EVERY BOY.

Wants or should want an Education,

And The Eastern Reflector is Going to help one Boy in that direction.

We will give absolutely free of charge a scholarship entitling the holder to free tuition in all the English branches for the entire spring term, 1896 (6 months)

Greenville Male Academy.

This is the best school for boys in Eastern North Carolina, and the boy will be fortunate who wins this prize.

CONDITIONS.

This 5 months scholarship is to be given to the boy who will get the largest number of yearly subscribers to between now and 4 o'clock P. M. on Jan. 15th. The subscribers for 6 months or four subscribers for 3 months will count the same as one yearly subscriber.

This is no cash prize, but a scholarship. It is not to be given to the boy who brings in the most money, but to the boy who brings in the most subscribers.

Of course we will expect more than one subscriber to be brought in, for this is a prize worth winning and many boys will work for it.

In order that there may be an incentive for every boy who wishes to enter in this contest, we offer a cash commission of 10 per cent on all subscribers, so that the one who fails to get the scholarship will be paid for his subscription.

You can get as many sample copies of THE REFLECTOR as you need by applying to the office. If you desire to enter the contest send your name as we wish to know how many boys are working for the prize. We will publish the result of the contest with the name of the winner in the issue of the 15th of Jan., 1896, giving the successful boy time to enter school on the opening day of spring term Monday, Jan. 20th.

Address all letters to THE EASTERN REFLECTOR, Greenville, N. C.

GREENVILLE, N. C. Oct. 25th, 1895. This is to certify that I have arranged with the publisher of THE EASTERN REFLECTOR to teach free of charge in the English branches, for the 6 months term beginning Jan. 20th, 1896, the boy to whom he may award the scholarship in the above subscription contest.

Curious Bits of North Carolina History.

The Raleigh correspondent to the Richmond Dispatch wrote recently that "a curious bit of North Carolina history" has just been brought to light.

The Democrat has learned the particulars of the convention in question and now gives them to the public.

The convention was held on 14th of October, 1860, at Hill's Ferry, on Roanoke river, now the little town of Palmyra, about six miles from Scotland Neck.

There was a lively discussion over two sets of resolutions that were offered. One set of resolutions was to the effect that North Carolina go back under the protection of the English government.

The Davidson County Commissioners, at their last meeting, passed upon and allowed the State sort in the Shemwell case, some $3,300.

Superior Court is in session this week at Beaufort and a great deal of interest is manifested in the insurance trials.

The Monroe Enquirer tells of a Union country man who concluded that he would cut off the tails of two fattening pigs.

The Free Will Baptist church at Jackson, Mich., has inaugurated a new development of our modern Christianity.

The newspaper is your friend in spite of you. It helps to build up the community that supports you.

Professor Hicks' weather prognosticator of St. Louis, predicts that January of 1896 will be a winter for cold, and advises, people, even in the south, to "provide beautifully against severe winter storms and great cold."

He Got It.

A graphic incident in the life of a spoiled child is well told by a writer in an exchange.

Among the passengers on the St. Louis train recently was a woman accompanied by a nurse girl and a boy about three years old.

The boy aroused the indignation of the passengers by his continued shrieks and kicks, and screams, and viciousness toward the patient nurse.

Finally the mother composed herself for a nap, and about the time the boy had slapped the nurse for the fiftieth time a wasp came sailing and flew on the window of the nurse's seat.

The nurse caught his hand and said coaxingly, "Harry hasn't touched. Bag will bite Harry."

Harry screamed savagely and began to kick and pound the nurse.

The mother, without opening her eyes or lifting her head, cried out sharply:

"Why will you tease that child so Mary? Let him have what he wants at once."

"Let him have it," said the mother.

Mary turned in her seat and said demurely, "He's got it, mother!"

Crop Conditions During September, 1895. The following is extracted from the weekly weather crop bulletin of the state weather service for Oct. 7, 1895, giving the crop conditions at the close of the season.

The month of September was favorable to the fifth; then, however, a severe drought set in, which probably more remarkable hot spells ever recorded in this State for September.

The following table shows the departure in temperature and precipitation for each month during the season.

Rust in Small Grains. The rust disease of wheat, oats, barley and grasses generally, are caused by one or more of three species of microscopic fungi.

The Turkey Came. Years ago an old turkey whose master had some fine, fat turkeys made up his mind that he must have one of those turkeys, and, as he told the story, he set to work to get it by prayer.

black form, the telosio spores, which are then able to stock the ground or infect any chance at the hot plant which negligence or accident may allow to remain.

As these spores are extremely small and light and are produced in almost incredible numbers the few alternate host plants which may survive even the most watchful care may supply spores enough to infect hundreds of acres of grain or grass.

Common and destructive as the rust fungi are in the United States, in Australia they are still more so and several operations of scientific men and practical farmers have been held there to devise methods for repressing the pest but so far without much success.

1. Use dry or well drained land for small grains. 2. Plant only hard stemmed, hairy, early maturing varieties of wheat.

3. Use of fungicidal sprays on wheat and other small grains. 4. Plow the land deeply as soon as the crop is harvested to destroy volunteer growth or burn the stubble and straw on the field.

