A NORTH CAROLINIAN'S VIEWS.

Mr. B. F. Keith, of Wilmington, N. C., was in the city yesterday on his way back home from the great convention in Memphis.

"I have noticed the attempts of the goldbug papers to make just of the silver convention in Memphis," he said to the Constitution.

"Their railery amounts to nothing under the sun, but I cannot help protesting when they put down such statements as this, that North Carolina was represented at the convention only by one or two populists. Now, I was at the convention from my State and I am a Democrat. There were many others there who have never voted anything but a Democratic ticket as long as they have lived. I have never known what it was to vote a Populist ticket. I am no politician, have never held an office and don't want to hold any within the gift of the people. I am a merchant in Wilmington and have a farm and I had nothing at stake when I went to the Memphis convention but the earnestness of my convictions that silver should be restored to its rights along with gold in the money question that confronts the people of the republic.

"While I have no political feelings in sympathy with the Populists, I believe they are going to be the salvation of the country by coming back into the folds of the Democratic party and posing issues with us along this line for the cause of silver.

"I know they will come back in the party if the Democratic leaders will simply fulfill the pledges that have been made, and I am sure the interests of the Democratic party and of the people of this country are inseparable in this matter. The party must meet its obligations and if it does the people will cease to suffer the injuries that have been inflicted by the leaders who have misled."—Atlanta Constitution.

There are various things indicating that the Southern farmer is to be strictly in it this year. He has cut down his cotton crop 14 per cent and is likely to get a good price for what he raises. The wheat crop of the country is going to be short, its condition the 1st of June showing 71 per cent against 83 per cent. June 1st, 1894; but the crop of the Southern farmer, especially him of North Carolina, is all right. The outlook of the corn crop of the country is promising, nowhere more so than in the Southern States. The prospect generally is for a year of good crops and good prices. The realization of this hope will set the country up.—Charlotte Observer.

"In the beginning God created the heaven and earth and all things therein," says an exchange, "He then created man and woman and left loafers on the corner. And in due time they multiplied and spread into the depot, postoffice and stores." Bye and by they are bountifully supplied with cheap chewing tobacco, and they spit seeds of nasty sloppers through which they safely guide the ship of State and teach lessons of incapability value to the statesman of the land.

They sing nowadays of the young girl whose "golden hair was hanging down her back," but she isn't in it with a girl who lives in a certain neighboring village whose hair kills cats. This girl's hair, according to a report from her neighborhood, is so charged with electricity that a single strand will shock the person who touches it. She would be a dangerous girl to court, for if a fellow went to caressing her shining locks he would be instantly tied up into hard knots.

The women of Alexandria, Va., prompted by a desire to commemorate the virtues of the mother of Robert E. Lee, propose to erect in that city a monument to her memory. An association has been formed in Alexandria, called the Annie Lee Monument Association.

RAM'S HORN BLASTS.

Warning Notes Calling the Wicked to Repentance.

Every life is a prayer of some kind.

The man who cheats another robs himself.

When the heart gives, the gift is always great.

The man who plows deep has God for his friend.

The hands grow heavy when the heart is weak.

A temptation resisted is a step taken with God.

God speaks to us most in the voice to which we will best listen.

No gift can be put on God's altar unless the blood of religious life has been put there first.

Unbelief is the egg out of which all sins are hatched.

It is easier to give God all than it is to give him a part.

The pedestal means nothing until the statue is in place.

The moderate drinker is helping to gravel the road that leads to the pit.

There isn't a millionaire alive to-day whom an angel would consider rich.

If the road to the pit didn't begin in respectability it couldn't end in ruin.

It may be that God made the Dead Sea to show a stingy man how he looks.

It is always safe for right to count on the help of God when it goes into battle.

The devil will promise to pay any kind of interest, if we only take his note.

Jesus wrote the woman's writ on his hands.

The only thing the matter with the religion of some people is that it has no Christ.

The paths of righteousness lead straight into the valley of the shadow of death.

Half Human, Half Cain.

The Wilmington Messenger tells of a very remarkable Brunswick county monstrosity which it learns of through Rev. S. L. Swain, of that county, who was visiting a Wilmington clergyman.

