the apparatus by means of a common air pump and quickly passes to the test tubes, which are fitted with glass at both ends. When the tube thus charged is held toward the light various colors from pure white to nearly black-blue (according to the purity or impurity of the sample under test), are indicated. The dust particles also form an important factor in these tests, the variation in their number causing the mirror to throw all the colors of the rainbow.

Population of British India.
According to the census of 1891, the population of British India and the native states was 287,223,431, an increase of 34,000,000 in ten years. Of these, according to religion, there were 207,731,727 Hindus, 57,321,164 Mohammedans, 9,820,467 aborigines, 7,131,361 Buddhists, 2,244,380 Christians, 1,907,833 Sikhs, 1,416,638 Jains, 89,904 Parsis, 17,194 Hebrews and 42,763 of all other religions. Of the Christian population, 1,315,263 were certified to be Roman Catholics, and the remainder, 969,117, with the exception of a few hundred Syrians, etc., Protestants.

Run Down.
That Tired Feeling—Severe Headaches, No Appetite.
Six Bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla Bring Back New Life.
"O. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Dear Sirs:—Before using Hood's Sarsaparilla I was frequently sick and did not know what was the matter with me. One day I would feel so tired I could hardly stand, the next I would have a severe headache and so on, not knowing what the next day would bring forth. I did not have any appetite and was greatly run down. I tried a good many medicines but did me no good. Having heard a great deal about Hood's Sarsaparilla I decided to try a bottle. I am glad to say I soon felt better. I have now used six bottles and feel as well as ever. It has been a great benefit to me as I have regained my appetite and am now enjoying good health. I can strongly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as an excellent blood medicine.' M. Symons, 224 Alameda Street, Baltimore, Maryland."

Hood's Pills not easily, yet promptly and effectually, on the liver and bowels. No.

Greenville Market.
Corrected by S. M. Schultz, at the Old Brick Store.

Butter, per lb	19 to 25
Western sides	6 to 7 1/2
Sugar cured Hams	11 to 12
Corn	40 to 60
Corn Meal	50 to 80
Cabbage	5 to 15
Flour, Family	300 to 340
Lard	6 to 10
Oats	50 to 60
Potatoes Irish, per bbl	300 to 350
Potatoes Sweet, per bu	30 to 40
Sugar	3 to 5
Coffee	16 to 25
Salt per Sack	80 to 100
Chickens	12 to 20
Eggs per doz	25 to 30
Beeswax, per lb	25
Kerosene	9 to 10
Pease, per bu	50 to 70
Hulls, per ton	200
Cotton-Seed Meal	20 to 60
Hides	14 to 2
Minks	25 to 75

Greenville Market.
Corrected by S. M. Schultz, at the Old Brick Store.

Butter, per lb	19 to 25
Western sides	6 to 7 1/2
Sugar cured Hams	11 to 12
Corn	40 to 60
Corn Meal	50 to 80
Cabbage	5 to 15
Flour, Family	300 to 340
Lard	6 to 10
Oats	50 to 60
Potatoes Irish, per bbl	300 to 350
Potatoes Sweet, per bu	30 to 40
Sugar	3 to 5
Coffee	16 to 25
Salt per Sack	80 to 100
Chickens	12 to 20
Eggs per doz	25 to 30
Beeswax, per lb	25
Kerosene	9 to 10
Pease, per bu	50 to 70
Hulls, per ton	200
Cotton-Seed Meal	20 to 60
Hides	14 to 2
Minks	25 to 75

Greenville Market.
Corrected by S. M. Schultz, at the Old Brick Store.

Butter, per lb	19 to 25
Western sides	6 to 7 1/2
Sugar cured Hams	11 to 12
Corn	40 to 60
Corn Meal	50 to 80
Cabbage	5 to 15
Flour, Family	300 to 340
Lard	6 to 10
Oats	50 to 60
Potatoes Irish, per bbl	300 to 350
Potatoes Sweet, per bu	30 to 40
Sugar	3 to 5
Coffee	16 to 25
Salt per Sack	80 to 100
Chickens	12 to 20
Eggs per doz	25 to 30
Beeswax, per lb	25
Kerosene	9 to 10
Pease, per bu	50 to 70
Hulls, per ton	200
Cotton-Seed Meal	20 to 60
Hides	14 to 2
Minks	25 to 75

Greenville Market.
Corrected by S. M. Schultz, at the Old Brick Store.

Butter, per lb	19 to 25
Western sides	6 to 7 1/2
Sugar cured Hams	11 to 12
Corn	40 to 60
Corn Meal	50 to 80
Cabbage	5 to 15
Flour, Family	300 to 340
Lard	6 to 10
Oats	50 to 60
Potatoes Irish, per bbl	300 to 350
Potatoes Sweet, per bu	30 to 40
Sugar	3 to 5
Coffee	16 to 25
Salt per Sack	80 to 100
Chickens	12 to 20
Eggs per doz	25 to 30
Beeswax, per lb	25
Kerosene	9 to 10
Pease, per bu	50 to 70
Hulls, per ton	200
Cotton-Seed Meal	20 to 60
Hides	14 to 2
Minks	25 to 75

Greenville Market.
Corrected by S. M. Schultz, at the Old Brick Store.

Butter, per lb	19 to 25
Western sides	6 to 7 1/2
Sugar cured Hams	11 to 12
Corn	40 to 60
Corn Meal	50 to 80
Cabbage	5 to 15
Flour, Family	300 to 340
Lard	6 to 10
Oats	50 to 60
Potatoes Irish, per bbl	300 to 350
Potatoes Sweet, per bu	30 to 40
Sugar	3 to 5
Coffee	16 to 25
Salt per Sack	80 to 100
Chickens	12 to 20
Eggs per doz	25 to 30
Beeswax, per lb	25
Kerosene	9 to 10
Pease, per bu	50 to 70
Hulls, per ton	200
Cotton-Seed Meal	20 to 60
Hides	14 to 2
Minks	25 to 75

Run Down.
That Tired Feeling—Severe Headaches, No Appetite.
Six Bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla Bring Back New Life.
"O. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Dear Sirs:—Before using Hood's Sarsaparilla I was frequently sick and did not know what was the matter with me. One day I would feel so tired I could hardly stand, the next I would have a severe headache and so on, not knowing what the next day would bring forth. I did not have any appetite and was greatly run down. I tried a good many medicines but did me no good. Having heard a great deal about Hood's Sarsaparilla I decided to try a bottle. I am glad to say I soon felt better. I have now used six bottles and feel as well as ever. It has been a great benefit to me as I have regained my appetite and am now enjoying good health. I can strongly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as an excellent blood medicine.' M. Symons, 224 Alameda Street, Baltimore, Maryland."