Advanced Monthly Summary of Meteorological Reports for North Carolina, September, 1895. The North Carolina State Weather Service issues the following advanced summary of the weather for September, 1895, as compared with corresponding month of previous years:

TEMPERATURE.—The mean temperature for the month was 74.2 degrees, which is 4.6 degrees above the normal. The highest monthly mean was 78.4 at Newbern; lowest monthly mean 68.6 at Lenoir.

PRECIPITATION.—Average for the month 1.25 inches, which is 3.49 inches below the normal. The greatest amount was 4.89 at Hatteras; least amount 0.05 at Kitty Hawk.

WIND.—Prevailing direction, South-west. The normal direction as shown by the North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station during 1894.

The above is a title of a work issued by the station in connection with the volume "North Carolina Weather During 1894." It includes all the finished work done by the station during 1894.

Will sugar beets be a good feed for hogs and milk cows?—H. W. Newton, N. C. (Answered by F. E. Emery, Agriculturalist, N. C. Experiment Station.)

Co-operative Dairying.

The station has been ready for some time to assist farmers in undertaking some co-operative dairying.

Up to date for over five months one farmer has furnished some milk to the Station Dairy at the Experiment Farm.

As a part of the practice of a special student, this small milk supply was examined, and butter and dairy tests made of the percent of fat. This milk was separated by itself and the skim milk was tested each day.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE POWER OF SCENT.

Instances Showing That Rattlesnakes Have It to a Wonderful Extent. I don't know whether rattlesnakes have the power of scent or not, but from what I have heard, and especially from what I have seen, it would seem to me that they not only have that power, but have it to a most remarkable degree.

"That's a she rattler, and you folks around here want to watch out. Her mate will be along looking for her tomorrow or next day, sure."

"The first time," she said, "that a live rattlesnake was seen around the house in 25 years."

I hurried out, but could see nothing of the snake. It occurred to me then what the native had said about the mate of the dead snake following her.

I perhaps, in spite of the circumstantial evidence against it, would never have believed that this snake was anything else but one that had come casually to the premises if a similar incident hadn't occurred a couple of days later.

Which is the best onion to grow for market in this section?—J. S. D. V., Brinkley, Camden Co., N. C. (Answered by W. E. Massey, Horticulturist, N. C. Experiment Station.)

It depends upon how you propose to sell your onions. If you wish an onion to be early as the green house onion, I would advise you to plant in October sets of the Early Pearl, or of the white potato onion.

Men and Theories. Man is a theory making, theory loving animal, and, as a result, there are about a thousand theories in this world to every solid fact.

When the public says literature, it writes Andrew Lang in his article on "Tendencies in Fiction" in The North American, "the public means novels and new novels. The public does not care for history in philosophy Herbert Spencer has shot his bolt, or rather emptied his quiver, and Darwin is left to the Darwinians. We have indeed Biblical critics, and we have indeed Biblical theology, but they are not new roads for our fathers read them in works of theology, philosophy and history. Modern novelists, reading grave works or articles about them, produce the novel of philosophy, of theology, of 'tendency' and the problem for the pensive but indolent public."

The increase over last year is first class 24, second 4, third 4, fourth 173, widows 42. The total number is 5,143. The allowance for the respective classes will be about as follows: First $66, second $49, third $33, fourth $16 widows $6.

The Richmond Times voices Democratic sentiment in the whole country when it says that the thing succeeded in the United States today is a real Democratic newspaper published in the city of New York. The World three years ago was such a paper, but has failed latterly in important crises. A paper in New York that would preach in season and out of season the everlasting truths upon which real Democracy is founded would pay handsomely, and be a great factor for good.

The University of Virginia was burned last Sunday. The money loss is estimated at two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. There were only ten thousand volumes of the library saved out of a total number of fifty three thousand volumes. The statue of Thos. Jefferson, the founder of the institution was saved by the heroic efforts of the students. The work of the institution is still going on and efforts will at once be made to replace the buildings which have been destroyed by the fire.

Uncle Sam you are going to get licked if you are not careful. Spain has blood in her eye and is spitting fire for you. The New Yorkers had a Cuban celebration the other day and it made Spain mad. She wants the United States to apologize. Uncle Sam has forgot how and does not want to learn over. If Spain wants any apologizing done why come over here and make us, we are not afraid of any country on the globe. Uncle Sam just pelt Spain in the palate and go about your business.

C. L. Abernethy, editor of the Beaufort Herald, has written a letter as a vindication of the people of Beaufort in reference to the insurance cases which have been recently tried there. No one has ever thought that many of the citizens of that town and county were connected with these cases and no blame has been attached to them, but it is very evident that there is a class who have been systematically robbing the insurance companies for some time, and the action of Judge Graham in moving the cases shows that the parties could not be convicted there.