The monstrosity is in the shape of a half calf and half human, of which a cow in Shalotte township became the mother on Friday, May 31st. The cow belonged to Mr. William Frink, and the monstrosity was born on the plantation of Mr. Frink's father-in-law, Mr. Cornelius Thomas. It had no tail and half of its face and body were human, including a perfectly shaped shoulder, arm, hand, leg and foot. The other half was that of a calf, and the thing walked erect.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running ear, or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; and cases out of ten are cured by ear, which is not being but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars or any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Civil Service.

Mr. Cleveland continues to enlarge the list of those who must come under the civil service rules. Congress should enlarge the number so as to include all, and provide for an examining board to test the president's knowledge of the last Democratic national platform. If such an examination was had Mr. Cleveland would not grade as high as 50 per cent.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Definition of a Populist.

We were very much struck by the definition of a Populist by a friend of ours the other night. Speaking of them, he said: "They are like one of these peanuts that you break open and there isn't a darn thing in it." And a by stander very pertinently remarked, "Is that the reason they are called 'Pop'?"—Raleigh Press.

Populists Disbanding.

The Jackson, Miss., correspondent of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, under date of June 13th, writes:

"The Quitman Quill announces that the executive committee of the Populist party, at its recent meeting in Yalobusha county, unanimously agreed, by a series of resolutions to that effect, to discontinue their organization as a party and unite themselves with the true Democracy. This was brought about mainly by wise and liberal action of the Democracy of the county in opening the way by extending the right to vote in the primaries to all who would agree to vote for the nominees in the general election. It was a wise and conservative course on the part of the Democracy of that county and their action is to be commended by all who have the interests of the party at heart."

There is no need for a Populist party for honest men who really want financial reform. It is a good thing for office seekers, who use its membership to pull chestnuts out of the fire for their personal advantage. In Mississippi, where the Populists "prefer reform to office," seeing that support of Populism tends to Republican rule, those who joined it a few years ago are disbanding their organization and returning to the Democratic fold. There is no other course open to them if they desire to preserve good home government and secure just financial laws.

The action in Mississippi is but a few months in advance of what the honest Populists in North Carolina will take. Up to this time they have blindly followed a corrupt cabal, and been used to degrade their State and to put Republican gold-bugs and incompetents into office. Those who are in the Populist party for office will stay and continue to dicker with the Republicans and the trusts for personal aggrandizement, but the rank and file will be found again under the banner of good government in the Democratic party.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Vanished Bluebirds.

The Landmark has noted the absence of the bluebirds this spring and summer. A few have been seen but they are very scarce. It appears that this is the case elsewhere as well as in North Carolina. New York rural papers have recently commented on the absence of these birds and a recent issue of the Boston Transcript contains the following:

"Enough time has now gone by, and a sufficient number of observations have been made to remove all doubt that the vast majority of our Massachusetts bluebirds have lost their lives during their winter absence. The writer has seen just one bluebird this season. A friend of his, a keen observer, has found one bluebird's nest in Bedford. Other observers have seen none at all in haunts where the birds in other years have been abundant. It will be of interest to see how long it will take the very few bluebirds who have returned to us to replenish the earth with their kind, and data as to the places where they may still be found will be of interest. If the one pair of bluebirds to be found in a township possess reason and reflection, they must feel somewhat as Noah and his family felt when they were spared for the purpose of re-establishing the human race after the flood."

In his recent talk to the Landmark on birds, Mr. Mel. Clark said that in his neighborhood numbers of bluebirds had been found dead in a bunch in hollow trees, and a number of State papers have reported similar occurrences.—Statesville Landmark.

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box. Sold by John L. Wooten Druggist.

Help Yourself.

Fight your own battles. Hoe your own row. Ask no favors of any one, and you will succeed a thousand times better than one who is always beseeching some one's influence and patronage. No one will help you as you help yourself, because no one is so heartily interested in your affairs. The first step will be such a long one, perhaps, but carving your way up the mountain, you make each one lead to another, and stand firm while you chop still another out. Men who have made fortunes are not those who have had five or six thousand dollars given them to start with, but boys who have started fair with a well earned dollar or two.