Hood's Pills not easily, yet promptly and effectually, on the liver and bowels. No.

DIED OF A BROKEN HEART.

So Rev. Dr. Gelkie Says in His History of Jesus.

Jesus died literally of a broken heart. This is the opinion of Rev. Dr. Gelkie, the most entertaining historian of the life of the Saviour. His death on the cross occurred sooner than was usual in crucifixions. He was in the prime of life and unweakened by previous illness. There is no record of any physical ailment in His life. The mingled flow of blood and water from the wound caused by the spear of the Roman soldier points unmistakably to another explanation than crucifixion in the opinion of medical men. The immediate cause of His death appears, in the same opinion, to have been the rupture of the heart brought about by mental agony. "Excess of joy or of grief is known to induce the bursting of some division of the heart and the consequent flow of blood into the pericardium or bag, filled with colorless serum, like water, in which the heart is suspended." Eminent medical authorities say: "In a death from heart rupture the hand is suddenly carried to the front of the chest and a piercing shriek uttered." The hands of Jesus were nailed to the cross, but the appalling shriek was uttered.

Personal Abuse in Old Politics.
Nothing in modern times can equal the virulence and the apparent exacerbation of the presidential campaign of 1828, when Andrew Jackson was formally entered in the presidential race against John Quincy Adams. Personal abuse was rife. Adams, the impeccable, the frigidly just, was accused of a variety of crimes, one of the least of which was that he acted as procurer for the czar of Russia. Clay was branded as an unprincipled adventurer, a professional gambler, a libertine and an accomplice of Aaron Burr. Jackson was stigmatized as a murderer, a dueling man-slayer, a rascal and a turp sportsman.

Twenty Years Proof.
Tutt's Liver Pills keep the bowels in natural motion and cleanse the system of all impurities. An absolute cure for sick headache, dyspepsia, sour stomach, constipation and kindred diseases.

"Can't do without them"
R. P. Smith, Chilesburg, Va., writes I don't know how I could do without them. I have had Liver disease for over twenty years. Am now entirely cured.

Tutt's Liver Pills

Don't forget the pretty line of tablets and box papers at Reflector Book Store when you want something nice to write on.

Four Friends of the Editor.

First: The subscriber who pays his subscription promptly in advance.

Second: The man, woman, boy or girl who introduces him to a new item.

Third: The subscriber who is not afraid to tell the editor when he sees something in the paper that particularly pleases him.

Fourth: The subscriber who doesn't hesitate to tell the editor frankly when he sees something in the paper that doesn't please him.

Every one of these four classes the editor of a live newspaper "needs in his business."

The editor of a live newspaper must have close collections, must publish all the news and must be in close touch with the minds and hearts of his readers.

Ride a Rambler.
Save time, money and doctor's bills. Go where you please, when you please, as fast as you please. Find pleasure, health and economy all in one.

Rambler Bicycles are the acme of mechanical perfection. Strong, durable and reliable, with not an ounce of useless material. The Rambler is the wheel for record breakers and for pleasure seekers.

Various models, all the same price—$100—catalog tells all about them—free, of course.

GORMALLY & JEFFERY MFG. CO.,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Greenville Market.
Corrected by S. M. Schultz, at the Old Brick Store.

Butter, per lb	19 to 25
Western sides	6 to 7 1/2
Sugar cured Hams	11 to 12
Corn	40 to 60
Corn Meal	50 to 80
Cabbage	5 to 15
Flour, Family	300 to 340
Lard	6 to 10
Oats	50 to 60
Potatoes Irish, per bbl	300 to 350
Potatoes Sweet, per bu	30 to 40
Sugar	3 to 5
Coffee	16 to 25
Salt per Sack	80 to 100
Chickens	12 to 20
Eggs per doz	25 to 30
Beeswax, per lb	25
Kerosene	9 to 10
Pease, per bu	50 to 70
Hulls, per ton	200
Cotton-Seed Meal	20 to 60
Hides	14 to 2
Minks	25 to 75

Greenville Market.
Corrected by S. M. Schultz, at the Old Brick Store.

Butter, per lb	19 to 25
Western sides	6 to 7 1/2
Sugar cured Hams	11 to 12
Corn	40 to 60
Corn Meal	50 to 80
Cabbage	5 to 15
Flour, Family	300 to 340
Lard	6 to 10
Oats	50 to 60
Potatoes Irish, per bbl	300 to 350
Potatoes Sweet, per bu	30 to 40
Sugar	3 to 5
Coffee	16 to 25
Salt per Sack	80 to 100
Chickens	12 to 20
Eggs per doz	25 to 30
Beeswax, per lb	25
Kerosene	9 to 10
Pease, per bu	50 to 70
Hulls, per ton	200
Cotton-Seed Meal	20 to 60
Hides	14 to 2
Minks	25 to 75

Greenville Market.
Corrected by S. M. Schultz, at the Old Brick Store.

Butter, per lb	19 to 25
Western sides	6 to 7 1/2
Sugar cured Hams	11 to 12
Corn	40 to 60
Corn Meal	50 to 80
Cabbage	5 to 15
Flour, Family	300 to 340
Lard	6 to 10
Oats	50 to 60
Potatoes Irish, per bbl	300 to 350
Potatoes Sweet, per bu	30 to 40
Sugar	3 to 5
Coffee	16 to 25
Salt per Sack	80 to 100
Chickens	12 to 20
Eggs per doz	25 to 30
Beeswax, per lb	25
Kerosene	9 to 10
Pease, per bu	50 to 70
Hulls, per ton	200
Cotton-Seed Meal	20 to 60
Hides	14 to 2
Minks	25 to 75

Greenville Market.
Corrected by S. M. Schultz, at the Old Brick Store.

Butter, per lb	19 to 25
Western sides	6 to 7 1/2
Sugar cured Hams	11 to 12
Corn	40 to 60
Corn Meal	50 to 80
Cabbage	5 to 15
Flour, Family	300 to 340
Lard	6 to 10
Oats	50 to 60
Potatoes Irish, per bbl	300 to 350
Potatoes Sweet, per bu	30 to 40
Sugar	3 to 5
Coffee	16 to 25
Salt per Sack	80 to 100
Chickens	12 to 20
Eggs per doz	25 to 30
Beeswax, per lb	25
Kerosene	9 to 10
Pease, per bu	50 to 70
Hulls, per ton	200
Cotton-Seed Meal	20 to 60
Hides	14 to 2
Minks	25 to 75

A Preventive of Lock-Jaw.