The campaign in Maryland has reached fever heat. It is conceded now that the majority in Baltimore will determine the election. If the usual Democratic majority is given in this city Mr. Gorman will triumph if not he will be beaten. Both sides agree that this is the situation and in consequence Baltimore is stirred from Canon to Druid Hill Park with a turmoil unparalleled. Every issue of the city papers are sensational with charges of what is to be done on both sides on the day of election. The city must give at least ten thousand Democratic majority to save the State and the Democrats are confident of this and some to spare.

The Tobacco Department.

Conducted by O. L. Joyner, Proprietor Eastern Tobacco Warehouse

There were large breaks at all the warehouses Monday.

The Kansas City Times has the following reference to the daughter of Col. J. S. Carr, President of the Blackwell Durham Tobacco Co:

We heard a traveling man say a few days ago that he had had occasion to make some collections in Pitt county this year and he had found the people in better condition and more ready to pay their debts than in any county he had been.

R. J. Little sold eighteen piles of tobacco on the floor of the Eastern Monday. A better sale we have not seen made this year. Of the eighteen piles there were two lots that brought less than 20 cents and those two brought 16-75 and 19-75. The entire lot, and it was all catters, averaged nearly 25 cents.

While in Atlanta a few days ago we were walking around looking at the North Carolina exhibits, and seeing some tobacco taken from the territory along the Seaboard Air Line, we remarked that Eastern North Carolina could beat the world on bright tobacco. A gentleman from South Carolina standing near by, said South Carolina was superior in color to that of any State. We notice, however, that there are numbers of the best Virginia who think to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Southern Tobacco Journal this week gives an illustrated article on six presidents of tobacco association in North Carolina. They are all young men, and the Journal mentions the fact that Mr. G. B. Hughes, president of the Tobacco Board of Trade is one of the youngest men in the State to hold such a responsible position. In a week or two the REFLECTOR will give a good many illustrations of the Greenville tobacco market and the men who have made it. Among them our president P. H. Gorman who by the way is the youngest man in the State holding such a position.

A few days ago we were talking with a farmer who had shipped a lot of tobacco to a distant market. We asked him how he liked his sales, and he said just splendid, that he averaged two dollars a hundred more than he expected. Meeting with such a reply we told him that the only advice we could give was to ship some more, that we believed in selling where the most could be obtained. But, said he, I have a load ready that I am thinking of selling with you to-morrow. This very much surprised us and we asked him what it meant, why did he not continue to ship. (Of course we were glad of an opportunity to sell it.) He said you did not go far enough. The first lot I shipped I got more than I expected, the next lot I thought only sold ordinarily and the last and largest did not bring half as much as I expected, so I concluded that I had better try some again as my fancy prices were only given in order to induce me to carry more to the same place. There are hundreds of just such cases in the eastern section to-day, but the great trouble is the most of them are not frank enough to admit it after they have been taken in.

The engagement is announced of Mr. Harry C. Flower, of this city, to Miss Lida Carr, daughter of Colonel J. S. Carr, of Durham N. C. The wedding will take place this winter. Miss Carr already has a large circle of friends in Kansas City who will welcome her to a permanent residence. She has been the guest on several occasions of Mrs. T. J. Templer and Miss Toss Templer and of other friends. Miss Carr spent the summer in Europe and has just returned to her Southern home. Mr. Flower is one of the most popular and delightful of the young society men of Kansas City. He also passed the summer in Europe, and most of his time is devoted to the perfecting of business plans in Boston. Mr. Flower and his bride will live in Kansas city.

Reader did it ever occur to you that an unfavorable report about anybody or any matter will acquire ten times the impetus that a good one will. A man may perform ninety nine acts of charity and benevolence and if he refuses to go the hundredth one he will be hounded and abused more about the non performance of that one than he will be commended for any ten kind deeds that he has done. A business man may be public spirited and progressive and may open up channels of industry by which hundreds of idle loafers are given employment, and because he neglects to do something which somebody who never did anything for themselves or anybody else thinks ought to have been done, by this unfortunate class with which every community is afflicted this man has failed in his duty. So it is ten heads of tobacco may be shipped to other markets, nine of which may sell for less money than they sold for at home and the tenth probably pay a profit of ten or twenty dollars and you will hear much more about the one that paid the profit than you will the nine that made a loss.

We have noticed it time and again, a man is not half so anxious to let it be known that he has lost money by shipping as he is to tell about the small profits he makes, notwithstanding the fact he is encouraging that which is in direct opposition to his best interests. There seems to be a tendency to keep quiet on the losses, but whenever there is a profit the hills will reverberate with the information. Only a few days ago we were on the cars coming home and noticed some farmers who had been off selling tobacco. We approached and asked one of them how his tobacco sold. Why, said he, I got four dollars a hundred more than I got in Greenville. We asked him what he got in Greenville. He said he had only averaged fourteen cents. We asked him to show us his bills and he began to feel for them saying at the same time that he had not made the calculation himself but they told him it averaged eighteen cents. We asked him, the warehouse folks. By this time he found his bills and we took them, looked over them and asked him if it was the same tobacco that he sold in Greenville. Exactly, he said the same tobacco. We then made the average in the presence of a good many others and showed him that it was less than fourteen cents, taking nothing out for his expenses. His only reply was a blank expression. If that man had sold in Greenville and only averaged fourteen cents we would never have heard the last it. As it was, like the boy the calf ran over he had nothing to say.