Men who acquire fame have never been thrust into popularity by puffs begged or paid for, or given in public spirit. They have outstretched their own hands and touched the public heart. Men who win love do their own wooing; and I never knew a man to fail so signally as one who induced his affectionate grandmother to speak a good word for him. Whether you work for fame, for love, for money, or for anything else, work with your hands, and heart, and brain. Say "I will," and some day you will conquer. Never let any man have to say, "I have dragged you up." Too many friends sometimes hurt a man worse than none at all.—Henderson Hustler.

There are now only 200 wild buffaloes alive in the United States, of which 150 are in the Yellowstone park, twenty in Colorado and thirty in Texas. This remnant of the vast herds that once roamed over the plains shows how nearly one of the most typical of American wild animals has reached extinction.

The farmers are at work in their fields, the merchant is busy selling his spring clothing, the miller is grinding away at his wheat, the laborer is working every day at his job, whatever it may be, the hunter is hunting, the sport sprouting, the idler idling. Every branch of work is running along smoothly, while the poor printer toils at his case, the editor scratches his head with his pencil and racks his brain for news for his subscribers to read. Of all of these fields of work the editor's is most to be pitied, for he gets less pay and more abuse than all the rest put together. Still we like it and shall continue to rack our brain to please our subscribers, and we only hope and pray that some of the delinquents will come and pay the price of their subscriptions.—Unionburg Times.

They left Key West, June 6th, and sailed for Bahama Island where they took on the men and cargo. 61 17

A Missing Vase.

It turns out that the Peachblossom vase is not in the art collection of the late Mr. Walters, of Baltimore. In whose possession it had been supposed to be. This famous little jug, which was intrinsically worth about two cents and which was sold at auction at the Morgan sale about eight years ago for $18,000, has disappeared from view as completely as if it had been buried in the earth. It looks very much as if the purchaser, whoever he was, was not proud of his judgment or of his investment.—Boston Herald.

Local Reflections.

The thermometer is up in the nineties again.

Rev. C. M. Billings tells us he saw a blue bird Wednesday.

I have just received a fine line of Pocket and Table cutlery.

Remember I pay you cash for Beeswax, Chickens, Eggs and Country Produce at the Old Brick Store.

If a dry June foretells a good crop the harvest will be abundant this fall.

The "Chattanooga" is the best Cane Mill made. I have just received a No. 12. Place your orders now.

A large stock of nice Furniture cheap at the Old Brick Store.

So far Greenville has entirely escaped any base ball agitation this season.

FOR SEED—15 bushels Unknown Peas, by J. L. Starkey & Co.

I have the best Tobacco Thermometers that I have ever kept.

Farmers have to hustle now to keep the grass from getting ahead of them.

Whortleberries sold at 10 cents a gallon Friday. Anybody ought to get a "huck" dumpling at that price.

The grass is not all done yet, but some of my hoes while they are going cheap.

The Sheriff is after lawyers, doctors, dentists and hotel keepers for that special tax the last Legislature put on them.

Mr. Carlos Harris, the artist, has just painted a handsome sign across the front of Mr. S. M. Schultz's store.

We learn that another man was arrested in Kinston, Wednesday, charged with incendiarism, making four now in jail.

Lumber is being placed near the building for the enlargement of the Eastern Warehouse. The work will soon begin.

Washington is to have a telephone exchange. We hope to say something like this for Greenville before very long.

The Weldon News says hog cholera is raging in some sections of Halifax county and a great many hogs are dying.

Not many days left for tax listing. Those who have not listed had better attend to it if they do not want to be charged with double tax.

"You're all the world to me," he cried, and she, with gentle mirth and tenderly, said: "Have you told Papa you want the earth?"

Mr. Alfred Forbes has been curing some other cases of drunkenness with salts. He tried a dose on a man the other day and had him sober in a few minutes.

Charlotte is boasting of ten cotton factories and is the humming town in North Carolina. Could not Greenville catch this spirit and start one to humming here?

On Monday Mr. S. R. Ross, keeper of the bridge across the river here, will take up the draw for repairs, and the bridge will not be passable before the 29th.