Charlotte Observer.

Seeing in the Observer, a few days ago, where a child died in Charlotte with lock jaw, caused by running a rusty nail in its foot, and as similar deaths are so frequent, I give a potent remedy, and

DON'T DO IT.

DON'T Dispute with a woman when she says my Goods are the only ones to buy. Because she knows what she's talking about.

DON'T Argue with her when she says my prices are money-savers. She talks like a sensible woman who knows what's what.

DON'T Try to excuse yourself for going to some other store instead of mine. You know that you can offer no reason that can be sufficient for passing the store where the best and cheapest go together.

DON'T Expect your wife to meet you pleasantly if you've gone to some other store than mine, when she expressly told you to go nowhere else. Don't do these things if you expect to live long and keep your hair on.

We want all people to drop in and see our new stock of

MEN & BOYS CLOTHING

Hats and Gents' Furnishings.

My Spring and Summer

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, SHOES,

Just received and open for inspection. Come and see them.

MY BAIT IS BARGAINS.

Come and see me and I will save you money.

H. C. Hooker,

Greenville, N. C.

THE REFLECTOR

Local Reflections.

Car load fresh Flour, just in. D. W. HASKETT.

Cotton Seed wanted for Cash at the Old Brick Store.

Handsome and cheap Oak Sets, up stairs. Old Brick Store.

D. M. Ferry's New Garden Seed at the Old Brick Store.

New Millinery goods received this week at Mrs. L. Griffin's.

Remember I can take your measure and have you a suit of clothes made to order. Fit guaranteed. Frank Wilson.

Just received 25 Iron Drive Pumps and 500 feet Galvanized pipe. D. D. HASKETT.

Buy Cotton Seed Meal and Bliss Triumph Potatoes at the Old Brick Store.

Remember I pay you cash for Chicken Eggs and Country Produce at the Old Brick Store.

Spring Hats in all the new shapes at Mrs. L. Griffin's.

Just received car load of best Flour, lowest prices. D. W. HASKETT.

Bring your cotton seed to Henry Sheppard, and buy your Meal and Halls. Car load of each just arrived for sale cheap.

A large stock of nice Furniture cheap at the Old Brick Store.

TOBACCO FLUES.—Diagrams and instruction for putting in and prices furnished on application to The Powder & Hyman Hardware Co., Tarboro, N. C.

First of the season—New Spring Oats, Cheap at the Old Brick Store.

"Top" Cigaretts are the best in the market—20 for 5 cents. J. L. STARKLEY & Co.

Laces, Ribbons, Baby Caps, all new and cheaper than ever at Mrs. L. Griffin's.

Kainit, Kainit, just arrived at Washington. See us and get prices. SPEIGHT & FORBES.

Wait for Mrs. M. D. Higgs' new goods now being selected if you want the very latest and prettiest styles in millinery.

Mrs. M. D. Higgs is in Baltimore for ten days selecting spring millinery. Do not make your purchases until you see her stock.

The coming season the ladies will find at my store the best stock of millinery and fancy goods ever offered here.

Mrs. M. D. Higgs.

Work has commenced again on the store building near the Planters' Warehouse and it will soon be completed.

THESE ARE LENT.

At Least Their Names Are, to Make News for Our Readers.

Rev. A. Greaves left for Kinston Monday night.

Mr. A. R. Dupree went to Richmond Tuesday.

Col. J. W. Johnson, of Oklahoma City, O. T., is in town.

Miss Kate Harvey, of Kinston, is visiting Mrs. R. W. King.

Mr. H. G. Jones arrived from Scotland Neck Monday night.

Mr. H. C. Edwards went to Norfolk Tuesday morning to buy horses.

Mrs. Susan Proctor has returned to her home in Washington.

Mr. J. H. Blount returned Monday night from Elizabeth City.

Mr. Charlie Harrington returned Monday night from Scotland Neck.

Mrs. W. L. White left Friday morning for her home at Roseboro.

Miss Lemmie James, of Parmele, is visiting Mrs. Dr. D. L. James.

Rev. C. M. Billings will preach in the Methodist Church Wednesday night.

Mrs. B. R. King, of Goldsboro, is spending this week at Sheriff R. W. King's.

Mrs. M. Nelson returned Friday morning from a month's visit to Newbern.

Mr. L. H. Rountree has moved out to his mother's farm two miles from town.

Misses Myrtle and Lillie Wilson returned home from their visit to Greene county.

Mr. W. O. Shelburn, who was visiting his brother here, returned to Richmond Friday.

Mrs. Georgia Pearce has gone to Baltimore to make her purchases of spring millinery.

Mr. W. T. Crawford, Clerk of the Superior Court of Martin county, was here Friday.

Messrs. D. W. Hardee, D. S. Smith and S. B. Hardee left Tuesday morning for Norfolk.

Mrs. W. B. Brown and children have returned from a visit to her parents in Virginia.

Mr. W. B. Brown has returned from the north where he went to purchase goods for Brown & Hooker.

Mr. J. C. Lanier has moved his family back to Greenville from Wilton and will again make his home here.

Miss Rosa Arthur, of Holly Hill, Craven county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. B. Burgess, in Forbestown.

Mr. M. R. Lang returned Friday night from his northern purchase tour and his new goods are arriving.

Miss Jennie Burgess, who has been visiting her mother, Mr. W. B. Burgess, returned to her home in Washington Tuesday.

Mrs. W. T. Lipscombe, Miss Sallie Lipscombe and Master Willie Lipscombe have gone to Raleigh to visit relatives.

Conductor Jones had charge of the passenger train Monday evening in place of Capt. Hawks who is off for a brief spell.

Capt. John Sasser, of Goldsboro, has been spending a few days with his daughter Mrs. B. F. Sugg and returned home Tuesday.

Miss Lillie Harris has gone to Baltimore to take special course of instruction in hat trimming in one of the large millinery establishments of that city.

We regret to learn that Mr. B. F. Sugg, who has been off on a business tour, is quite sick at Mt. Olive. Mrs. Sugg left Tuesday morning to attend him.

Mr. J. W. Higgs returned Saturday night from his northern purchasing tour. He says he selected a beautiful line of goods both for the Higgs Bros. and Ricks Taft & Co. stores.