Export and Imports.

The exports of domestic leaf tobacco from the United States for the month of August, 1895, amounted to 51,437,992, and stems and trimmings to 695,489 pounds more, a total of 52,133,481 pounds of the value of $4,654,008. For the same month of last year the exports of leaf, stems, etc., amounted to 49,815,023 pounds worth $4,570,972. The increase in pounds is 2,317,558 and in value $83,036. The United Kingdom took 21,778,233 pounds; Germany, 12,676,552 pounds, and France, 4,661,698 pounds.

The cigar exportations were 183,000 valued at $3,773, for August, 1895, and 123,000, valued at $4,231, for August, 1894. Of cigars 45,743,000, valued at $112,201 were exported during August, 1895, and 42,255,000, valued at $122,473, during August, 1894. The value of all other manufactured tobacco exported during August, 1895, was $241,626, and during August, 1894, $243,864.

We imported during August, 1895, 2,762,618 pounds of leaf of the value of $1,539,119, and during the same month last year, 1,816,959 pounds of the value of $1,325,929.—Southern Journal.

TO THE TOBACCO FARMERS

Just stop, think, consider where you can best protect your interest in disposing of your Tobacco crop.

For four year we have worked hard and spent our money in building and placing the Greenville Tobacco Market in the front rank of the leading Tobacco Markets of the world. Since Greenville first had a Tobacco Warehouse we have been on the grounds working day and night to acquire the best possible knowledge of how to sell the farmers tobacco to the best advantage and now after four years of difficult toil we want to say to all who have tobacco to sell that we believe we are in a better position than any Warehouse firm in Eastern North Carolina to get the highest market price for your product. So with this we make our politest bow asking for a continuance and an increase of your patronage, only upon the strictest business merit. We have no special pets to whom fancy prices are given at the expense of less favored ones but our undivided personal attention is given to every pile of your tobacco and if your interest should at any time be neglected our attention only needs to be called to it and cheerfully and willingly all wrongs will be righted. Our opinion is that Tobacco is selling very well for the quality offered and from now on we expect a lively market. So when you get ready to sell just hook up and drive straight to the old reliable Eastern headquarters for high prices, good averages and all round courteous treatment.

THE REFLECTOR

Local Reflections.

