It is but little over a month now to the next town election. A progressive Board of Councilmen should be elected and it is time to be looking around for the right men.

An esteemed contemporary heads an editorial, "Let the Devil Alone." Most men are willing to obey that injunction, but the trouble is the devil won't let them alone.

Mayor Forbes says that wherever he went on his recent trip he found people talking about Greenville. All were eager to know about the enterprises going on down this way.

Mr. Gordin will place the old Methodist parsonage building, which he is having moved, on Dickinson avenue near the Presbyterian church, instead of on Pitt street. He will make two houses out of the old one.

The Old Dominion Steamship Co., will give excursion rates on Steamer Tar River to the races in Greenville, April 15th and 16th. The Steamer will be held at Greenville on the 16th until after the races.

Mr. W. J. Cowell has taken the contract to build three brick stores for Mrs. M. A. Jarvis on the site where her other stores were burned. He tells us that the new stores will be much better buildings than the old ones.

One day last week a young man giving his name as George Williams, hired a horse at J. F. King's livery and a horse to go in the country. Neither Williams nor the horse have been heard from since. King offers a reward for recovery of the horse.

Soldier's Picnic.

The Confederate soldiers of Pitt county will have a picnic and fish fry at Centre Bluff on April 24th. All are very earnestly requested to carry a basket and plenty of bread. Every old soldier is expected to get word to all other comrades so that all may be advised in time. The table will be under the supervision of that true and tried old veteran, Ruel Willoughby, who will be assisted by W. H. Wilkinson, A. D. Hill, Elder Samuel Moore, Albert Jones, C. D. Rountree, Elihu Briley, Ferd Ward, L. W. Lawrence, Paul Harrington, T. A. Nichols and J. A. Bullock. Let the old veterans come out and make this a pleasant day.

Training Stables.

Mr. J. H. Sumner, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived in Greenville Friday night. Mr. Sumner is a member of a firm of horse trainers and was looking for a place in a good climate where there is a good track, to locate his training stables. Only a short while here was necessary to convince him that Greenville is the place he was looking for, and he has arranged with the Greenville Driving Association for the use of their track for twelve months. Mr. Sumner tells the REFLECTOR that he now has in his charge seventeen young horses belonging to rich northerners and he has already ordered these horses shipped to Greenville. He will build stables for them out at the track and will put the track in thorough condition for training these horses.

Two Splendid Sermons.

Those who worshipped at the Baptist church Sunday certainly heard two elegant sermons. The subject of the morning discourse was "The Wilderness Temptation." It was a thoughtful, tender, pleasing and instructive sermon. At night the theme was: "Poverty at the Gate of Wealth." These conditions as they exist at present in our country were strongly portrayed. The evils which are resulting, and which will continue to result from these extremes were shown in a manner which carried conviction to every hearer. Lastly the remedies were suggested and emphasized with force and effect. We don't know when we have heard a more timely discourse than this was. Rev. Mr. Wells is growing upon his people, and his congregation is more than delighted with him as their pastor.

Just received a new supply of job material. Some beautiful linen letter heads. Come, let us put you up a thousand.

Nice Barber Shop.

Died.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Check, whose illness was mentioned in Tuesday's REFLECTOR, died Tuesday evening about 8:30 o'clock. The remains were taken to Raleigh this morning for burial. The family have the sympathy of our people.

Mending the Fences.

E. A. Holton, chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee spent Sunday afternoon and night here giving pointers to some of the underlings. He had a caucus with Claude Forbes and Tom Wilks, both colored, at the depot Monday before taking his departure.

Excursion Rates to the Races.

The Atlantic Coast Line has made excursion rates over its roads to the races of the Greenville Driving Association April 15th and 16th. The rates will be one first-class fare for the round trip from any point and ticket will be good throughout the entire week in which the races occur.

Soon Be Ready.

Mr. S. C. Hamilton informs us that work has commenced on the building for the electric light plant. The arrival of the machinery for the plant is expected daily and we may now expect for all to be in readiness for turning on the lights within a few weeks. This will be a substantial improvement for Greenville.

Street Talk.

There is talk of opening Fifth street to the branch east of town and extending the roadway in a straight course on through Mr. W. H. Harrington's property. If the plan is carried out it will open a number of splendid building lots on Mr. Harrington's place. There is no better property anywhere convenient to the town.

Of ill health, despondency and despair, gives way to the sunshine of hope, happiness and health, upon taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it gives renewed life and vitality to the blood, and through that imparts nerve strength, vigor and energy to the whole body. Read "Hood's Star" which wonderfully changed sickness to health, gloom to sunshine. No pen can describe what I suffered. I was deathly sick, had sick headaches every few days and those terrible tired, despondent feelings, with nerve troubles so that I could not get up and Goes to Asheville.

The Executive Committee of the Teacher's Assembly have decided that the next session will be held in Asheville. The meetings have been held for the last nine consecutive years at Morehead.

We are inclined to believe that the crowd at the Assembly would be larger this year if it had been held at Morehead again. Our people will be sorry to know that it has gone so far. Greenville has been furnishing a large number at each session of the body for several years. However, it will be a nice, cheap trip to Asheville. The hotels have put their rates at one dollar per day.

GET A GOOD SAFE.

GREENVILLE, N. C., Feb. 26th, 1896.

J. L. SUGG, Agent Victor Safe Co., Greenville, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—I am pleased to say that the Victor Safe you sold me some five or six years ago preserved in fact all its contents in the late fire in Greenville on the 14th inst. The safe stood at a point in my office in the Opera House block that must have been one of the hottest parts in the great conflagration. It contained many papers and other things of value. When it was taken out of the ruins and opened, some twelve hours after the fire, everything in it was found to be safely preserved and in good condition. I cheerfully make this statement of facts in recognition of the valuable service rendered me by this safe and you are at liberty to make such use of it as you may see proper.