Mr. P. G. Howe, representing the Howe Engine and Pump Co., is here trying to sell a fire engine to the Town Council for protection against fire. We hope the city fathers will make a trade with him.

Oh, those shirt-waist silks at Lang's.

TOBACCO GROWERS ATTENTION.—We have just received a large quantity of tobacco flue iron of good quality and clean. Parties who have ordered flues from us can get them now at any time. S. E. PENDER & Co.

Mr. B. D. Evans received a postal card informing him of the death of a brother, Mr. Evan Evans, which occurred at Brooklyn, N. Y., on the 14th. His brother was in his 78th year.

(A whisper to Ladies only.)

Go to see the beautiful silk and wool crepeons and other novelties in dress goods at Lang's.

Rocky Mount, N. C.

Mr. F. S. Royster.

Seven hundred (700) lbs. of tobacco raised by Orinoco Guano brought me $404.00 net. 500 lbs. at $56 per 100 lbs. 200 lbs. at $65 per 100 lbs.

Truly,

M. F. FARHAM.

NOTICE.—We have just received our machinery and are expecting several car loads of first class flue iron in a few days. We are prepared to make any and all kinds of flues and will guarantee first class work at reasonable prices.

Yours very truly,

O. L. JOYNER,

OSCAR HOOKER.

OTHER LOCALS.

Last week of March.

The fruit trees have commenced blooming.

The churches were well attended Sunday.

A weasel was killed in Lang's store last week.

The days and nights are now very near of equal length.

Mr. H. W. Whedbee has been appointed a notary public.

Get your spring ads ready. Good weather will soon be here.

Mr. W. T. Godwin is enlarging his workshop on Dickerson avenue.

A large sign has been painted across the front of the King House.

A bed of beautiful crocuses are in bloom in Mrs. Alfred Forbes' flower yard.

Mr. W. L. E. Cory is making improvements to his buildings on Second street.

The prospector casts his eye in the right direction when he puts it on Greenville.

The Rifles had a very good drill Friday afternoon. Twenty-one men were out.

Smith's string band went to Grifton Friday night to furnish music for a dance.

Martins have put in their appearance. They are pretty good indications of spring.

Mr. Charles Cobb fell in the river while fishing, and was laid up with a cold that resulted from the wetting.

Tell the school children the Reflector Book Store now has a supply of large penny tablets. They are beauties, too.

Last week's weather and blizzard will doubtless give prophet Hicks more satisfaction over the correctness of his predictions.

Mr. O. L. Joyner found a herd of hogs in his newly planted potato patch Tuesday. He says that patch of potatoes is all up.

Mr. Allen Warren says he feels safe in saying that the cold weather of the last few days did not damage the fruit prospects at all.

A few nights ago some one went in the smoke-house of Mr. E. B. Higgs, a mile from town, and stole about 150 pounds of meat.

A fire company was organized in Kinston Friday night. That town has purchased a $3,500 fire apparatus which will arrive in a few days.

One consolation to be derived from this backward spring is the good prospect of an abundant fruit crop.

The demand for tobacco cloth has been so heavy this season that dealers had to hustle to get enough to fill orders.

Some fears are expressed among planters that the excessive wet weather has caused seed potatoes to rot in the ground.

People from the country say they never saw the roads in a worse condition. Hauling over them is almost an impossibility.

The King's Daughters have received several new members in their order the last few days. They do a noble work in the community.

If men advertised their good wares as extensively as they advertise their good deeds there would be no stagnation in business.—Atchison Globe.

Mr. G. R. Moore writing from Georgia to renew his subscription to THE REFLECTOR says "I know it is lonely with a Pitt coultian without your paper."

You need not tell him we printed it, but we heard a lady say that if Greenville had fifty men as enterprising as Olthous Joyner you would soon see a city here.

Riverside Nursery is now the most popular place around town, many people going there to look at the beautiful flowers. It is a treat to go through the greenhouse.

The Reflector Book Store has just received a large lot of fine stationery—box papers, tablets, ledgers, memorandums, time books, visiting cards, etc. Come see them.

All finding a blue cross mark on their paper are notified that their subscription has expired, and everyone is invited to renew. You ought to keep the REFLECTOR in your family.

The A. & N. C. R. R. offers to give 25 per cent. on the freight on all building material, shipped from any points on its line, to replace any of the burned buildings in Kinston.

Like the coming of a ray of sunshine is the announcement to-day of the arrival of new goods at Higgs Bros. They have a beautiful line and say they will be sold cheaper than ever.

A representative of the REFLECTOR has been to Prof. Edmond's studio to examine his wax figures which he will exhibit here next week and they show wonderful workmanship. The figures look as natural as life, and his exhibition will be exceedingly interesting.

In Frank Wilson's new advertisement to day you hear the good news about clothing. He has suits to fit everybody at almost any price. And his furnishing goods, dry goods and notions are all right both in quality and price.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's father, W. H. Williams, of Oakley, Pitt county on March 20th, 1895, by Rev. R. W. Hines, Mr. J. E. Hines and Miss Mattie L. Williams, both of Oakley.

Losses to Lumbermen.

The high water in the river has caused several rates of logs to break loose from their moorings and come down the stream. Saturday night a large raft lodged against the county bridge and had to be cut away Sunday to prevent damage to the bridge.

Greene is Coming.

We heard a Greene county farmer say Friday that his county was going to give the Pitt a close race in tobacco culture this year. The farmers over there are making extensive preparation for planting the weed. We will drop the hint to them now, that if they want the best prices for their crop when cured Greenville is the market they should sell on.

More of "The Beautiful."

Few if any people upon earth, during Thursday night expected to find everything white with snow when they got up next morning. But that was just the condition of things. Frosts the quantity on roofs of houses at least an inch in depth fell. Houses, fences and trees were moist enough for the snow to stick to and make everything look beautiful.

Three of a Kind.

An exchange speaks of three of the most stingy men on record. The first will not drink as much water as his neighbor's well. The second forbids his family to write anything but a small hand as it is a waste of ink to make large letters. The third stops the clock to save the wear and tear of machinery. They all refuse to take a newspaper on the ground that it is a terrible strain on their spectacles to read.

Marriage License.

The last two weeks Register of Deeds King issued licenses to eleven couples, seven white and four colored.

White—Daniel L. Brown and Maggie Daniel, J. E. Hines and Mattie L. Williams, Jesse Elmore and Lillie Murphy, William Morgan and Dora Morgan, Jacob Barrow and Isabella Stokes, J. J. Smith and Annie Collins, John Blaud and Lucy Knox.