We are now in the midst of the longest days of the year. From the 21st to the 25th the sun rises at 4:43 and sets at 7:19, giving 14 hours and 36 minutes of sunlight.

The colored woman, Mahala Brown, who recently lost her mind, was placed in jail Friday morning for safe keeping until she could be admitted to the asylum.

The colored people will have a big celebration at Grimesland on the 4th.

The colored people of Paeonias are also preparing to celebrate the 4th in grand style.

The Methodist Sunday school had their picnic Wednesday near the Pollard mill site, three miles from town. A large crowd went out and they had a good time. It has been a fine day for such an outing.

In addition to our regular lines of job printing the REFLECTOR office is prepared to take orders for lithographed letter, note and bill heads, checks, drafts, cards, invitations, &c. Samples can be seen at the office.

The outside work of the new store of Mr. S. M. Schultz is nearing completion. The building shows up splendidly and will be well suited for carrying on the large business Mr. Schultz will conduct in it.

Col. A. Sugg tells us that during the past week he has inquired of 176 farmers as to the prospects of their crops, and the opinion of all but three of this number was that taking all crops through they did not believe the average would come to more than half a crop.

Mr. L. F. Evans, who recently leased the Greenville Warehouse, has associated with Messrs. R. S. Evans and A. J. Critcher, and they will conduct the house together under the firm name of Evans & Co. All of them have had good experience in the leaf business.

A telegram received here Wednesday announced the death of Mr. John D. Wells, of Wilson. He was a very prominent man and well known over the State.

Two This Week. Some of the matrimonially inclined are recovering from the shock caused by the extra dollar being placed on licenses, and two couples applied to the Register of Deeds this week to have their names put in the blanks. They were Allen Hudson and Bettie Buck, white, and Hyman Johnson and Lula Pitt, colored.

Bishop Wilson. Our people were again delighted Monday night by having an opportunity of hearing Bishop A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore, who has just been holding the District Conference at Tarboro. He arrived here on the evening train and preached to a large congregation in the Methodist church at night. He is one of the denomination's ablest men. The Bishop was the guest of Mr. J. B. Cherry while here and left on the steamer to-day for Washington.

Bring on Your Trotters. It is learned here that the Club at Greenville will not let any but Pitt and Green county horses enter the races there on the fourth. Some of our horsemen are displeased at this and think it a little selfish. But it is perhaps a compliment to Beaufort county horses. We have some horses that are faster than any they have, and we are authorized to challenge them for a tilt with a neat little stake at the back of the neck.—Washington Progress.

The above is an entire error as there is a purse of $100 open to all. We would be glad to have the Washington horses, especially those that are willing to trot for the purse or for an outside stake, they to name the amount.

N. H. WHITFIELD, Sec'y pro tem. Money in a Bag of Coffee. A few days ago while clerks in the store of J. C. Cobb & Son were opening a bag of coffee they found a bill of money. It is a Brazil bill and quite a curiosity. The design of the bill is handsome and very much on the order of United States bills, though slightly smaller. The denomination of the bill is one milree, representing in our money a value of 55 cents. Some of the words on the bill, especially the written signatures, were faded, yet most of them were very distinct. The bill was issued while Brazil was an Empire. How the bill came in the bag was being filled at one of the Brazil coffee farms some one dropped this bill out of his pocket and it got in the coffee.

The Races. There was a large crowd out at the race track, Tuesday afternoon, to witness the trials of speed between three local horses and the races were very interesting. Dr. D. L. James, Mr. S. T. White and Mr. J. W. Higgs entered their trotters to race for a $42 sulky.

1st Heat—Won by White, time 2:58; James second, Higgs third. 2nd Heat—Won by James, time 3:01; Higgs second, White third. 3rd Heat—Won by James, time 3:00; Higgs second, White third. Dr. James was declared winner of the race and took the sulky.

After these trials there was a half mile foot race between several boys under 14 years of age. This was won by Dick White in 2:53 with Ben Cowell second. It was good running for the boys.

To be held with the Baptist church in Williamston, N. C., June 28th to 30th, 1895.