Eleventh month. Sixth day of November. The year is five sixths gone. Beware of the man who defends any kind of evil. Every young man must either go up the stream or drift down. Corn shuckin' and coon hunts are making the nights merry. Perhaps there will be more water in the wells now. There were several land sales before the Court House door Monday. The State Sunday School Convention meets in Goldsboro on the 23rd. The dry weather has made chrysanthe mum bloom as scarcer than usual. FURNITURE cheaper than ever before at J. B. Cherry & Co. The Edgecombe Guard, of Tarboro, will visit the Atlanta Exposition. The streets now show what a great mud a little rain creates. When the leaves all leave the trees will be left bare in the cold. Some repairs to the streets and sidewalk bridges has been going on this week. When the foot feels his mouth every one with good eyes can see clear through his head. Just received a Car-load Flour, none cheaper and better than that offered by J. B. Cherry & Co. Mrs. Kinton is having a dwelling built near the public school house in Forbestown. Washington and Kinston will both help swell Greenville's population to-morrow. Buy your Macintosh and Rubber Coats at J. B. Cherry & Co.'s and save money. If some of the girls are not careful how they wear their hearts on the outside they will lose them. For Guns and Ammunition call on J. B. Cherry & Co.'s. Were it not for bicycles the comic illustrated papers would have a hard job getting subjects to cart on. The next important date is the wedding, then comes Thanksgiving day, all in this month. Miss Lida Carr, daughter of Col. J. S. Carr, of Durham, is soon to be married to Mr. H. C. Flower, of Kansas City. Sunset comes quick these evenings and the days have got nearly two months yet to grow shorter in. The best line of Shoes, Boots, Hats and Caps, neatest, nobbiest and most stylish, for sale by J. B. Cherry & Co. We hear that G. B. Braxton was badly cut by a man named Moore in a difficulty at Ayden Wednesday. It is reported that Minister Ransom's son advises his father to resign and return home on account of ill health. A large line of the celebrated R & G Corsets at J. B. Cherry & Co.'s. The ladies specially invited to inspect them. Draw the comparison when and where you will, and the Greenville to-bee market has its own beside any market in the State. Boys are apt to be forgetful about a good many things, but they do not often start off to school on Saturday morning. The Register of Deeds office in the Court House has been moved across the passage to the Grand Jury room, to give room for the building of the vaults. Do you want a stove at the old price. These buy before Dec. 1st, the price will be advanced on that date. D. D. HASSETT. The REFLECTOR has received from the publisher, J. H. Ennis, a copy of Turner's Almanac for 1896. Turner's is the old reliable. It looks almost like a factory to see the quantities of furniture loading and unloading at J. B. Cherry & Co.'s. Their handlings in this line are simply immense. For an easy and comfortable Rocking Chair to please your wife or daughter, sweetheart or mother. Call and see our stock both beautiful and good, at J. B. Cherry & Co. There was a slight fire at the Greenville Lumber Co's mill this morning. The whistle blew an alarm but the fire was extinguished before any damage of consequence was done. 4th Quarterly Conference will be held in Ayden, Friday Nov. 8, 1895. Preaching at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. by Rev. G. A. Oglesby. At 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the residence of Thomas Langley, near Greenville, Miss Lena Hatton was married to John Hines, of Ayden. The REFLECTOR extends best wishes. FOR SALE—A farm containing 10 acres, within corporate limits, fine truck and tobacco land, fruit orchard, dwelling and all necessary out houses. Apply to J. White, Greenville, N. C. We have noticed from the Herald that prices paid for cotton in Salisbury, a town with several factories, are up to and often ahead of Norfolk quotations. Can you see in this where the advantage of having cotton factories comes in? From the way that occupants come in for new houses as fast as they are completed it can be judged that it is profitable to build houses in Greenville. The population of the town grows steadily and houses are not allowed to remain vacant. Wakenhouse easy and good wear for the feet. You can't go wrong with them, they are rights and left. For sale by J. B. Cherry & Co. The Coast Line will sell round trip tickets from Greenville to the Rocky Mount Fair, including one admission to the fair, for $1.50. Proportional low rates from other stations in this county.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 1st. President Cleveland has, in accordance with his usual custom, moved from the White House out to his suburban residence in order to be able to put in more time upon his message to Congress than he could possibly when liable to almost constant interruption from callers whom he would not care to decline seeing. These he is entirely free from at his suburban residence, as no one goes there to call upon him, unless specially invited. While not stated as a certainty, there are good reasons for the belief that his annual message to Congress will not deal with the diplomatic controversy with England over the application of the Monroe doctrine in Venezuela further than to say that the whole subject will be fully treated in a special message which will follow the annual message and be accompanied by the diplomatic correspondence. The President and every member of his cabinet are well pleased with the present status of this Venezuela matter, and very confident that they will be still better pleased a little later. A diplomatic victory is preferable to one achieved by the use of powder and ball, in some cases. And this is one of the real purposes of the public meeting held last night, for the avowed purpose of expressing the sympathy of the citizens of Washington for the Cuban revolutionists, was to embarrass the administration and make republican partisan capital it was furnished in great big chunks by the names of those who controlled the meeting, made the speeches and wrote the resolutions adopted. Every man of them was a republican. The presiding officer was the notorious "corporal" Tanner; the writer the resolutions was Dr. Rankin, president of the Howard University, the negro college which is partly maintained at public expense, and the only woman speaker was Mrs. John A. Logan. Ex-Congressman Bynum, of Indiana, is one of the few men who regards Mr. Harrison's chances for the republican nomination as being ahead of either those of Reed, McKinley or Allison. He says Mr. Harrison is stronger with his party in Indiana than ever before and that the Indiana Republicans are going to get him nominated, if such a thing is possible. Speaking of the Democratic nomination Mr. Bynum said: "On the Democratic side there is much talk in favor of Col. Morrison, and he has many friends in all parts of the country. My opinion is that eventually Democratic sentiment will center on Secretary Carlisle. He is well liked in the north and east, and in the south his nomination would create tremendous enthusiasm. Representative Foreman, of Illinois, who has been on the stump in Kentucky, Maryland and New Jersey, arrived in Washington this week. He says he hasn't the slightest doubt that all three states will go Democratic. Secretary Olney has received a copy of the proceedings of the French court martial which sentenced the negro Waller, who is Ex-U. S. Consul, to twenty years imprisonment under the charge of having betrayed french military movements in Madagascar, and the wife of the imprisoned man has given the Secretary all the information in her possession, documentary and otherwise. It cannot be stated what Mr. Olney thinks of the case, but others who have had access to the information regard the outlook for Waller as a bad one, and say that the case has been misrepresented for political effect by certain Republican newspapers. Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Ambassador, and Secretary Olney are engaged in negotiating a convention to determine the amount of damages sustained by the owners of Canadian sealing vessels which were seized in Bering Sea by this government before the arbitration of the claims of the two countries. It is expected that it will be completed before Congress meets. For more than a hundred years the Shakers have been studying the remedial properties of plants. They have made many discoveries, but their greatest achievement was made last year. It is a cordial that contains already digested food and is a digester of food. It is effective in removing distress after eating, and creates an appetite for more food so that eating becomes a pleasure. Also, thin people become plump and healthy under its use. It arrests the wasting of consumption. There never has been such a step forward in the cure of indigestion as this Snaker Cordial. Your druggist will be glad to give you a little book descriptive of the product. Give the babies LAXOL, which is Castor Oil made as palatable as honey.

A WISE MOVE.