Colored—Bill Hardy and Annie Daniel, Aaron Wooten and Fannie Fleming, Daniel Bridges and Della Jarnan, Stephen Dixon and Martha Johnson.

An Immense Case.

The bond case of Harrington against the County Commissioners is now in its fourth week of trial. The recent law passed by the Legislature gave this case precedence over all others and made it necessary to go into it before any other business could be disposed of. There are about a hundred witnesses on each side and as much time will probably be consumed in the examinations for the defense as has already been taken by the plaintiff. The mass of testimony is enormous. Judge Cobb has shown impartiality in his rulings and has displayed much patience on the bench during the long and monotonous proceedings. We believe everybody would be glad to see the case reach its termination.

More Robbers.

While the family of Mr. John Matthews were at church Sunday night some one went into his house on Washington street. The thief broke a sash in the blind to the front window, unlocked the blind, raised the sash and went in, closing the window after him. The thief was after money only and seemed to know where it was kept in the house, as nothing but the trunk in which Mr. Matthews kept his purse was disturbed and only the money was taken out of the empty purse being left in the tray of the trunk and the trunk left open. The robber went out at one of the rear windows. Mr. Matthews says he does not know the exact amount of money that was in the purse, but it did not exceed $10.

Ayden Items.

AYDEN, N. C., Mar. 20.—The house of Mrs. Rawls is rapidly going up.

The business managers of Carolina Christian College were in session here yesterday.

Mr. J. C. Cox, of Winterville, was on our streets yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coward, of Greene county, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. E. Dixon.

A petition with 98 signatures—31 of the people in town and 67 people of the surrounding community, was sent this morning to the Postmaster General requesting the department not to change the name of Ayden office. Four-fifths of the white patrons of the office signed the petition. How is this for sentiment!

AYDEN, N. C., Feb. 21st, 1895.

Mr. Richard Anderson's wife is very sick.

Mr. Geo. Parker is moving his family to Winterville to-day.

Messrs. J. W. and W. B. Quinerly, of Quinerlys spent yesterday here.

Mr. Swindell, of Dover has rented Finner Bros. mill and is operating it.

Mr. James Campbell is very sick with yellow chill. Our excellent Dr. Dixon has charge of the case and he is likely to get well.

AYDEN, N. C., Mar. 23rd, 1895.

The Carolina Christian College give an entertainment last night and is reported as being a very enjoyable occasion. Great many in attendance.

The town has been full of cotton buyers this week, and the stuff has been rolling in.

Misses Annie Brooks and Mary Harvey are visiting Mrs. J. K. Harvey.

The Working People.

It looks almost like a small army to see the hands after work hours these evenings coming in from the directop of the warehouses, the prizees and the mill. These give just a small forecast of how things would be if Greenville had a few factories.

New Buildings and Improvements.

Greenville continues to gain new buildings. Mr. G. E. Harris is preparing to erect a residence on his lot on Cotanch street, and Mr. C. T. Munford has just contracted for three new dwellings on his Forbestown property. The building record for this year bids fair to be as good as last year.

Try This.

Buying goods is one thing, selling them is another. Simply because a man lays in a stock of goods is no reason that he is going to sell them unless he gets purchasers know something about what he has. Tell them through the REFLECTOR and it will help you make sales.

Building a Race Track.

A club has been organized here to build a race track and the work of laying it off has commenced. The track will be a half mile circle and is located on the land of Mr. J. L. Moore on the Farmville road, nearly one and a half miles from town.

Messrs. N. H. Whitfield, Henry Edwards and R. L. Smith are directing the construction of the track.

A New Pastry Cook Book.

Miss U. A. Willis, Principal Baltimore Cooking School, has compiled a new Pastry Cook Book, which is being distributed to the patrons of the well known Horsford's Bread Preparation. The reputation of the author renders the book of especial value. Mail one wrapper from a pack of Horsford's Bread Preparation to the Reflector Chemical Works, Providence, R. I. A copy will be sent free.

That Bad Tax.

Referring to the fact that the Hotel De Gurley made Senator Fowler pay extra bed tax, the Sampson Democrat says: "As a matter of justice to Mr. Fowler individually, the Democrat will say that he opposed the bed tax in the Senate. But his party favored it and levied it. Mr. Fowler had been accustomed to pay $1.00 a day at this hotel, and could not understand the sudden rise in rates to $2.00."

Odd Fellows Visit Kinston.

The S. T. Hooker degree team of Covenant Lodge, L. O. O. F. report a pleasant trip to Kinston Monday night. The Odd Fellows who went down were Messrs S. T. Hooker, W. H. Ragsdale, D. L. James, J. White, J. J. Cherry, E. A. Moy, C. D. Rountree, R. L. Hamber, T. R. Moore, F. M. Hodges, O. A. Forbes, Frank Johnson, D. W. Hardee, S. B. Hardee, J. V. Johnson, Morris Meyer, W. L. Brown, Zeno Brown and W. H. Bagwell. After conferring the degrees, which occupied until 2 o'clock, the Kinston Lodge served a turkey lunch.

The stores present a busy scene now, so many new goods are being opened.

Mrs. Bettie Taft is having her residence on corner of Second and Elys street painted.

Try one of those splendid Parker fountain pens at Reflector Book Store and you will be pleased with your purchase.

The young ladies of the Baptist church will have a "Bonnet Party" on Friday evening and from what they tell us it will be very interesting.

Eggs took a fall Monday afternoon—in the vicinity where the colored salvationists were haranguing. The audience scattered under the shower. Throwing eggs was not the correct step to take to express disapproval of the presence of such a crew.

We frequently meet up with a queer combination of names in our exchanges. It is now stated that a man name Spunk has married a western girl named Spink. By this union we have the past tense, spunk; present tense, spunk; future tense, spank.—Durham Sun.

MUSICAL AT THE SEMINARY.

An Appreciative Audience Witnessed a Delightful Entertainment.

Another of those delightful entertainments for which Pitt Female Seminary has become so well noted and popular was given in the assembly hall of the building on Friday evening, and this one even surpassed all former efforts in that direction. The audience was not slow in recognizing the real merit of the entertainment and expressing appreciation at the exercises. The entire programme was rendered without the slightest interruption and in perfect order. It is a real pleasure to notice how systematically everything around the Seminary moves, and these occasional entertainments attest fully the ability of Prof. Gode's management and the excellent qualifications of his assistants. The programme is given in full below without comment on the individual performers, as every selection was given without the least imperfection.

PART I.

Modley.—Chorus. Class.

