Tuesday night at Bethel, Henry Cole broke in Knox's store and stole; Wednesday he gave his girl cologne, which proved to be some he had stolen.

MURDER IN SECOND DEGREE.

Such is the Verdict of the Jury—Sentenced 20 Years in Penitentiary.

At the opening of Court Thursday at 9:30 o'clock, The Jenkins, Lanier Jenkins and George Davis were brought into Court to answer the charge of murder.

The regular jury for the week was first called and seven of them excused, the other five being retained on the murder case.

When Court opened Friday morning counsel for the defense announced that they would offer no testimony, but would go to the jury on what had been introduced by the State.

Friday evening the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. Judge Boykin passed sentence upon the two Jenkins boys, giving them each 20 years in the penitentiary.

Following is a brief synopsis of particulars of the murder: On the evening of January 11th Patrick Whitehurst was in Bethel. He was drinking some. A crowd of negroes led by William Jenkins, the Jenkins Lanier Jenkins and George Davis were following Whitehurst taunting him with songs and trying to provoke him into a difficulty.

The tobacco boys took Monday off, and with a few invited friends resorted to Golf Landing for an old fashioned fish fry. The fun they had was immense, and the way they disappeared was a wonder.

A warrant was at once issued against William Jenkins and he was arraigned before a Magistrate on Monday following. The seriousness of Whitehurst's injury not being known Jenkins was released after giving a $200 for his appearance at Court.

At 8 o'clock Thursday night the cry of fire was raised in the jail. A crowd rushed there and Sheriff King with others went in. The smell of burning cloth was very distinct, but a close examination failed to disclose any fire.

Tuesday night at Bethel, Henry Cole broke in Knox's store and stole; Wednesday he gave his girl cologne, which proved to be some he had stolen. Thursday he went to Greenville came, Knox and a Constable did the same.

GET A GOOD SAFE

GREENVILLE, N. C., Feb. 26th, 1896. J. L. SUGG, Agent Victor Safe Co., Greenville, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—I am pleased to say that the Victor Safe you sold me some five or six years ago preserved in tact all its contents in the late fire in Greenville on the 16th inst. The safe stood at a point in my office in the Opera House block that must have been one of the hottest parts in the great conflagration. It contained many papers and other things of value. When it was taken out of the ruins and opened, some twelve hours after the fire, everything in it was found to be safely preserved and in good condition. I cheerfully make this statement of facts in recognition of the valuable service rendered me by this safe and you are at liberty to make such use of it as you may see proper.

THOS. J. JARVIS.

The Victor Safe is made in all sizes, convenient for home, farm, office or general business use. Every Safe sold with a guarantee to be fire proof. Prices range from $15 up.