The County Commissioners Will Sell the Market House Lot. Pitt county has a wise and progressive Board of Commissioners. They are thorough business men and their acts show that they have the best interests of the county at heart. In the last few years they have inaugurated many improvements that speak volumes to their credit and promise of great benefit to the people. Among these may be mentioned the dam across the lowlands north of the river bridge at Greenville, the improvements at the County Home, the bridge across Grindle creek at the Carney place, and so on. Then at their October meeting they gave out a contract for building vaults in the Court House for the preservation and protection of county records, something that has long been needed. Now this has been followed up with another step, which we believe the people generally will commend. At this meeting on Monday they passed an order to offer for sale the entire lot in front of the Court House, upon which the Market House is situated, and apply the proceeds to paying for the vaults and making some other needed improvements about the Court House, thus saving the necessity of drawing on the people for taxes to meet these payments. This lot as it stands is not bringing a penny of revenue to the county, and the only way to obtain any benefit from it is to sell it. The county gave the town permission to place a Market House upon the property, which with its surroundings affords the greatest exposure and advantage to be found in town. The REFLECTOR believes a large majority of the people of Greenville would rejoice to see this Market House removed and its obnoxious surroundings wiped out. Even if the contrary were true, the county is under no obligation to sacrifice a desirable lot to a use from which no benefit is derived, when by selling it and using the funds as they propose the entire county will be materially and permanently benefitted. The Commissioners have made a wise move, and the people are with them in it. SEVERAL FIGHTS. Knives, Sticks and Guns Come Into Play. Friday evening and night there were several disturbances here. Just before night two colored men had a fight out near the depot. One cut the other badly on the arm and head, which so enraged the cut man that he pulled a pailing off the fence and beat his assailant almost into insensibility. Parties rushed to the scene in time to prevent a possible murder. After night a fight originated in the bar room near the depot between some of the circus laborers and some negroes. The fight continued outside and another man was cut and one or two knocked down. Later in the night two white men from near the border of Pitt and Edgecombe went to a house of ill repute on the river. As they went to leave the house some one secreted on the outside fired at them with a gun, filling them both pretty full of bird shot. At last accounts Dr. Laughing-house had picked 40 shot out of one of the men and 27 out of the other, and there was still lead in them. Another Industry. Riverside Nurseries has started a new enterprise, that of wine manufacturing. Sheriff Warren tells us he never saw such a bountiful grape crop as grew this season. The Nurseries alone shipped 5,000 pounds besides having a great many to convert into wine wine. The people of the town seem to be taking no interest in the application for a street car right of way that went before the Town Council at last meeting. It will not be before the Council meets again and they should be given an idea as to the wishes of the people in this matter.

SELLS BROTHERS CIRCUS.

It is a Great Show and Delights Thousands of People. Greenville was just a moving mass of humanity on Friday. People were here from everywhere and filled the stores, windows, tops of buildings and every available place of view. The women and children were here in force. Everybody was bent on seeing the elephants and old John Lowlow the famous clown. The colored brother with his sweetheart, holding her by the hand, was parading every part of the town to see the sights. The young man with his best girl was going back and forth up the streets for fear he would not see it all, making inquiry as to when the parade would start. There must have been fully 10,000 people on the streets by 11 o'clock. The parade was a grand affair, the animals in their respective cages were excellent specimens and in fine condition, the cages neat and new. The horses looked splendid. The show was up to what was on the bills. 5,000 people were under the tent. John Lowlow the prince of clowns was in good trim, though somewhat showing age from his forty years career in the ring. He has perhaps brought smiles to the faces of more people than any other living man, in addition to being chief clown, Mr. Lowlow is also the special Press Agent of the circus and in this capacity comes in close touch with the newspaper men. He took such a liking to the REFLECTOR household that he dropped in several times during the morning and came back after supper to sit with us while his train was making up to leave. He is as social, pleasant and entertaining as any gentleman we ever met. He is a gallant Southerner, a Georgian by birth and was educated at the University of North Carolina. Falkland Items. FALKLAND, N. C., Nov 1st, 1895. We were glad to see the rain yesterday. Gov. Elias Carr lost about eighty bales of cotton by fire yesterday morning. No insurance. M. L. Mr. Waters will leave for home today and return next week, when he will finish the survey. Soon we can boast of two rail roads, which will make things hustle around us. A Good Plant. The Greenville Lumber Co. have about completed the work of improving and enlarging their plant. A band saw has been put in, brick and steel dry kilns built and the capacity of the mill very greatly increased. It is now one of the best equipped lumber mills in the State and an enterprise in which Greenville should take pride and give a hearty encouragement. There are no more obliging, courteous gentlemen than the proprietors, Hines & Hamilton. Unusual Attraction. Common Sense Reasoning. Hood's Sarsaparilla Had Cured Others, and it Cured Me. "It was sixteen years ago my right leg began to swell and pain. Four years ago it broke out in three dreadful sores. I tried all kinds of salves and liniments but it made the sores become worse. I had to walk on crutches and a greater part of the time was confined to my bed. I could not sleep nights and my eyes became affected. I have worn glasses for over six years. Since I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills two of the worst sores on my limb have healed and the third is almost closed. My nose eyes have been benefited as I can see to read and write and no thread my needle for sewing without the use of glasses. I came to use Hood's Sarsaparilla by noticing advertisements. I reasoned that what has cured others would cure me and it has proved so. Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills. It is a splendid medicine." Mrs. KEZIA WESTBROOK, Manning, Michigan. Hood's Pills cure habitual constipation. Price 25c per box.