Piano Duet—"Sophie Waltz," Misses N. James and E. Proctor.

Motion Song.—Primary Class.

Piano Solo—"Cherry Valley Polka," Miss Sheppard.

Recitation.—Miss Bruce Forbes.

Piano Trio—"Prima Donna Waltz," Misses B. Patrick, D. Tucker and M. Tucker.

Broca Drill.—Physical Culture Class.

Piano Duet—"Turkish Hoop Waltz," Misses V. Rawls and G. Forbes.

PART II.

Recitation—"Blow Bugle, Blow," Elocution Class.

Piano Duet—"Jolly Brothers Galop," Misses Patrick.

Spelling Bee.—Primary Class.

Recitation—"Story of Some Bells," Miss Sheppard.

Dumb Bell Drill.—Physical Culture Class.

Piano Duet—"Les Sylphes," Misses Sheppard and McGowan.

Chorus—"Music in the Air," Class.

The selections by classes were especially pleasing to the audience, the drills displaying most thorough discipline. The patrons of the school who were present could not help feeling a just pride in the advancement their children are making.

The REFLECTOR will add here that it believes the people of the community who do not patronize the Seminary are making a serious mistake in depriving their girls of the splendid advantages this school offers. Greenville never had a better institution and the girls need just such training as can be had there. The Seminary should be the pride of the town and community, and it is the duty of every one to give it the support it merits.

1895. X SPRING AND SUMMER. X 1895

---OUR IMMENSE STOCK OF---

SPRING GOODS!

arriving by every boat and train. Received this week:

1 lot Saxham Suiting, suitable for early spring wear. 1 lot All-Wool Serges, 5 per cent. less than last season. 1 lot Silk and Wool Challies, 15 cents. 1 lot Dimitys, Hamburgs, Insertions, &c. 1 lot Serpentine Crepes, all shades.

Our Spring line of Ziegler Bros.' Fine Shoes are the prettiest ever shown. All size, width and toes known shown to the trade. Bion F. Reynolds' Shoes for Men. Every pair is warranted.

SPRING CLOTHING DIRECT FROM OUR MANUFACTURERS

C. T. MUNFORD,

THE CLOTHIER.

Next to Tyson & Rawls, Bankers.

J. B. CHERRY & CO.

The Leaders of Quality and Prices

Offer the best selected line of GENERAL MERCHANDISE to be found in Greenville. Comprising seasonal goods at reasonable prices.

Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Hats and Caps, Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, Crockery, Wood and Willowware, Hardware, Plows and astings Agricultural Implements, &c. A full line of Heavy Groceries, Sugar, coffee, Molasses, Meat, Flour a specialty. The largest and most complete line of FURNITURE to be found in Pitt county. Ladies, men, children, farmers, mechanics and laboring people of any and every profession come to see us and get Cherry's prices fixed in your minds before you try to buy elsewhere. Black and Spring Oats and Seed Potatoes on hand and to arrive.

Yours for fair dealings, good quality and low prices.

J. B. CHERRY & CO.

SPEIGHT & FORBES,

Office at Planters' Warehouse, Greenville, N. C.

HIGH GRADE FERTILIZERS.

See us before buying and get our prices. We sell for cash or on time, and will sell the following well known brands:

Capitol Tobacco Fert'z, National "Peruvian Mixture, Alliance Official, Pocomoke,

Beef, Blood & Bone, Durham Bull, Acid Phosphate, Lime, Kainit.

Very Truly,

SPEIGHT & FORBES

WALL PAPER.

If you wish to beautify your home look at my samples, they can be seen at the store of S. E. Pender & Co., or I will bring them to your home if you will notify me. I am agent for one of the largest dealers in the United States and can give you low prices.

A. B. ELLINGTON.

Notice to Creditors.

The undersigned having qualified before the Superior Court Clerk of Pitt county as administrator to the estate of D. W. Hoppod, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate of said decedent to make immediate payment to the undersigned, and all persons having claims against the said estate must present the same before the 8th day of Mar. 1896, or this notice will be placed in bar of recovery. This 8th day of Mar. 1895.

LORENZO MC LAWHORN.

Admr. of D. W. Hoppod.

BUILD UP HOME

By patronizing Home Enterprise.

Mallory Durham Cherooot Co.,

of DURHAM, N. C.

Are manufacturing the Cigars, Cherooots and Cigaretos as can be found on the market. Their leading brands are a dime cigar for a Nickel, hand made, Havana filled.

"BELLE OF DURHAM,"

"BLACKBELL'S DURHAM,"

a very fine Nickel Cigar, Sumatra Wrapper, Havana filled, hand made, Named in honor of Col. Buck Blackwell, C. O.

"JULE CARR,"

a fine five cent Cigar, Sumatra Wrapper hand made, Havana filled, a sure winner. Named in honor of Col. J. S. Carr, Pres. of Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co.

"LITTLE SADIE CIGARETTES,"

Ten for 10 cents.

"OLD CHUNK CHEROOTS,"

Five for 10 cents. The finest smoke for the money.

"OLD NORTH STATE CHEROOTS,"

Three for 5 cents, a hummer that always pleases.

Stick to home and send us your orders. Special brands put up when directed. Address

MALLORY DURHAM CHEROOTO CO., DURHAM, N. C.

SPRING!

Gentle spring comes with all the sweet songs of the birds and lovely flowers and so —does our our pretty—

New Dress Goods, Trimmings

—and fine line of—

CLOTHING!

Our goods are prettier and cheaper than ever and they are going fast. Come quick.

HIGGS BROS.,

Leaders of Low Prices,

Greenville, N. C.

their friends and the trade that they have bought out the Furniture & Racket Store and will engage in the general

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, SHOES

and Clothing business.

We are receiving

NEW GOODS DAILY.

Everybody invited to all and see us.

Respectfully,

RICKS, TAFT & CO.,

GREENVILLE, N. C.

Does This Hit You?

The management of the Equitable Life Assurance Society in the Department of the Carolinas, wishes to secure a few Special Resident Agents. Those who are fitted for this work will find this a Rare Opportunity.

It is work, however, and those who succeed best in it possess character, mature judgment, tact, perseverance, and the respect of their community. Think this matter over carefully. There's an unusual opening for somebody. If it fits you, it will pay you. Further information on request.

W. J. Roddey, Manager, Rock Hill, S. C.

The Charlotte OBSERVER.

North Carolina's FOREMOST NEWSPAPER DAILY AND WEEKLY.