The Honor Comes to Greenville. The musical contest before the Teachers Assembly for a gold medal for the best performance on the piano of a piece of music they had never seen came off Saturday night, instead of Friday night as was first advertised. The medal was awarded to Miss Lina Sheppard, of Greenville, who having played the piece drawn by her without making a single mistake. She performs beautifully and gracefully, and received many compliments from persons at the Assembly. The medal was delivered by Dr. Mowry, of Mary land. Greenville is indeed proud of Miss Sheppard and her host of friends at home congratulate her most heartily.

Monday's express brought in some watermelons. They caught the eye of everybody around the depot.

Riverside Nurseries has the thanks of REFLECTOR for a basket of fine peaches. They were the largest we have seen this season.

A Good Run. Mayor Ota Forbes took a 47 mile spin on his wheel Monday afternoon. He left Greenville at 1:30 o'clock, stopped at several tobacco farms along the road, spent nearly an hour in Bethel, made a short stop at Parmele, then on to Reberstonville where he stayed nearly another hour and was back to Greenville at 7:30. He made the home run from Reberstonville to Greenville, 20 miles, in an hour and forty minutes. The actual running time for the entire 47 miles was about four hours.

He Delighted Greenville People. Dr. J. C. Kilgo, President of Trinity College, arrived here Saturday evening and preached to large congregations in the Methodist church both Sunday morning and night. The people of Greenville were fortunate in having an opportunity of hearing such an able man and we hear nothing but expressions of delight from his sermons. He is a brilliant man, an eloquent speaker, and throws such earnestness and enthusiasm in his discourses as to command the closest attention to every utterance. Greenville hopes to be favored with other visits from him. Dr. Kilgo is the best President Trinity has had and he is adding much interest to that excellent institution.

The Price of a Kiss. A lady in town sent a book by mail to a gentleman friend in another town and not having time to write a letter she placed a strip of paper inside the book on which was written "Have only time to send a kiss now." Another lady wrote a word above her initials on the wrapper. When the book reached its destination the postmaster and the post office excited the suspicion of the postmaster and he went inside the package. Finding the strip of paper with the kiss on it he required the young man to pay 40 cents extra postage on the book. The lady received a letter of thanks, of course, but a postscript was added that it would be cheaper to send the kisses by express next time.

To the Memory of Joe Joyner. BY Z. MOORE. O present! pass with gentle step The graves where loved ones sleep. Where fondness kneels to weep. And memory turns to weep.

The hopes of all the past lie here Entombed beneath the sod; And, baptized in the tears of grief, They've joined the church of God.

Then why lament, vain, selfish heart, Or wish to call them forth, The spirits back to heaven go, The earth come back to earth.

The sweetest flowers soonest fade And rare fruits first decay, So memories of a year ago Are all that's left to-day.

For the Reflector. "REFLECTION." BY MRS. ALICE E. JOYNER.

Forty years ago I was a young bride. The trials of life I had never tried; All seemed bright and prosperous to me. Since then many troubles I have been brought to see.

As the years rolled on more experienced I became, And I learned that a great many worked for fame. A great and prosperous land we possessed, But soon we were all in great distress.

Our homes that were so cheerful and bright, Were soon over-run with sorrow and fight. 'Tis sad to return to the old home now, And see so many changes I scarcely know how.

It seems like a dream that I have awakened To come back and find my dear ones all taken, And scattered in different parts of this land. I have been once a loving little band.

I have waivered among strangers who were kind to me, May God bless them and keep them from dangers free. Although my afflictions for three years have been great, I have learned to be patient and learned to wait.

Now, my dear children, when this you see, Read with care and think of me. One whose love goes out for you, Who has always been to you so true.

The changes here have been so many, A true friend is hard to find if there be any. 'Tis time has come when all must try To learn the wherefore and the why.

The people of my younger days Are nearly all in their graves; In their homes now strangers dwell, Of the past it's sad to tell.

I am now at my old home to brood over the past; May I work out all good for me at last. Now, sixty years of my life have passed away, And according to nature I have but a short time here to stay.

May God bless me and strengthen my faith, Keep me from temptations, and give me grace. That I may pass safely over the river to the other side, With Jesus and his angels forever to abide.