BEAUTY AND HEALTH.

An Actress Tells How Death of Zinc May Be Obtained.

It is clearly demonstrated now that people can be fat or lean just as they like if they choose to take the trouble, and there is no use in their going about either like a bean pole or a feather ball. Some months ago I was getting too stout for the part I wanted to play, so for five weeks I ate nothing but beef and drank nothing but hot water with a little lemon in it. Tea and coffee are bad for the complexion anyway. All my tendency to fleshiness disappeared. Again a year ago some bones became visible in my neck. I got frightened and immediately set to work to change everything in my diet for things that were fattening. Those bones would not have come in my neck but that I had been foolish enough to worry about something. You know occasionally you can't help worrying. That season I ate bananas in every shape and form and at all hours at which I could cram them. I ate them with cream most of the time, and I ate everything else recommended as flesh producing. Every day it seemed to me a thicker layer of flesh formed over those bones, and I soon had the gratification of seeing them disappear altogether.

"Now, while I am just right, I eat what I like and always drink Rhine wine for dinner. As regards complexion, that is a great thing, and it has to be guarded and cared for as zealously as a mother cares for her newborn babe. I never neglect to stay for one solid hour each morning in a hot bath, and I find that keeps the complexion in splendid condition. Then I am very careful about anointing my face, neck and arms with the best quality of cold cream every night and every time there is any makeup to take off. When I go into the sun, I put a good lot of cold cream on my face and cover it thick with cornstarch—that proves a sure protection against both the salt water and the sun.

"If a woman wants to be good looking," she added, "she must make an idol of her physique and devote the same time and attention to it that other people devote to other things which they worship. Women who go in for art and music spend hours each day in cultivating themselves in those pursuits. The domestic woman devotes her time to her children and the affairs of her household. Just so an actress devotes her time to her physical well-being. Her good looks are a large part of her stock in trade, and she is compelled to care for them. It is a weariness, such constant grooming, and occasionally I sigh for seclusion, and the freedom of a sack and skirt and the feeling that I need not consider whether or not my hair has been shampooed or my nails received their hour's polishing. There are so many hundred things to be done in the way of physical improvement. Of course every now and again, as often as it seems needful, one must undergo a Turkish bath, and the ordeal can't be hurried under any circumstances."—New York Times.

Rules of the Road.

It is the long established custom in this country that vehicles meeting on any street or highway shall turn to the right. Some suppose that this is the unwritten law of the road, but as a matter of fact it is the statute books. A special section defines that bicycles, wagons, carts, sleighs, carriages, motorcycles and all other vehicles are included. A person driving is properly required to have the left wheels of his vehicle at the right of the center of the street. In a word, the statute is an authoritative adoption of Uncle David Gray's motto of "Fair play and half the road." While bicycles are included as enjoying this privilege and horsemen are required to extend to them the same courtesy they would another restriction is put upon wheelmen and wheelwomen. They, too, must turn to the right, and if they fail to do so and a collision occurs they have no one but themselves to hold legally accountable. A good natured observance of the law on the part of all concerned will result in absolute safety and freedom from accident.—Utica Press.

A Remarkable Man.

In the delivery department of a Sixth avenue dry goods store is a man with a remarkable memory. He has charge of all the goods which are returned by the drivers because of mistakes in addresses. He never forgets a name or address and often corrects mistakes in the records of the department. He knows the character and appearance of every block in the city and can describe any house upon hearing its number. He describes his remarkable knowledge of the city to the fact that he has passed many years in driving a delivery wagon.—New York Times.

The Seven Ages.

First Age—Sees the earth.
Second Age—Wants it.
Third Age—Tries to get it.
Fourth Age—Concludes to take only a large piece of it.
Fifth Age—Is still more moderate in his demands.
Sixth Age—Decides to be satisfied with a very small section.
Seventh Age—Gets it.—Judge.

How do the Pops like the way their newly elected fusion Judges voted it over them. The humble countryman must not appear in their presence without wearing a coat. He must not stand up in the court room and be must not wear creaking shoes. In one instance do we know of a Democratic Judge ever having tried to put confusion and shame upon an innocent, unsuspecting man, and that judge, we believe, afterwards turned Populist. Compare the courtesy, dignity and respectfulness of Judges like Holt to the uppishness of these new Judges, and you have the difference between Democracy and Fusionism.—Charlotte Times.

Fearful Punishment.

A young negro was arrested at Lougview, Gregg county, Texas, charged with the murder of Mrs. Leonard Bell, near Tyler, the county seat of Smith, an adjoining county. He was taken back to Tyler, and there by a mob taken from the officers, removed to the scene of his fiendish crime, and then slowly roasted to death.

There is a move to put fourth-class post masters under the Civil Service.