Independent and fearless; bigger and more attractive than ever, it will be an invaluable visitor to the home, the office, the club or the work room. THE DAILY OBSERVER.

All of the news of the world. Complete Daily reports from the State and National Capitals. $5 a year. THE WEEKLY OBSERVER. A perfect family journal. All the news of the week. The reports from the Legislature a special feature. Remember the Weekly Observer.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR. Send for sample copies. Address THE OBSERVER, Charlotte, N. C.

WILMINGTON & WILSON R. R. AND FLORENCE RAIL ROAD. Condensed Schedule.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.
Dated Mar. 3, 1895.	No. 23 Daily.	No. 24 Daily.	No. 25 Daily.	No. 26 Daily.
Leave Weldon	11:55 A. M.	9:27 P. M.
Ar. Rocky Mt.	12:57 P. M.	10:20 P. M.
Lv. Tarboro
	12:20 P. M.
Lv. Rocky Mt.
	1:05 P. M.	10:20 P. M.		6:00 P. M.
Lv. Wilson
	2:05 P. M.	11:03 P. M.
Lv. Selma
	2:55 P. M.
Lv. Fayetteville
	4:30 P. M.	12:53 P. M.
Ar. Florence
	7:15 P. M.	3:00 P. M.
No. 27 Daily.
Lv. Wilson
	2:05 P. M.			6:30 P. M.
Lv. Goldsboro
	3:55 P. M.			7:20 P. M.
Lv. Magnolia
	4:02 P. M.			8:20 P. M.
Ar. Wilmington
	5:30 P. M.			10:00 P. M.

TRAINS GOING NORTH.
Dated Mar. 3, 1895.	No. 28 Daily.	No. 29 Daily.	No. 30 Daily.	No. 31 Daily.
Lv. Florence	8:15 A. M.	7:35 P. M.
Lv. Fayetteville	10:55 A. M.	9:35 P. M.
Lv. Selma	12:32 P. M.
Ar. Wilson	1:20 P. M.	11:28 P. M.
No. 32 Daily.
Lv. Wilmington
	9:20 A. M.			7:00 P. M.
Lv. Magnolia
	10:56 A. M.			8:31 P. M.
Lv. Goldsboro
	12:05 P. M.			9:47 P. M.
Ar. Wilson
	1:00 P. M.			10:27 P. M.
No. 33 Daily.
Lv. Wilson
	1:05 P. M.	11:32 P. M.		10:32 P. M.
Ar. Rocky Mt.
	2:33 P. M.	12:05 P. M.		11:16 P. M.
Ar. Tarboro
	2:48 P. M.
Lv. Tarboro
	3:33 P. M.	12:07 P. M.		11:22 P. M.
Ar. Weldon
	3:48 P. M.			11:55 P. M.

Train on Seaboard Neck Branch Road leaves Weldon 3:40 p. m., Halifax 4:00 p. m., arrives Seaboard Neck at 4:55 p. m., Greenville 6:37 p. m., Kingston 7:05 p. m., returning leaves Kingston 7:20 p. m., Greenville 8:22 a. m., arriving Halifax at 11:50 a. m., Weldon 11:30 a. m. daily except Sunday.

Trains on Washington Branch leave Washington 7:00 a. m., arrive Farmville 8:40 a. m., Tarboro 9:30 a. m., returning leaves Tarboro 4:50 p. m., Farmville 6:10 p. m., arrives Washington 7:35 p. m. Daily except Sunday. Connections with trains on Scott Neck Branch. Train leaves Tarboro, N. C., via Albemarle & Raleigh R. R. daily except Sunday, at 5:00 p. m., Sunday 4:00 p. m., arriving Plymouth 9:20 p. m., 5:20 p. m., returning leaves Plymouth daily except Sunday, 5:30 a. m., Sunday 9:30 a. m., arriving Tarboro 10:25 a. m., and 11:45 a. m.

Train on Midland N. C. Branch leaves Goldsboro daily except Sunday, 6:05 a. m., arriving Smithfield 7:30 a. m., returning leaves Smithfield 8:00 a. m., arriving Goldsboro 9:30 a. m.

Trains on Nashville Branch leave Rocky Mount at 4:30 p. m., arrive Nashville 5:05 p. m., Spring Hope 5:30 p. m., returning leaves Spring Hope 8:00 a. m., Nashville 8:30 a. m., arriving at Rocky Mount 9:05 a. m., daily except Sunday.

Trains on Latta Branch, Florence R. R., leaves Latta 6:50 p. m., arrive Dunbar 8:00 p. m., returning leave Dunbar 6:30 a. m., arrive Latta 8:00 a. m. Daily except Sunday.

Train on Clinton Branch leaves Warsaw for Clinton daily, except Sunday at 11:00 a. m., returning leaves Clinton at 1:00 p. m., connecting at Warsaw with main line train.

In Poor Health

means so much more than you imagine—serious and fatal diseases result from trifling ailments neglected. Don't play with Nature's greatest gift—health.

Brown's Iron Bitters

If you are feeling out of sorts, weak, and generally exhausted, nervous, have no appetite and can't work, begin at once taking the most reliable strengthening medicine which is Brown's Iron Bitters. A few bottles will cure—benefit comes from the very first dose—your strength, appetite, and blood will be restored.

It Cures
Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Troubles, Constipation, Bad Blood, Malaria, Nervous ailments, Women's complaints.

Get only the genuine—it has crossed red lines on the wrapper. All others are substitutes. On receipt of two stamps we will send you a Ten Cent Bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters. Write to BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

ESTABLISHED 1875.

S. M. Schultz

AT THE OLD BRICK STORE

FARMERS AND MERCHANTS BUY their year's supplies with their interest to get our prices before purchasing elsewhere. Our stock is complete in all its branches.

PORK SIDES & SHOULDERS, FLOUR, COFFEE, SUGAR, RICE, TEA, &c.

ALWAYS AT LOWEST MARKET PRICES.

TOBACCO SHUFF & CIGARS we buy direct from Manufacturers, enabling you to buy at one profit. A complete stock of

Respectfully,
S. M. SCHULTZ,
Greenville, N. C.

During the past two months we have had quite a number of prominent business men here to tell us that they would willingly build more prize houses for the coming season if they could find a sure tenant for at least one year. One gentleman said he would build half a dozen if he could rent them out. How many we will need at present it is impossible to say, however, if the market sells as much as it did last year (and there is no reason why we should not sell at least a third more) there will be a need for at least three more. We have no doubt but that plenty of houses will be built to take care of the next crop. The market is now beyond the doubtful line. It is no longer an experiment. Those who at first were its worst enemies to day are its most wishers, and men who two years ago could not be induced to enter into the tobacco business or to think of building prize houses are willing to lend a helping hand and do all they can to encourage the tobacco market.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

REFLECTOR

It will be done right, It will be done in style and it always suits. These points are well worth weighing in any sort of work, but above all things in Your Job Printing.

During the present year we propose to make the Tobacco Department one of the most interesting features of the already popular REFLECTOR. We have just completed an arrangement by which the REFLECTOR will go to the home of nearly every tobaccoist in North Carolina and Virginia, that is manufacturers and leaf dealers, and it is through this medium that we expect to draw the eyes of the tobacco trade to the superior advantages of the eastern section in the production of bright yellow tobacco. As a matter of fact nearly all the largest manufacturing concerns in America are now represented on the eastern markets. They could not afford not to be, and hence as a matter of business the eastern leaf dealer could not be better than to place his business in the columns of this paper which hails direct from the center of this now far famed golden belt.

During the past two months we have had quite a number of prominent business men here to tell us that they would willingly build more prize houses for the coming season if they could find a sure tenant for at least one year. One gentleman said he would build half a dozen if he could rent them out. How many we will need at present it is impossible to say, however, if the market sells as much as it did last year (and there is no reason why we should not sell at least a third more) there will be a need for at least three more. We have no doubt but that plenty of houses will be built to take care of the next crop. The market is now beyond the doubtful line. It is no longer an experiment. Those who at first were its worst enemies to day are its most wishers, and men who two years ago could not be induced to enter into the tobacco business or to think of building prize houses are willing to lend a helping hand and do all they can to encourage the tobacco market.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

REFLECTOR

It will be done right, It will be done in style and it always suits. These points are well worth weighing in any sort of work, but above all things in Your Job Printing.

During the present year we propose to make the Tobacco Department one of the most interesting features of the already popular REFLECTOR. We have just completed an arrangement by which the REFLECTOR will go to the home of nearly every tobaccoist in North Carolina and Virginia, that is manufacturers and leaf dealers, and it is through this medium that we expect to draw the eyes of the tobacco trade to the superior advantages of the eastern section in the production of bright yellow tobacco. As a matter of fact nearly all the largest manufacturing concerns in America are now represented on the eastern markets. They could not afford not to be, and hence as a matter of business the eastern leaf dealer could not be better than to place his business in the columns of this paper which hails direct from the center of this now far famed golden belt.

During the past two months we have had quite a number of prominent business men here to tell us that they would willingly build more prize houses for the coming season if they could find a sure tenant for at least one year. One gentleman said he would build half a dozen if he could rent them out. How many we will need at present it is impossible to say, however, if the market sells as much as it did last year (and there is no reason why we should not sell at least a third more) there will be a need for at least three more. We have no doubt but that plenty of houses will be built to take care of the next crop. The market is now beyond the doubtful line. It is no longer an experiment. Those who at first were its worst enemies to day are its most wishers, and men who two years ago could not be induced to enter into the tobacco business or to think of building prize houses are willing to lend a helping hand and do all they can to encourage the tobacco market.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

LOCAL NOTES AND TOBACCO JOTTINGS.

BY O. L. JOURNAL.

There will be a shortage of plants this season on account of the extreme cold weather which prevented a good many farmers from sowing sufficient plant land.

Mr. G. T. Tyson in the March number of the Southern Cultivator says tobacco was first introduced here in 1886 and this section now leads in fancy wrappers and fancy cutters. Rocky Mount, Wilson and Greenville each have three tobacco warehouses and a sufficient number of storage and other houses. He says further there is more hog and poultry in the eastern section to-day than there has been since the sixties.

During the present year we propose to make the Tobacco Department one of the most interesting features of the already popular REFLECTOR. We have just completed an arrangement by which the REFLECTOR will go to the home of nearly every tobaccoist in North Carolina and Virginia, that is manufacturers and leaf dealers, and it is through this medium that we expect to draw the eyes of the tobacco trade to the superior advantages of the eastern section in the production of bright yellow tobacco. As a matter of fact nearly all the largest manufacturing concerns in America are now represented on the eastern markets. They could not afford not to be, and hence as a matter of business the eastern leaf dealer could not be better than to place his business in the columns of this paper which hails direct from the center of this now far famed golden belt.

During the past two months we have had quite a number of prominent business men here to tell us that they would willingly build more prize houses for the coming season if they could find a sure tenant for at least one year. One gentleman said he would build half a dozen if he could rent them out. How many we will need at present it is impossible to say, however, if the market sells as much as it did last year (and there is no reason why we should not sell at least a third more) there will be a need for at least three more. We have no doubt but that plenty of houses will be built to take care of the next crop. The market is now beyond the doubtful line. It is no longer an experiment. Those who at first were its worst enemies to day are its most wishers, and men who two years ago could not be induced to enter into the tobacco business or to think of building prize houses are willing to lend a helping hand and do all they can to encourage the tobacco market.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty two hundred and fifty dollars for it, but did not care to sell at that price. Now we don't want to say that the increased valuation of the property is solely attributable to the tobacco market, for there are two other enterprises that have added largely to the value of the property; namely, the Railroad and the depot. Hear this property and Hines & Houton's lumber mill. Aside from these what else has added to the value of this property? That nearly all kinds of real estate has depreciated in value no one will dispute, while this property has increased in a most wonderful ratio. We know of another smaller piece of land owned by a man who three years ago did more to discourage the support of this market than any other man that we know and even urged his friends to ship their tobacco to some other market. At that time his land was valued by himself at three hundred dollars and could have been bought for less money. A few days ago he was asked what he would take for it and he said four hundred and fifty five dollars, an increase of over 40 per cent. These are two instances where the tobacco market has helped others besides those directly connected with it. Besides there are numerous other cases and in fact all real estate in Greenville has advanced wonderfully in price. There is a piece of land just in front of the warehouses owned by J. J. and J. R. Cory. If the public does not believe that the tobacco market has added materially to their property just ask these young men what their land was worth in 1890, and what it is worth to-day, or what they can sell it for to-day.

As an evidence of the value of a tobacco market to the public who are in no way interested in the tobacco business just compare the value of real estate adjacent to the warehouses three years ago with what it is now. Four years ago this year the first tobacco warehouse was built in Greenville. At that time we know of a piece of property that was bought for twenty seven hundred dollars a few days ago a party wanted to purchase one-tenth of it and the owner said he would take twenty