This might take that part of the postal service out of politics, but it would be necessary to import postmasters. It is very often the rural districts, late, and I won't expect you to pay me anything at all for what I do. Please let me come, won't you?"

Greatly moved by the child's earnest appeal, the proprietor began to question her.

"Why are you so anxious to come back and work hard all day for nothing?"

"His question brought forth the following confession: "You see," said the child, "my papa hasn't got any work. Every morning he goes out to look for work. And when he comes home at night and he hasn't got any work mamma cries, and then that most always makes papa cry, too, and when I see them both crying, I get crying too. If you will let me come here and work, I shall be at home when papa comes in, so I won't have to see him cry, besides, besides."

"Well, what is it?"

"You see, when I worked here I saw lots of salesladies that brought too much lunch double up what they did not want and throw it away. Then I, quick as a little mouse, gathered all those up and put them together, and without anybody seeing it put them in my lunch basket, so when I got home at night papa and mamma had something for their supper. So if you'll let me I would like to come back here and work for you, and I won't charge you anything."

"I turned away from the child lest she should see me cry, too," said the kind hearted man who related the story, "but I told her that she might go to work that morning. I investigated the case and learned that what she said was only part of the story of uncomplaining suffering. Her father has a place now where he is earning $15 a week."

"And the child?"

"Oh, yes, she is around here on the floor somewhere, but I guess I won't show her to you. If I were to do so, the first thing I know I should see one of the artists attached to your paper making a sketch or taking a snap shot of her. She is a good little daughter. Her goodness has had its reward. Let us not spoil her sweet modesty by giving her a copy of Illustrated."

BEAUTY AND HEALTH.

An Actress Tells How Both of Them May be Obtained.

It is clearly demonstrated now that people can be fat or lean just as they like if they choose to take the trouble, and there is no use in their going about either like a bean pole or a feather bed. Some months ago I was getting too stout for the part I wanted to play, so for five weeks I ate nothing but beef and drank nothing but hot water with a little lemon in it. Ten and coffee are bad for the complexion anyway. All my tendency to fleshiness disappeared. Again a year ago some bones became visible in my neck. I got frightened and immediately set to work to change everything in my diet for things that were fattening. Those bones would not have come in my neck but that I had been foolish enough to worry about something. You know occasionally you can't help worrying. That season I ate bananas in every shape and form and at all hours at which I could cram them. I ate them with cream most of the time, and I ate everything else recommended as flesh producing. Every day it seemed to me a thicker layer of flesh formed over those bones, and I soon had the gratification of seeing them disappear altogether.

"Now, while I am just right, I eat what I like and always drink Rhine wine for dinner. As regards complexion, that is a great thing, and it has to be guarded and cared for as zealously as a mother cares for her newborn babe. I never neglect to stay for one solid hour each morning in a hot bath, and I find that keeps the complexion in splendid condition. Then I am very careful about anointing my face, neck and arms with the best quality of cold cream every night and every time there is any makeup to take off. When I go into the sun, I put a good lot of cold cream on my face and cover it thick with cornstarch—that proves a sure protection against both the salt water and the sun.

"If a woman wants to be good looking," she added, "she must make an idol of her physique and devote the same time and attention to it that other people devote to other things which they worship. Women who go in for art and music spend hours each day in cultivating themselves in those pursuits. The domestic woman devotes her time to her children and the affairs of her household. Just so an actress devotes her time to her physical well being. Her good looks are a large part of her stock in trade, and she is compelled to care for them. It is a weariness to the spirit, though, sometimes, such constant grooming, and occasionally I sigh for seclusion, the freedom of a sack and skirt and the feeling that I need not consider whether or not my hair has been shampooed or my nails received their hour's polishing. There are so many hundred things to be done in the way of physical improvement. Of course every now and again, as often as it seems needful, one must undergo a Turkish bath, and the ordeal can't be hurried under any circumstances."—New York Times.

CHRISTMAN'S OINTMENT

TRADE MARK

For the Cure of all Skin Diseases

This Preparation has been in use over fifty years, and wherever known has been in steady demand. It has been endorsed by the leading physicians all over the country, and has effected cures where all other remedies, with the attention of the most experienced physicians, have long standing and the high reputation which it has obtained is owing entirely to its own efficacy, as but little effort has been made to bring it before the public. One bottle of this Ointment will be sent to any address on receipt of One Dollar. All Cash Orders promptly attended to. Address all orders and communications to

THE PENN MUTUAL LIFE

INS. CO. OF PHILADELPHIA, ORGANIZED 1847.

Assets 25,000,000. Surplus over 3,000,000.

R. B. Rainey, State Agt. RALEIGH, N. C.

The Old Penn Mutual is the best managed Life Insurance Company in America. It furnishes all kinds of policies at lowest possible rates consistent with absolute security. It may not pay as large commissions to agents as some other companies, but its low rate of expense, low death rate, immense surplus, large dividends and indulgence to its policy-holders, render it the Company in which to insure. Its policies are absolutely incontestable, and after three years cannot be forfeited. Money loaned on policies, paid up insurance granted or policies carried by the Company for a number of years.
